(By U. S. Bureau of Markets and Crop Estimates and Minn. Dept. of Agriculture.)

MONDAY'S CLOSING.

Cattle, 15,500. Market closing mostly weak to 25c lower; few fed beefs, $7.25 to $9.50; best grass beefs, $6.00. Calves, 1,500. Market closing mostly 25c lower; best lights, $7.50. Hogs, 14,500. Market 10c to 25c lower; bulk, $6.25 to $6.65; top, $6.75; bulk good pigs, $7.50 to $7.75. Sheep, 18,000. About half killers. Good fat lambs, $8.00 to $8.25; bulk good ewes, $3.00 to $3.25; a few, $3.50.

South St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 14, 1921: With snow and colder weather general throughout territory tributary to the local market, the annual fall cleanup of cattle on farms is at its height, the largest run of the year to date, estimated at 15,500 arriving, for Monday's trade.

The supply of cattle proved somewhat in excess of the demand and the market was for the most part around 25c lower, although good and choice stockers and feeders, selling from $5.25 to $6.00, were about steady. Receipts included one load of fed Angus yearlings, averaging around 800 pounds and these had bids up to $9.50, but were shipped on to Chicago. Some short-fed Herefords, weighing around 1,100 pounds, brought $7.50. Best grass beefs here brought $6.00, packers paying the price for some 1,250-pound Montanas. Bulk of the grass beefs sold from $4.50 to $5.50. Butcher cows and heifers went largely from $3.00 to $4.50, with a few of the best young cows and heifers of handy and light weights up to $5.50. Practically no fed she-stock was included. Canners and cutters were weak to 25c lower, selling at $2.00 to $2.75. Bologna bulls brought $2.50 to $3.00 for the most part, a few $3.25. Practical packer top for best light vealers was $7.50, a few extra choice ones up to $8.00. Bulk of stockers and feeders sold from $4.00 to $5.00, commonest kinds from $3.25 to $3.50.

Hogs opened 10c to 25c lower; range, $5.75 to $6.75; bulk, $6.25 to $6.65. About 5,000 pigs here; bulk good kinds, $7.50 to $7.75. Bulk good fat lambs, $8.00 to $8.25; good fat ewes, $3.00 to $3.50; feeding lambs, $5.75 to $7.25.

BIG CONCERT UNDER ABLE DIRECTION OF PROF. ENDRES

Choir Leader and Instructor Will Put on Big Concert, Sunday
Night

One of the big musical events of the season will be staged at St. Adrian's Auditorium, Sunday evening when the St. Adrian Choral Club assisted by the Magnolia Concert Band will give the first of a series of concerts all under the able leadership of Prof. M. A. Endres.

Prof. Endres has been a busy man since his arrival in Adrian several months ago to accept the position as pipe organist and choir instructor of St. Adrian's church and also as band director of the Adrian Concert band and the Magnolia Concert Band, besides teaching music lessons and assisting the junior band in their rehearsals.

The first of a series of concerts to be given Sunday night is the result of Prof. Endres' efforts in the development of classic music. He says these concerts are not given for any monetary consideration whatsoever but to create interest in the community for good music—minus the jazz. The professor has no time at all for the modern jazz music that in many instances tends to lower the morals of a community. He doesn't mince words in telling a person what he thinks of this latest craze in cheap music.

The community is considered fortunate in having in their midst a musical instructor of unusual ability. He has been devoting his time to choir work for the past 33 years, 17 years being spent in leading and directing choirs in the larger cities of the country.

Very favorable reports come to us of the great work the professor is accomplishing for the St. Adrian Choral Club and Sunday night's concert will give the public an opportunity of hearing them.

Prof. Endres is well known locally, having been organist at Holy Trinity church some years ago and a teacher in the school. He was also connected with the Review as a solicitor at the time. His friends here will be interested to hear of his success.

St. Paul's Lutheran church choir will entertain its members at an informal social at the school house, Thursday evening.

OBITUARY

ALBERT A. BOGEN.

Word was received here Friday morning that Albert A. Bogen, a former resident of New Ulm, had passed away at Mobridge, South Dakota, Thursday evening at 10 o'clock, following an operation which had been performed on him five weeks ago. The deceased had suffered an accident to his leg quite a number of years ago and his condition became worse from year to year until an operation became imperative in the hope of saving his life and the leg was amputated. He had suffered from diabetes for the past eight years and this aggravated his condition and brought about his death.

The deceased was born in Stillwater, Minn., August 18, 1853 and was therefore only 63 years old when he answered Death's summons. He came to New Ulm with his parents in October, 1864, and grew to manhood here. He learned the printer's trade in his father's printing plant and after his death became the owner and publisher of the New Ulm Post and continued as such for five years. He then sold out and went to Taylor, Texas where he again launched into newspaper work and published a German weekly for about twenty years. On account of his physical condition he was forced to give up the printer's trade and sold out his newspaper plant. For the past five years he had his home with his sisters, Mrs. Anna Hellriegel and Miss Marie Bogen at Mobridge, South Dakota, his only surviving relatives.

The deceased was a printer of the old school and took a great deal of pride in his work and was most thorough and painstaking. At the time of his death he was a member of the Masonic order and of the Hermann Sons of Taylor, Texas, having taken his demit to those lodges from the home lodges. He was one of the founders of the Silver Cornet Band and was active in social and political affairs while a resident of New Ulm.

The remains arrived in New Ulm Saturday evening and the funeral was held from Turner Hall Sunday afternoon and interment was made in the city cemetery. Albert Steinhäuser delivered the funeral address.

MRS. HENRY HILLESHEIM.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Hillesheim, who passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. G. Krzmarzick, in Mulligan township, Friday, October 26, was held from St. Paul's Catholic church, Comfrey, November 3rd.

Deceased, whose maiden name was Mary Ross, was a sister of the late Judge of Probate George Ross. She was born April 27, 1843, in Manderfeld, Prussia. In 1868 she came to America with her parents and settled in New Ulm, where, two years later, in February, she was married to Henry Hillesheim, and for one year lived on a farm in Sigel township. The family then moved to Mulligan township, which has been their home, since until May of this year, when Mr. and Mrs. Hillesheim made their home with Mr. and Mrs. Krzmarzick.

Mrs. Hillesheim is survived by her husband and three children, Mrs. M. G. Krzmarzick, Mrs. Charles Schleif and Mrs. Adolph Schleif, all residing in Mulligan township. Six children died in infancy. Mr. and Mrs. Hillesheim celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary last May.

Two weeks previous to her death, Mrs. Hillesheim was stricken with apoplexy. She failed to recover and passed away peacefully, while sleeping.

Mrs. L. Beecher spent yesterday visiting in Mankato.

George W. Norman, Guy Lamoreaux and J. C. James of Lake Crystal motored to this city, Saturday, to attend to business matters.

Melvin Zschunke, student at the Mankato Commercial College, spent the week-end visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Zschunke, South State street. He returned to Mankato, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. S. Owens of St. Paul, a sister of Mrs. F. W. Behrmer of this village, underwent an operation for an abdominal tumor at the Loretto Hospital, New Ulm, Wednesday.

Matth. J. and Andrew Volz of West Newton are two of Nicollet county's 10 mighty nimrods who will try their luck hunting big game in the Northern woods, having secured licenses from County Auditor W. H. Holz at St. Peter.

Dr. A. E. Tillisch, optician, who has visited Comfrey at regular intervals, was recently arrested at Windom on the charge of practicing without a state license. Dr. Tillisch admitted his guilt, paid his fine, and is no longer practicing the profession of fitting glasses. Mr. Tillisch before going to Comfrey, was a veterinary at Lamberton for a year. He claims, however, to have graduated with his brother, J. S. Tillisch, of Mankato, and was licensed to practice in North Dakota. H. O. Schleuder of this city, a member of the State Board, caused his arrest on the complaint of Dr. Curry of Windom, who has bought out Dr. J. S. Tillisch.

FIRE ALARM AT SCHOOL ENJOYED BY YOUNGSTERS

Oil Mop Causes Disturbance
At Washington Building
No Damage Done.

A real scare was enjoyed by the "kids" at the Washington School building last Wednesday morning when smoke began to pour thru the floor of the lower rooms and the fire alarm was quickly sounded. To say that it was enjoyed is no exaggeration. There was the chance that there might be no schoolhouse to go to school in for a few days, and then there would be lots of fun going to school in some church basement or other place where one can always pull off more or less irregular stunts and get by with them much more easily than in the regular school room which is so constructed as to eliminate all the fun in life for the small boy. But the youngsters were disappointed for the fire turned out to be nothing more than a greasy mop smoking because some one had thrown it across the heat pipes in the basement and the janitor had not noticed its presence there when he fired up for the cold weather.

The fire department was quickly on the scene but were not needed for Mr. Duennhad discovered the source of the smoke and eliminated it while the school children had all gotten out of the building in apple-pie order with books and other business paraphernalia. When the rooms had been cleared of smoke they went back to work, somewhat unwillingly, but the alarm was looked upon by them as a pleasing diversion in an otherwise dull day.

At the High School building the janitor has made arrangements with the High School boys to form a fire brigade and Wednesday afternoon the had his volunteers out for practice. The boys are being instructed how to handle the hose and to look after such other details as will facilitate the building and also offer resistance to the flames. When the fire drill was held in the afternoon the building was emptied in one minute and three seconds. The Washington building had their fire drill in the morning when there seemed to be actual danger and the children got out in such good order as to be warmly commended by the fire marshal who happened to be in town at the time. Mr. Forster also attended the fire drill at the Lutheran parochial school and reports that the new building can be emptied in considerably less than one minute.

Dr. A. V. Seifert returned Sunday from a visit in Chicago.

L. I. Bjorneberg of Hanska was a business visitor here the fore part of last week.

Fred Christiansen and family, and Mrs. and Mrs. Emil G. Hage attended the Helling funeral at Hanska, recently.

Mrs. Nora Ouren has returned to her home in Hanska, following a brief stay with Mrs. Emil G. Hage, in this city.

John Hetlinger returned Sunday afternoon from Bancroft, S. D., where he had been employed for the past summer.

The William Ruemke family moved to Minneapolis, Friday, to spend the day shopping and visiting with friends and relatives.

Elvira Borth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Borth of Fairfax, submitted to an appendectomy operation at the Union Hospital, Friday afternoon. She is convalescing very nicely.

Miss Florence Deopre of Mankato was a week-end guest of her cousin, Miss Viola Filzen. Miss Deopre returned to Mankato, Monday afternoon.

Walter Becker, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Becker, is recovering nicely from a serious attack of pneumonia, with which he became afflicted a week ago Saturday.

HER LIFE AN INSPIRATION

Difficulties Overcome by Helen Keller
Should Shame Any One From Discouragement.

Mark Twain once said, "The two most interesting characters of the Nineteenth century are Napoleon and Helen Keller." Helen Keller, the Detroit News recalls, was a normal child until 19 months old. At that time a serious illness left her blind, deaf and dumb. Even during these early years in the dark she learned many things through the sense of touch. Her chief playmates were a little colored girl and an old setter dog.

She was nearly seven years old when a teacher was found to undertake what seemed an impossible task. This teacher, Miss Anne Sullivan, began at once to talk into her little pupil's hand with her fingers. The first word Miss Sullivan spelled into her hand was "doll"; the next word was "cake." The words were quickly spelled back, even before the little girl knew what they meant. Very soon, however, the spelled words with the hand language were connected with a real doll and real cake. Within a month she knew thirty words and could talk them back with her fingers. As soon as she grasped the thought that all objects have names she learned very fast. Within three months her vocabulary had increased to about 300 words, and within a year to 900 words. She is now a noted writer and lecturer.

TWO BRAVEST MEN OF HISTORY SHOWN IN FILM

Lincoln and Lee are Faithfully Portrayed in "The Heart of Maryland."

The characters of two of the bravest men in history are faithfully depicted in Vitagraph's special production "The Heart of Maryland," which will be shown at the Crystal Theater next Monday and Tuesday.

They are Abraham Lincoln and Robert E. Lee. They are shown but an instant, yet in that instant one gets a picture of the greatness of the leader of the North and the leader of the South. Both men were big, as the incidents in the play will show.

Lloyd Calvert, son of the Calverts of the South, a family who would give all for the cause of the Confederacy, is at school in the North at the outbreak of the war. He is a great admirer of Abraham Lincoln, and he is torn between his duty to his home and fellows and his love for the North.

He has an interview with Abraham Lincoln, and that great leader of the country tells him: "Your position is a difficult one, my boy. To fight against your kin is a terrible thing, but to fight against your conscience is infinitely worse. If you believe in the justice of our cause it is your duty to support that cause, and may God in his mercy grant you courage and strength to make the sacrifice."

The occasion upon which General Lee enters the story is at the Calvert home in Maryland. Maryland Calvert, the heroine, is known as the fiercest little Southerner of them all, and it is to present her with a citation that General Lee visits her home.

Nannie McNair, a ward of the Calverts, is a Northerner and faithful to the cause of the North. While the southern ladies are having the chapter meeting in working for the soldiers of the South, Nannie, alone on the veranda, knits socks for the northern troops.

When General Lee drives into the yard he is impressed by the fact that Nannie pays no attention to him. Later, when he is the center of attention among the southern women, Nannie commences to sing "Yankee Doodle." This startles General Lee and shocks the Southerners.

General Lee strides out on to the porch, and, saluting the American flag and Nannie, he says to her, "It is a fine thing, my dear little girl, to be unafraid to stand by the colors of the cause you believe in."

Mrs. B. Hippert was very pleasantly surprised by a number of ladies Monday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. The evening was spent playing "500", at which Mrs. Hippert was awarded high honors and Mrs. Elmer Vegelpohl, low. At midnight a lovely three-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Henry Albrecht of Fairfax underwent an abdominal operation at the Union Hospital, Friday, and is recovering very nicely.

Miss Alice Pfeiffer, who is teaching in the Lone Tree district, will spend the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pfeiffer in Milford township. She will attend the teachers' institute here next Monday Tuesday Wednesday and will spend Thanksgiving with her parents.
