

Always Safe

No investor in our Farm Mortgages has ever had to wait for either interest or principal for they are paid on the day due.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

STORK BROTHERS
ESTABLISHED 1902
CASH BUYERS
PROMPT, RELIABLE, SAFE—WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS
NEW ULM MINNESOTA

LOCAL NOTES

Elmer Jacobson of near Gibbon was a recent business visitor here.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Jacobson of Lafayette were New Ulm visitors, last Tuesday.

Banker Henry Anderson and Chas. Chute of Hanska transacted business in New Ulm, recently.

Borghild Lind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Lind of Hanska, submitted to an operation for the removal of her tonsils at the Union Hospital here, Thursday morning.

A delegation from Sleepy Eye visited New Ulm and Lafayette early last week, for the purpose of giving the fire trucks here and in the latter village the once over.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Besmehn and children, accompanied by Mrs. W. G. Alwin and Mrs. F. W. Johnson, were recent guests at the Fred Spoorhouse home in Winthrop.

Miss Mabel Lilleodden, daughter of C. C. Lilleodden of Hanska, is convalescing nicely from the effects of an operation for appendicitis at the Union Hospital in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bieraugel and daughter, Hertha, of New Ulm, and their son, Emil, and family of Mankato were Sunday visitors at the William Bieraugel home.—Lafayette Ledger.

The annual picnic of the Brown County Farm Bureau will be held in the vicinity of Sleepy Eye, Tuesday, June 14. Good speakers and a nice program of amusements are being provided.

August Jungquist of Lafayette arrived here, Thursday, to submit to an operation for appendicitis, which was performed upon him at the Union Hospital, the same day. He is getting along nicely.

The keen sense of smell possessed by Sheriff Peterson of Cottonwood county led him to a disabled auto in a garage at Windom, where he found a gallon jug of real moonshine and several fruit jars filled with the same liquid in a grip. The rum runner had experienced a flat tire and had driven into the garage to have the damage repaired. He was fined $100 and costs.

H. O. SCHLEUDER
Optometrist
AND OPTICIAN
We Grind Our Own Lenses
102 No. Minn. St. Tel. 87

Mrs. H. Wendt is back from a visit with Springfield relatives.

Mrs. J. P. Christensen and daughter, Alice, of Springfield were recent visitors here.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Swanbeck of Springfield were recent New Ulm visitors.

Miss Florence Baer was a guest of Miss Irene Forster at Springfield, Wednesday.

Miss Cecil Neubauer was a recent guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hillesheim in Springfield.

Mrs. Amelia Schumacher has returned to Springfield, following a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Carson, in this city.

William Muesing and George Koeck went to Redwood Falls, last Tuesday, to look over the latter's farm near that city. Enroute they stopped off in Lambertton for a brief visit with friends.

Mrs. P. J. Pint and daughter, Myrtle of Sanborn, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Schmidt of Springfield, motored to New Ulm, Wednesday, for a visit at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. Thomas Carson.

Window merchants were recently victimized by a "bright young man," who mulcted them to the tune of about $100 by means of bogus checks, which he issued in payment of merchandise purchased by him.

Springfield's new municipal well has been completed and provides an ample supply of clear water, throwing 175 gallons per minute with no apparent diminution. Before being turned into the mains for public use, the water will be given a chemical test by the state board of health.

Mr. and Mrs. John Niebuhr, Mrs. Fred Harms and Miss Lena Bruns of Gibbon motored to this city early last week and enjoyed a brief visit with relatives. Enroute home they were accompanied by Mrs. Dorothy Mueller, of North State street, who spent the balance of the week as a guest at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Niebuhr, there.

"Cash county warrants at par or lose county deposits," is the mandate served on the banks of Martin county by the county board. This action was taken after some of the financial institutions had refused to accept warrants marked "not paid for want of funds" at par as they draw only six per cent interest, while the discount rate on short loans is considerably higher.

The firm of P. M. Fuller & Son, well-known hog breeders of Redwood Falls, were adjudged bankrupt on their voluntary petition in United States court at Mankato, recently. The first meeting of creditors will be held at Mankato before Referee Jean Flittie, Thursday, June 16, at 10 a. m. The big slump in the hog market, followed by several lawsuits in which the firm was involved, caused the failure. The firm is composed of Phoebe M. Fuller and her son, Willard C. Fuller.

Tom Collins spent Sunday with Sleepy Eye friends.

Miss Myrtle Schaefer of Sleepy Eye spent Wednesday visiting friends here.

Miss Mary Sauter visited Mankato friends recently.

J. M. Crowley of Lambertton attended the session of the district court here, last Tuesday.

August Paul and family are leaving for Browns Valley, where Mr. Paul has a position as Manager of the creamery.

Mrs. Joseph Schloegl of Sleepy Eye was the guest of local relatives, last Tuesday.

Gust Windhorn is back from a visit at the G. A. Messerschmidt home in Sleepy Eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Crane spent Sunday at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Crane.

Some of the "early birds" among the local auto owners are already flashing their new license tags, received the latter part of last week from the secretary of state.

Miss Amelia Hedlicka of Bismarck township, Sibley county, is convalescing nicely from the effects of an operation for appendicitis and gallstones, which she underwent at the Loretto Hospital here, last Tuesday.

Governor Lynn J. Frazier of North Dakota will deliver an address at a farmers' picnic to be held near Clarkfield, Yellow Medicine county, next Wednesday, June 8. Plans are being made for the biggest picnic ever held in that county.

C. L. Nelson, who was recently operated upon at a New Ulm hospital, was able to leave the hospital, Wednesday. He is at present staying with relatives in Mankato, and is expected to return here in about four weeks.—Lafayette Ledger.

The town board of Home township is advertising for bids, returnable not later than Saturday, June 25, at 2 p. m., for the construction of a re-inforced concrete bridge and excavating site for same on Big Spring Creek, between sections 21 and 28, in that township. Bids are to be filed with Town Clerk William Dey, Route 6, Sleepy Eye.

The local decorating firm of Schwendinger & Schuster has secured the contract for decorating the office rooms of the German Roman Catholic Aid Association of Minneapolis at St. Paul. M. E. Schuster, junior member of the firm, and a crew of decorators left for the Saintry City last week to commence work on the job.

Twenty-five years ago, wheat was selling at 53 cents a bushel, corn at 20 cents, oats at 13 cents, flax at 75 cents and rye at 22 cents in Sleepy Eye. At the same time, raisins were selling for four cents a pound, dried apricots for 11 cents, rice for three cents, two pounds of navy beans for five cents, and chewing tobacco at from 22 to 38 cents per pound plug.

Miss Elsie Forster, daughter of Mrs. Emilie Foster of this city, is a member of the class of 34 young ladies, which will graduate from the nurses' training department of the Minneapolis General Hospital, Friday of this week. Prior to taking up this course, Miss Forster was employed as office girl for Drs. Otto J. and A. V. Seifert, when they occupied a suite of office rooms in the Ottomeyer Block some years ago.

R. L. Miller of Watertown, S. D., who came to New Ulm recently for a try-out on the local baseball team, was arraigned before City Justice George Hogen, last Tuesday, on complaint of having imbibed too much "moonshine" the previous day. When allowed permission to attempt to raise the necessary coin of the realm to pay the $5 fine and costs, Miller disappeared and has not been seen hereabouts since.

F. H. Behnke and his mother, Mrs. Esther Behnke, entertained the following out-of-town relatives and friends on Decoration day: Mrs. Helen George Mo, of Minneapolis, Attorney and Mrs. Albert G. Loomis, Springfield; Mrs. and Mr. Frank Tuttle and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Strate and family, Home township, and William and Miss Elizabeth Newton, West Newton township.

According to the Sleepy Eye Herald of May 22, 1891, the State Bank of Springfield was started at that time, now 30 years ago, with William G. Frank as cashier. He is still hustling for that financial institution, which has him to thank for a great portion of its prosperity. The other stockholders who organized the bank were John Lind, C. W. A. Krook, Dr. J. L. Schoch, Jacob Klossner, Jr., A. Blanchard and Crone Brothers, all of New Ulm at that time; Dr. J. C. Rothenburg, A. C. Ochs, M. Lehrer and John B. Schmid of Springfield.

Rev. C. W. Baxter has returned from a several days' absence at Faribault, St. Paul and other points. In the former city he attended the annual meeting and banquet of the alumni of Seabury Divinity School, as well as the commencement exercises and ordination ceremonies. Wednesday and Thursday he was present at the Diocesan Council in St. Clement's church at St. Paul, and Thursday evening he visited Silver Lake Lodge No. 229, A. O. U. W., and initiated a large class into the mysteries of that Order.

Your Sign To Go

Jack Augustine and Lloyd Peterson of Huron, S. D., spent the week-end visiting local friends.

Albert Haas of Searles returned home, Saturday evening, from a business trip to the Twin Cities.

Miss Allie Scherer of Minneapolis arrived Saturday evening for a few days' visit with New Ulm friends.

Mrs. Ed. Honl and sister, Mrs. John Roiger, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Bieml, of Sleepy Eye were New Ulm visitors Wednesday.

Miss Cloris Mohler, a registered nurse from Kasota, recently arrived here to assist in caring for a patient at one of the local hospitals.

Mr. and Mrs. Iver E. Haugen, Mrs. Ole E. Haugen and son, and Miss Selma Fredericksen of Hanska were New Ulm visitors last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Besmehn and family spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Besmehn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Helmes, in St. Paul.

Miss Elvera Hahselbruck of St. Paul is visiting local relatives and friends for a few days. From here she will go to Fairfax to visit friends before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Poehler of this city, accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Hibbert of Minneapolis and Mrs. George Scheman of Winthrop, attended the May Fete at Carleton College, Northfield, recently.

Charles Hauenstein rounded out a quarter of a century as manager of the John Hauenstein Brewing Co., last week. He succeeded his father, the late John Hauenstein, Sr., as president of that company 25 years ago.

Edward N. Welchlin of Fairmont, who arrived here early last week for a visit with his sister, Mrs. Martin Eyrich and family, departed Monday afternoon for Lambertton, where he is a guest at the Louis Kissner home.

Peter Koehler and his sister, Mrs. George C. Backer of Minneapolis arrived here, Saturday, for a visit with New Ulm relatives and to assist their mother, Mrs. Katherine Koehler, celebrate her 86th birthday anniversary, Friday of this week.

The remains of Frederick Gagner of Comfrey have arrived in the United States and are expected in Comfrey in the very near future. Deceased was a soldier of the World war and succumbed to influenza in a French hospital. He will be accorded a military burial by the American Legion Post of Comfrey.

We specialize in up-to-the-minute Eye Service—the scientific kind. Telephone for an appointment.
SCHLEUDERS
Optometrists and Opticians.

GRAND THEATRE

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY
JUNE 1 AND 2

WILL ROGERS in
"HONEST HUTCH"
Come and see Will as the laziest man in the laziest village in the world.
Also
"WHO KISSED ME"
Admission 15c and 25c.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY
JUNE 3 AND 4

"WOMAN'S MAN" with
ROMAINE FIELDING
A gripping drama of life and action from Arizona's deserts to New York Society circles.
Also
"ALSO SHOEING THE HORSE OF PROGRESS"
Admission on 15c and 25c

SUNDAY
JUNE 5

Return date on
"THE PENALTY"
All Star including LON CHEANEY
This is being brought back for one day by request of many of our patrons who failed to see it when here.
Don't miss it this time.
Also Comedy
"HANDS UP"

MONDAY AND TUESDAY
JUNE 6 AND 7

DOROTHY GISH
in
"THE GHOST IN THE GARRET"
The funniest thing you ever saw Dorothy in.
Also "BOB AND BILL"

Rey. and Mrs. J. Thornell of Hanska were recent New Ulm visitors.

Mrs. E. P. Minnick of Lambertton came to New Ulm last week to receive medical attention.

Mrs. Clarence Dahms and children are enjoying a visit with relatives and friends at Clements.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bakke and Mrs. Carrie Olson of Hanska spent Wednesday in this city.

Albert Krieger departed for Blue Earth, Wednesday, where he has accepted a position in a tin shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilt and son, L. J. Wilt, of Lambertton spent last Tuesday visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Seifert and Mrs. Sievers of Lambertton were guests of New Ulm relatives, last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Eykyn and family, accompanied by H. J. Gebhard of Lambertton were New Ulm visitors last Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wendinger of Lafayette township recently entertained some 15 families at a dance at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mack and son, Adolph, of Milford township, recently were guests at the William Mack home in Kintire.

George Haag has returned to New Ulm from South Dakota, where he spent several months. He expects to remove to our neighboring state with his family in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Math. Eichten, Sr., are expected to return home the latter part of this week from an extended visit with their children and many friends in the vicinity of Wanda.

County Treasurer Henry J. Berg recently attended a meeting of the Fourth Degree Committee of the Knights of Columbus at Minneapolis. Mr. Berg is "F. N." of this Degree in Minnesota.

Mrs. John Meyer and children, Dorothy and La Vern, of Minneapolis are enjoying an extended visit with relatives and friends here. They expect to spend several weeks in New Ulm.

Mrs. Marie Byer and her sister, Miss Louise Witt, returned home the latter part of last week from Ellsworth, Minn., where they attended the wedding of a cousin. They report a heavy downpour of rain in that vicinity early last week.

G. Ryffel, who with his family has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sell on North Franklin street for the past few weeks, has returned to Minneapolis. Mrs. Ryffel and children are still in New Ulm, but the family expects to remove to Montana shortly.

A birthday surprise was recently tendered Mrs. Anton A. Altmann at her home in Lafayette township, near Klossner. About a dozen families of relatives and friends were present and the evening was delightfully spent in dancing, music being furnished by Hugo Altmann and Wendinger Bros. A delicious repast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Willibald Eibner and their daughter, Miss Thecla, accompanied by Mrs. Charles Brust, Jr., and Mrs. William F. Witt of Mondovi, Wis., who is visiting New Ulm relatives and friends, motored to Brookings, S. D., in the Eibner car, Wednesday, and enjoyed a brief visit with the formers' daughter, Mrs. J. J. Moriarty, and family. They returned to New Ulm Thursday evening.

"Barney" Esser has disposed of his interest in the soft drink parlor conducted by himself and his brother, A. J. Esser, under the firm name of Esser Brothers, one door north of the Dakota House, and will now take life easy. He is planning on an extended pleasure trip. The business will henceforth be conducted by A. J. Esser, who is now sole proprietor, having purchased his brother's interest.

The Biggest Bargains in USED CARS

That have ever been offered in Brown County.

We are cleaning out our entire stock of used Cars at rock bottom prices. Sold for CASH ONLY.

- Paige$100
- Stoddard Dayton$100
- Studebaker$100
- Reo$350
- Chevrolet, 490, Touring $450
- Chevrolet, 490, Touring $400
- Maxwell, Touring$300
- Maxwell, Roadster$250
- Dodge, Touring$700
- Oldsmobile$800

S. P. Nielsen Auto Co.
Phone 660

220-222 North Broadway
New Ulm, Minnesota

Summer is here, and you'll need cool comfortable clothes! That means everything cool from suits to socks. Everything is ready.

VERY SPECIAL VALUES

- Palm Beach Suits at$19.50
- Percale, Madras, Silk Shirts from98c to $4.85
- Cool Underwear from90c to $1.19
- Cool Straw Hats from$1 to $3.50

Compare our high grade goods with inferior items on the market at higher prices.

HUMMEL BROS.

14 No. Minn. St. New Ulm, Minn.

You tell 'em Paul!

is a Real Drink

Women Can Tell

WOMEN know that every shirt is on its good behavior in a show case. Its real disposition is shown after it has reached the saturation point a few times. Women appreciate when Eagle Shirts come from the washer the bed-rock honesty of the yarns and dyes. They know what continued satisfaction shirts that bear this label give:

CRONE BROS. CO.
NEW ULM, MINN.

Face the Future Forget the Past

A fortune cannot be made with the money you have spent.

Deposit your money in this bank and pay your bills with checks. You will then know why and where you spend your money.

You can also take advantage of an opportunity to buy at the right time, without the risk of carrying money in your pocket.

WE PAY 5% ON TIME DEPOSITS

BROWN COUNTY BANK
NEW ULM, MINN.
A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER

5% INTEREST ON SAVINGS COMPOUNDED SEMI-ANNUALLY