Bergdall and Newberry.

Some of our readers took exception to a brief editorial mention, contained in a recent issue of the Review and criticising the sycophantic press for its stand in denouncing Grover Cleveland Bergdall, the slacker and draft dodger, while at the same time remaining noticeably passive as regards the traitorous actions of Truman Newberry, who bought with filthy lucre his seat as United States Senator from Michigan.

The use of the word "persecute" in our editorial which is objected to, was fitting in the sense that we meant it, for we had no intention of setting forth the claim that Bergdall was unduly criticised. Our object in the use of this word was to draw a comparison between the great variance in the newspapers' publicity of the two cases under consideration.

The purpose of our editorial was to awaken public interest in the Newberry case, for, while slackers and draft dodgers are being hunted down by the War Department and the Department of Justice, the governmental machinery seems to dismally fail to function when there is occasion to prosecute a political traitor of the stripe of the newly-seated Senator from Michigan. This laxness is responsible in a great measure, for the widespread unrest that is at present rampant in the United States.

We hold no brief for the Bergdolls, but our sentiments are equally adverse to the Newberrys, and, for the reasons stated above, it is up to the rank and file of our citizens to display a greater interest for cleaner politics.

CONCERT WAS FIZZLE.

A total of $535 was taken in at the gates for the two concerts given Sunday afternoon by the White Husars under the auspices of the St. Peter band. This did not fully cover expenses, so the local organization made nothing for their work. Although possessing many good features, the band failed to attract as the Million Dollar Band did for the past two years. Their two programs were identical, and they were not nearly as well appreciated as was to have been expected from their advance notices.—St. Peter Herald.

LUCE LINE.

Residents of this vicinity, who subscribed more or less liberally for stock in the proposed Luce Electric Line several years ago, will no doubt be interested to learn that this company contemplates extending its line from Hutchinson during the next few months. A recent issue of the Minneapolis Journal contained the following reference to this matter. "A 25 mile extension of the Electric Short Line from Hutchinson to Lake Lillian and electrification of the entire line from Minneapolis to the new terminus, a project involving the expenditure of approximately $1,000,000, was announced by W. L. Luce, vice president and treasurer of the company. The work will be under way by July 1."

The Famous Royal Hawaiian Troupe to Play at the Lyric Theatre.

Manager Melzer announces that he has secured for his popular theatre, the Lyric, the Famous Royal Hawaiian Troupe for Friday and Saturday June 17 and 18th. My Hawaiian Aloha, the companion photoplay to that well known play The Bird of Paradise, will be presented in connection with the Famous Hawaiian Troupe. An unusual special added attraction will be the Hawaiian Music which will be rendered thruout the entire photoplay. This feature is entirely new to the theatre going public of this city and without question will be appreciated by New Ulm's many Hawaiian music lovers.

In order to give everyone an opportunity to hear this high class Troupe of artists, a special matinee has been arranged for Saturday at 3 P. M. at reduced prices. Manager Melzer predicts a big turnout for this special offering. He states that the people of New Ulm, will like Hawaiian music and Vaudeville better than any other that have been offered them at the Lyric Theatre thus far.

Mrs. Waldemar Jahnke and little daughter are back from a visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Julius, Sr., at Fairfax.

FORMER NEW ULMITE SUICIDES AT LE SUEUR

W. W. Green Ends Life by Drinking Carbollic Acid at the Fair Grounds There.

Le Sueur newspapers last week reported the death of W. W. Green, son of the late James J. Green, and a former resident of this city, which occurred at that place a week ago Saturday. Local acquaintances of the deceased learned from Le Sueur relatives that death was due to carbollic poisoning acid, self-inflicted. The elder Mr. Green was publisher of the New Ulm News for a number of years, until that paper was consolidated with the New Ulm Review in 1909, and his two sons, W. W. and Oliver, were employed in his printing office.

After the newspaper property was disposed of, W. W. Green removed to LeSueur with his family and had resided there until several months ago, when they sold their home and household goods and went to Minneapolis, intending to take up their residence in that city. Life in the state's metropolis was evidently not to their liking, for they returned to Le Sueur a short time ago and Mr. Green had arranged to accept a position in the mechanical department of the Le Sueur News, Monday of last week.

The previous Saturday forenoon, shortly before dinner, he left home and went to the Fair Grounds. His actions were not such as to awaken his wife's suspicions as to his intentions. During the afternoon, a number of boys played ball at the Fair Grounds and noticed a man lying prostrate in the grandstand. Believing that the party was drunk and not having investigated who it was, they notified the village marshal, upon returning to town, and the officer went to the place and discovered that Mr. Green had swallowed carbollic acid and was nearly dead as a result. Although medical assistance was summoned, his life could not be saved.

Deceased is survived by his widow and three sons. The latter are: Dr. Everett Green, West Hope, N. D.; L. W. Green, who is studying medicine in Colorado, and William Green, employed in a Minneapolis drug store.

Mr. Green was 64 years old, being a native of St. Anthony (now Minneapolis). Obsequies were held at the home of a friend in LeSueur last Tuesday and the remains were laid to rest in Mound cemetery there.

DEBATE AT ST. PETER.

A. C. Townley, president of the National Nonpartisan League, and William Langer, former attorney general of North Dakota, will appear in debate at Gorman Park, St. Peter in the near future. These two men have "argued" the great political issues in North Dakota in various communities of Minnesota, and this will be the first opportunity that the residents of this section of the state will have to hear them. A record-breaking attendance is expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wagner and children were recent guests at the Emil Thiem home in Gibbon.

Jack Forster is the proud possessor of a Graflex camera, the very latest model, such as are used by newspaper photographers for general outdoor work. This equipment thoroughly fits Jack out for this class of work and he demonstrated the rapidity of his new machine by photographing several sensational fast plays during the baseball games here Friday and Sunday afternoons.

Crops in this section never looked better than they do at the present time. Rye and barley are coming along fine and wheat is also making good headway, although the alternate wet and hot weather of a few weeks ago threatened to cause rust on this growing grain. Corn is looking healthy and if nothing intervenes we will harvest bumper crops in this vicinity next fall.

More than $1,000 has now been raised for the new hog barns to be erected on the Nicollet County Fair Grounds at St. Peter in time for this year's exhibition. It is confidently expected that the remaining $500, necessary for the proposed structures, will be secured within a week or so. While the bulk of the money has thus far been donated by St. Peter business men, the farmers of Nicollet county have made a ready response with liberal amounts.

Several new rulings in regard to the conduct of hotels, restaurants and boarding houses were disclosed by the state hotel inspector upon the occasion of a recent visit here. All chipped and cracked cups and dishes must be discarded for use in restaurants, hotels and boarding houses. It is also a misdemeanor to sell or offer for sale butter in cracked jars and a fine of not less than $25 for the first offense can be imposed. The inspector found upon investigation that all of the local public eating places are obeying the provisions of the law so far as they are concerned.

ANNUAL FARM BUREAU PICNIC

Final arrangements have been made for the Annual County Farm Bureau Picnic to be held at Dumke's grove, Sleepy Eye, Wednesday, June 22. It is an opportunity every one should make use of to attend this picnic. It gives you a chance to see your neighbors and find out what people of the other part of the County are doing. There will be amusements during the day of all kinds. In the morning various business of the Bureau will be discussed. Under the new organization of the Farm Bureau a new Constitution has to be adopted by the Brown County Farm Bureau Federation. This will be discussed to a certain extent that morning. Then comes the picnic dinner which everyone should group themselves together at this time.

In the afternoon the real fun starts. Victor Anderson, State Treasurer of the Minnesota Farm Bureau Federation, a man of whose ability one does not have the opportunity of hearing very often will be speaker of the day. He will have some interesting things to tell the people.

After the speeches will come the Field Sports, where liberal prizes will be offered. Here you will get a chance to show your speed and there is good money in it too. The East and West End of the County will have a chance to test their strength in a tug of war. After the Field Sports will be the baseball game and according to rules drawn up, no players from within the limits of Sleepy Eye, Springfield, New Ulm, Comfrey and Hanska or outside of the County will be allowed to play. It will be a farmers team through and through and will be a very interesting game.

You are bound to get your money's worth if you attend this picnic as the admission is free. Below is a detailed program for the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hauer, N. Minnesota street, received news of the arrival of a healthy baby boy at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright, in Winona. Mr. and Mrs. Wright moved to that place from New Ulm some time ago. The newborn has been christened Robert Franklin.

JUDGE AND MRS. I. M. OLSEN WEDDED 25 YEARS

Anniversary Was Fittingly Observed by Relatives and Friends Saturday

Saturday marked the 25th wedding anniversary of Judge and Mrs. I. M. Olsen of this city, who were married at Sleepy Eye, June 11, 1896. The anniversary was fittingly observed at Masonic Temple Saturday with a sumptuous six o'clock dinner, followed by a delightful social evening. A large number of relatives and a few intimate friends of the jubilarians were their guests upon this occasion. Mrs. Olsen's maiden name was Miss Lida McBain.

Following their wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen continued to reside at Sleepy Eye, until removing to New Ulm in 1906, following the former's election to the district court bench, and this city has since been their home. After being admitted to the bar as a practicing attorney in 1893, Judge Olsen established a practice at Redwood Falls in December of that year. The following June he formed a partnership with Attorney George W. Sommerville, then of Sleepy Eye, and removed to the latter city. This partnership was dissolved when the former became district judge, which office he held until resigning and being succeeded by Judge Frank Clague of Redwood Falls in January 1, 1919. Upon leaving the district bench, Judge Olsen became associated with Attorney Alfred W. Mueller of this city under the firm name of Olsen & Mueller, and this partnership continued until Judge Olsen was appointed by Governor Burnquist to succeed Judge Clague upon the latter's resignation to become a candidate for Congress.

Among the out-of-town guests present at the anniversary celebration here, Saturday evening, were: Hugh McBain of Seattle, Wash., Mrs. Olsen's father; her sister, Mrs. R. L. Thompson, of Santa Rosa, Calif.; her aunt, Mrs. W. B. Smith, of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gieseke, Mr. and Mrs. George Peterson and daughter, Doris, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Olsen and Mrs. John Buhl, all of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blegen and daughter, Martha, of Minneapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Blakelee, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haugen, Attorney and Mrs. George T. Olson and Mr. and Mrs. August Peterson, all of St. Peter; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Olson and Mrs. Peter Olson, all of Nicollet.

Judge and Mrs. Olsen were presented with many beautiful, appropriate gifts by their relatives and friends as tokens of love and esteem. They entertained the out-of-town guests of the jubilee celebration at Sunday dinner at the Olsen home on South State street.

Mrs. Robert E. Pless returned to her home at Gibbon, Wednesday, after recovering from the effects of a serious operation performed upon her at a local hospital some weeks ago. She is convalescing nicely.

James W. Cuffman of Cokato has been elected as agricultural instructor in the St. Peter high school to succeed Earl Springer, who recently resigned to accept the position of county agent of Nicollet County. Mr. Cuffman will assume his new duties July 15.

SEARLES CLIPPINGS

Mr. Albert Haas returned from Arlington last Saturday evening after attending to the elevator since last Wednesday. On his way down he was accompanied by Alice Thiede who will stay with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Haas for a week or so.

A large number of people from this vicinity attended the Farmers' Equity picnic at Robert Seifert's place in Sigel on Sunday afternoon. Baseball was played and different amusements were indulged in. Refreshments of all kinds were served. Everybody reported a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schugel Sr. and sons, Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kamm, Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. Leick and family and Rev. Ramiro Wormharringer were guests at the Louis Kunz home near Madelia on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Altmann and daughters, Elsie, Florence and Laura Mr. and Mrs. Louis Altmann and daughters, Viola and Dolores of Lafayette visited with the Anton Zwach family last Sunday.

Last Sunday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Haas from here and other relatives from New Ulm were guests at the Art. Groebner home near Klossner.

On Monday night a little chivari was given Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Strate the occasion being their fifth wedding anniversary. Afterward a good time was spent "around the corner."

About 70 guests surprised Mr. and Mrs. Henry Portner at their home last Saturday evening, the occasion being their 9th wedding anniversary. Dancing was the chief amusement, music being furnished by Peter Domeier. Lunch was also served. Out of town guests present were, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Domier and family and Mr. Alex Seifert from Springfield. A very good time was reported.
