INSURANCE REINSTATEMENT.

Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Treasury Department, Issues Additional Rulings.

A series of decisions issued by the Director of the Bureau of War Risk Insurance with the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury provides more liberal conditions for reinstatement of lapsed or canceled insurance.

The provisions of Treasury Decision No. 47, allowing eighteen months from the date of discharge for reinstatement upon payment of only two months' premiums on the amount of insurance to be reinstated, are retained. That decision is liberalized, however, by a new provision that men out of the service are permitted to reinstate by merely paying the two months' premiums without making a statement as to health at any time within three calendar months following the month of discharge.

After the three months following the date of discharge have elapsed, a statement from the applicant to the effect that he is in as good health as at the date of discharge or at the expiration of the grace period, whichever is the later date, will be required together with a written application for reinstatement and the tender of two months' premiums on the amount of insurance he wishes to reinstate.

In order to give all former service men whose insurance has lapsed or been canceled, a fair chance to reinstate their insurance, including men who have been out of the service eighteen months or more, and who are therefore barred from reinstatement under the former ruling, a special blanket ruling is made which allows all ex-service men to reinstate their insurance before December 31, 1919, provided that each applicant is in as good health as at date of discharge or at expiration of the grace period, whichever is the later date, and so states in his application. Of course it is necessary that he tender the two months' premiums on the amount of insurance he wishes to reinstate.

Service men who reinstated their insurance by payment of all back premiums prior to July 25, 1919, when the decision requiring payment of only two months' premiums went into effect, upon written application to the Bureau may have any premiums paid in excess of two applied toward the payment of future premiums. For example, if after a policy had lapsed for six months, a man reinstated and paid six months' premiums instead of two, he may secure credit for four months' premiums.

The provisions for reinstatement do not protect a man until he actually reinstates. If he waits he may not be in as good health as he was at the time of discharge and consequently may not be able to secure reinstatement.

Don't put off reinstatement. Do it now!

THE RACE IS ON.

Vance Chapman Has Interesting Talk on Candidates for Governor in Minnesota.

In his weekly letter on the political situation in Minnesota Vance Chapman says the gubernatorial possibilities:

Go to it fellers: the big scrap is on. Oscar Arneson, late of Grant county, now of St. Paul and chief clerk of the House tossed his hat into the political this week and the 1920 battle for political supremacy might be said to have started. Mr. Arneson is listed as a candidate for the republican nomination for lieutenant governor; price paid $50 and is noted on the books as filing No. 1. Who's next you probably ask? Well, as talk runs the woods is full of 'em and the first of the year should see quite a number of them out in the open. The grooming act is the principal feature of the game just now with the lead horses frantically maneuvering for position. Accepting some of the dope passed out by the wise one, Republican entries for the 1920 contest are going to be the heaviest in the history of the game and they are somewhat worried regarding the outcome. Mr. Arneson's filing came as a surprise, as no one seemed to be in his confidence in the matter of the office sought by him, but any interest that his early filing might cause has since been lost in the general talk about who will be the first to file for the Republican nomination for governor. No less than five—count 'em—five—are billed as gubernatorial candidates and they run something like this: Julius A. Schmah, Redwood county; M. J. Dowling, Renville county; Franklin Ellsworth, Blue Earth county; Thomas Frankson, Ramsey county and a Nonpartisan Leaguer, yet to be named. Other possible entries are Victor Powers, St. Louis county; S. G. Iverson, Ramsey county; F. C. Murphy, Traverse county and H. C. Hotaling, Blue Earth county. The first five are practically sure shots while as to the other, the mention of their names is sweet music to them. Ellsworth has already announced his candidacy. Julius Schmah has an interesting two reel picture of himself while he was unconscious of what was being done, ready for the big show, Mike Dowling has delivered quite a number of soldier home coming and reconstruction talks, Tom Frankson has his platform all ready for the press and as to the League candidate, well, Congressman Oscar Keller is not a bad bet. There are several other state offices, but forget 'em: the governorship has the board just now. Rep. Ralph J. Parker of Fillmore county as Oscar Arneson's rival for the lieutenant governorship has been suggested.

OUCH, WHAT A GROUCH!

Wisconsin Health Bulletin, No. 317.

Do your children ever get up in the morning as quarrelsome as a swarm of hornets driven from their nest? Do they ever come to the breakfast table and act so disagreeable that you feel for the moment that you'd gladly trade them off for a plugged nickel? Of course they do.

And perhaps you scold them and threaten them. Oh, more than that—you "sure do" sometimes. And then after they've gone off to school or to play, you think, after all, they aren't the worst children in the world. Indeed, you begin to think that they will average up, with Mrs. Smith's, or Mrs. Jones', or Mrs. Block's, and you plan a lunch, a present, or some form of amusement to insure their being better natured and happier children. And while this may be a good thing for you it may be a bad thing for the children.

What we parents ought to do is to look for the cause of the "grouch" and root it out. Ten chances to one it is due to one of two things or a combination of them; indigestion and an insufficient amount of undisturbed sleep.

Healthy, happy and contented children have plenty of sleep. Healthy, happy and contented children eat plain, wholesome food.

The failure of many parents to realize and follow these simple truths enables many a physician to ride comfortably in a fine motor car while his persistently blind clients walk.

COURSES FOR FARMERS.

The agricultural division of the state university is at this time making plans for the twenty-five short courses to be held throughout the state during the season of 1919-20. There will be only one of these short courses held in any county, and only two in successive years in the same community. County Farm Bureaus have been requested to take this matter up with the extension division and arrange for the short courses. Petitions for the first year courses must bear the signatures of 75 men and 40 women; those for second or subsequent courses by 100 men and 50 women. The petitions should be in the hands of R. S. Mackintosh, short course specialist, who has sent out the call for applications, not later than Dec. 20. The short courses will offer special subjects in livestock and farm management for men; clothing, health and home conveniences for the women.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL.

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients, at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.
