LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Otto, Buenger from Sleepy Eye made a short visit in New Ulm, calling on old friends and acquaintances. They returned home Saturday.

Miss Esther Renner from Comfrey spent several days during the week visiting with her cousin Miss Eleanor Emmerich and with friends in the city. She returned home on Monday.

Miss Lenora Langmack visited with relatives in Springfield last week. Her friends, Miss Dorothy Schroeder and Miss Florence Altermatt, returned with her and spent several days at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Schilling and two daughters from Springfield visited at the home of Mrs. C. Schilling, Sunday. They came to be present at the Golden Jubilee services.

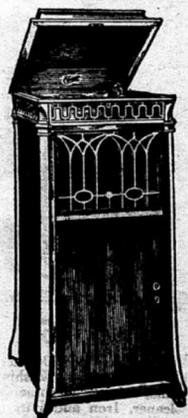

Armin Blauert returned to Wayne, Wis., Monday after spending a two weeks' vacation at his home in this city. He is employed as assistant cashier in one of the banks of that city.

Hayden Hofmeister has again returned to his home in this city. After returning from overseas duty he went with a band which made a concert tour through Indiana, all the band members being men who had been overseas.

Ferdinand Ochs and Joseph Welter returned to their homes in this city Saturday afternoon. Both of the boys have been overseas for a number of months. They look well and say it feels splendid to be among familiar faces again.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Engel received a telegram from their son Jacob last week carrying the good news that he was leaving foreign shores on June seventh. It is expected that he will arrive in the states this week and return here soon after.

Oren F. McGraw and Miss Flossie Jenkins were united in marriage at the parsonage of the local Friedens church Saturday afternoon at five o'clock, by Rev. Geo. Mayer. Miss Laura Mayer and W. H. Jenkins were the witnesses. The young people reside some nine miles out of Springfield.

THE NEW EDISON
"The Phonograph With a Soul"
Is the world's most wonderful musical instrument, because it gives you in your own home every form of music, just as the music is heard on the world's great opera stages and concert platforms. Come to our store and make your selection. If it is not convenient to pay cash, tell us confidentially what terms will be convenient.

John D. Notwehr has returned to his home in Nicollet, having sufficiently recovered to leave the hospital where he was receiving treatment since last winter for a badly fractured limb.

There will be no Sunday school or Sunday morning services at the Friedens church on Sunday. Rev. Mayer and delegate Frank Wandersee will be at Norwood to attend a convention.

Henry Lowinski visited at the home of his father-in-law Fred Schleisner in Sleepy Eye several days during the week. His family who had been there for several weeks returned home with him.

Discharged soldiers of Nicollet county will be honored guests at a Fourth of July celebration, which is to be held in St. Peter. Plans have been made to have the celebration county wide in character and a fitting tribute to the fighting men.

Cook Henry Weier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weier of Brighton township, arrived home from overseas duty last Saturday. He recently won first prize in the cooking contest at the military tournament and field meet of the eighty-eighth division.

Frank Kuehn who recently completed a term of teaching at Bertha, Minn., spent several days visiting with his people in this vicinity. He has left for Minneapolis where he will attend summer school at the University and continue his course as a student of that institution.

Wenzel Schnobrich, for many years a farmer in the Town of Cottonwood and for the past ten years a successful and prosperous farmer near Arlington, was in the city Friday, having completed a week's visit among relatives and friends near Heron Lake. While here he purchased three lots and he expects to come to New Ulm to live in the near future.

During the past week, Jos. N. Schaefer of this city sold one of his farms in the Town of Cottonwood to his son Arthur P. Schaefer and another farm to his son Francis J. Schaefer. Mr. Schaefer, Sr., intends to take life easy here in the city, but expects to help the boys during the harvest time so that he will not lose touch entirely with the farming proposition.

William Krahmer from near Welcome was in the city last week and purchased two lots from Mrs. Margaret Eichmann and expects to build a home here this summer. He recently sold his farm for $81,000 and feels that the income from this snug sum will keep him the balance of his days and permit of his playing Skat, a pastime that he enjoys very much.
