

Keep Your Money Safe

You can do this very easily if you invest your money with us.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

Max Burg of St. Paul was a business caller in New Ulm, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Kemski motored to Waconia on Saturday to visit over Sunday with Mr. Kemski's parents.

Miss Bertha Simmet who is teaching school near Springfield is spending her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anton Simmet.

Miss Lena Galstad of Tracy was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jos. B. Groebner of this city, several days during the past week. She arrived here last Tuesday.

Otto Schuenemann returned to his home in Janesville, yesterday, following a week's visit with his brother, Herman Schuenemann and family in this city.

Miss Lauretta Ranweiler left yesterday for Fairfax, where she will visit several days with her friend, Miss Irene Vogelpohl at the Louis Palmer home there.

The Misses Lillian and Vivian Johannes Nicollet were shoppers in New Ulm on Saturday afternoon and also visited at the Adam Epper home on Center Street.

Miss Rose Poehler has resumed her duties at the New Ulm Rural Telephone Company after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Minnie Poehler, at Courtland, who had been ill.

Mrs. R. Siegler of Brookings, S. D., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Sarah Pfeifferle. Mrs. Siegler had been visiting with relatives in Tennessee and will visit here until after Easter.

Elmer Epple, who is employed as assistant druggist in Minneapolis, will arrive tomorrow to visit over Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Epple, on South German Street.

Mrs. Louis Neessen returned to her home at Lake Crystal last Thursday afternoon after spending a week at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Frasch on North Washington Street and with her sisters here.

Miss Clara Epple, who is teaching near Hanska, will spend this week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Epple of this city. Her sister, Rose, who is teaching at Clear Lake will also spend her vacation at home, here.

Henry Krieger was at Rochester last week where he visited with his brother, Albert, who underwent an operation there, recently, and is convalescing. Albert will visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krieger and with other local relatives and friends when he leaves the hospital.

Elmer Cordes arrived from Chicago Thursday afternoon to visit with his mother, Mrs. William Ruemke and other relatives for several weeks. Elmer is at present connected with the Chicago Trust Company. He was admitted to the bar in December, 1920, and is a full-fledged lawyer.

Otto C. Wichtel has returned from Burlington, Wisconsin, where he had gone to attend the funeral of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Rein.

Mrs. Fred Fohl returned to her home in Sleepy Eye Tuesday after a short visit at the H. H. Battig home on South Broadway.

Mrs. Gust Luepke of Courtland was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Otto Beyer of this city several days during the past week. She has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Burk of Washburn, Wisconsin, announce the arrival of a baby boy born Sunday. Mr. Burk is the son of Professor G. Burk of this city.

Miss Louise Fritsche is home from Madison, Wisconsin where she is a student at the University, and is visiting with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Fritsche. She arrived Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Justis Washburn and little son of Wabasso, who recently visited at the Henry Moll home in this city, are quarantined for scarlet fever, the little boy having taken ill the fore part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore La Rue of Spokane, Washington, are expected to arrive in New Ulm the latter part of this week to spend Easter at the home of Mrs. La Rue's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Timm of this city.

Lloyd E. Alwin returned home on Saturday from Flandreau, S. D. to spend his Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Alwin residing on North State street. Mr. Alwin is principal of the Flandreau high school.

Mrs. Mary Brandt arrived in this city from Waverly, N. D., last Thursday afternoon and will visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Math. Anthony, residing on North Broadway. Mrs. Brandt will visit in New Ulm for several weeks.

Prof. R. M. Albrecht, E. R. Biefer, M. J. Wagner, H. Palmbach, C. F. Schweppe, F. Reuter, and A. Schaller left Monday morning for Washburn, Wis., where they will attend a Lutheran parochial conference today. They will return home tomorrow afternoon.

Charles B. Rein of Milwaukee, Wisconsin was in New Ulm last week to accompany Mr. Wichtel with the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Rein to Burlington, Wisconsin. Mr. Rein is a traveling salesman and was located at Waseca immediately following the death of Mrs. Rein. He is an uncle of Mrs. Wichtel.

Deputy Fire Marshal J. B. Forster is sporting a fine new car and his old car has been donated to the New Ulm Fire Department and will be made into a light truck for emergency calls when it is not necessary to take out the big auto. The marshal's new car is a beautiful red roadster and bears the legend, "fire marshal." It is furnished by the state fire department.

Easter and Spring Good Clothes

Few stores show the number of styles you will find here.

If you are looking for an assortment come to HUMMEL'S and you will see why we are doing the business in the town.

You'll Save Many Dollars

$15. $20. $25. $30.

EASTER HATS $3--$4--$5

New Boys Suits

2 Pair Knickers made like Dads Fine Style and Good Woolens.

$9.90 $12.50

CAPS $1.--$1.50

Take a Peep at Our Windows

Hummel Bros.

14 N. Minn. St. NEW ULM, MINN.

Satisfaction
or money
back

Miss Bernice Friton of Minneapolis visited with her mother, Mrs. Augusta Friton in this city over Sunday.

Adolph Seide, a prominent farmer of Nicollet Township, is contemplating a visit to Hamburg, Germany, in the near future.

Up to date Redwood County has three candidates for County treasurer. They are H. W. Shoemaker, W. A. Hauck and Arthur P. Falk.

Among the teachers elected in the Sleepy Eye School District for the ensuing year is J. G. Pelz, formerly of this city, who was chosen instructor of the manual training department.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dahl who have lived in Linden township ever since March, 1897, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary at their farm home in the midst of their six children all of whom are living, last week.

Mrs. Ed. Summers of Nicollet was taken seriously ill at her home last Monday and in the evening was taken to the Union hospital at New Ulm where she submitted to an operation. According to late reports she is getting along very satisfactorily.

Alex Reinhart of Lafayette is candidate for county commissioner, fourth district, Nicollet County. He will contend with Math Walser of West Newton township who filed several weeks ago. Both are good men and whichever is elected, the county will be well served.

Louis Becker of New Ulm who brought a personal injury suit against the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Omaha railway company, asking damages of $35,000 was awarded $5,500 by a district court jury at Hastings, Minnesota last week. The plaintiff who is a son of A. P. Becker was a brakeman on the Omaha road.

Elsewhere in this issue appears an item about the delay in seeding on account of the weather. Since that item was written we have had a snow-fall of six inches which came down between midnight Monday and Tuesday morning. Although the sun came out bright and clear yesterday and the snow disappeared rapidly, there is no doubt that this freak of the weather man will seriously delay spring work on the farms and seeding will not be all finished before the 1st of May.

Mrs. George Scharmann of Sanborn was a week-end visitor with her father, Henry Engel, and her brother Jacob and wife.

Miss Anna Fesenmaier, who is employed in Minneapolis, spent several days visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fesenmaier of this city.

Miss Irene Stamm who is teaching near Springfield in North Star township is spending her spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Stamm.

Miss Ernestine Huelskamp who is employed at Mankato is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Huelskamp, residing on So. German Street.

Harold Olsen, student at Carlton College at Northfield, is at home spending his Easter vacation with his parents Judge and Mrs. I. M. Olsen residing on South State Street.

Oscar Esser who is studying medicine at Marquette University at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is spending his Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Esser of this city.

Mrs. E. E. Miller and daughter Dora, of St. Peter are expected to arrive in New Ulm the latter part of this week and will be over-Sunday guests at the Dr. C. W. Miller home on South State street.

Dr. J. P. Graff was in the Twin Cities yesterday for the purpose of attending to some Forrester business. He returned last night accompanied by his sons Richard and John, students at the St. Thomas college who will spend the Easter vacation under the parental roof.

Ed. Arnsdorf, formerly of Lamberton but who has been visiting with relatives in Wisconsin for the past year, arrived in New Ulm last week and is at the present time visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Ed. Ristau. Mr. Arnsdorf may make this his permanent home.

Mrs. A. H. Besmehn left Monday afternoon for St. Paul where she will attend the funeral of her uncle, Emil Helmes, who died suddenly on Sunday afternoon of a heart stroke. Mr. Helmes was only 49 years of age. He was a brother of Chas. Helmes, well-known here. His wife was Miss Ida Therbad of St. Paul.

Frank Polta, who is an inmate of the Soldier's Home at Minneapolis, has been granted a sixty-day furlough which he expects to spend with his mother and other relatives and friends. Mr. Polta, although blind, has become quite an expert basket-maker and samples of his handiwork are now on display in the Review windows. Any one who is in need of a basket would do well to look at the Polta baskets before making a purchase.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffman of St. Paul visited over the week end at the A. A. Ackermann home on North Payne Street. Mr. Hoffman is a brother of Mrs. Ackermann.

Miss Elsie Schnobrich returned from St. Paul Saturday where she had visited several days with relatives and friends. While there she was a guest at the Henry Schonbrich and Bruce Fisher homes. She accompanied little Pearl Fisher here.

Relatives and friends received the glad news the latter part of last week that twin boys arrived at the Louis Merrill home in Minneapolis Tuesday. Mrs. Merrill will be remembered as Miss Myrtle Engel of this city and is a daughter of Fire Chief Henry Engel. These are the first boys in the Merrill family, there being a little girl about four years old.

Mrs. Richard Fehlau and three children, Armella, Verona and Wilmoth of Trenton, New Jersey, have been visitors with local relatives and friends during the past week. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Falk residing on North Minnesota street. Mrs. Fehlau is a sister of Mrs. Falk. They will leave this afternoon for the Twin cities and Milwaukee to visit with relatives and then return to their home in New Jersey.

Norman and Helen Johnson who are attending the State University at Madison, Wisconsin, arrived Monday to spend a week's vacation with their parents here.

Prof. H. Klatt left Monday morning for Milwaukee, Wis. where he made a short visit with his parents and other relatives. From there he went to Watertown, Wis., where he attended a Lutheran parochial conference today. He is expected home tomorrow.

Miss Ellen Schoch who has charge of the kindergarten department in the public schools at Sioux City, Iowa, arrived home Sunday afternoon and will visit with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. Schoch, residing on Center Street. Miss Mary Ludlow, also an instructor in the schools at Sioux City, is a guest of Miss Schoch.

The case of John Sittauer against R. A. Alwin was appealed from the district court of Brown County to the Supreme Court. Mr. Sittauer claimed that Mr. Alwin cut down some timber and a small building from the farm which Mr. Sittauer had bought from Mr. Alwin. The jury found for Mr. Sittauer in the district court last year. Mr. Alwin appealed to the Supreme court, which affirmed the verdict.

Little Pearl Evelyn Fisher of St. Paul arrived in New Ulm, Saturday and is the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Siebert, residing on South Franklin Street. Little Pearl expects to visit here until the month of June when her parents will come for a visit with local relatives.

ALL OF OUR PLUMBING SUPPLIES ARE THE CHOICEST MERCHANDISE

PLUMBING OF CHARACTER

We sell plumbing of character. Both our fixtures and our repair work live up to the high ideals we had when we first started business. If there were any better plumbing supplies than those we display we would have them. Don't forget our phone number, 292.

Gulden & Vercoe
PHONE 292

Every Cloud Has a Silver Lining

We will line your darkest clouds with SILVER, if you maintain a check account with this bank.

A little talk with us may mean DOLLARS and sunny skies to YOU in days to come.

Before making investments consult the officers of this bank.

BROWN COUNTY BANK
NEW ULM, MINN.
A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER

WE PAY 4% ON TIME DEPOSITS

INTEREST ON SAVINGS COMPOUNDED SEMI-ANNUALLY

H. O. SCHLEUDER

Optometrist AND OPTICIAN

WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES

102 Minn. St. Tel. 87

Spring Suit and Coat Sale

We offer our complete and new line of Ladies' and Misses Suits, Coats and Dresses at a very liberal discount until Easter.

We are anxious to have you acquaint yourself with the wonderful values we offer in this new department.

The liberal patronage and expressions of pleasure that we have received, regarding high qualities and moderate prices, assure this department a glowing success. We will welcome a visit from you.

EMIL METZINGER & COMPANY
Ladies' Ready to Wear Dept.