LOCAL NOTES

Mrs. Martin Hose left for Chicago, Friday, where she is visiting relatives and friends. She was accompanied there by her niece, Miss Adele Fuerst, of this city, who had enjoyed a several weeks' stay with New Ulm relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Held and their two sons have removed to Mankato from New Ulm. Their residence on South Minnesota street will not be rented, as they are desirous of disposing of the property.

Mrs. Ida Hammerstroem returned to Chicago, Thursday, after enjoying a week's visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Metzger, in the south end of this city. Mrs. Hammerstroem is Mrs. Metzger's cousin.

Mr. and Mrs. Gust Haber and sons Ernest, George and Earl accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ziemer and Mrs. Wordelman motored up to Buffalo Lake Sunday to spend the day with relatives and friends.

Armin Sattler of Ivanhoe, who had been attending Notre Dame University at Notre Dame, Ind., arrived here, Thursday night, for a few days' visit with relatives and friends before going home. The young man is a graduate of the New Ulm high school.

Prof. E. R. Biefernicht of Dr. Martin Luther College was at Sleepy Eye one evening last week, where he delivered the second of a series of lectures on the life of Luther. These lectures are given under the auspices of the Walther League of Sleepy Eye and the one last week was largely attended.

John Wilfahrt, Sr., and his son, Charles Wilfahrt, motored to St. Paul Saturday, where they looked over the Blekre tire factory. They were well pleased with their tour of inspection and marveled at the great strides which the plant has taken. Messrs. Wilfahrt brought back an auto load of tires for the New Ulm Tire & Repair Co.

Sleepy Eye is planning a monster Fourth of July celebration for the entire week. There will be a big carnival, several baseball games and many other attractions. In view of the fact that there will be no public celebration of the Nation's birthday in New Ulm, many people from this city and vicinity will journey to Sleepy Eye and spend the day there.

Miss Iona Seiter of Minneapolis is visiting her father, Emil Seiter, and other New Ulm relatives for several weeks. She was called here on account of her father's illness.

Louis Marks, who submitted to an operation for goiter at a local hospital some three weeks ago, and had since been receiving medical attention here, returned to his home near Sleepy Eye, Thursday.

Mrs. Alphonse Gruenfelder of Marshall is enjoying a few weeks' visit with New Ulm relatives and friends. Mr. Gruenfelder accompanied her here, but returned home the following day.

St. Peter is jubilant over the promise made by a Minneapolis man that he will begin the erection of a 125-barrel mill in the former city about July 1. It will be remembered that the historic old mill at that place was destroyed by fire several weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Roos and daughter, Winifred, of New Butler, Wis., arrived here Friday and on the following day continued their journey to Aberdeen, S. D., for a few days' visit before returning to New Ulm to spend the Fourth with Mr. Roos' mother, Mrs. Helen Roos.

State Auditor and Mrs. R. P. Chase, accompanied by their daughter, spent a short time in New Ulm, Thursday afternoon, while waiting for repairs to be made on their auto, following a breakdown. The party was on a tour of inspection of the state parks, which are under State Auditor Chase's supervision. In this vicinity, the new Sleepy Eye Lake State Park, as well as the Fort Ridgely and Ramsey State Parks were visited.

Mrs. Viola Skinner and Miss Ruth Freitag have returned to Wilton, S. D., following a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in this city and at Nicollet.

Dr. H. C. Edmiston has sufficiently recovered from the effects of his recent operation for appendicitis, to be able to again look after his practice in the Weiser Block on North Minnesota street.

Miss Antonia Schlumpberger and her niece, Miss Bessie Schlumpberger, are back from a pleasant visit of several days with relatives and friends in the Twin Cities and at Albert Lea.

As a result of the tropical heat experienced here during the past few weeks, bees have commenced to swarm in earnest and many a fortunate resident of the city has been able to capture the wandering queen bee and her swarm. It is, indeed, an interesting sight to see bees swarm. It is remarkable that they do not smother to death while clustered on tree branches by the thousands.

An insipient blaze in the F. W. Eibner bakery on North Minnesota street prompted neighbors, who became alarmed at seeing the flames, to send in a fire alarm and the Motor Truck Company responded promptly. Due to misinformation as to the location of the fire, a brief delay was caused, when the fire ladders drove a few blocks too far, but they succeeded in extinguishing the blaze before a great deal of damage had been done.

William Juderjahn and Miss Flora Karl, both well known former New Ulmites, were happily wedded at the Catholic parsonage in Watertown, S. D., at high noon, Tuesday, June 15. They came to New Ulm for a brief visit with relatives and friends, while returning to Watertown from their honeymoon to the Twin Cities, Duluth, and Superior and Madison, Wis. The groom is a son of Mrs. Ferdinand Juderjahn, North Valley street, and holds a responsible position in the big new municipal electric light and water-works plant at Watertown, which he accepted shortly after Superintendent A. J. Mueller took charge of that plant, upon leaving New Ulm. The bride was employed in the Purity Grocery here for a number of years. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Karl, South Valley street. The Review joins with the many local friends of the newlyweds and extends hearty congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Mankato pool hall owners are up in arms, against the passage of a proposed new city ordinance regulating the playing of pool and billiards there and increasing the annual license fee from $5 to $100 for each table. One pool hall proprietor operates 27 tables, so that the enforcement of the proposed license boost would cost him $2,700, besides the $10 state tax for each table.

Car owners receiving new auto license tags should be sure to remove and preserve the registration certificate that is enclosed in the envelope containing the number plates. It is very important that this certificate be kept in order to show ownership when transferring or when new license must be applied for. Don't throw away the big envelope until you have removed the registration certificate enclosed therein.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Voss and daughter of Echo were guests of New Ulm relatives and friends, Thursday and Friday. They also attended the Italian night festival at Turner Park, Thursday evening. Mr. Voss reports that they have had no rain in the vicinity of Echo for the past six weeks and as a result of the continued drought, wheat has suffered to such an extent that a crop failure is feared.

County Superintendent and Mrs. R. B. Kennedy enjoyed a few days' visit from the former's brother, Dr. A. J. Kennedy, of Newark, Ohio. The latter departed for Montana, last Tuesday, but expects to return to New Ulm in several weeks for a short stay before going back home. Dr. Kennedy has charge of a sanitarium at Newark.

County Auditor Louis G. Vogel and Albert Everling returned early Sunday morning from their fishing expedition to the northernmost section of the state. They enjoyed the real outdoor life at the lakes near International Falls, and, judging from the extent of their tanned and sunburned faces, the outing was a decided success. The New Ulm Isaac Waltons state that fishing is ideal up north, but neither of them would care to reside there permanently.

Prof. A. Schaller is back from a brief visit at Redwood Falls.

Mrs. Helmer Nundahl of Hanska is recovering speedily from an operation for appendicitis, which she recently underwent at the Union Hospital in this city.

Miss Laura Gooler of Lamberton is convalescing nicely from the effects of an operation for ear trouble which she underwent at a local hospital recently.
