Carl Weschke returned to St. Paul, Tuesday afternoon, following a few days' visit with his sisters, Mrs. Meta Crone, Mrs. E. A. Pfeiffer and Miss Hertha Weschke, in this city.

John Sturm returned to New Ulm, Saturday evening, from a week's sojourn in Wilkin county, Minn., and at Fargo, N. D., where he transacted business and visited with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wicht and two children have returned to Verdale, following a pleasant visit of a few days with the P. H. Peters family on North First street. Mr. Wicht is Mrs. Peters' brother.

Miss Alice Pfeiffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pfeiffer of Milford township, left Sunday for Stark township to assume her duties as teacher in the school district 83, which opened for the fall term on Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. A. E. Norman, Mrs. P. J. Blien and daughter, Mrs. M. G. Ouren of Hanska visited with Mrs. Emil G. Hage of this city, who is receiving treatment at the Union Hospital here, Thursday morning.

Dr. Alfred Groebner returned Saturday evening from St. Paul, where he spent a week. He submitted to a minor operation and also became a member of the Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus at the initiation last Tuesday evening.

Miss Hertha Weschke disposed of her residence property on South Washington street, last Wednesday, to Mrs. Wilhelmina Prah of the town of Milford, who will take possession in the near future. Miss Weschke purchased this property of Alfred Thiede last May. She expects to leave for Los Angeles, Calif., soon, to spend the winter there with her sister, Mrs. Meta Crone.

Mrs. Emily Reinhart has returned from a week's visit with relatives at Cobden.

Peter J. Eichten has returned from a business sojourn of a few days in the Twin Cities.

C. H. Swenson and Reuben Lund of Lafayette transacted business here the 6th part of last week.

F. E. Beech and Fred Arndt of Sleepy Eye transacted business here for several days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Penney and daughter, Beth, and Mrs. C. Fletcher of Madelia were New Ulm visitors last Wednesday.

Mrs. Albert Nicklaus of this city was a guest at the Robert Runck and Henry Pfeiffer homes in the town of Milford last week.

Peter Guldan, Frank Herzog, Edmund Schimschock, Walter Paul and Arthur Walters of Sleepy Eye were recent visitors here.

Miss Anna Rosenau has returned from Sleepy Eye, where she was a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Henry Krienke, for a week.

Mrs. E. Wagner of Sleepy Eye recently visited her husband, while he was recovering from the effects of an operation for the removal of his tonsils at a local hospital.

Mrs. A. Fohl, Oscar Paulson, the latter's sister, Miss Ade Orlemann, and the Misses Elsie Hoffmann, Lena Offermann and Elsie Berg of Sleepy Eye were recent New Ulm visitors.

Wm. F. Mahler, formerly publisher of the Springfield Advance for many years, is now a resident of Minneapolis, having purchased an interest in a company that manufactures grain shock loaders, a new machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rein and Mrs. John Dietz motored to Minneapolis, Friday, for a few days' visit with Otto Dietz. They also were guests at the George Stahl home in Olivia before returning home, yesterday.

Mrs. Anna Welter went to Sleepy Eye, last Wednesday, to spend a day with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Athanas J. Henle. From there she continued her journey to Lambertson, where she visited other relatives.

Mrs. John J. Moriarty of Brookings, S. D., is enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willibald Eibner, and other relatives and friends. Mr. Moriarty accompanied her to New Ulm but returned to Brookings after a brief stay here.

Miss Elizabeth Theis, a former Nicollet county girl, was expected to arrive in St. Peter, Monday, from Belgum, where she has resided with her father for the past 15 years. For four years she was a nurse and clerk in the Belgian army during the World war. Miss Theis was born in Granby township, Nicollet county, and when 18 years ago left for Belgum with her father. She is a sister of Edward Theis, plumbing contractor at St. Peter.

F. R. Janza, a tobacco grower from Wisconsin, who removed to Le Sueur county about five years ago, has just completed curing his 1920 crop of native tobacco, which aggregated 3,000 pounds from a four-acre field. He expects to ship the "weed" to a Wisconsin factory this week and will receive 50 cents a pound, or a total of $1,500, for the crop. Mr. Janza claims that tobacco can be grown in Minnesota just as well as in Wisconsin, good black loam land being essential for a paying crop, and says that it pays well.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henle and daughter, Miss Gladys, and Mr. and Mrs. Athanas Henle of this city, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Anton Henle of Milford were at St. Peter, Thursday, where they attended the funeral of Harold, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cook, who passed away at a Mankato hospital, Tuesday afternoon of last week. Mrs. Cook, mother of the deceased, is a niece of Messrs. Henle. The young man was born at Redwood Falls, September 5, 1904, but spent most of his life at St. Peter. Aside from his parents, he is survived by three younger brothers and one sister. Funeral services were conducted at St. Peter's Catholic church, St. Peter, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Local friends of the Cook family extend condolences.

The work of laying brick for the walls of the new municipal electric light plant adjoining the old station building was commenced the middle of last week and is being rushed in the hope of getting the new structure under roof by December 1. A carload of cement was received recently, after the contractors had been out of this very essential building material for several weeks. The employment of more bricklayers is contingent upon the possibility of securing a sufficient supply of cement to keep them busy, as the brick are laid in cement mortar.
