The happy event occurred recently at Roundup, Mont. The Fiene family now reside near Musselshell, Mont., whither they removed from this city several years ago. The Review joins with the bride's many friends in this vicinity, in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Since May 15, all stores handling eggs must candle them and must clean out their stocks twice a week or put the hen fruit in storage, in which case it must be marked "storage" and sold as such. The new law, which became effective on the above date, requires that each case of eggs shipped shall contain a slip bearing the date when the eggs were candled and the name of the person who did the work. Failure to comply with the law is revocation of the dealer's license to handle eggs.

School officials of Minnesota are urged by R. S. Mackintosh of the agricultural extension division of the State University to provide for the studying of gardening by all boys and girls in public schools. This work is recommended as being of vital importance in the educational scheme and as a means of furnishing more good food. James M. McConnell, state commissioner of education, has addressed letters to all county and city superintendents and principals recommending that the schools not only encourage practical gardening, but poultry raising as well, for boys and girls.

Otto Hummel was a Springfield visitor early last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Kranz of Springfield recently were guests of local friends.

Louis Kreitinger has returned to Springfield after a few days' sojourn here.

Sunday afternoon the Class of 1920 of the Springfield High School autoed to New Ulm, to spend the day picnicking at Herman's Heights. They took baskets filled with good things to eat, but shortly after the picnic dinner the rain put a stop to the fun and the party turned for home.—Springfield Free Press.

Otto Simon of Puposki, Minn., is enjoying a several days' visit at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Wicherski, on South State street. He expects to return to Puposki some time this week. Mr. Simon reports that the potato acreage in the vicinity of Puposki has been greatly increased this year, but that the prospects for a bumper crop are not very promising at this time.

Sleepy Eye is again to have free city delivery of mail, after an interval of about 10 years. The residents of that place enjoyed this privilege for a period of five years, beginning Sept. 1, 1905, whereupon the service was suspended, due to a marked falling off in the receipts of the post office, which resulted when the offices of the Sleepy Eye Milling Co. were removed to Minneapolis.

Miss Prisca Nicklaus was hostess at a parcel shower in honor of Miss Amanda Reinhart, a June bride, of Courtland township, last Tuesday evening. The rooms of the Nicklaus home were artistically decorated for the occasion and the bride-to-be was showered with many beautiful and useful gifts, which were conveyed into her presence in a miniature prairie schooner. After the presentation of the gifts, "500" was played, prizes being awarded to the Misses Stella Cordes and Clara Neuwirth. A delicious two-course luncheon was served, whereupon the guests departed, having enjoyed a most delightful evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hillesheim of this city now boast the proud title of grandparents. The Sleepy Eye Herald-Dispatch has the following to say relative to the happy event which brought about the bestowal of this title: "Hillesheim the ordinary man some time to adapt himself to circumstances, but this is not the case with George Glotzbach, Jr. Saturday afternoon George put aside his tape measure and yard stick, starched and ironed his blue denims and proceeded to develop his paternal functions over the eleven pound son that arrived at his home that afternoon. George has now mastered that beautiful song, "Hush, my child, lie still and slumber." It is hard to say who is really the most proud, Papa or Grandpa Glotzbach. Here is luck to the young man and his adoring parents.

Were You Mad?

Did Jones make you partly mad the other day when he asked you to pay that account you knew you had already paid? Did you get mad and lose your temper and a part of your religion?

There was really no need of all the fuss that day. The trouble was that you paid in cash and didn't take a receipt. If you had done business in a modern way by having an account at our bank and writing Jones a check, you could have secured the cancelled check, showed that at him and made him back up in short order. Try it next time.
