County Agent F. M. Bane desires to warn the farmers to beware of solicitors who are going through the country selling anything from stock food to mining shares. All reliable solicitors, who are selling goods that are worth while, carry with them the endorsement of the State Federation of Farm Bureaus and the farmers will do well to carefully avoid all who are not able to produce such an endorsement. Report to County Agent any solicitor who has not been endorsed by the Federation. Make every solicitor show his credentials from the proper Federation official.
