The central heating system at Sleepy Eye will not be extended this year, owing to the high cost of installing the necessary additional boiler in the power plant, which would amount to approximately $18,000. The soliciting committee of the Sleepy Eye Heating Co. spent considerable time, but could raise only about $9,000 to meet the expenditure.

Miss Josephine Abrahamson of Lafayette, who recently visited at the A. A. Berg home met with a serious accident last week at Chicago while boarding a street car. The car started just as Miss Abrahamson had one foot on the step, throwing her backwards on the pavement, cutting a gash in the back of her head. She was immediately taken to a hospital where she is now recovering. Many friends here will be pleased to hear that she will soon recover. —St. Peter Herald.

Ole Brudell and Albert Waage, while coming from New Ulm Tuesday afternoon had an auto accident just east of the Loretto Hospital. Mr. Waage was driving the formers Ford, claiming he could drive any kind of a car, but apparently he got excited when he got to a little turn at the foot of the hill just east of the hospital and the car turned over twice. Mr. Waage escaped without injuries while Mr. Brudell received a few cuts and bruises, but they succeeded in getting the car on the road again and continued their journey home.

L. Schand returned home Saturday from a six weeks' stay at the Loretto hospital, New Ulm. Mr. Schand submitted to two very serious operations and small hopes were entertained for his recovery, so that his return to his home is a source of much joy to his family and friends. It is believed now that with good care he will completely recover. A touching part of his return was the joy of his dogs, who could scarcely control themselves. For days they had refused food and searched the town day after day for him. An old cot of his was finally given them for a bed and this partly consoled them until his return. —Lamberton Star.

Ed. A. Gluth of Sleepy Eye had the good fortune to catch a potato thief who stole tubers from his garden. The thief was tracked there, last Wednesday. He had been missing potatoes from his garden for some time, and, suspecting himself in a cornfield nearby, he waited patiently, anticipating the culprit's illicit visit. His vigil was finally rewarded when Mr. Gluth loomed up, carrying a pail and commenced digging Mr. Gluth's "murphies." He was caught right in the act, and upon seeing the owner of the garden approach him, he pleaded for mercy and offered to settle the matter quietly. Mr. Gluth has not divulged the identity of the thief, but it is hoped the latter's experience will cure him of his stealing proclivities.
