OBITUARY

MRS. LOUISE TOBERER.
Death claimed another of the old pioneer settlers of this vicinity, when Mrs. Louise Toberer, nee Nagel, passed away at her home on North German street, Sunday evening at 8:15 o'clock. Her demise was due to leakage of the heart, with which she had been afflicted for about a year. Some four weeks ago she suffered a nervous breakdown and since that time her condition grew gradually worse, until the end finally brought her relief from suffering.

Deceased was born in Blandinloch, Baden, Germany, December 30, 1845, and was, therefore, 75 years, four months and eight days old when the final summons came. When she was only four months old, her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. August Nagel, came to America and located in Cincinnati, Ohio. After remaining in that city for 11 years, the family removed to New Ulm in 1857 and Mrs. Toberer made her home here continuously ever since.

She was married October 12, 1862, to John C. Toberer, who preceded her in death March 27, 1911. Of the seven children born to them, only two survive. They are the Misses Anna and Elfrieda Toberer, both at home. Two children passed away while still quite young, one being four and a half and the other 10 years old. The three others grew to manhood and womanhood. They were Mrs. Martin (Amanda) Mueller and Charles and John Toberer, Jr. She is also survived by four grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren, as well as by one brother, Carl Nagel, of this city.

Mrs. Toberer was a member of the Turner Ladies' Society and enjoyed a large acquaintance in New Ulm and vicinity. Obsequies will be held at Turner Hall this (Wednesday) afternoon, Captain Albert Steinhauser officiating, and the remains will be laid to rest in the City cemetery, beside those of her deceased husband.

JACOB SCHMIDT.
Jacob Schmidt, for about 30 years a resident of New Ulm, but who spent the past eight years or more in Sleepy Eye and vicinity, succumbed to cancer of the stomach at the Loretto Hospital here, Saturday noon. He had been receiving medical attention at the hospital since February 14 of this year, but owing to the fact that the disease had progressed to such an extent as to render his condition hopeless, an operation was performed upon him.

Deceased was 58 years, nine months and 18 days of age, having been born July 19, 1862, at Milwaukee, Wis. When he was a little boy, his widowed mother, brothers and sisters removed to Home township, where the family resided on a farm until 1883, when they came to New Ulm. Some eight years ago he removed to Sleepy Eye. He was not married.

Mr. Schmidt is survived by two brothers, Albert Schmidt of Bismarck, N. D., and John F. Schmidt, residing on North Broadway in this city.

Funeral services were conducted at the hospital chapel, yesterday morning at 8 o'clock, interment being in the Catholic cemetery here.

MISS HILDA CORA SANDMANN.
New Ulm relatives and friends received the sad news of the death of Miss Hilda Cora Sandmann, sister of Adolph H. Sandmann of this city and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Sandmann, Sr., of Morgan, which occurred at the home of her parents at that place Wednesday of last week. Hodgkin's disease, with which Miss Sandmann had been afflicted for some three months, was the immediate cause of her demise. She was confined to her bed for the past six weeks as a result of her illness.

Deceased was born in Lafayette township, Nicollet county, August 18, 1890, being 30 years, eight months and 16 days old when the final summons came. When about three years old, she removed to Morgan with her parents some 27 years ago and that place had since been her home.

Aside from the sorrowing parents Miss Sandmann leaves one sister, Mrs. Fred Zaske of Morgan, as well as the following six brothers to mourn her untimely death: Charles, William, Jr., Herman, Edward and Elmer Sandmann, all of Morgan, and Adolph H. Sandmann of this city. One brother, Henry, died in the Philippines while serving in the United States Army during the Spanish-American war in 1898.

Following brief obsequies at the late home at 1 o'clock, funeral services were held at the Morgan city hall, Saturday afternoon, the M. E. church there being inadequate to accommodate the large throng of relatives and friends who gathered to pay their last respects to the departed. Rev. Dr. C. H. Hohn of the M. E. church here and an old friend of the family delivered the principal funeral address in German, while Rev. W. Stegner, pastor of the Morgan M. E. church spoke in English. Rev. H. J. Hoffer of the Springfield M. E. church also officiated.

From New Ulm and vicinity the following relatives and friends attended the funeral:

Mrs. Ed. Wagner and children left for Fairfax and Gibbon, Saturday afternoon, for a brief visit with relatives. Mr. Wagner joined them at the latter place, Sunday morning and they all returned home via the auto route, that evening.

Mrs. R. Rubitschung and Miss Louise Schwinghammer of Springfield were guests of local friends recently.

Armin Kachel, for the past three years employed in the local office of the Western Union Telegraph Co., departed Thursday for Huron, S. D., to accept a position as telegrapher in the same company's office at that place. Armin is an aggressive young man and no doubt will make good in his new location.

Special services were conducted at the Methodist church here by Rev. Dr. C. G. Hohn, Sunday morning, in connection with the annual confirmation exercises. The Class of 1921 is composed of the following 10 young people: Marian Reineke, Lillian Moll, Lillian Alwin, Willard Cordes, Lydia Meierding (Morgan), Roland Hohn, Leroy Haenze, Herman Juni, Leulla Cordes and Leona Gebhard.

Miss Marie Korbel was most agreeably surprised by about 20 lady friends at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clifton E. Smith, on Fourth North street, Sunday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. "500" was played and prizes were awarded to Miss Mary Stolz, high, and Miss Ida Haubrich, low. After enjoying a pleasant social evening, a delicious luncheon was served. Miss Korbel was presented with a suitable gift as a remembrance from the guests.

COUNCIL HAS BUSY SESSION

The street committee was instructed to look into this matter.

Chief Henry Engel's request that the council donate $100 to cover the expenses of two delegates of the Fire Department to the annual state convention at International Falls next month, was granted to the extent of $75, being the same amount as last year.

The street committee, together with the city attorney and City Engineer F. D. Minium, were given full power to act in the matter of sewer connections for three residences owned by Otto Tappe, who appeared before the council and requested permission to connect all three houses with one lead from the main sewer.

The request of the New Ulm Post, World War Veterans, for permission to hold their carnival in North German Park last week, was granted and the license fee was fixed at $25.

Engineer Minium submitted a plat of the Herman Zellmer property, near the Loretto Hospital, the purpose of which was to secure a description by metes and bounds of several small parcels of land, containing a total of approximately 16 1-2 acres. The plat was approved, accepted and ordered placed on file by the city clerk.

A communication from the Minnesota Mutual Automobile Association, offering to place a few "silent policemen" at busy intersections on our principal streets, was turned over to the street committee and city engineer. These inanimate traffic cops are substantially constructed of concrete, nearly six feet high and about three and a half feet wide at the bottom, with an electric light at the top.

The Ulrich Electric Co. and the Everling Electric Co. were granted electricians' licenses and a license to operate a soft drink establishment was granted H. A. Kretsch for the Union Restaurant on North Broadway, formerly conducted by Charles Lindmeyer.

Building permits were granted to Paul Sturm, Dr. Emil Mueller, Dr. J. H. Vogel and Henry Beisinger for making various improvements on their properties.

Contractor J. G. Robertson was allowed two monthly estimates in the sum of $4,023.83 and $2,840.25, respectively, for work on the installation of machinery and equipment in the new municipal electric light and waterworks plant. For plumbing work in the same structure, Gulden & Vercoe of this city received an estimate in the sum of $532.20. The monthly estimate of $9,846.35 represents work completed on the plant building by the Lawrence Construction Co., general contractors.

City Clerk Backer reported that all of the appointees of the mayor and the council had qualified, with the exception of Otto Hartman, member of the board of health.

The matter of purchasing a small Tarvia heater for making repairs in the city's streets that have been treated with this anti-dust material, was referred to the street committee. The cost of the heater is approximately $170.
