LOCAL NOTES

Emil Gerth and son, Walter, have returned to Lamberton, following a brief visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Zimmermann of New Avon were New Ulm visitors recently.

The Ben Zieske family of Cobden were over Sunday visitors with local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Zieske and Mrs. S. S. Riggs of Cobden spent Tuesday of last week here.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilt and son, L. J. Wilt, of Lamberton were guests of New Ulm relatives recently.

The William H. Bierbaum family were guests at the Fremont Schmidt home in Springfield, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Krienke of Sleepy Eye were guests of New Ulm relatives recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Robertson were over Sunday guests of Sleepy Eye relatives and friends.

W. L. Walters and Miss Theresa Schavelsick of Sleepy Eye were New Ulm visitors early last week.

Misses Agnes Honetschlager and Veronica Huiras have returned to Sleepy Eye from a visit with local relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seifert have returned to a brief visit at the home of Albert Lea last week, Rev. W. J. Walker was returned to the Methodist church at Sleepy Eye. He has had charge of the congregation there for the past four years. Rev. Walker is a popular pastor, an orator of unusual ability and has taken a prominent part in public affairs at Sleepy Eye.

The county commissioners of Brown county will meet at the court house in this city, Friday, October 22, for the purpose of receiving bids for the work of repairing Branch No. 3 of County Ditch No. 16, which has been giving more or less trouble due to quicksand. The estimated cost of this work, as compiled by County Surveyor Carl Case, is $5,410.75. This ditch drains Reed Lake, three miles southeast of Springfield.

Tuesday evening of last week Senator Herman Schmechel of Renville county addressed meetings at Searles and Essig in the interest of the Babcock good roads amendment and he was successful in clearing away considerable misunderstanding relative to this very important proposed legislation. Senator Schmechel addressed a similar meeting at the New Ulm Armory some weeks ago. He is a forceful speaker and his arguments are convincing.

The 50th anniversary of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Springfield was celebrated with special services Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. Monday evening a reunion of all of the confirmation classes of the congregation was held and the closing service of the golden jubilee was to be held last evening and was dedicated to the Lutheran parochial school. The pastors who assisted Rev. William von Fischer at all of the services during the celebration are confirmed members of the Springfield congregation who have entered the ministry.

Julius Moersch of St. Paul was an over-Sunday guest at the home of Mayor and Mrs. L. A. Fritsche. While here he also visited with Attorney Albert Pfander, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sallet, Conrad Kornmann and other New Ulm friends. Sunday afternoon a very pleasant auto trip was arranged in his honor by Mayor Fritsche to historic Fort Ridgely, where a picnic supper was enjoyed. The outing was exceedingly pleasant in view of the very prepatious autumn weather. Mrs. C. G. Reim accompanied them on this trip.

Rev. C. W. Baxter was a recent visitor at Springfield.

The Theo. Waibel family of Lamberton spent Sunday here.

Rev. F. P. Werner of Sleepy Eye was a business visitor here last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckert were guests of Gibbon relatives last Tuesday and Wednesday.

George Nigg of Lamberton was a business visitor here the fore part of last week.

Mesdames H. N. Reding and George Green of Morgan were recent New Ulm visitors.

Anton Huberty has gone to Le Sueur to visit at the homes of his sons, Peter and John, for some time.

Mrs. George Walter has returned to St. Peter after a week's visit with local relatives and friends.

Mrs. Ella K. Leland and her grandchildren, Virginia and Charles Hintz, recently visited friends at St. Peter.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Lindroth and Mrs. Fred Martin of St. Peter recently visited New Ulm friends and relatives.

Mrs. Mabel McKenzie of Gaylord arrived here last Tuesday for a several days' visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. M. Reinhart was a guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Frantz, at Cobden last week.

Mrs. W. T. Eckstein entertained a number of friends at a sewing party at her home on South State street, Saturday afternoon. After enjoying a pleasant afternoon a delicious luncheon was served.

Nine members of the Sleepy Eye Fire Department handed in their resignations at the regular monthly meeting of the organization one evening early last week. A sufficient number of applications have been received to fill the places of the nine ex-firemen, according to the Sleepy Eye Progressive.

At the Methodist conference held at Albert Lea last week, Rev. W. J. Walker was returned to the Methodist church at Sleepy Eye. He has had charge of the congregation there for the past four years. Rev. Walker is a popular pastor, an orator of unusual ability and has taken a prominent part in public affairs at Sleepy Eye.

Emil Lambrecht of Sleepy Eye spent Monday of last week in this city.

County Surveyor Carl Case was a Sleepy Eye visitor early last week.

Joseph Burg of Nicollet was a New Ulm visitor for a few days the fore part of last week.

Mrs. Frank Polta of St. Paul arrives here Friday for a few days' visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Paul Weigand.

Mrs. Albert Knees and daughter, Edna, of Milford have gone to California, where they expect to spend a month visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Fred Gareis, and family.

During the past week several of the friends of Geo. Glotzbach, Sr., have urged him to get into the game and run for representative-at-large from Brown and Redwood counties against A. J. Praxel and E. H. Stahn, on the sticker method, but Mt. Glotzbach feels he would rather wait a couple of years and then get into the game.—Sleepy Eye Progressive.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Durbahn of Angus, Minn., spent the latter part of last week here visiting his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Durbahn. They sold out at Angus and left by auto Monday for Lesico, Texas, where he purchased a place a year ago. Before leaving they visited Springfield, New Ulm and Fairfax in company with Albert Durbahn and family.—Sleepy Eye Progressive.

Mrs. F. Pelz, residing on North German street, had the misfortune to fall downstairs in her home, early last week, and sustaining several painful bruises as a result of her experience. In view of the fact that she is 77 years of age, it is considered a miracle that she escaped more serious injury. Her son, J. G. Pelz, of Sleepy Eye, arrived here last Wednesday to visit his mother, who is getting along as nicely as can be expected.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Ben. Juni made the rather disconcerting discovery that a sum of money, exceeding $50, which she had secreted in a hard coal stove in the Juni home on South Broad, had mysteriously disappeared, and although the local police has been working on certain clues furnished by Mr. and Mrs. Juni, no arrests have as yet been made. Mrs. Juni says that she had intended depositing the money in a local bank, but has been too busy to come up town for this purpose. This unfortunate instance will no doubt prove a timely warning to others, not to keep large sums of money around the house, regardless of how secure the hiding place may seem. It is to be hoped that the guilty party or parties in this case will be apprehended and dealt with according to law.

George K. Helling and son, Alvin, of Hanska transacted business here, Thursday.

The Misses Madalin Epper, Bessie Peterson and Phyllis Dorn of Nicollet were recent New Ulm visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Christ. Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Ole E. Haugen of Hanska spent Wednesday of last week here.

Mrs. Anton Tand and children, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Iker Torgrimson of Hanska were New Ulm callers last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Paul and daughter of Arlington, accompanied by Mrs. M. Deis of Gaylord were Sunday guests at the August Paul home here.

Albert Pretzer, prominent resident of Eden, and his son-in-law, Emil Rohde, of the same township, transacted business here Monday.

Rev. John A. Hughes, pastor of the Congregational church at Sleepy Eye, has been chosen as moderator of the Southwestern Association of Congregational churches, which was organized at a meeting held in Mankato on Tuesday and Wednesday last week. He was also elected to represent the Association at the national council to be held in Los Angeles, Calif., in June, 1921.

Last Wednesday evening marked the initial work of the new businessmen's gymnastic class, which Prof. Anton Leibold has organized here. The class meets every Wednesday evening and is put through a course of light exercises by Prof. Leibold. This innovation is already proving quite popular and it is expected that the membership will increase materially as cold weather sets in.

Mrs. Henry Boesch entertained some 20 friends at an "old time" party at her home on South Front street. The rooms were prettily decorated with autumn leaves. Games, followed by dancing, formed the evening's amusements and at midnight a delicious luncheon was served. Mrs. Ben Ries received the prize as the most appropriately dressed lady, while Henry Grunke was awarded the honors as the most appropriately dressed gentleman. All present enjoyed a very pleasant evening.

Minnesota holds third place in the long list of states comprising the birth registration area of the United States, in the number of deaths of infants under one year of age per 1,000 live births in 1919. The ratio in our state is 67 and the two states that have a smaller death rate of infants are Oregon and Washington, with 63 each. South Carolina had the highest death rate of infants under one year, namely, 113 per 1,000 live births. The statistics were compiled by the census department at Washington, D. C.
