

Interest When Due

You get a check for the interest on the very day it is due when you invest with us.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.

New Ulm, Minnesota.

STORK BROTHERS
ESTABLISHED 1902
EGGS, POULTRY CASH BUYERS
PROMPT, RELIABLE, SAFE—WE WANT YOUR BUSINESS
NEW ULM MINNESOTA

LOCAL NOTES

Dr. O. J. Seifert was a professional caller at Lambertson, Wednesday.

Adolph Burmeister of St. Peter spent Sunday with local relatives and friends.

Andrew Domeier visited with his sister, Mrs. Emil Gutzke, at Lafayette, Monday.

Rev. and Mrs. Im. F. Albrecht of Fairfax were guests of New Ulm relatives, Saturday.

Miss Callie Steinhauser, of Lambertson is the guest of local relatives and friends this week.

Mrs. J. W. Berger of Lafayette and Mrs. Emil Domeier of this city, were guests at the Ed. Berger home in Nicollet, Monday.

Mrs. J. W. Schroeder and son, accompanied by the Misses Lillian and Sylvia Marti, visited with Sleepy Eye relatives and friends Saturday.

J. A. Ochs left Friday afternoon for a several weeks' stay at Orlando, Florida. He was accompanied by his brother, A. C. Ochs of Springfield.

Attorney W. H. Dempsey returned from Rochester, Wednesday, where he visited with his brother, who is a patient at the Mayo hospital there.

Gerald Bockus, who is attending the University of Minnesota spent the past week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Bockus, South State street.

Emil Garbrecht of Sioux Falls, S. D. was an over-Sunday guest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Garbrecht, North Franklin street.

Mr. and Mrs. Duwane Wolgram have returned to their home in Minneapolis, following a short visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Oswald.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baer, Jr., are the happy parents of an eight-pound daughter, born to them yesterday morning. This joyous event is the cause for that extra radiant smile which illuminates Ed's countenance.

Last Friday evening about 20 friends of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pelz came up from New Ulm to assist them in celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary. They came well laden with goodies to eat and a most pleasant evening was spent.—Sleepy Eye Progression.

Mrs. John Henle was hostess at her home on North State street Saturday afternoon, in honor of her birthday anniversary. "500" was played at four tables, at which Mrs. Alex F. Ranweiler and Mrs. Peter Sprenger were awarded prizes. A delicious two-course luncheon was served at 5 o'clock.

Your Sign To Go

William Hamann of Hanska was a business caller here, Thursday.

Peter G. Nelson of Hanska transacted business in this city, Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Marie Berger left Wednesday for a week's visit with her brother, Ed. A. Berger, at Nicollet.

Miss Annie Havemeier of Courtland visited with her friend, Miss Alma Schroeder, of this city, Sunday.

Appropriate services are held ever Wednesday evening at the Lutheran church during Advent until Christmas time.

Herman Langhoff attended the funeral of his uncle, Louis Graf, at Mankato, Saturday, returning home Sunday.

Anton Forster left yesterday morning for Mankato and Minneapolis, where he will visit with relatives and friend for several weeks.

Miss Minnie Matthi of Henderson visited at the F. J. Backer home, Monday. Miss Matthi was on her way to Gaylord, where she will serve on the jury.

Mrs. Ida Doctor of Minneapolis spent the week-end as the guest of Attorney and Mrs. T. O. Streissguth and at the C. G. Reim home. Mrs. Doctor is a sister of M. Streissguth.

Mrs. Ferdinand Langhoff returned to St. Paul, Saturday, following a four weeks' visit with her long-time friend, Mrs. Catherine Koehler, who has been very ill, at the Fred. Windland home. Mrs. Koehler is gradually convalescing.

P. A. Becker made a flying trip to the Twin Cities, Monday, to replenish the depleted stock of Christmas goods at the Wonder Store. He reports an excellent holiday trade, as the result of consistent advertising and prices that are right.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wandersee were entertained at a dancing party at the Milford Club house, Thursday evening, by a number of friends of the newlyweds. Fritsche & Bauermeister furnished the music for the occasion and at a late hour, a lunch was served that had been prepared by the merry-makers.

Alvin Moll, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Moll, of Home township, is visiting with his parents, after spending a year in the U. S. Army. He was assigned to duty in the Hawaiian Islands and remained there as baritone player in a military band until October, at which time he sailed for home.

The annual sale and supper arranged by the Congregational Ladies' Aid were well attended, Wednesday afternoon. The sale was held in afternoon, and food-stuffs and fancy work were disposed of. The chicken supper in the evening was enjoyed by a large number.

Mrs. Martha Fischer and Carl Poehler were married Thursday, November 24, by Rev. H. Strassen at the German Lutheran Church in Courtland. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. August Poehler, Jr. The newlyweds will make their home on the farm of the groom's father in Courtland township.

Rev. C. J. Albrecht of this city, Rev. Im. Albrecht of Fairfax, Rev. R. Polzin of Mud Lake, Rev. H. Boettcher of Gibbon, Rev. J. Dysterberg and Helen and Rev. W. Scheid of Echo attended a meeting of the Lutheran congregation at Vegta, recently, of which Rev. Paul Gedicks is pastor.

Mrs. Herman Amme, her daughter, Miss Katherine, and son, Fred, expect to leave for a sojourn of three months or longer in the West, next week. Their first objective is Puyallup, Mrs. Amme's former home, where they will visit relatives for some time before going to Portland, Ore., for an extended stay with friends. Puyallup is a prosperous little city located near Tacoma.

Mrs. Chas. Rauschke was very pleasantly surprised by some 25 friends in honor of her birthday anniversary at her home on North Broadway, Tuesday evening. "500" was played and prizes were awarded to Miss Martha Werner, Mrs. Ben Frank, Emil Lueder and Ed. Werner. The guests were well-laden with a luncheon that was served at the close of the game, and Mrs. Rauschke was presented with a very pretty gift.

N. G. Stahley and bride, Miss Winifred Bastian, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bastian, formerly of this city and now residing at Anaheim, California, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kitzberger, North Washington street, this week. Mr. and Mrs. Stahley are on their honeymoon and arrived here from Hetland, S. D. from a visit with Mr. Stahley's parents. They are visiting with local relatives for several weeks before returning to their home in California where Mr. Stahley conducts an orange ranch at Anaheim.

F. P. Zschunke was a business caller at St. Paul, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Starr were Mankato visitors, Saturday.

Miss Annie Hartlick of Gibbon was operated upon at the Loretto Hospital, yesterday morning.

Miss Bertha Oswald of Gibbon was the guest of her friend, Miss Ina Bentsdahl, last week.

Miss Priscilla Hughes returned to her home in Madelia, Wednesday, after a short visit at the John Huelskamp home.

George W. Haynes spent several days of the past week in Chicago on business for the Eagle Roller Mill Company.

The Turner Ladies will have their regular birthday celebration for November and December combined in one Thursday of this week. There will be eight celebrants.

Ernst Sperling has received a government license to operate an amateur wireless station here. His official call is 9BBF. Ernst has a very good station and has heard from many points all over the United States.

Mrs. Leo Seifert of Fairmont visited at the Henry Seifert home on South Washington street, Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Seifert and Attorney Dougherty drove here from Fairmont, Sunday and accompanied Mrs. Seifert home.

Miss Rose Isaksen and Roy R. Gould, both of Springfield, were married by Rev. Dr. C. G. Hohn at the Methodist parsonage here, Saturday, December 3. Miss Mayme Gould and Erwin Isaksen, also of Springfield, attended the happy young couple.

Mrs. Ida Bobleter will leave the latter part of this week for Bismarck, N. D. where she will make her home with her son, Dr. C. W. Schorregge and family for the winter. Mrs. Bobleter has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Louis G. Vogel here for several months past.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Radke, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schwartz and Joseph Mader of Springfield were business visitors in this city, Monday. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wendt during the day. Messrs. Radke, Schwartz and Mader also attended the county commissioners' session here in the afternoon.

Mrs. F. W. Johnson was hostess to a number of lady friends at the Dakota House, Monday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. William Silverson, who, with Mr. Silverson, leaves this coming week for Florida. "500" was played at which Mrs. Carl J. Crone, Sr. was awarded high honors; and Mrs. G. B. Weiser, low score. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

A number of friends surprised Mrs. Marie Bachmann at her home on Center street, Sunday evening, to celebrate her birthday anniversary. "500" was played, at which Mrs. Ernst Wicherski and Mrs. John Hetlinger were awarded the prizes. Mrs. Bachmann was presented with a beautiful cut glass bowl and a delightfully arranged luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ranweiler entertained a number of friends at their home on North Washington street, Sunday evening. "500" was played at five tables, and Mrs. Hilarius Berg, Miss Lillian Meyer and Miss Thecla Eibner were awarded prizes. At the close of the game a delicious luncheon was served. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Hilarius Berg and Miss Lillian Meyer of Courtland and Mrs. William Witt of Mondovi, Wisconsin.

The Women's Auxiliary, American Legion, entertained their members at the Armory yesterday afternoon. "500" was played, while some of those present spent the hours in doing fancy work and sewing. At 6 o'clock a luncheon was served, which was followed by a business meeting. Officers for the coming year were elected. The hostesses were Mrs. A. O. Olson, Mrs. Theodore Furth, Mrs. J. L. Schoch, Mrs. William F. Wendt and Mrs. Henry Held.

Miss Hattie Baltrusch entertained a number of friends at a three-course one o'clock dinner at the Dakota House, Sunday. Covers were laid for 16, and the table was prettily decorated having as a centerpiece a huge bouquet of pink carnations. Following the excellent dinner, the guests were entertained at "500" at the Baltrusch home and honors were awarded to Mrs. Alfred Puhmann, and Miss Marie Korbel. Light refreshments were served during the afternoon by the hostess and music and singing were indulged in before the afternoon drew to a close. Miss Marie Forster of Mankato and Miss Emma Havemeier of Courtland were the out-of-town guests.

Howard Huelskamp has returned to his home in Winthrop, following a short visit at the John Huelskamp home.

Mrs. William Werner returned, Tuesday, from Lambertson, where she visited several weeks at the D. L. Werner home.

Drs. G. B. Weiser, O. C. Strickler and T. F. Hammermeister attended the Southern Minnesota Medical meeting at Mankato, Monday.

Mrs. William Walsh and children Mern and Lorene, of St. Paul, who have been visiting at the Charles Kaiser home for the past two weeks, returned to their home, Tuesday.

Mrs. Sarah Bird, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Florence, and son, Vinton, were guests at the Herman Schreyer home last week. They were present at the silver wedding anniversary of the Schreyers, which was also the second birthday anniversary of Shirley Dorothea, Mr. Bird's little daughter, who is making her home with her grandparents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kalz were most pleasantly surprised at their home on North Washington street, Thursday evening, by some 15 of their relatives and friends. "500" was played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Anton Forster and Martin Forster, high; Mrs. Albert Wiltsccheck and Joseph Forster, low. A very delicious three-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Albert Wiltsccheck entertained a dozen relatives and friends, at her home on North Franklin street, Sunday evening, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. "500" was played and high honors were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Forster and low scores to Martin Forster and Mrs. Anton Forster. A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Alvina Adam entertained a number of ladies at her home, Friday, in honor of her birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent in playing "500" and doing fancy work, and in sociability. A 6 o'clock dinner was served at a prettily decorated table and covers were laid for ten. Mrs. Adam was presented with a pretty gift by the guests.

The Christian Mothers' Society met at a regular monthly meeting at the Catholic school house, Sunday afternoon, and the following officers were elected for the coming year: President Mrs. Frances Tauscheck; vice president, Mrs. Albert Boettger; secretary Mrs. Albert Wiltsccheck; treasurer, Mrs. John Richter; marshalls, Mrs. George Puchner and Mrs. Henry Rolwes; standard bearers, Mrs. Catherine Wendinger, Mrs. Barbara Saffert and Mrs. Rosa Franta.

At the regular business meeting of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid, held at the Lutheran school house, Thursday afternoon, the following officers were elected for the coming year: President, C. G. Reim, was re-elected as president, as was Mrs. F. J. Backer as secretary and Mrs. Fred Radke as treasurer. Mrs. Paul Kuehlbach was elected vice president in place of Miss Clara Steinhauser, who has been vice president for the past several years and declined reelection. The Aid has some 150 members at the present time.

Hummel's Men's and Boys' Store.

Everything that makes Christmas attractive to men and young men is here.

So far as fine Gifts for Men are concerned we don't think there is another display in New Ulm that compares with this for detailed completeness.

Come here if it is only to look.

- Mufflers $1-$1.50-$2-$3
- Neckwear 50c-75c-$1-$1.50-$2
- Hosiery 25c-50c-75c-$1
- Garters 25c-35c-50c
- Suspenders 50c-$1
- Madras Shirts $1-$1.50-$2-$3
- Silk Shirts $4-$5-$6
- Flannel Shirts $1.48-$2-$3-$4
- Pajamas and N. R. $1.25-$2.50-$3.50
- Union Suits 98c-$1.39-$1.98-$2.50-$3.75
- Sweaters $2.50 to $8.50
- Mackinaws $6-$8-$10
- Suits $18.50-$25-$30
- Overcoats $15-$19.50-$27.50

Hats, Caps, Storm Coats, Fur Collar Coats, Leather Vests, Gloves, Mittens.

At Reasonable, Payable Prices.

HUMMEL BROS.
NEW ULM MINN.

Christmas Candies & Pastry

Buy your Christmas Candies and Pastry where you are sure of getting the purest and best quality. You take no chances when you select your supply of Holiday Sweets from our large and varied stock of pure, fresh Candies and Pastries. We are Headquarters for Bon-Bons, Chocolates, choice Candies in boxes and in bulk, Christmas Pastries, Cakes, Cookies, Pies, etc. You will like our real home-made Bread every day of the year. Start getting the habit today.

WENEEDA BAKERY

F. W. EIBNER, Prop.

TURNER HALL

TWO RIP-ROARIN' NIGHTS

THURSDAY & FRIDAY DEC. 8-9

The American Legion Show

"Honeymoon Town"

50 People HOME TALENT 50 People

CHORUS OF SINGING AND DANCING GIRLS AND BOYS

ONE BIG LAUGH—CATCHY SONGS
BEAUTIFUL COSTUMES

THE BIG EVENT OF THE SEASON

Seat Sale Opens This Morning at Arbes Bros.' Drug Store.

PRIZES WITHIN THE REACH OF ALL
Lower Floor, 75c; Balcony, 50c & 35c; Plus War Tax

TWO BLADES OF GRASS

To make two blades of grass grow where only one grew before has always been considered a laudable action.

The farmer who succeeds in doing this, must possess business training along with his knowledge of farming.

A check account with this bank will help to establish your credit and put you on an equal business footing with the merchants with whom you deal.

BROWN COUNTY BANK
NEW ULM, MINN.
A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER.

WE PAY 5% ON TIME DEPOSITS

5% INTEREST ON SAVINGS COMPOUNDED SEMI-ANNUALLY

H. O. SCHLEUDER
Optometrist AND OPTICIAN
WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES
102 Minn. St. Tel. 87