LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Krueger, accompanied by Henry Timm, made a business trip to New Ulm the forepart of last week. They reside in Sundown township, near Springfield.

G. A. Ottomeyer, former owner of the present A. Schulke store, is assisting in Crone Bros. store. He started in helping on Monday and intends to remain with the firm for several months during the spring rush.

Marion Current and family of Wabasso are guests of New Ulm relatives this week. Mr. Current is a brother of Mrs. Henry Moll, Jr., of this city.

Herman Voss has disposed of his residence property, consisting of three lots, a house and other buildings, on North Jefferson street, near the fair grounds, to Wm. Zinke of Antrim township, Watonwan county. The consideration was $5,000. Mr. Voss expects to take possession of his newly acquired property April 1.

Miss Frieda Hoffmann was most agreeably surprised by a large number of friends at the home of her mother, Mrs. Emma Hoffmann, on South Broadway, Thursday evening, the affair being in the nature of an old-fashioned party. The evening was pleasantly spent at cards, Earl Eyrich securing high and Fred Schulke low prize, whereupon a delicious luncheon was served.

Miss Jeanette Harbo returned to Lambertson, the fore part of last week, following a brief visit with her parents here.

Mrs. Phil. Brand entertained a number of relatives and friends last Wednesday, the occasion being her 76th birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stelljes spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nick. Harris at Mankato. Mrs. Stelljes is a sister of Mrs. Harris.

Spring is here! The small boy, and some large ones, too, has opened the exciting season of marbles, and this is one of the surest signs of springtime's approach.

Ed. Bigot who has been employed in Mrs. F. A. Schnobrich's City meat market here for the past four years, has decided to embark in this business and will open a new meat market at Arlington, Minn., April 1.

Miss Mathilda Regelin, who has been engaged as nurse during the influenza epidemic at Belview, has returned to New Ulm. Enroute here she stopped off at Lambertson for a brief visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Seifert.

Preparatory work on the modern new front in the Vogel building, which will be occupied by the new drug store of Wm. Muesing, Jr., was commenced Monday morning. The interior of the building is being renovated and put in first class condition to house the new apothecary's dispensary.

A delightful leap year card party was enjoyed by about 85 invited guests at the Turner Hall social room, Sunday evening. "500" was played at 21 tables and all present spent a most enjoyable evening. The prize-winners were: Ladies' high, Mrs. John Nagel; ladies' low, Mrs. John Hauenstein, Jr.; gents' high, John Backer; gents' low, Henry J. Meyer.

J. C. Christensen of Cobden was a New Ulm visitor recently.

Jos. Hillesheim of Iberia was a business caller here some-time ago.

Chas. Schouville and J. G. Dorn of Nicollet visited relatives at a local hospital recently.

Mrs. Vivian Dorn and daughter, De Ette, were recent guests of Nicollet friends.

Julius Grundt returned to his home at Lambertson, last Tuesday, from a visit with his daughters here.

Mrs. H. Hoermann of Courtland visited her daughter, Louise, at the Loretto hospital here, last Wednesday.

Mrs. Alfred Struss has gone to Courtland to assist caring for her father, August Poehler, who is ill with pneumonia.

Miss Agnes Strasen, who is taking a course in nursing at the Union hospital here, recently visited her parents, Rev. and Mrs. H. Strasen, at Courtland.

Miss Frieda Schwartz has returned to New Ulm from a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Bode, in Courtland.

Edw. Pearson, employed on the O. B. Erickson farm in Brighton township, is receiving treatment at the Union hospital here. He is afflicted with pleurisy.

Joseph Wilt of Lambertson, father of Mrs. Ed. Vogel of this city, arrived here the forepart of last week to receive treatment at a local hospital. He underwent a serious operation some time ago, from the effects of which he has practically recovered.

At the first monthly meeting of the newly organized Ladies' Aid of the Courtland Lutheran church the following officers were elected: Pres., Mrs. W. T. Renner; vice pres., Mrs. C. A. Stolt; sec., Mrs. M. Bussmann, and treas., Mrs. M. Langhorst.

Andrew Saffert and Art Schnobrich attended the annual convention of the Minnesota Retail Meat Dealers Ass'n held in St. Paul last week Wednesday and Thursday. Mr. Saffert, who was treasurer of the association but who declined re-election, was made first vice president of the organization.

The Concordia band of Courtland held its annual meeting recently, when the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Pres., Albert Meyer; sec.-treas., Wm. Forbrook; director, Fred Rengstorf. Mr. Rengstorf has ably filled the position of band leader for many years.

Verne Johnson of Lafayette is assisting at the Klossner creamery while Eugene Kosek, the regular assistant, is recovering from an infection of the index finger of his right hand, which resulted from a scratch. Eugene is getting along as nicely as can be expected and will soon be able to resume his duties at the creamery.

County Treasurer Henry J. Berg and his able assistant, Deputy Treasurer E. J. Berg, were kept busy the latter part of last week, receiving personal property taxes. Saturday being the last day on which these taxes could be paid without penalty. Mr. Berg and County Auditor Lonis G. Vogel are now busy preparing the March settlement.

John Heindselman, residing on a farm near Sleepy Eye, and Mrs. Mary Wille of Owen, Wis., were happily married at the Ev. Friedens church parsonage by Rev. G. Mayer, Saturday afternoon. The witnesses were Mrs. Mayer and daughter, Dorothy. Mr. and Mrs. Heindselman have gone to housekeeping on the farm near Sleepy Eye, where the former has made his home for some time.

Leo, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schleif, residing on North Broadway, narrowly escaped serious and possible fatal injury, Sunday afternoon, when he fell down the flight of stairs leading from the second floor to the ground in the rear of the building in which the family resides. Leo sustained a fracture of the right collarbone.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Higgs are the proud parents of a newly arrived baby girl that was born at 4 o'clock Monday morning. It was just four hours late to become a twin leap year child to its brother who was born four years ago, February 29, but it made up for this by timing its arrival to have it fall on her grandmother's, Mrs. W. J. Winkelmann's birthday. That is what Mr. Higgs calls system and what made his face radiant with glee on his way down town Monday morning.

The families of Herman Goltz, Alb L. Nagel, Herman Hamann, Benj. J. Seifert, A. H. Schlumpberger, Albert W. Wallner and Otto Heymann, Jr., will receive a French soldier memorial dedicated to American soldiers who died during the world war. On the list of the local legion post who are charged with the distribution of the memorial are also the names of Adam Jutz of Brighton, Albert Domeier, formerly of New Ulm; Leo Wendt, formerly of New Ulm; and Alf. Meeklenberg of Milford township.

Sunday Services at St. Peter's Episcopal Church—9:30 A. M. Church school: 10:45 A. M. Holy Communion and sermon—Rev. Charles W. Baxter, Rector.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Brust of this city, last week Monday.
