

Keep Your Money Safe

You can do this very easily if you invest your money with us.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

STORK BROTHERS
ESTABLISHED 1902
CASH BUYERS
NEW ULM, MINNESOTA

LOCAL NOTES

Mrs. Fred Meive had her tonsils removed at the Union Hospital, Tuesday afternoon.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Boettger of Milford township, last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Nordby of Fairfax were guests at the William Stelhome, several days during the past week.

The members of the Walther League met at the Lutheran school house, Thursday evening at their regular meeting.

Miss Elda Jahnke and brother, Hilding, of Minneapolis visited during the past week with local relatives and friends here.

The Herman Rossau family who have lived on a farm in the vicinity of Morgan, removed to the George Dummer farm in West Newton township, March 1st.

Mrs. Mary Kuebler of Evan and Mrs. R. F. Altmann of Leavenworth spent several days of the past week in this city, visiting with Mrs. Kuebler's daughter.

William Glaesmann and daughter, Miss Leona of Brookings, S. D. are guests at the homes of William Glaesmann, Paul Borchert and Robert Williams of this city, this week.

Mrs. J. H. Siegel returned to her home in this city, last Monday following a pleasant three weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Milwaukee and Madison, Wis., and at Minneapolis.

Mrs. Jos. N. Schaefer has returned to her home on North State Street, following a pleasant visit at the Oscar Waibel home in Lambert. Mrs. Waibel is a daughter of Mrs. Schaefer.

Supt. Arnold Gloor announces that a spring primary class will be organized at the local schools, March 27. Children in order to be enrolled must be six years old by December 25, 1922.

Audi Monsor is enjoying a visit with New Ulm friends this week. Several weeks ago he purchased the Seven Corners Apron Shop at St. Paul, and Mr. Monsor states that he is doing a good business.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Alphons Gruenfelder of Marshall, Friday. Mrs. Gruenfelder was formerly Miss Tina Nagel of this city and a daughter of Mrs. Fred Wellmann residing on Center Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Steljes were week-end visitors at Mankato where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Nick Harris and also at the Henry Vogel-pohl home. Mr. and Mrs. A. Nordby of Fairfax accompanied them.

E. G. Helling of Hanska was a county seat visitor, Saturday.

Lambert Dorn of Nicollet was a business caller in New Ulm, yesterday.

Miss Eleanor Bauch visited several days last week at the home of Julius Bauch in Springfield.

Miss Irene Forster of Springfield is the guest of Miss Florence Baer this week. She arrived here last Wednesday.

Mrs. James Cosgriff of Lambert visited with her mother, Mrs. Emilie Forster, residing on South Broadway, several days during the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Epper left Monday afternoon for Nicollet where they will spend a week visiting with their daughter, Mrs. A. H. Johannes and family.

Mrs. W. F. Blauert left Monday afternoon for Renville, where she will spend the week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. R. Schierenbeck and family.

Mrs. A. H. Besmehn spent the weekend at St. Paul, visiting with her mother, Mrs. C. H. Helmes and also becoming acquainted with the little newcomer who arrived at the John Nansen home, recently.

Herman Kissner returned to his home in Sleepy Eye, Wednesday after a six week's stay at the local Union Hospital. He had been operated upon recently, and has sufficiently recovered to be able to return home.

Ed. W. Baer, hardware merchant of North Minnesota Street, has taken into partnership with himself his son Werner Baer, who has been his assistant for several years. The firm name will be Ed. W. Baer & Son.

Mrs. Christ Sperbrink was taken suddenly ill at her home on North Jefferson St., Monday evening and was in a very critical condition for some time. At present she is feeling better and is improving as nicely as can be expected.

Mrs. Fred Falk left Monday afternoon for Lisbon, N. D., where she will visit for some time at the home of her son in law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lambrecht, and get acquainted with her new grandson who arrived Saturday.

Dr. F. J. Pelant left yesterday afternoon for Minneapolis upon receipt of the news of the death of his mother which occurred at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Dr. Pelant will remain in the city until after the funeral which will probably be held Thursday or Friday.

Edward Vogel of Belview, who at one time was teller in the State Bank of New Ulm and W. H. Mueller who was at one time an assistant cashier in a Wabasso bank and for the past two years district agent of the Equitable Insurance Company, have formed a co-partnership and will hereafter conduct a general insurance agency in Springfield.

Relatives received the glad news Saturday that a bouncing baby boy had arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Lambrecht at Lisbon, N. D. that day. Mrs. Lambrecht was formerly Miss Eda Falk of this city, and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Falk residing on North German Street. Her many friends here will be pleased to learn of the happy event. Congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. Eidsvold returned Monday evening from Minneapolis where they had been attending the funeral of Mrs. Eidsvold's mother who had been very ill for the past eight weeks. She had been an invalid for more than thirty years but had been up and around until about the first of the year. Gangrene and paralysis set in towards the last and she died Thursday. The funeral was held Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Radtke residing on North Washington street received word Friday morning that their son, Herman, who is at the present time interne at St. Mary's Hospital at Duluth, was quite seriously ill with bronchitis and pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Radtke left for Duluth Saturday to be at his bedside. They returned home Monday evening, and report that when they left Herman was considerably better and his speedy recovery is expected.

Mrs. K. E. Mo of Minneapolis, formerly of this city and later a resident of Springfield for a number of years, will represent the Colonial Chapter at the National Congress of the Daughters of the American Revolution which convenes in Washington, D. C., during the week of April 17th. Her daughter Miss Lucella has been signally honored by the National Society, having been chosen as one of the three young women from the Northwest who will act as pages at the National Congress.

F. H. Behnke has been absent in the cities on business for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Schimschock were business callers at Sleepy Eye last Tuesday.

Miss Elsa Menk of Morgan visited last week for several days at the home of John Menk of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Kohn of St. Peter were Sunday guests at the Reinhold and Henry G. Kohn families near Courtland.

Hofmeister's band will give their regular annual band concert Wednesday, April 19. More particulars will be issued later.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schroeffer living in the Neumann house on First North Street are the parents of a baby daughter born Monday night.

Miss Rose Schreiner has returned to her home here following a few days' visit at the Joe Glesner home near St. George. She returned Monday afternoon.

Mrs. C. W. Miller and son Thaxter returned from Rochester, Sunday evening, after spending a few days at the home of Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Hanson.

George Arndt of New Ulm, Alfred Kiecker of Fairfax, Fred Wacker of Arlington and William Kunze of Sleepy Eye submitted to major operations at the Union hospital Tuesday morning.

Ed. McGowan, Chief of Police of Sleepy Eye had the misfortune to take a tumble last Thursday, injuring his back very severely. He was confined to his home for over a week on account of this accident.

During the past week Rev. Losleben of this city, Rev. James Klein, Rev. V. Rentz and Rev. Fredrich of Sleepy Eye assisted in the observance of the forty hours' devotion at St. Raphael's Catholic church in Springfield.

Mrs. Alfred Broo, residing on North Jefferson street was operated upon at the Loretto Hospital, yesterday morning. Mrs. Broo is reported as being quite seriously ill, but her complete recovery is looked forward to by her many friends.

Arlene, the nine-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Reed, residing in the vicinity of Cambria died Thursday morning after a short illness. The funeral was held Saturday morning from the Searles Catholic church and interment was made in the cemetery nearby.

Anton M. Sprenger, who has been spending the past several months with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sprenger, residing on North Jefferson street, and with other relatives and friends in this city, will return to Elizabeth, Minn., today where he has rented a farm, and will follow the occupation of farming this season.

The Men's League of the M. E. church will meet this evening at the church parlors. The ladies of the various societies have been invited and a pleasing program has been arranged. Rev. Bartholomew of the Twin Cities will be the speaker for the occasion. Messrs. Carl Case, C. N. Robertson and Ben Parmeter are the hosts for the evening.

The annual meeting of the Springfield Building & Loan Association was held in the basement of the State Bank Monday evening, March 6, at which time the following were elected as members of the Board of Directors: H. H. Birkemeyer, J. A. Rieck, A. C. Lehrer and E. L. Nippit. E. Nippit was re-elected as secretary. During the past year new loans aggregating $23,000 were made and the institution at the present time has 225 stockholders and is in a flourishing condition.

J. C. Jackson and C. Root who have held the majority of the stock in the Farmers & Merchants State Bank of Morgan have disposed of their holdings to E. H. Albrecht, F. J. Fenske, R. C. Wessell, C. B. Huschke, Wm. Green A. J. Tauer, John Gluth and F. W. Zaska. This stock is to be distributed among business men and farmers. In the very near future a re-organization meeting will be held. For the present J. C. Jackson and E. P. Grabow will remain with the institution and it is contemplated to hire additional help.

It will interest friends of F. V. Bott, a former resident of Springfield and well known throughout the County, to learn that he has established an auto and tractor school at Little Rock, Arkansas. The school which was but recently established has grown so steadily that it was found necessary to move into more commodious quarters during the early part of March. This is the only school of its kind in the South and is prepared to teach students everything that they should know in the automotive trade. Classes are conducted day and night. The equipment is new and modern in every department. There is a fully equipped tool room for the use of the students at the present time. Instruction is given in the Auto mechanics department and in an electrical department. There is also a black-smithing and a welding department. The school offers two courses in automobile painting as well as courses in top and cushion making and repairing. There are at the present time ten department heads, two of whom are Perry J. Bott and Fred Bott, Sr.

The Ladies Society of the M. E. Church will meet this afternoon at the church parlors for their regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. J. C. Rothenburg of Springfield and Mrs. John Wooldrik of Sleepy Eye attended the regular monthly meeting of the Brown County Child Welfare Board which met here Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Justus Washburn and two little children have returned to their home in Wabasso, after a week's visit with Mrs. Washburn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Moll residing on North State street.

Roy Ellingson returned to his home in Marietta Monday following a several days' stay at the home of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Oswald of this city. Roy has been attending Mankato Commercial College for the past several months.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Congregational Church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the church parlors Friday afternoon, March 17. The hostesses will be Mesdames C. I. Stone, Joe Karl, Emil Hage and Mrs. H. Bierbaum and the leader, Mrs. W. S. Cockroft.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bartsch of Huron, S. D., spent several days in this city visiting with Mrs. Bartsch's sister, Mrs. Frank Bochum, residing on North Jefferson street, and other relatives and friends here. They returned to their home in Huron, yesterday.

Joseph Brunner who has been making his home at the Mike Wenninger home on North Valley street since coming here from Austria last October, left Monday for Sanish, N. D., where he will assist his uncle, Anton Wenninger with the farm work during the coming season. He will not return to this city until next fall.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Edmiston were hosts at a five hundred card party at their home on South Washington street, Thursday evening. The prizes awarded were as follows: Miss Carrie Schmidt and George Erickson, high honors; Miss Cassie Erickson and Roland Church, low scores. Following the card game, a delicious luncheon was served.

A dozen ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Sophia Cordes residing on North Jefferson street, Friday afternoon and evening, to assist her in celebrating her 74th birthday anniversary. The hours were spent socially with fancy work and sewing, and late in the afternoon a delicious repast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dalweg were most pleasantly surprised at their home on North State street, Tuesday evening. The occasion was the fifth wedding anniversary of the Dalweg's and some twenty of their friends and relatives gathered for a social evening. The hours were spent with card playing, and a three course luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Dalweg were remembered with a very pretty gift suitable for the occasion.

Mrs. Charles A. Stolz was hostess to a dozen friends at her home on South Washington street Wednesday evening, in honor of Mr. Stolz's birthday anniversary. Following a six o'clock dinner, music and card playing were the evening's diversions.

Mrs. Charles Stuebe entertained a number of friends at her home on South State street Friday afternoon. The hours were spent with fancy work and sociability and a very appetizing luncheon was served by Mrs. Stuebe.

Miss Magdalene Ranweiler was most pleasantly surprised by some thirty-five young folks at the home of her father, Bernhard Ranweiler in West Newton township. Card playing and games were indulged in and a mid-night supper was served.

Complimenting Mrs. Arthur Schnobrich, Mrs. Joseph Puchner, Jr., entertained a large group of ladies at her home on North Broadway, Tuesday evening. Four tables of five hundred were played and prizes were won by Miss Willibald Eibner, high; Mrs. Harry Lang, second high and Miss Jennie Schnobrich, low score. A two-course luncheon was served at a late hour. The affair was in the nature of a miscellaneous shower, and Mrs. Schnobrich received many beautiful gifts.

Henry Roth, residing in Lafayette township was most agreeably surprised at his home Sunday evening by some thirty-five of his neighbors and friends. The occasion was Mr. Roth's birthday anniversary. The hours were pleasantly spent playing cards and Miss Erna Borchert, Mrs. Frank Wellner, Mrs. Harvey Wellner and Howard Roth were awarded prizes. At midnight, delicious refreshments were served.

Last Wednesday evening the ladies who took part in the Corn Group at the Turner Mardi Gras entertained their husbands and a number of friends at a very delightful affair at the Turner Club rooms. During the early hours of the evening, five hundred was played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. George Wickerski and William Arndt, high honors and Miss Mary Korbel and Arthur Teynor, low

COME TO HUMMEL'S BIG Suit Sale

Mens
Young
Mens
School
Suits

Values that Haven't been Equalled in Years

The story put on paper would sound like exaggeration or worse!—So we prefer to have you judge for yourself when you see what's happened to suit prices.

"Going Strong" soft browns, grays, mixtures, checks, plaids, Herringbones, worsted and tweeds.

Satisfaction or your Money Back.

$14.90 $16.50 $25 $29.50
BOYS SUITS
$7.50 $8.90 $9.90 $12.50

COME IN AND LOOK THEM OVER.

Hummel Bros.

14 N. Minn. St.

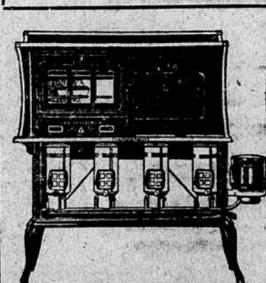

NEW ULM, MINN.

WE HOPE FOR YOUR NEW HOME YOU'VE PLANNED - THE FINEST PLUMBING IN THE LAND!

We hear you're planning to build a new home. Well, do you know that it would be a matter of money in your pocket and good plumbing in your house if you talked your plans over with us and got our prices? We're dependable plumbers.

Gulden & Vercoe
PHONE 292

NEW PERFECTION
Oil Cook Stoves and Ovens

THERE'S no smoke and smell to make disagreeable work of cooking with the New Perfection Oil Stove. Clean, intense heat drives directly against the utensil and the flame stays where you set it.

We'll be glad to demonstrate how easily you can regulate the New Perfection for any sort of cooking. We have the New Perfection Oven also—and it bakes perfectly.

C. A. STOLZ
Phone 219 New Ulm

Subscribe for the New Ulm Review.

Laugh and Hoe

To get the best out of land just keep on hoeing like sixty to the end of the row.

Then Stop and Laugh.

If you want to get the best out of life, start a check account with this bank, then dig for DOLLARS to add to it. YOU can LAUGH before you reach the end of the row.

WE PAY
5%
ON TIME
DEPOSITS

BROWN COUNTY BANK

NEW ULM, MINN.

A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER

5% INTEREST
ON SAVINGS
COMPOUNDED
SEMI-ANNUALLY

H. O. SCHLEUDER

Optometrist
AND OPTICIAN

WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES

102 Minn. St. Tel. 87