PREUS PRETENDING SAY POLITICIANS

DO NOT BELIEVE GOVERNOR IS OUT OF THE RACE FOR SENATE.

ELLSWORTH PLANS A SOAP BOX CAMPAIGN FOR THE GOVERNORSHIP.

Roscoe Fleming political prognosticator, says that little credence is given to Gov. Preus' announcement that he is not a candidate for senatorial honors. Fleming says Governor Preus, despite his professions to have withdrawn from the senatorial race, is still counted as a mighty big factor in it by almost all the politicians who pride themselves on their inside knowledge of politics. Some of them, anti-Preus, insist that his whole statement was drawn so he could jump into the race upon a "spontaneous demand" from the G. O. P. state convention. They say that under cover work is being done by men whom they call Preus agents, designed to remove any prospective opposition from the governor's path, and they fully expect the republican convention, unless it balks, to name him for the senate.

Leach Boom 'Machine Move.' In the minds of these men the Leach last-minute candidacy was a machine move designed to cement the differences in Hennepin county and make the county delegation a solid block, which could be voted for one man until the occasion came to swing it.

If the governor was sincere in his withdrawal, he has only himself to blame for being mistrusted. Memory is too fresh of the situation two years ago, when Preus stayed out of the gubernatorial situation until the last minute, which encouraged many others to announce themselves, and then jumped in and snatched the nomination out of the middle thus created.

Manahan Move Individual. No labor organizations of St. Paul are concerned in the recent move made to file labor men as delegates for James Manahan in the republican Ramsey county convention, it was said today by William Mahoney, chairman of the state Working People's Non-partisan league.

He said that the move was simply one on the part of individuals who are friends of Mr. Manahan.

Ellsworth Promises 'Vinegar.' Former Congressman Frank D. Ellsworth, in an impromptu speech before the Commonwealth club at its noon luncheon in the Y. M. C. A. yesterday, said he was going to "out-Townley Townley" in his campaign for governor this year. He took the club members into his confidence to the extent of telling them that he was not going to confine his speeches to halls, but would be out on the streets of Minneapolis speaking from his "Studebaker sedan."

"If I were to say what I think about the situation in this state, I am afraid there would be too much vinegar in it for this occasion," he added.

later, she came to Nicollet county, where she was united in marriage to Anton Hahn on October 11, 1869, at Brighton. Mrs. Hahn was the mother of twelve children, all of whom survive, and with the exception of one were present at the funeral. They are Mrs. Henry Bongarts, Cologne; Mrs. Cornelius Zins, Fulda; Mrs. Wm. Ballman, Cleveland; Mrs. Peter J. Jutz, New Ulm; Mrs. Joseph Horner, New Ulm; Mrs. Louis Kunz, Minneapolis; Philip Hahn, Clements; William Hahn, St. Peter; Valentine Hahn, Clements; Lambert Hahn, Lusland, Canada; John Hahn, Brighton, and Herbert Hahn Clements. She also leaves a sister and brother, 45 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. The funeral was held Tuesday morning from the Swan Lake Catholic church, Rev. Fr. Hrachovsky officiating and interment was made in the church cemetery.—Nicollet Leader.

All of us want prices to be reduced, but we want the movement to begin with the other fellow.

Master yourself, and then mastery of anything else will be comparatively easy.

Members of the arrangements committee, the supper committee, the costume committee and Prince Carnival and his court enjoyed a social evening at Turner Hall Saturday when all who had had a part in preparing the Mardi Gras Ball had supper together and spent the evening playing cards. There were nearly fifty persons present and a very pleasant social evening was enjoyed.

MARCH SETTLEMENT FIGURES

Total Receipts Show a Drop of $46,000, Due to Elimination of Auto Taxes. New Ulm Gets About One Third of Entire Apportionment.

From this year's March settlement which was completed by County Auditor Louis G. Vogel and Henry J. Berg last Thursday evening, it appears that the total receipts this year were only $129,015.13 as compared with $175,715.08 of the year previous, a difference of $46,700 which is due largely to the elimination of the taxes on automobiles, which under the new law are exempt from all taxation except the motor vehicle taxes paid directly to the State of Minnesota.

Of this amount $13,394.33 was apportioned to the State of Minnesota and to the following funds: State Revenue Fund $8,222.90, State School Fund $3,306.51, State Teachers' Fund, $134.38, Mortgage Tax $211.82, moneys and credits $1190.51, Grain Tax $328.21. The County shared this apportionment to the extent of $28,673.32 of which amount $11,190.78 was credited to the County Revenue Fund, $2612.28 to the County Poor Fund, $11,973.52 to the Road and Bridge Fund, $1178.77 to the County Ditch Fund, $780.77 to the Refunding fund and $937.20 to the County penalty fund. There was apportioned to the various municipalities the sum of $43,600.40 of which amount New Ulm received $13,317.19, fully as much as Springfield and Sleepy Eye together.

There was apportioned to the various school districts of the County the sum of $43,357.08, a trifle less than was apportioned for municipality purposes. Of this amount the New Ulm School District received $13,674.90, Sleepy Eye $9,313.08 and Springfield $7,677.56. New Ulm's share of the total tax apportionment for school purposes is a trifle less than one-third of the total taxes apportioned and the same thing holds good as far as the apportionment for municipal purposes is concerned where New Ulm's share of the total taxes apportioned is just a little less than one-third of the total.

The various apportionments are shown in the following figures:

Spring Wheat

The Very Best Wheat in the World

Marquis wheat has become the established variety of bread wheat because in a normal season it will outyield any other spring wheat.

Many farmers say that they cannot make money in wheat; but what better crop is there than a crop of good milling wheat?

Last year Minnesota raised about twenty-four million bushels; North Dakota seventy-three millions; South Dakota twenty-five millions, including durum but the milling wheat which without mixing would make a good strong wheat flour was but a comparatively small proportion. We must have a milling wheat of good quality.

Fall preparation of the wheat lands and early seeding are the best guarantee of beating the rust. Often wheat planted one week later will be almost a failure while wheat sown a week earlier will make a good crop of good wheat.

While we cannot control the weather, we can by taking proper precautions make a crop, while wheat put in carelessly will be unprofitable.

Black rust is undoubtedly the greatest enemy we have, yet we have hope and every assurance that when the states and the government will have completely eradicated the barberry bush, we can control rust epidemics.

Learn to know the barberry bush and report to your State Agricultural College or to this Association any plantings you may find especially if growing wild.

Wheat scab next to rust is the most disastrous disease. The losses can be greatly reduced from this source by the use of well prepared clean land, adapted varieties and high grade cleaned and treated seed sown early in a cool soil.

If scab be present, it is better to follow corn with some crop not attacked by scab because corn carries the disease to wheat.
