

SATISFACTION

You will be well satisfied with any First Farm Mortgage Security that you obtain from us for all of our investments are carefully taken care of for our customers until the money is returned.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

Mrs. B. M. Frantz of Cobden was a recent visitor here.

Otto Hummel transacted business at Springfield last Tuesday.

Arthur Meerfeld of near Springfield transacted business here recently.

Miss Bertha Meine of Springfield was a guest of local friends recently.

Miss Sylvia Marti has returned from a few days' visit with Sleepy Eye relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto R. Kohn of St. Peter recently visited local relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. J. Schmidt of Sleepy Eye was a New Ulm visitor the latter part of the week.

Vinton C. Bird of Springfield was a Sunday visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schreyer.

S. P. Nielsen of the S. P. Nielsen Auto Co. transacted business at Springfield last Wednesday.

Otto Buenger of the Buenger Furniture Co. transacted business at Sleepy Eye the fore part of last week.

Mrs. N. E. Nelson entertained a large number of ladies from Springfield, her former home, recently.

Jacob Runkel has returned to Springfield, following a visit of a few days with his mother, Mrs. H. L. Runkel, in this city.

Joseph Weissenborn was a guest at the J. J. H. Weissenborn home in Lafayette village the fore part of last week.

Mrs. John Schneider has returned from a pleasant visit of a few days at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Erust, at Sleepy Eye.

Miss Anna Johannes of Nicollet was a week-end visitor here.

Henry Hanschen of Minneapolis recently visited his mother, Mrs. August Muske, on North State street, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton T. Steffen of West Newton township are the proud parents of a bouncing baby boy, born recently.

Alfred Seier and family have returned to their home at Minneapolis, following a pleasant visit with local relatives and friends.

Sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Kosek and Mr. and Mrs. John Fluegge early last week. Both families reside in Lafayette township.

Mrs. F. H. Schieffert and daughter, Alice, of Morgan were guests of New Ulm relatives a few days the fore part of last week.

Mrs. Adolph Wendt of Springfield accompanied her daughter to New Ulm, the fore part of last week, to consult a local specialist relative to the child's impaired health.

Charles L. Roos of Wellington, Kans., came up for a brief visit with his mother, Mrs. Helen Roos, who is ill. Mr. Roos arrived here Thursday and returned home Friday afternoon.

Dr. R. G. Mayer of Cresbard, S. D., arrived here last Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of the late Charles Vogtel and for a few days' visit with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. G. Mayer. He returned to Cresbard Thursday night.

County Superintendent of Schools R. B. Kennedy attended the special meeting of county superintendents of the state, which was held at the University Farm School, St. Paul, recently, upon the call of the state superintendent. He also was present at the Minnesota Educational Association convention.

THE LAST WORD

Concrete Products

— for —

Permanent Construction

We Manufacture

THE RIB-STONE SILO, All types BUILDING BLOCKS for exterior and interior use, and DRAIN TILE.

For information, write us, or call on us at our plant, before you buy elsewhere. Our prices are right.

Saffert-Gugisberg Cement Construction Company

Nord Third Street. New Ulm, Minnesota.

WIN A PRIZE

THE FAIR STORE will give away THREE PRIZES

— ON —

SATURDAY, NOV. 20

The first prize is a Cut Glass Bowl, and is a beautiful dish; the second is a Hand-painted Bowl, also a desirable dish, while the third is an acceptable Berry Set.

DON'T MISS THIS OPPORTUNITY

THE FAIR STORE

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Beltz of Golden Gate were Sunday visitors here.

Mrs. William Marti recently was the guest of relatives at Sleepy Eye.

J. A. Ochs was a Sleepy Eye caller last Wednesday.

J. A. Weiss, H. A. Weiss and J. Selner of Golden Gate spent Sunday in this city.

George Marti of Sleepy Eye called on his many friends here the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Swenson of Lafayette were business visitors here last Wednesday.

The Misses Dagmar Hansen and Catherine Hanson of Sleepy Eye spent Sunday in New Ulm.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Gugisberg of Gibbon were guests of New Ulm relatives Sunday.

Mrs. F. C. Zimmermann and Miss Hertha Ewald of Nicollet were New Ulm visitors recently.

Mrs. Edward Wegner and Mrs. F. Pelzl were Sunday guests at the J. G. Pelzl home in Sleepy Eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Penning have returned from a pleasant visit of a few days at the J. Penning home in Sleepy Eye.

August Sjogren of Minneapolis underwent an operation for the removal of adenoids at a local hospital the fore part of last week.

Mrs. F. H. Retzlaff spent a few days last week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Albrecht, at Sleepy Eye.

Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Olin of Lafayette, accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Nelson of Iona, S. D., were Sunday visitors here.

The Misses Ethel Swanson and Ethel Erickson of Lafayette attended the Armistice Day exercises at the Armory here Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Pless of Gibbon visited the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Pless, on South Franklin street, last Wednesday.

Mrs. J. P. Christensen and daughters, Miss Alice and Mrs. Jensen, of Springfield were recent guests at the home of Mrs. Myrtle Fredrickson, in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Niemann and daughter, Oleta, were recent guests at the home of the former's brother, August Niemann, at Springfield.

A large number of new books were recently received by the Dyckman library at Sleepy Eye. The list includes some of the latest popular works of fiction.

Harriet, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Romberg of Sleepy Eye, is recovering nicely from the effects of an operation for appendicitis, performed upon her at the Union Hospital here the fore part of last week.

William, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zins of Nicollet, is receiving medical attention at the Loretto Hospital here on account of an injury to one of his knees by a rusty nail which penetrated the member while the lad was playing. The attending physician found it necessary to perform an operation to drain the wound so as to prevent blood poisoning setting in.

Prof. B. Gruenfelder of this city has been engaged as instructor of the Lafayette band, which was re-organized at a meeting of some 25 band members in that village last Wednesday evening. Rehearsals were begun Monday evening of this week. About one-half of the members of the re-organized band are beginners. The following officers were re-elected at the meeting last Wednesday: President C. H. Swenson; secretary, Ed. Lund, and treasurer, Hugo Nelson.

Miss Rose Lieb was most agreeably surprised by some 40 of her friends at the home of her uncle, Councilor William Lieb, on North Washington street, one evening early last week. The affair was in the nature of a kitchen shower and proved a pleasing success. Miss Lieb, who became the bride of Leo Schaeffler, last Wednesday morning, was presented with many useful pre-nuptial gifts and the evening was spent in a most delightful manner.

Miss Julia Trat of Sleepy Eye visited local friends last Tuesday.

The Baptist Groebner family was entertained at Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christiansen.

Joseph Pascher, Sr., Springfield's oldest inhabitant, passed away at his home there, Friday, November 5, following many years' affliction with the infirmities usually attendant upon old age. He was 86 years, 7 months and 21 days old at the time of his demise. Deceased was one of the most successful farmers in the Springfield community until retiring and removing to that village some 20 years ago. He leaves a son and two daughters to mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted at St. Raphael's Catholic church at Springfield Monday morning of last week.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

Joseph Pascher, Sr., Springfield's oldest inhabitant, passed away at his home there, Friday, November 5, following many years' affliction with the infirmities usually attendant upon old age. He was 86 years, 7 months and 21 days old at the time of his demise. Deceased was one of the most successful farmers in the Springfield community until retiring and removing to that village some 20 years ago. He leaves a son and two daughters to mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted at St. Raphael's Catholic church at Springfield Monday morning of last week.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

LYRIC THEATRE

"ERE YOU FORGET" WALLACE REID

"SICK ABED" Friday and Saturday

MAKE YOUR THEATRE PARTY RESERVATIONS NOW

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY NOVEMBER 17 AND 18

ENID BENNETT in "HAIRPINS"

Losing hairpins nearly lost one, woman's husband for her. Come expecting a wonderful comedy drama. It's a Paramount Picture.

Also "THE LITTLE NIGGER" in a Comedy. Admission 10c and 25c.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NOVEMBER 19 AND 20

WALLACE REID in "SICK ABED"

With Bebe Daniels as nurse. The liveliest patient you ever saw, in a Saturday Evening Post story that is all smiles. Also "JUNE MADNESS" Comedy and "TOPICS OF THE DAY" Admission 15c and 25c.

SUNDAY NOVEMBER 21

Matinee 3 p. m. Evening 7 & 8:30 p. m. WILL ROGERS in "THE STRANGE BORDER"

Also "PATHE REVIEW" and "MISFORTUNE HUNTERS" Hall Room Boys Comed. Admission: Matinee 10c and 20c; Evening, 15c and 25c. TRY TO GET IN

MONDAY AND TUESDAY NOVEMBER 22 AND 23

ANITA STEWART in "THE YELLOW TYPHOON"

"Yellow" because of her hair. "Typhoon" because of the human wreckage she left in her wake. A Harold MacGrath Story. Also "TWO BALD PATES" Christie Comedy Admission 15c and 25c.

COMING "EVERY WOMAN" another big Paramount Special.

Miss Julia Trat of Sleepy Eye visited local friends last Tuesday.

The Baptist Groebner family was entertained at Sunday dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Christiansen.

Joseph Pascher, Sr., Springfield's oldest inhabitant, passed away at his home there, Friday, November 5, following many years' affliction with the infirmities usually attendant upon old age. He was 86 years, 7 months and 21 days old at the time of his demise. Deceased was one of the most successful farmers in the Springfield community until retiring and removing to that village some 20 years ago. He leaves a son and two daughters to mourn his death. Funeral services were conducted at St. Raphael's Catholic church at Springfield Monday morning of last week.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "Father" series which Gus Hill, has offered thus far. Mr. Hill promises a large and capable cast which includes a number of well known musical comedy favorites. The plot revolves around the efforts of Maggie to get Jiggs to the seashore. After much effort she accomplished the difficult task. How he eludes her best intentions despite her efforts to make him view the situation through the same rose tinted glasses, gives ample scope for numerous funny situations.

John Utz, for 33 years a resident of Burnstown township, succumbed to bronchitis, Saturday morning, November 6. Death followed an illness of about two years' duration. He was a native of Bavaria. His wife preceded him in death early last year. Deceased is survived by a son and two daughters. The remains were laid to rest at Springfield, following funeral services in St. Raphael's Catholic church last Tuesday morning. Rev. George W. Rolwes of Minneapolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Rolwes of this city, officiated in the absence of Rev. F. S. Rant.

Jiggs, Maggie, Dinty Moore and other cartoon characters created by the fertile mind of George McManus, will appear in life at the Turner Theatre Sunday, Nov. 21, where "Bringing Up Father at the Seashore" will hold forth. From all advance accounts this seasons concoction of mirth, melody, song, novelty, surprise and joy, is far the best of the McManus "