LOCAL NOTES

Miss Rose Krueger of Sleepy Eye was a New Ulm visitor last Tuesday.

The F. L. Guggisberg family were Sunday guests at the Wm. H. Guggisberg home in Gibbon.

The Misses Hilma Oswald and Vera Papke of Gibbon spent Sunday with local relatives and friends.

Miss Anna Rathmann has returned to her home at Gibbon, following a several days' visit with relatives and friends here.

Miss Gretchen Zschunke spent the week end at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Schilling, in Springfield.

Mrs. Thomas Carson has returned from a few days' visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schmidt, at Springfield.

Miss Clara Permantgen of Sleepy Eye was a guest at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Matt Schouvelier, here, Thursday and Friday.

Mrs. J. B. Thorsness and children of Hanska arrived here Thursday for a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Winkelmann, and other local relatives and friends.

Mrs. Herman Roeder and Miss Florence Filzen of Ross, N. D., arrived here last Wednesday afternoon and expect to spend a month visiting relatives and friends in New Ulm.

Norma Schleif, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schleif, is recovering nicely from the effects of an operation for the removal of her tonsils, which was performed upon her at the Loretto Hospital here Saturday.

Sam Abrahamson and Richard Hinquist are the new proprietors of the Bernadotte store, having purchased the entire stock from Abrahamson & Son of Lafayette. Both of the new owners have been employed in this business, the former as manager since March 1.

Winfield, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Sjostrom of South Bernadotte, was operated upon for appendicitis at the Union Hospital here the fore part of last week. The little fellow's condition was very serious, but at present he is improving nicely.

The Anton Schueller family of Nicollet were guests of New Ulm relatives, Sunday.

Dr. G. B. Weiser attended a session of the State Board of Medical Examiners which was held at St. Paul last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brandt and Mrs. Louise Behnke of Lambertton spent Tuesday of last week visiting New Ulm relatives.

Miss Emma Frasch has returned from Lambertton, where she was a guest at the J. H. Haas and Waibel homes for several days.

Miss Martha Werner of Lambertton, who spent several days visiting New Ulm relatives and friends, returned to her home last Tuesday.

Mrs. William Zick was able to return to her home in Linden township with her infant son last week, after being confined in the Union Hospital here.

Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Albrecht of Sleepy Eye were guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Retzlaff, in this city the fore part of last week.

Valentine Hegler of this city has accepted a position with the Farmers' Elevator Co. of Sleepy Eye and will commence his new duties the first of November. He succeeds A. H. Hillestein, who has resigned.

H. F. Johns, who has been farming near the Stark creamery and who held an auction sale, October 7, has moved to Essig. He intended to move to New Ulm, but could find no house to rent.—Sleepy Eye Progressive.

Mrs. Anton Leibold has arrived here from Columbus, Ohio, to join her husband, who is the new instructor of the gymnastic classes at Turner Hall. Prof. Leibold is naturally greatly elated over the arrival of his wife, as his enforced "bachelorhood" was becoming monotonous.

Mrs. Dora Hoffmann returned to New Ulm, last Tuesday evening, from a several weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Davenport, Iowa; Milwaukee and Kenosha, Wis., and St. Paul. She expects to spend the approaching winter at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Prof. and Mrs. A. Ackermann, in this city.

Mrs. August Juenemann was most agreeably surprised by 17 neighbors and friends at her home on North Washington street, last Wednesday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Cards formed the evenings entertainment and a delicious luncheon was served later. Mrs. Juenemann received many beautiful gifts in memory of the occasion.

Miss Agnes Shelly of Hanska was a New Ulm visitor the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Edward Hose and daughter of Sleepy Eye enjoyed a brief visit with local friends recently.

Miss Martha Werner of Lambertton arrived here the fore part of last week for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Lena Schmidt was given a farewell party on Tuesday afternoon by a few of her lady friends. She intends to move to New Ulm to make her future home with her son in a few days.—Sleepy Eye Progressive.

Miss Clara Schouvelier, who has been employed at the Kahler hotel in Rochester for the past two years, arrived here last Tuesday afternoon for a two weeks' vacation which she is spending with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Schouvelier, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Schouvelier, accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson, have returned from Minneapolis, where they were guests at the home of Mr. Schouvelier's sister, Mrs. James Dillin. They also visited other relatives in the Flour City.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilarius Berg of Courtland are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy. The new Courtland banker was born at the Loretto Hospital here early Monday morning. Grandpa and Grandma Hubert Berg of this city are equally happy over the arrival of the newcomer.

S. P. Nielsen motored to Minneapolis Sunday and says that he found the road between New Ulm and Minneapolis in very bad condition in places and did not find a single stretch of road that could be compared with the road between New Ulm and Sleepy Eye. He thinks that we ought to be proud of this road which is kept in perfect condition and ought to appreciate the good work done by Mr. Jim Case who keeps this road in such shape.
