LOCAL NOTES

George Kinde has recovered from the effects of a minor operation, performed upon him at a local hospital recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Welsh of Wabasso arrived here early last week and the latter underwent an operation at a local hospital.

Mrs. George Roeder, who, with her son, is making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grundt, at Lamberton, was a recent New Ulm visitor.

Wm. Gode of Germantown and his father, John Gode, of Lamberton motored to New Ulm last week to consult a local physician regarding the latter's impaired health.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Dirks accompanied by the latter's father, Rev. Krienke, of St. Paul, spent Monday of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Steinhilber at Lamberton.

Mrs. A. J. Loeffler entertained a number of lady friends at her home on North German street, Thursday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed.

Mrs. Wm. F. Wendt has returned to New Ulm from an extended visit at the home of her son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hubbard, at Fargo, N. D. Mrs. Wendt was accompanied to New Ulm by her sister in law, Mrs. E. A. Wendt, of St. Paul.

Vernon, the little 10 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hill of Lamberton, was brought to New Ulm early last week and placed in a local hospital for treatment, having been taken suddenly ill with appendicitis. The youngster submitted to an operation from the effects of which he is recovering nicely.

Albert Schlie of Nicollet transacted business in New Ulm last week.

The annual Chautauqua at St. Peter will be held from June 29 to July 5.

Miss Marian Youngblom of Lafayette was a New Ulm visitor early last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Krause and daughter, Mrs. John Paulson, were recent Cobden visitors.

Miss Gertrude Frasch has returned from Lamberton, where she spent a week visiting at the Waibel and Haas homes.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hillesheim and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Glotzbach, Jr., at Sleepy Eye.

Miss Margaret Sackl returned to Sleepy Eye, Thursday, after a few days' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Otto Schroeder, here.

Mrs. George Altman and Miss Irene Altman have returned from a several days' visit at the home of Mrs. C. P. Linde in Comfrey.

Mrs. A. G. Nussle of Springfield, who submitted to an operation at a local hospital a few weeks ago, has recovered sufficiently to be able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Offermann, accompanied by Mrs. B. M. Frantz, motored over from Cobden, one evening last week, for a brief visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shellum and son, Arol, accompanied by Reuben Johnson and Myrtle Thompson, of La Salle, were New Ulm visitors last Wednesday afternoon.

Alfred Windland, Prof. Palmbach, Wm. Muesing, Sr., and daughter, Miss Ida, and Miss Hertha Huhn were recent guests at the Otto C. Wels home in Nicollet.

Henry Arndt went to Comfrey the fore part of last week and from that place, in company with his brother, motored to Mahanomen, Minn., to look after his farm interests in that vicinity.

Roman Lindemann, who is assisting in the Otto Buenger furniture store at Sleepy Eye, spent Thursday evening with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lindemann, Sr., in this city.

Theo. Wilking is now the owner of the farm of the late H. D. Wilking in Nicollet township, having purchased it from the heirs. This farm comprises 160 acres and the purchase price was $16,000.

Mrs. Theo. Lange, who has been making her home with the family of her daughter, Mrs. F. L. Bode, at Fairmont, since the death of her husband, visited relatives and friends in the Courtland.

Little Beatta Eckstein, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. W. Eckstein of Comfrey, has recovered from the effects of an operation for the removal of her tonsils and adenoids, which was performed upon her at a local hospital recently.

Mrs. Geo. Puchner and family of Springfield were New Ulm visitors for a few days the fore part of last week. They were accompanied here by Miss Clara Puchner, who had been a guest at the Puchner home for a few days.

The new road down the F. H. Brun hill in Courtland township will soon be completed. This is one of the most needed public improvements undertaken in that township for many years and the town board is to be commended therefor.

Miss Katherine Weiser arrived home Saturday from Sweet Briar, Va., where she attended Sweet Briar College during the past school year. She will spend the summer vacation at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. B. Weiser, here.

Mrs. Julius Krause and her daughter, Mrs. Loida Paulson, who spent several weeks in New Ulm visiting at the home of her parents, autoed to St. Paul on Saturday. They made the return trip early in the week. On both trips they were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Kemski.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Geske of Essig entertained a number of relatives and friends at their home, Saturday evening, the occasion being their 17th wedding anniversary and Mrs. Geske's birthday anniversary. All present enjoyed a very pleasant evening and a delicious luncheon was served.

Friday evening of this week, Captain George H. Mallon, League Labor candidate for lieutenant governor on the Republican ticket, is scheduled to speak at Lamberton. Some time ago, the mayor of that village declared that he would not allow Captain Mallon to speak there, but this isn't the first "enemy" which the much decorated World War veteran has met and defeated, and he will, no doubt, succeed in making the Lamberton mayor "see the light."

The Misses Florence Wartha, Clara Soukup, Clara Neuwirth and Pris Nicklaus were hostesses at a pretty parcel shower surprise given at the Herman Geske home on North Franklin street, last Tuesday evening, in honor of Miss Elsie Geske, who became the bride of Max Hoehne, the following day. There were 44 guests present and all enjoyed the evening immensely with games and other amusements, whereupon a light luncheon was served. Miss Geske received many beautiful and useful pre-nuptial gifts.

Miss Edna Stolz was most agreeably surprised at a shower given in her honor at the Gottlieb Schmidt home on Front street, Monday evening, of last week. The Misses Bertha Schmidt and Frieda Hoffmann were hostesses and some invited 30 guests, friends of the bride-to-be, were present and all spent a very pleasant evening. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sweet peas, lilies of the valley and bridal wreath and Miss Stolz was showered with a large number of pretty gifts. She is to be married some time next month.

Elmer Kohls, a student at Dr. Martin Luther College, spent a few days recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kohls, in Morgan.

The annual mission festival of the Courtland and Nicollet Lutheran churches will be jointly observed at the grove near the Courtland church, next Sunday, June 13.

The old bank building at Cobden, formerly owned by Julius Krause of New Ulm, has been purchased by J. P. Ed. Bertrand, the hustling implement dealer of that village, who will add a machine shop to the rear of the structure and convert the corner into a first class implement store.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Seiter have received the glad tidings of the arrival of a bouncing baby boy at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. Earl J. Seiter, at Detroit, Mich. The newcomer made his appearance last Wednesday, June 2.

John Franta returned to New Ulm from Winona, Friday evening, where he spent several days in company with his brother, N. J. Franta, and the latter's wife, of Wabasso. They were accompanied home by their daughter, who attended St. Teresa College at Winona during the past school year.

The ladies of the Hecker Circle have requested us to publicly express their thanks and appreciation to the New Ulm Armory management, through the columns of the Review, for their kindness in allowing the ladies the free use of the Armory dining room to serve Decoration Day dinner to the members of Hecker Post No. 48, G. A. R., and the ladies of the Hecker Circle.

The Northwest Amusement Co., which held the boards at the Grand Theatre Saturday and Sunday evenings, made a decided hit with the appreciative audiences. The Liberty Orchestra rendered a truly wonderful musical program and the sweet-toned talent of the violinist deserves especial mention. Mr. Schlottman has already engaged this orchestra for a future date to give our people the best that can be obtained at a reasonable price.

Emil A. Bengston, Brown county manager of the Nonpartisan League, was busy in the vicinity of Comfrey during the past week and met with good success. Large numbers of farmers throughout the state, who have heretofore not been members of the League, now show a willingness to part with the two-year membership fee, realizing that in unity there is strength and also that the farmers and organized labor must stick together and form a close political bond if they want to be successful in ridding the state of the present plunderbund administration.

Emil Metzinger, the well-known local clothier, returned to New Ulm last Tuesday evening from Orlando, Florida, where he enjoyed the balmy southern climate with his family during the past winter. Mrs. Metzinger and sons, Julian and Harold, went to New York City from the south, for a visit with Mr. Metzinger's sister. They are expected home the fore part of next week. His sojourn in Florida benefited Mr. Metzinger's health considerably and he has built a home there, with the expectation of spending about six months of every year in that state with his family.

A number of members of St. Patrick Council, K. of C., attended the initiation of a large class of candidates in the Fairmont Council, Sunday.

Miss Henrietta Abraham of Springfield spent Saturday and Sunday with New Ulm relatives.

Mrs. Julius Schamber and her sister Miss Esther Blank, of Sleepy Eye came to New Ulm last Wednesday and the latter submitted to an operation at a local hospital the following day. Another sister, Mrs. E. Melzar, visited Miss Blank at the hospital, Thursday.

E. G. Hage was a business visitor at Hanska recently. He was accompanied to that place by his brother, Sig. Hage, of Seattle, Wash., who enjoyed a two months' visit with his father at Madelia and other relatives. He is engaged in the lumber business at Seattle and has returned home.

The Married Man

They make a good many jokes at the expense of the "poor married man," but really marriage is no joke to the man who is married.

It is a stern, sobering event to the average man when he takes unto himself a wife. It means two mouths to feed instead of one. Two people to be properly clothed, home to furnish, additional duties and responsibilities. It means more economy, more careful adjustment of finances. An account at our bank is one of the greatest safeguards the newly married man can make. Save a little something every week, every month, every year for a rainy day.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT. FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Commissioner for the First Commissioner District of Brown County, comprising the 1st Ward of the city of New Ulm and the Towns of Cottonwood and Sigel. Your support and vote at the primary election, June 22, 1920, will be appreciated.

Fred Hamann. Adv. 22-24

FOR COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Having been endorsed by representatives of organized labor of the First Ward in New Ulm and the League farmers of the towns of Sigel and Cottonwood, I have decided to file as a candidate for County Commissioner of the First District of Brown County. Being too busy at this season of the year to make an active personal campaign before the Primary election, Monday, June 21, I must depend, in a great measure, upon my friends to further my candidacy, and certainly will appreciate their support and vote to the fullest extent.

If nominated and elected I will serve the First Commissioner District, as well as the entire County, to the best of my ability.
