CONDITIONS ARE STILL BAD.

Lutheran Commissioner In Berlin Writes About Food Situation In German Cities.

In a communication to the Lutheran Bureau of the National Lutheran Council in New York City, Rev. G. A. Fandrey, one of the Lutheran Commissioners of Europe, says about the conditions in Germany:

Prof. Morehead has once more gone to Warsaw, and I shall go back to Leipzig today. Food conditions are a good deal better in Leipzig than they are in Berlin. Whitebread in small quantities is there obtainable, and you can even get butter. The best hotels in Berlin have neither. It is a pathetic sight here to see men and women of high social standing enter first class hotels with little parcels of cheese and meat and little cups of butter, which they are somehow and somewhere able to purchase and over which they watch as costly treasures, to replenish the very frugal breakfast, which these hotels serve. So many men and quite a number of women show the marks of the long period of starvation, through which they have just passed on their faces. They look five years older, their eyes are sunk, and have bags under them.

Outwardly, the appearance of Berlin has improved since I first came here. The streets look clean, the shops seem better stocked and today crowds of well dressed and well behaved people fill the streets. You hear a good deal of complaint about deterioration of manners and morals. I have seen little of it, though I have tried to make studies in street cars, on trains, in shops and other places where the plain people gather. They treat one another with a good deal of courtesy, and Pastor Schuh has repeatedly been given a seat in crowded cars by young men and young women. I have seen no drunken people. Sundays the shops are closed, and you cannot even buy a cigar. In this country where it is so difficult to obtain the little luxuries of life to which we are accustomed, you almost crave the luxury of a smoke. I have often wondered what the mental state of these people is. It gives one the impressions of quiet resignation, of helpless acceptance of the inevitable.

Everybody is speaking of the unavoidable breakdown that is coming, and no one seems to know how to prevent it. The future of these people looks dark, and they know it. They can see no ray of hope ahead, and so they try to do the best they know: Forget. Sometimes one opens his heart to you. Recently a lady asked me: Do you think our country will come back, or is this a dying Nation?

STATE IS WEALTHY.

Cash Balance of Over Ten Million In the Treasury.

Establishing a new high record, the state began business Saturday with a cash balance of $10,187,256 in the state treasury. The corresponding total a year ago was $9,215,123.

A statement issued by Henry Rines, state treasurer, showed also another record in a general school fund balance of $1,908,068.

Other large fund balances included $5,292,320 in the revenue fund $318,015 in the road and bridge fund, $463,026 in the general university fund, and $384,888 in the permanent school fund. The state soldiers' bonus fund showed a balance of $40,044 from the $50,000 total realized from the first sale of bonus bonds to pay expenses.

Receipts of the state were $2,945,942, and disbursements at $2,720,370 during October, according to George LaFond, Chief accountant. The largest item of receipts was approximately $1,000,000, credited to the state prison twine and machinery plant. The prison industry account has paid $800,000 on an advance of $1,300,000 made this year from state funds.

Mr. and Mrs. John Liebl of Lake Hanska were most pleasantly surprised by some 40 relatives and friends, last Sunday evening, the occasion being their silver wedding anniversary. They were presented with a fine silver wreath, a bouquet and several other precious gifts. A sumptuous supper was served, after which dancing formed the chief entertainment for those present.

Paul H. M. Borchert who is one of the late arrivals from overseas service is in possession of a copy of general order 16 from Headquarters Fifty-third Infantry stating that the machine gun company he served in holds the record of not having lost a man on their march to the front from the point of detachment. They carried on this march their full equipment and their full allowance of ammunition over "roads" which were often practically impassable, and in many cases, they were forced to make detours of considerable distance in order to get their carts through."

Albert Lea. Martin Hanson of Haywood left Thursday noon for Fargo, N. D., in response to a telegram bearing the startling news that his son, Henry Hanson, also of Haywood, had been found by the authorities at Fargo, N. D., lying on the main tracks in a serious condition, both feet frozen and this head badly injured. Henry Hanson left Haywood a week ago Wednesday with his household goods, intending to go to a 160 acre farm which he was to operate for his father-in-law, Ole Bell of Haywood.

Fairmont.—Frank Carey is under arrest at Fairmont charged with having more wives than the law allows.

A few weeks ago he was arrested on a charge of forgery and is awaiting the investigation of the grand jury on that score. At the examination on the forgery charge he was released on bonds of $1,000. The warrant recites that Franklin Pierce Carey and Doris F. Griffin were married in Fairmont, October 26, 1917, and have never been divorced. Then the instrument goes on to say that during the present year Carey took to himself a second wife at Clay county, Iowa, to-wit one Edyth Hollchaft with whom he has been living more or less happily.

News was received here during the past few days of the arrival of a little son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Olsen of Scobie, Mont. The little one weighed ten pounds. Mrs. Olsen was Miss Alma Marti before her marriage and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Marti.

The Junior Endeavor Society of the Congregational church held a Halloween party at the church parlors last Thursday. Sixty people took part in the affair which consisted of the various ghost games and stories. Refreshments were served and everyone reported an enjoyable evening.

The home of Miss Emily Runck was the scene of a birthday surprise by a number of her friends last Saturday evening. Cards were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Fred Dalweg, John F. Burdinger, Willie Runck and Robert Runck. Everyone present enjoyed the occasion very much.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Rieke of Fairfax, Mrs. L. Durbahn of Gibbon, W. F. Rieke, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Boemmels, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Rieke and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rieke all of Mud Lake, Minn., were here Sunday and aided Mrs. Geo. Durbahn in celebrating her birthday. A delicious dinner and supper was served.

OBITUARY

MRS. CHARLES HAUENSTEIN.

After a long, lingering illness, Mrs. Charles Hauenstein passed away at her home Friday morning shortly after 5 o'clock. Altho her death was not unexpected, the news came as a distinct shock to her many friends and acquaintances. Mrs. Hauenstein had been in the best of health until January of this year when she became afflicted with a cancerous growth. She submitted to an operation in January and again in May in the hope that the ailment could be checked, but without avail and she grew weaker from day to day until the end came Friday. She was confined to her bed about five weeks.

The deceased whose maiden name was Louise Wagner was born here in New Ulm August 27, 1869, and was therefore only 50 years old when the summons came. She always lived in New Ulm. She was united in marriage October 10, 1889, to Charles Hauenstein, her surviving husband. Seven children were born to them, all of whom survive. They are Mrs. Irma Posch of St. Paul, Ida, Henrietta, Paul H., Karl, Helga and Julia who are still at home. She is also survived by the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Emilie Smith and Albert Wagner of California, Mrs. Caroline Hagberg, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Prof. Geo. Wagner, Madison, Wis.; August H. and Adolph, Indianapolis, Carl of Fairbault and Mrs. Lucy Oliver of Minneapolis.

At the time of her death she was a member of the Turner Ladies Society and of the Junior Pioneers. The funeral was held from her late home Sunday afternoon and a large concourse of people gathered at the house to pay her their last respects. Albert Steinhauer delivered the funeral address and the remains were laid to rest in the City Cemetery.

In the passing of Mrs. Hauenstein, her family loses a most devoted wife and mother and her associates a true and tried friend. She was not given to society affairs, but rather centered her entire energies to build up a most pleasant home life for her husband and her children and in this she was eminently successful. She had a most beautiful character and was held in the highest esteem by all those who knew her intimately.

The following from out of town attended the funeral: Mrs. Caroline Hagberg, Ann Arbor, Mich.; Adolph Wagner, Indianapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Furst, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Posch and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hauenstein, St. Paul.

JOSEPH REWITZER.

Joseph Rewitzer who was living at the home of his daughter Mrs. Frank Bauer of this city, died last Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock from heart apoplexy. The deceased had not been suffering from any kind of illness, but death called him away very suddenly. Mr. Rewitzer was 84 years old when he died having been born March 2, 1835.

He spent most of his life in the old country in his birth place, Friedrichshof, near Pilsen, Bohemia, formerly part of Austria. At the age of 31 he was married there to Miss Barbara Braun. They came to America in 1894 and settled here in New Ulm where his wife died about seven years ago.

Their union was blessed with four children, all of whom survive. They are: Mrs. Jos. L. Zupher, Mrs. Frances Dusel, Mrs. Frank Bauer and Jos. Rewitzer, Jr. The latter lives out on the farm, while all the others live in the city. He is also survived by 25 grand children and 15 great grand children.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at 9 o'clock in the Holy Trinity Catholic church and the remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. The following from out-of-town were present at the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Singer and Wenzel and Joe Singer from Morton and George Bauer from Springfield.

Mr. Rewitzer for nine year served with the fortress marines at the Dalmatian coast under the old Austrian rule.

STERILE HOG CHOLERA SERUM STANDS TEST.

The division of veterinary medicine of the Minnesota experiment station has put under rigid test a quantity of clear sterile hog cholera serum, which is being produced by several commercial firms, and finds it to be satisfactory in every respect. The sterilized serum costs $2.25 per 100 cubic centimeters which is a little above the price of the old serum. However, the size of the dosage recommended is less, especially for the larger swine.

Dr. C. P. Fitch, head of the division believes that the use of the clear sterile serum has certain advantages, especially when immunizing large pigs.

"One is sure," he says, "when using this product that no foreign material or bacteria is introduced in the serum. Yet, we should keep clearly in mind that the bloody or old anti-hog's cholera serum is an efficient agent in the prevention of hog cholera. It is for each man to decide himself which he will use. The clear sterile serum is certainly a step in advance."
