

OUR SERVICE

costs you nothing. Besides getting good interest on your money when invested in our First Farm Mortgages you get absolutely free our service of collection of interest, renewing of insurance and watching payments of taxes etc.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.

New Ulm, Minnesota.

STORK BROTHERS

ESTABLISHED 1888
CASH BUYERS
NEW ULM, MINNESOTA

LOCAL NOTES

Mrs. Frank Wilschek has returned from a pleasant week's visit with relatives near Sleepy Eye.

Jacob Miesen and daughters, Lillian and Helen, of Lidgerwood, N. D., were guests of the Frank Roos family on North State street, last Tuesday.

Miss Elsie Schueler, who was a guest of the Herman D. Fixsen family on North Broadway for 10 days, returned to her home at Gaylord the fore part of last week.

Andrew Saffert spent the fore part of last week in the Twin Cities, where he purchased a carload of choice young slaughtering cattle for his local market.

Mrs. Albert Steinhauser left for Minneapolis, last Wednesday, for a visit with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Payne, who is ill and will submit to a surgical operation at a Minneapolis hospital tomorrow.

Miss Anne Hetlinger, who holds a responsible position with the Evening and Sunday Huronite at Huron, S. D., arrived here Saturday for a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hetlinger, returning to Huron last night.

Frank Simon, democratic candidate for congressman from this district, was in New Ulm the latter part of last week, in the interest of his candidacy. Mr. Simon stated that he had visited several of the counties composing this congressional district and that he feels encouraged by the many favorable expressions.

Wm. Ruhnow of St. Paul spent the Fourth with relatives and friends here.

Mrs. Wilbur B. Charles and son from Minneapolis are enjoying a visit of about three weeks with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Sandhoefer.

Wesley Gebhard, who enjoyed a visit of two weeks with his sister and other relatives at St. Paul, returned home Saturday evening.

Lillian, Ronald and Louise Eyrich returned home, Sunday night, from a few weeks' visit with relatives at Paynesville and Buffalo, Minn. They spent the Fourth at Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Lippert returned to New Ulm, last Wednesday, from Kimberley, Wis., where they enjoyed a week's visit with their daughter, Sister Silveria, who is stationed in a convent at that place.

Ewald Luedtke of Bowbells, N. D., was a guest at the Gabriel Gebhard home on North State street for several days. He departed for Fairfax, Sunday afternoon, for a visit with relatives, before returning to Bowbells.

Dr. Armin Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Fischer of Indianapolis, Ind., formerly of New Ulm, has completed the medical course at St. Louis University, and is on his way to Spokane, Wash., where he will be interne in Sacred Heart Hospital.

Miss Winona Alwin, who recently returned from a five weeks' vacation, which she spent at Portland, Oregon, and other Western points, enjoyed the Fourth at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. L. Alwin. She left yesterday for St. Paul, where she is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haag of Willow Lake, N. D., arrived here Friday afternoon to spend the Fourth with relatives and friends. Mr. Haag is engaged in the contracting business with Wenzel Rothmeier, another former New Ulmite, at Willow Lake and the firm is enjoying good success.

Otto Friton of Sleepy Eye was a New Ulm visitor last week Tuesday.

Miss Meta Schraap of Sleepy Eye was a New Ulm visitor the forepart of last week.

Miss Florence Simonson of Lafayette was a recent visitor with New Ulm friends.

Otto Nothardt of Sleepy Eye and J. Smasal of this city made a successful fishing trip to Grey Eagle recently.

The Misses Elsie Hanson, Emily McNeil and Zelma Green attended the New Ulm Park concert recently.

Mrs. J. Schroefer and daughter, Anna, of Sleepy Eye came to New Ulm recently, where the girl had her tonsils removed.

Carl Engel came down from Minneapolis, Saturday, to spend Sunday with his father, Mr. Chief Henry Engel, and other local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hanson and children of Sleepy Eye were among the New Ulm callers the past week. Mr. Hanson attended to some business here.

Mrs. P. A. Becker and children returned home last Wednesday from a pleasant visit of several days with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fedde, at Welcome, Minn.

Wm. Kissner and his two children, accompanied by Wesley Melzen and the Misses Florence and Elsie Bruess came to New Ulm recently to visit Mrs. W. Kissner at one of the local hospitals.

Mesdames Caroline Frenzel and Andrew Biehl are enjoying a visit from Miss Bertha Greiner of Milwaukee, a niece of the former and a cousin of the latter. Miss Greiner expects to remain in New Ulm for three weeks.

The radiant expression on Attorney Albert D. Flor's countenance is easily explained, for the stork paid the Flor home a visit, Friday, and left a bouncing baby boy—the first son and heir in the family. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Rev. Arthur Blauret and daughter have returned to their home at Faith, N. D., after a visit with the former's parents, Teacher and Mrs. Wm. Blauret, in this city. Rev. Blauret attended the Lutheran district conference at Mankato, delivering the pastoral address.

Martin Garbrecht, teacher in the Lutheran parochial school at Wakesha, Wis., arrived here Friday to spend the summer vacation at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garbrecht. He will return to Wakesha to resume his duties as instructor at the beginning of the fall term.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galles returned to their home at St. Paul, yesterday afternoon, following a pleasant visit of a few days with the former's mother, Mrs. Mary Galles, and other local relatives and friends. Mr. Galles is engaged as instructor in physical culture in the St. Paul City.

Robert R. Gibson of Minneapolis spent a few days in New Ulm last week, calling on local business men and others in the interest of the proposed Babcock highway plan amendment, which will be voted upon at the general election next November. Mr. Gibson addressed a meeting of farmers and others at Nicollet, last Wednesday afternoon.

The Fourth of July celebration at the Catholic Park here, Sunday was well attended and netted the Christian Mothers' Society, which had arranged the affair, a snug surplus. Dinner was served at the Catholic school house and refreshments could be had at the park during the afternoon. A varied program of amusements furnished entertainment for those attending.

Herman A. Vogelphol returned home Saturday from Lawrence, Kas., where he transacted business in connection with the consolidation of the local pipe organ factory of H. H. Vogelphol & Sons with the Reuter Organ Co. The name of the consolidated concern will be Reuter-Vogelphol Organ Co. and it has just recently open d a modern new pipe organ factory, having a capacity of one pipe organ a week, at Lawrence, a city of about 18,000 inhabitants. The University of Kansas, as well as a large Indian school, are located there. After completing the contracts which they have already entered into to build pipe organs, Messrs. Herman A. and Ernest Vogelphol will close the local factory and become actively associated with the new pipe organ company, taking over the sale and installation of its products in the northern division, which reaches from coast to coast.

Mrs. Elmer Gebhard of Afton, Minn., who submitted to a serious operation at the Union hospital here about three weeks ago, was able to leave the institution last Wednesday and is recuperating at the home of her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Gebhard, on North State street. Rev. Gebhard arrived here last Tuesday evening for a visit of several days with his wife and parents. He preached the sermon at the local Methodist church Sunday morning.

Louis Saffert and family departed the fore part of last week for St. Paul and after a brief sojourn continued their journey to Sykeston, N. D., for an extended visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Jos. Paa, and family. From there they will go to Milwaukee, Wis., to make their future home in the Cream City. Mr. Saffert was employed in the local meat market of his brother, Andrew Saffert, for about 15 years and his many friends regret the family's departure from New Ulm, but wish them unlimited success and contentment in their new home.

Prof. and Mrs. J. F. Gawrisch left last Wednesday for Red Wing, for a brief visit with the former's parents. From there they will continue to La Crosse and Watertown, Wis., for short stays, finally going to Milwaukee, Wis., where Prof. Gawrisch will take up his new duties as instructor in the Bethesda Lutheran parochial school at the beginning of the fall term. He has been one of the local Lutheran parochial school teachers for the past two years and during their stay in New Ulm, Prof. and Mrs. Gawrisch have made many friends, who regret their departure, but wish them much happiness and prosperity in their new home.

Bring Us Your Cream

A square deal that's the answer to our tremendous growth.

Our old friend's stay with us and new ones are coming every day.

Minnesota Central Creameries

22 No. German Str.

LYRIC THEATRE

TONIGHT, WEDNESDAY JULY 11TH

ALICE BRADY in "IN THE HAND OF HER HAND" George Bar McCutcheon Story You've read the story, now see the play.

Also "Pathe News" and "AS YOU WILL" Comedy. THURSDAY JULY 8TH FLORENCE BILLINGS in "THE HEART OF A GYPSY" also "FLAT BROKE" Rolin Comedy.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY JULY 9TH AND 10TH On these two days we will show 5 reels of the K. C. activities "Over There" during the recent war, showing actual war scenes. No Camouflage. In addition there will be a 2-reel drama and a good comedy. Admission for these two days only 10c and 20c. Special Price.

SUNDAY JULY 11TH Matinee 3 p. m. Evening 7 & 8:30 p. m. CONSTANCE TALMADGE in "THE EXPERIMENTAL MARRIAGE" Showing Constance at her best. Also "Pathe News" and "A good comedy." Admission 15c and 25c.

MONDAY AND TUESDAY JULY 12TH AND 13TH NORMA TALMADGE, New Ulm's Favorite Star in "YES OR NO" also "CYCLONE SMITHS PARTNER" Western and "Educational Reel." Admission 15c and 25c.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Bruess of Sleepy Eye returned to their home after a short visit here in the city.

Chas. Brown of Sleepy Eye was among the visitors of the Holmeister band concert recently.

Miss Greta Morrison returned to her home in Sleepy Eye after a pleasant visit with friends in this city.

Mrs. Barbara Wenger, mother of Mrs. Wm. Marti of this city, who died of the grim reaper Saturday, June 9, deceased was born in Switzerland, August 27, 1850, being almost 70 years old at the time of her death. She and her husband were residents of Brown county for many years.

Mrs. Peter Jennings of this city went to Sleepy Eye last week, accompanied by her two little sons. The latter remained in Sleepy Eye, the one with Mrs. John Weicharding, and the other with Mrs. J. Schueler. The next day, Mrs. Jennings underwent an operation for gall stones at the Loretto hospital, where she is getting along nicely at the present writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Steffen, and daughter, Ernestine, who visited with Mrs. Steffen's mother, Mrs. Herman Steffen, on North Minnesota street and with other relatives and friends in this city and West Newton, have departed for Marshall, Minn., to visit with Mrs. Theo. Steffen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. King. From there they will return to their home at Wilton, N. D.

Prof. and Mrs. Ralph S. Henry, 112 South Washington street, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby boy, born at the Loretto hospital on July 4. Prof. Henry, who is at present engaged in Chautauqua work in Central Wisconsin, is spending a few days at home. He expects to finish the Chautauqua season in time to return to New Ulm to take up his duties as high school principal at the opening of school in September.

Mrs. Elmer Gebhard of Afton, Minn., who submitted to a serious operation at the Union hospital here about three weeks ago, was able to leave the institution last Wednesday and is recuperating at the home of her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Gebhard, on North State street. Rev. Gebhard arrived here last Tuesday evening for a visit of several days with his wife and parents. He preached the sermon at the local Methodist church Sunday morning.

Louis Saffert and family departed the fore part of last week for St. Paul and after a brief sojourn continued their journey to Sykeston, N. D., for an extended visit with the former's sister, Mrs. Jos. Paa, and family. From there they will go to Milwaukee, Wis., to make their future home in the Cream City. Mr. Saffert was employed in the local meat market of his brother, Andrew Saffert, for about 15 years and his many friends regret the family's departure from New Ulm, but wish them unlimited success and contentment in their new home.

Prof. and Mrs. J. F. Gawrisch left last Wednesday for Red Wing, for a brief visit with the former's parents. From there they will continue to La Crosse and Watertown, Wis., for short stays, finally going to Milwaukee, Wis., where Prof. Gawrisch will take up his new duties as instructor in the Bethesda Lutheran parochial school at the beginning of the fall term. He has been one of the local Lutheran parochial school teachers for the past two years and during their stay in New Ulm, Prof. and Mrs. Gawrisch have made many friends, who regret their departure, but wish them much happiness and prosperity in their new home.

WE take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks and appreciation to all kind friends who extended their sympathy to us in our great bereavement, occasioned by the death of our beloved wife and mother, MRS. JOHN HAVEMEIER, JR. We also desire to thank those who attended the funeral, the pallbearers, and especially Rev. H. Strasen for his kind words of solace.

John Havemeier, Jr., and children.

Some Suit Sale For This Week

$32, $35, $38 SUITS $42, $45, $48 SUITS $28.50 $38.50 HUMMEL BROTHERS

14 No. Minn. Str. New Ulm, Minn.

Life's Harvest Time

Do you know the most profitable time in a man's life? No, it isn't in youth. They say it is from 40 to 60. That's the time when you are supposed to be old enough to have put away youthful dreaming and settle down to business with sufficient experience to be of material benefit to you. It's the time when you will make your stake, the time of your greatest earning capacity. Are you making good? Have you a substantial account at the bank? Are your dollars beginning to work for you? If not, come in and have a talk with us. We may be able to help you. It's never too late to mend.

Brown County Bank

New Ulm, Minnesota

Hygeia Nursing Bottle Complete FREE to every new born baby. All you have to do is send in the parents name and you will receive absolutely FREE by mail a complete Hygeia Nursing Bottle. This offer is good till January 1st, 1921. Backers Pharmacy. Adv. 27

FOR SALE—1 young hog, 2 months old. Inquire of Otto Fritsche, Route 6, New Ulm, Minn. Telephone R3112 Adv. 27

FOUND—A bunch of keys. Owner can secure same by calling at the Review office and paying for this advertisement. Adv. 27

FOR SALE—200 Acre Farm. Good buildings, basement, barn and fine house. All under cultivation and it is all high rolling land, two miles from West Union and six miles from Sauk Center, Minn. Will sell on reasonable terms. Address Mrs. Anna B. Kelly, 341 7th Ave., South, St. Cloud, Minn. Adv. 26-30

A Big Bowery Dance in Wm. Domke's Grove, just east of Sleepy Eye, Thursday evening, July 8. Music by Hofmeister's Orchestra. Everybody Come! Adv. 27 Farmers Committee.

FOR SALE—Good improved farms and unimproved farms. Write Marshall Co. Land Co., Warren, Minn., or S. H. Becker, New Ulm.

WANTED—To make the acquaintance of a young lady, with marriage in view. Am 40 years old. Address all communications to "D. R.", care of New Ulm Review. Adv. 27-28

FOR RENT—Three rooms all modern. Very reasonable. Inquire at office. Minnesota Central Creameries. Adv. 25

There is no surer way against adversity than a business training taken at the Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn. Send for catalog. Adv. 27

LOST—A soldier's raincoat on Minnesota street. Finder please leave at Review office. Adv. 27

FOR SALE—Pure bred Poland China boar pigs of March farrow at $25 if taken before July 15th. Andrew Losleben, Adv. 26-28 Essig, Minn.

WANTED AT ONCE—Ambitious, energetic man to handle the sale of our guaranteed household products in this county. We have a complete and attractive line of flavoring extracts, toilet articles, spices, medicines, etc. Good sellers. Steady repeats. Experience unnecessary. We furnish capital. Hustler can easily make $150 to $300 a month. Write quick for free particulars and secure your home county. Heberling Medicine Company, Bloomington, Illinois. Adv. 25-29

A Big Bowery Dance in Wm. Domke's Grove, just east of Sleepy Eye, Thursday evening, July 8. Music by Hofmeister's Orchestra. Everybody Come! Adv. 27 Farmers Committee.

DEPARTMENT OF IMMIGRATION State of North Dakota. BUY LAND DIRECT from owner and save from $25.00 to $30.00 per.

Field Deputy will assist you in selecting land in any part of North Dakota. J. H. Tauer, Field Deputy. 347 Nicollet Ave., Mankato Minn. Phone 1733. Adv. 26

FOR RENT—Three Apartments all furnished. Immediate possession can be had at the Grand Hotel. Adv. 27

WANTED—3 or 4 unfurnished rooms or house by man and wife. Call E. T. Mason, 85. Adv. 26

FOR RENT—New four-room house located on green house property west of fair grounds. Inquire at Christ Book. Adv. 26

FOR RENT: 4 office rooms. Inquire of J. M. Meyer, the Jeweler. Phone, 118. Adv. 26

FOR SALE—Full blood Durock spring boars and kiltz. Write or call at Jos. Mueller, Route 1, New Ulm, Telephone R. 2103. Adv. 20tf

BOY WANTED—At Geo J Gag's tin-shop, 315 North Minnesota street Adv. 23tf

Hygeia Nursing Bottle Complete FREE to every new born baby. All you have to do is send in the parents name and you will receive absolutely FREE by mail a complete Hygeia Nursing Bottle. This offer is good till January 1st, 1921. Backers Pharmacy. Adv. 27

Your Kodak films are appreciated at Goede's Kodak Finishing Department. Finishing is done by electric printing. 20 tf adv.

Order a case of Hauerstein's Root Beer. A delicious, wholesome and pure drink. This is the best. Adv. 17tf

ORDER your Rubber Stamps at the Review office.

H. O. SCHLEUDER

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN We Grind Our Own Lenses 102 No. Minn. St. Tel. 87

SNATCHED FROM THE PIT OF HORROR

It will grip—thrill and chill you—burn you up with excitement

DARING, DASHING, FIGHTING

ELMO LINCOLN

FAMOUS STAR OF "ELMO THE MIGHTY" SUPPORTED BY LOUISE LORRAINE IN ANOTHER UNIVERSAL SERIAL WONDER. "ELMO the FEARLESS" MADE BY THE GREAT WESTERN PRODUCING CO. DIRECTED BY J. P. MCGOWAN

WED. & THURS., JULY 7--8

Free to everybody to see this big Elmo Lincoln Serial. First Episode. Elmo Lincoln is the man that played "Tarzan of the Apes." This is a new and the latest serial on the screen. Don't miss this and keep following it up every Wednesday and Thursday.

Remember this first show is free to everybody. No admission. Shows at 8:30 and 9:00 p. m. Come early and crowd in.

GRAND THEATRE

DRINK

Cherry Blossoms

MANUFACTURED BY New Ulm Bottling Works