

ARRIVES HERE FROM GERMANY

RICHARD SALLET COMPLETES TRIP FROM PRUSSIA TO NEW ULM.

WAS OFFICER IN WORLD WAR. SUFFERED FROM FLU AND GASED.

Richard Sallet, aged 21, a nephew of our esteemed fellow-townsmen F. W. Sallet, arrived here recently from Osterode, East Prussia, to make New Ulm his future home. He has accepted the position of editor of the Dakota Frei Presse, one of the weekly newspapers printed and published in the Review plant, and is rapidly becoming acclimated to his new surroundings. There is a wide difference between conditions as they exist in the United States at present and those in East Prussia and Germany generally, due to the general depression brought on by the World war and the subsequent low purchasing value of the German mark.

Left Home in September.

Mr. Sallet left his native city of Osterode September 29, and after spending a few days with friends and war comrades at Berlin, Bremen and Kiel, continued his journey to Hamburg, where he sailed for New York on the American liner Mount Clay, formerly the Prince Eitel Friedrich of the North German Lloyd, October 8 at 7 o'clock in the evening. The Mount Clay docked in New York harbor early in the morning of October 18, after a very pleasant trip across the Atlantic, which was marred only temporarily by a death which occurred in mid-ocean. It was an aged man from Vienna, Austria, who succumbed to seasickness. He was enroute to New York City, in company with a daughter, where he had intended to visit a son. The remains were buried at sea, the obsequies being conducted privately at 10:30 o'clock at night.

Considerable Red Tape.

The young German stated to a representative of the Review that he experienced considerable trouble in securing the necessary documents permitting him to sail for America. He had to make two trips to Berlin to get the visa of the American consulate. The first trip was made by him the latter part of July, when he registered as a prospective emigrant. Six weeks later he again went to Berlin to submit his application, which was accepted without difficulty. The fee for registering the application was $1.00, while the visiting fee amounted to $9.00, making a total of $10.00 in fees paid to Vice Consul Nathaniel Davis at Berlin. Immediately after securing the visa, the prospective emigrant may purchase his steamship ticket and make other necessary arrangements for the voyage to the United States.

Running Customs Gauntlet.

Immediately after the Mount Clay had docked in New York harbor, the American citizens on board, who numbered about 200 of the total of over 900 passengers, were permitted to land, while the balance were held on board ship until the following morning, when they were allowed to go on shore. From 6 to 10:30 a. m. was required by the customs officials to examine the baggage of the alien passengers, after which the latter were taken down the Hudson river to Ellis Island by a tug. Following a cursory physical examination, the emigrants were assigned to about a dozen long rows of benches, provided with numbers, to await the final examination of their passports and landing papers. This latter was, apparently but a matter of form, requiring only a short time, and the people were happy when the word was finally passed around that they were free to proceed on their journey to their destinations.

Many Go to Chicago.

After receiving the $25 landing money, which each prospective immigrant must deposit before being permitted to leave shipboard, the passengers from the Mount Clay who did not stay in New York City were taken to the railroad station. So many of them were bound for Chicago and points further west that a special immigrant train was provided for them on the Erie railroad. Each of the passengers was tagged to eliminate the possibility of their becoming lost, as most of them were unable to speak the American language. Arriving at Chicago, the immigrants were lined up along either side of the waiting room, into two groups, one of which consisted of those who would be called for by relatives or friends, and the other was made up of those passengers

HOME CREAMERIES EXEMPT.

Co-operative creameries in Minnesota can be exempted from paying an income tax as well as a capital stock tax, according to Chris Henn, state dairy and food commissioner, who has issued a letter of instructions to co-operative creameries in the state. Mr. Henn says that in the past, creameries have paid out thousands of dollars in income taxes which they would not have had to pay, had they complied with the law by filing reports showing that they were not profit-making organizations. In order to establish their exemption, proper reports must be filed, showing the purpose of the organization, the sources of income and the expenditures. Upon filing these reports, the internal revenue department will inform co-operative creameries as to the right of exemption. Co-operative creameries which paid income taxes for 1918 and later years may, if they are declared exempt, file applications for refunds.

NOV. SETTLEMENT IN RECORD TIME

COUNTY AUDITOR VOGEL AND COUNTY TREASURER BERG FIRST TO REPORT.

ONLY A FEW FAILED TO PAY LAST HALF OF TAXES PROMPTLY.

County Auditor Louis G. Vogel and County Treasurer Henry J. Berg, assisted by their efficient office forces, completed the November settlement of Brown county in the shortest time on record. They were all done with this tedious task, Friday, November 4, and when the books of the two officers were compared, the figures jibed to the cent. Messrs. Vogel and Berg were the first county officials in Minnesota to report their November settlement to the state auditor.

Only a Few Delinquents.

The number of property owners who failed to pay the last half of their current real estate taxes is comparatively small in Brown county. The great majority met this obligation promptly, which materially assisted in making a quick settlement possible. Auditor Vogel and Treasurer Berg view an enviable record in completing their settlements promptly, and this is due to the great efficiency of these two officials and their office help.

Largest in History.

The record achieved by Messrs. Vogel and Berg is all the more remarkable in view of the fact that the November settlement this year is by far the greatest in the history of Brown county. It totaled $269,372.89, as against $181,663.89 last year.

County Gets Biggest Slice.

The county receives the largest slice of the tax money distributed as a result of the November settlement, namely, $89,828.33, while the cities, villages and townships get $74,303.47, the school districts, $66,535.43, and the state, $38,705.66. The corresponding figures for November, 1920, are: State, $39,269.65; county, $52,687.27; cities, villages and townships, $49,939.20, and school districts, $39,767.77.

The following tables show how the taxes collected to November 1 have been distributed by the November settlement:

FIRST STEP TAKEN FOR HOME COMING

JUNIOR PIONEERS APPOINT COMMITTEE MEMBERS TO GET BUSY.

WILL CHOOSE ONE HUNDRED WORKERS TO MAKE ALL ARRANGEMENTS.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Junior Pioneers held last Tuesday evening the first steps were taken toward the 60th Anniversary celebration for August next year, when a resolution was adopted directing the chairman to appoint a committee of five to select a committee of one hundred citizens to take charge of the planning and arranging of this celebration. As such committee of five the chairman appointed the following: Dr. J. P. Graff, Adolph G. Meile, Otto Oswald, George Marti and Alfred J. Vogel.

Fifty members of the committee selected by the five will be Junior Pioneers and the other fifty will be selected from the citizenry in general. If the plans discussed are carried out next year's celebration will be the biggest affair that this city has ever seen.

Funds For Children.

Another matter that received the attention of the executive committee was the $3,000,000 drive which is now on for the relief of the starving children in Central Europe. This fund is to be raised among the German speaking people of this country and the committee felt that New Ulm should contribute its share toward this fund and the chairman was instructed to appoint a committee of seven to make the necessary arrangements for a drive which is to cover the entire city. As such a committee the following were appointed: Athanas Henle, Anton Leibold, Carl Crone Sr., Adolph A. Alwin, Mrs. F. H. Retzlaff, Mrs. B. Follmann and Miss Emma Gebser.

The committee on the August, 1920, celebration submitted its final report showing a balance of $6.30 which was turned into the treasury and the report filed.

Flag Regulations.

It has been customary to float the flag at half-mast whenever a Pioneer or Junior Pioneer dies. This has been inadvertently overlooked at different times and to prevent such a thing happening again in the future, Vice Pres. J. H. Weddendorf was appointed flagman and it will be his duty to see that the flag is floated at half-mast whenever a death occurs in the membership of the Junior Pioneers. Whenever a Pioneer or Junior Pioneer dies, Mr. Weddendorf should be notified so that he can give the necessary orders to have the flag raised.

Mrs. Herman Schemann who was re-elected as a member of the executive committee tendered her resignation, which was accepted. In her place Mrs. Ernst Wicherski was selected.

It was also decided to have addressograph stencils of the names of all members of the organization, and their addresses, prepared so as to escape the task of writing the names on envelopes whenever the membership is to be circularized. A special effort is to be made within the next few months to secure additional members. If there should be any Junior Pioneers who have not as yet become members and are desirous of joining they should speak to any member of the executive committee and the matter can be arranged.

Officers Re-elected.

The committee organized by re-electing the same officers that served last year as follows: Pres., Albert Steinhauer; Vice Pres., J. H. Weddendorf; Secy., A. A. Schlumpberger; Treas., Otto Wiedenmann. The other members of the executive committee are J. A. Ochs, Henry J. Meyer, Mrs. F. P. Zschunke, Mrs. Bertha Fenske and Mrs. Ernst Wicherski.

VANDALS ON RAMPAGE.

While John Blumh, residing on South Minnesota street, was up town, Friday night, someone broke the lock off the door of his summer kitchen, entered the house and appropriated a quantity of wearing apparel belonging to Mr. Blumh's deceased wife. These articles were scattered around on the prairie near the Blumh home, where Mr. Blumh gathered them up the next morning. As yet he has been unable to learn the identity of the vandals, but hopes that this will be accomplished soon.

Oscar Thorsdon and daughter, Irene, of Hanska were recent callers here.

FLYNETS IN SNOWTIME.

A farmer residing in the north end of the city came driving into town with a sleigh, yesterday morning. This is not an unusual thing, in view of the copious snowfall which descended in this section the previous day, but the farmer had neglected to remove the flynets from the horses' harness before driving to New Ulm, and the queer combination of a "flynetted" team hitched to a sleigh was what attracted the attention of a goodly number of merchants and others along Minnesota street. Still, the flynets are not more out of place at this season of the year than screen doors which are still to be seen on some New Ulm homes.

YOUTH BAGS BIG AMERICAN EAGLE

HENRY BREU SHOT MAJESTIC BIRD ON FATHER'S FARM IN COTTONWOOD.

SPREAD OF WINGS IS SEVEN FEET FROM TIP TO TIP. FULL-GROWN.

Henry Breu, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Breu of Cottonwood township, brought a beautiful American eagle to New Ulm, Saturday morning, which he had shot, Thursday morning, while hunting in the woods on his father's farm, about six miles south of this city. It is a perfect specimen of the majestic National bird, being full-grown, and the young man is having it mounted to preserve it for the future.

Feeding on Carrion.

One of Mr. Breu's horses died recently and the animal had been dragged out into the field. It is believed that the eagle, with its mate, was attracted by this carrion and fed upon it, as another specimen was shot in the vicinity of Hanska a few weeks previously and is now on display in one of the banks of that village.

Was Shot in Flight.

The young farmer lad was considerably surprised when he spied the huge bird roosting in a tree in his father's woods, while he was out hunting, Thursday morning. He immediately recognized it, but before he could aim and fire, the eagle took flight. Henry blazed away and succeeded in fatally wounding the bird with a charge from his shot gun, and it slowly alighted. The farmer lad's trusty hunting dog immediately retrieved the bird, without damaging its plumage.

Seven Foot Wing Spread.

Henry proudly bore his quarry home and upon measuring the bird, found that the spread of the wings was seven feet from tip to tip. He decided to have it mounted and brought it to town Saturday morning for this purpose. The eagle was viewed by quite a number of men and boys who were attracted by the unusual sight of an American eagle, which are quite rare in this locality.

ALARM SYSTEM WORKING.

Fire Chief Henry Engel informs the Review that the new fire alarm system recently installed here to take the place of the old alarm box system was completed Saturday and is now in working order. Residents of the city are urged to request to familiarize themselves with the numbers of the districts in which they reside, as there are five numbers for each four-block district. The system was explained at length in a recent issue of the Review, and page two of the local telephone directory now in use also contains complete information relative to the new fire alarm system.

The Community Newspaper

By BOB ADAMS.
OF ALL the sheets from East to West the local paper is the best. Deep is our love and deep our debt to Record, Journal or Gazette. When first I landed on this ball, a bit of flesh wrapped 'round a squall, it welcomed me with joy and pride my life has never justified. It follows me my whole life through, with words all kind and mostly true; and even after I am heard 'twill tell my best and hide my worst. When in Oshkosh or Waukegan I wander homesick as a pup, or if in foreign lands I roam, it brings me pleasant news of home. Across the sands, across the sea, the old home paper comes to me. It is a friend both true and tried, and to it, gent, I point with pride; yes, I will lock my Sunday pants to pay up six years in advance.

HOW MUCH BOOZE CAN A MAN GET?

SECRETARY MELLON ISSUES LIQUOR REGULATIONS RELUCTANTLY.

DOCTORS CANNOT PRESCRIBE FOR OWN PERSONAL CONSUMPTION.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon has held off as long as possible from making regulations for whisky and beer under medical prescription in the hopes that Congress would pass a law defining the amount of liquor to be dispensed by physicians and druggists. He finds he cannot lawfully wait any longer and he has issued regulations which are now being vigorously criticized by both sides.

The regulations require the sale of beer in bottles only which shall be labeled with the name of the manufacturer and the legend "For medicinal purposes only. Sale or use for other purposes will cause heavy penalties to be inflicted."

Other Regulations.

"Any malt extract containing one-half of 1 per cent or more of alcohol by volume, regardless of the quantity of extractive matter therein derived from malt, are held to be intoxicating liquors within the purview of the National prohibition act and regulations issued pursuant thereto. Any malt extract intended to be sold to the general public without prescription must contain less than one-half of 1 per cent of alcohol by volume and must be manufactured, tax paid, and sold in the same manner as other cereal beverages.

Doctor Goes Dry.

"No prescription shall be filled calling for a greater quantity of liquor than that authorized by these regulations and a pharmacist should refuse to fill any such prescription. Physicians may not prescribe liquor for their own personal use.

Pint Every 10 Days.

No prescription may be issued for a greater quantity of intoxicating liquor than is necessary for use as a medicine by the person for whom prescribed in the treatment of an ailment from which such patient is known by the physician to be suffering. Not more than a pint of spirituous (distilled) liquor to be taken internally shall be prescribed for use by the same person within any period of 10 days by one or more physicians. When spirituous (distilled) liquor is administered to any person by any physician or physicians, as provided in section 71, the aggregate quantity so administered and the quantity prescribed for such person may not exceed 1 pint within any period of 10 days.

"Not more than a pint of alcohol for external use may be prescribed for the same patient at one time. Not more than 2 quarts of wine or 2 1-2 gallons of intoxicating malt liquors to be taken internally shall be prescribed at one time for use by the same person.

"Prescriptions for intoxicating liquor may only be filled by a licensed pharmacist who is also a retail druggist or by a licensed pharmacist in the employ of a retail druggist. A pharmacist employed by any person other than a retail druggist may not fill prescriptions for intoxicating liquor."

CLINIC AT HANSKA.

An eye, ear, nose and throat clinic for the children of Hanska and vicinity will be conducted in that village, tomorrow, (Thursday), under the auspices of the Minnesota Public Health Association. All mothers, whose family names begin with either of the letters A, B, C, D, E, F, G and H, inclusive, are urged to request to accompany their children to the school house at Hanska during the forenoon, while all those mothers, whose family name begins with any of the other letters of the alphabet are requested to bring their children in the afternoon. The examinations will be made free of charge by specialists.

The Orient Orchestra of this city has been engaged to render music for the annual dance of the Nicollet Local American Society of Equity, which will be held at the Nicollet Opera House, Saturday evening of this week.

ANNIVERSARY SURPRISE.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton A. Henle were most agreeably surprised by about 60 friends from New Ulm and vicinity, who gathered at their beautiful home on North State street, last Tuesday evening, to assist them in observing their crystal wedding anniversary, which occurred recently. The Kitzberger Orchestra, of which Mr. Henle is a member, serenaded the jubilarians and rendered a number of pleasing selections during the evening. Cards were played, followed by a delicious luncheon, after which the guests departed for their respective homes, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Henle many more happy and prosperous years of wedded life. Mr. and Mrs. Henle (nee Miss Ida Nehls) were married at Holy Trinity Catholic church here 15 years ago. They have three children, namely, Hildegard, Marcella and Fremont. The Review extends belated, but none the less sincere congratulations.

MAN BREAKS FROM SLEEPY EYE JAIL

FRANK MILLER, ACCUSED OF DESERTION, DISAPPEARS SUNDAY NIGHT.

KANSAS OFFICER WAS READY TO TAKE HIM BACK TO THAT STATE.

While an officer from Kansas was waiting to take him back to that state to answer to the charge of wife desertion, Frank Miller, alias Frank Lawprot, a stranger who had been arrested by Chief of Police Ed. McGowan at Sleepy Eye, Friday, broke jail at that place, Sunday night and made good his escape. No trace of him has since been found.

Found Cell Empty.

When Chief McGowan went to the city lock-up Monday morning to provide breakfast for his prisoner, he found the latter's cell empty, and the man was gone. Investigation revealed the fact that Miller had broken the padlock on the cell door some time during the previous night and had succeeded in making his get-away unobserved.

Description of Man.

Miller, alias Lawprot, is described as being between 35 and 40 years of age, five feet six inches tall, about 135 pounds in weight and having about a week's growth of beard and long hair. At the time he disappeared, the man wore a long, gray overcoat, a gray cap, a dark suit and khaki shirt. His shoes were cut along the sides.

The Kansas officer had arrived in Sleepy Eye, Sunday night, to take Miller back, and was considerably disappointed when he learned that the prisoner had escaped. There was nothing for him to do, however, except to return home without his man.

GEORGE HELLING DEAD.

George K. Helling, prominent resident of Linden township, where he was born October 25, 1862, while his parents were preparing to flee from their home to Mankato to escape the Indians during the outbreak here, succumbed to tuberculosis at his home in Hanska, Wednesday afternoon. Death followed an illness of many years' duration. Mr. Helling was married to Miss Lena Fedje of Madelia township at Madelia, May 10, 1887, and removed to this city, where they resided for about three years before moving onto the old Fedje farm northeast of Madelia, which they conducted for about seven years. The old Helling homestead in Linden township was then their home until Mr. and Mrs. Helling took possession of their beautiful home in Hanska some five years ago. Besides his wife, deceased leaves the following brothers and sisters to mourn his loss: Alfred and Louis Helling, residing near Hanska; Oscar Helling, Mankato; Mrs. Roy Ellertson, Mrs. William Schaleben and Miss Nora Helling, Madelia, and Mrs. O. E. Halvorson, Minneapolis. Funeral services were conducted at the Norwegian Lutheran church in Linden township, Saturday afternoon.

LADIES TAX EXEMPT.

Chief Deputy Revenue Collector F. J. Nemo of Mankato, in a statement to the Review during a recent sojourn here, said that changes have been made in regard to federal war taxes to be collected on admissions to dances etc. Hereafter, at dances where women are admitted free of charge, the government will not collect the usual tax. The new ruling reads something like this: When gentlemen are required to pay $1.00 admission to a dance and ladies are admitted free, whether accompanied by a gentleman or not, no tax is due from the ladies. Where the admissions in each case are different and prices named for men, women and couples, a tax must be paid. For instance, if men are charged 75 cents admission, women 25 cents and couples $1.00, the tax due from men is eight cents, from women three cents and from couples 10 cents.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bjorneberg of Hanska spent Wednesday afternoon here.

FARM HELP KILLS SELF BY HANGING

WM. REESE IS FOUND DEAD IN HERM. POEHLER'S BARN AT COURTLAND.

TOOK ROPE USED AS A SWING IN R. W. ZIMMERMANN HOME THERE.

Herman Poehler, well-known resident of Courtland village, had an experience, Saturday morning, which he does not desire to have repeated very soon. Upon entering his barn at about 6 o'clock, while it was still dark, he suddenly bumped into an innately object, apparently suspended from one of the rafters, which hung in the aisle. After recovering somewhat from the fright, Mr. Poehler investigated more closely and found the object to be the body of a man, who had evidently committed suicide by hanging.

Wm. Reese, the Victim.

It was soon determined that the dead man was William Reese, a farm hand, who had frequented Courtland village and vicinity for some years past. The body was cold and stiff, having been suspended in the barn a greater part of the previous night, according to facts which were ascertained later. Mr. Poehler notified Deputy Coroner A. M. Anderson at St. Peter, who with Sheriff Charles Norman drove over to Courtland for an investigation. This revealed that Reese had committed suicide by hanging.

Purloined the Rope.

Friday evening at about 8 o'clock, Mrs. R. W. Zimmermann, wife of the well-known Courtland merchant, heard someone ascend the stairs to the family living rooms over the store. She did not go out into the hall to investigate and failed to hear the man descend the steps again. Next morning it was found that a half-inch rope, which had been used as a swing in a vacant upstairs room by the Zimmermann children, was missing, and it was later learned that Reese had purloined this rope to commit suicide. He doubled the rope to make sure that it would not break as a result of the strain, as he was stockily built.

Was Seen Thursday.

Reese had been to the Ed. Baumann farm, some six or seven miles north of Courtland village, Thursday, and asked Mr. Baumann for permission to stay with him and work for his board during the winter months. The former had already engaged a hired man, however, and informed Reese to this effect, who then left the Baumann farm and walked toward Courtland village, where he arrived during the afternoon. Nothing was seen of him all day Friday, and it is presumed that he spent the day in the Poehler barn, planning and preparing for his desperate act.

Had No Funds.

A search of the pockets of Reese's clothing failed to reveal any money, and it is believed that he was penniless and committed suicide in desperation, as he had no home and no place to go. When found, he had on overalls, a jacket, a cap and a pair of canvas gloves. The body was fully clothed, including shoes and stockings.

Born in Sibley County.

Reese was born in Arlington township, Sibley county, in 1874, being 47 years of age at the time of his death. He was a brother of Mrs. Charles Evers, South Broadway, this city, and of Mrs. August Havemeier, Courtland township. The remains were interred in the City cemetery here, Saturday afternoon.
