

Keep Your Money Safe

You can do this very easily if you invest your money with us.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

The Ed. Lueck family of Renville visited with New Ulm friends over Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. William Langhorst, Sr., of Courtland is receiving medical treatments at the Union Hospital.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Otto Koenig of Lamberton at the Loretto Hospital Wednesday.

A baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saffert, residing in Sigel township, on Thursday morning.

Last Friday evening the Orient Orchestra furnished the music for a dance which was held at the Armory at St. Peter.

Mrs. Wellington Murphy of Holdingford is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Berg residing on North Broadway.

Twin girls arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sprenger residing on North Minnesota street, on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Griebel are the parents of a daughter born Wednesday, May 10. They reside in Cottonwood township.

Mrs. R. Kuehner of Winthrop was operated on for appendicitis at the Union Hospital on Wednesday morning and is convalescing nicely.

Delbert C. Vickermann of Sioux Falls, S. D., visited at the John Hettlinger home on Tuesday. Mr. Vickermann was enroute to St. Paul.

Mrs. John Groebner and daughter Donna and son Robert returned on Friday to their home in Lamberton after a short visit with local relatives and friends.

Mrs. Joe Lauterbach returned to her home in Redwood Falls Friday morning after a short visit at the John Henle home on North State street.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Victor H. Schleuder on Thursday morning, a baby girl. "Vic" is more than proud and his face fairly radiates happiness over the event.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kluegel, Mr. and Mrs. John Haffey and William Koenig were New Ulm visitors last Tuesday. They also called at the hospital to visit with Mrs. Otto Koenig.

Mrs. Wenzel Keim of St. Paul was a guest at the John and George Schuler homes on South Franklin street several days during the past week. Mrs. Keim returned to her home on Tuesday afternoon.

Walter Muesing returned from Redlands, Cal., on Wednesday morning where he had gone last fall accompanied by his wife and little daughter. Mr. Muesing will remain here for some time and his wife will join him here during the summer months.

Come and have a good time at the Armory Friday evening, May 19th. Hunt's singing Banjo Band.

C. I. Stone was a business caller at Hanska Wednesday afternoon.

F. Lochner, director of the orchestra at the Lyric Theatre has been visiting with his family at Fairmont.

Allen Russell and Ben Brand of West Newton visited last Sunday at the C. E. Rydeen home in Kasota.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Axelson of Winthrop visited with New Ulm friends last Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson and Miss Anna Hauer were New Ulm visitors from Sleepy Eye on Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds and children of Madelia motored to New Ulm on Saturday to spend the day shopping here.

Paul Spalding, student of the D. M. L. C., spent the past week-end visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Spalding at Wanda.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Lehmann and Mrs. Anna Schwartz of Sleepy Eye visited several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Faas on North Washington street.

Mrs. William Kohl and daughters, Edith, Martha and Mrs. R. E. Bitter and Leo Kohl, all of St. Peter, motored to New Ulm last Sunday to spend the day with local friends.

Robert Hanson of Evan attended the convention here last Tuesday. Mr. Hanson says he was favorably impressed with the addresses delivered by the members of the association.

Mrs. Conrad Ackman has returned to her home in this city following a week's visit with relatives at Springfield. Her mother, Mrs. Minna White, accompanied her and will visit in New Ulm several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Beyer of Gibson autoed here last Sunday to visit with the former's mother who is ill at a local hospital. They also visited with Mrs. Herman Gruenfelder who is receiving medical attention at the hospital.

John Bluehm returned to his home here on Tuesday evening from a week's visit with his son, Herman Bluehm at Minneapolis. While there they received word that John Kraus, brother of Mr. Bluehm's deceased wife had died at his home in Seattle two weeks ago.

The Herman Loose, family spent several days during the past week visiting at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Otto at Morgan. Little Loraine Otto came here with them and will visit for several days this week with her grandparents.

Miss Hilma Martin of Winthrop is convalescing very nicely at the Loretto Hospital where she has been receiving medical treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lindstrom of Winthrop visited with Miss Martin at the hospital last Sunday afternoon.

Did you ever hear Hunt's Singing Banjo Band? You miss a real treat if you don't come. Armory, Friday evening, May 19th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Honl of Sleepy Eye were New Ulm business callers Monday afternoon.

The Henry Manderfeld family motored to Fairfax to visit over Sunday at the Ben Marti home there.

Miss Elsie Janisch of Sleepy Eye was an over-Sunday guest of her sister, Mrs. Hugo Rose in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brandt and family and Miss Anna Berger of Springfield were guests at the George Kraus home on South Franklin street last week.

Mrs. Alphonse Gruenfelder and baby son Robert of Marshall are guests at the Fred Wellmann and B. Gruenfelder homes in this city. Mrs. Gruenfelder is a daughter of Mrs. Wellmann.

Wallace Jacobson of Clear Lake was taken to the Union Hospital last Monday and underwent an operation for a severe attack of appendicitis that day. He is convalescing as nicely as can be expected.

Gladys Jeckyll, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Jeckyll of Lamberton, was taken back to her home last week after a seven weeks' stay at a local hospital. The little girl has been ill with a serious case of pneumonia.

Mrs. J. C. Siebenbrunner, Mrs. Emil Frenzel and Mrs. A. J. Schimschock, accompanied by Miss Joyce Alwin and Eugene Siebenbrunner motored to Mankato Tuesday afternoon to visit with friends during the day.

The Misses Aleen Seiter, Hertha Seifert and Lorraine Mueller and Miss Mary Reser, director of "Springtime" were in Sleepy Eye on Wednesday to advertise the show. The young ladies wore colonial costumes, and attracted considerable attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Esser of this city, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Peter Esser of Mankato and Mrs. B. Gruenfelder and baby motored to Minneapolis last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Gruenfelder joined her husband at that place and they will make their future home there.

Miss Freda Wurmstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wurmstein of Springfield and Fred Thole of McCluskey, N. D., were married at St. Raphael's Catholic church in Springfield last Tuesday morning. The newlyweds will make their home in McCluskey, where the groom is employed as section foreman.

Miss Anna Schroepfer is convalescing very satisfactorily from the effects of an operation for appendicitis which was performed a week ago at the Loretto Hospital. Miss Schroepfer will be able to return to her home in Sleepy Eye the latter part of this week. Mrs. J. M. Schroepfer and family, Miss Bertha Selmer, and Mr. and Mrs. William Ertl visited with her at the hospital last Sunday.

Miss Anna Scheibel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scheibel of Cottonwood township returned on Monday to Minneapolis where she is employed as a stenographer. She spent the week-end with her parents in Cottonwood. She was accompanied by Miss Elvira Hahselbruck of St. Paul who had been visiting at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Griebel in Cottonwood, and Joseph Dietl, who visited with his parents over Sunday.

A fire which might have proved disastrous but for the quick action of the fire department, occurred at Wanda Wednesday morning, when smoke was discovered issuing from the M. J. Eichten hardware store there. An immediate alarm was given, which brought the fire department instantly. The fire started from a small oil heater that was used for heating water in the cream testing room. Mr. Eichten suffered damages to the extent of about $250 to his building and merchandise.

Erwin Marron of Springfield was severely injured in an automobile accident last Sunday night, when the car in which he was riding overturned. He had driven to New Ulm with a number of friends in the afternoon, and while here met a traveling man with whom he was acquainted and went out for a ride with him. While driving along at a rather high speed on one of the roads leading from New Ulm, the car over-turned. Marron sustained a dislocated hip, and a sprained wrist. None of the other occupants of the car were hurt, and Mr. Marron was taken to the Fritsche clinic and then to the Loretto Hospital to have his injuries attended to. Leonard Marron, his brother, visited with him at the hospital on Monday and Tuesday of last week.

A good time assured at the Armory Dance Friday evening May 19th. Hunt's Singing Banjo Band, featuring 3 banjos.

H. O. SCHLEUDER

Optometrist AND OPTICIAN
WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES
102 Minn. St. Tel. 87

Paul Seifert was a Twin City visitor from Wednesday until Saturday.

Mrs. Ed. Wersal of this city spent Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wersal at Sleepy Eye.

Mrs. W. T. Eckstein and Mrs. William Stoll were guests of Mrs. William Ritt at St. Peter last Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Miller and daughters Irene and Dora of St. Peter were over Sunday guests at the Dr. C. W. Miller home on South State street.

Miss Gunella Nelson residing in Hanska expects to visit at her old home in Christians, Norway and will leave for Europe about the first of June.

Miss Alice Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt residing on North State Street has returned to her home following an operation at a local hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kann have returned to their home in Des Moines, Iowa, following a several weeks' visit with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lindemann Sr., of this city.

Alfred Wilscheck residing in the town of Sigel fractured his right arm on Monday afternoon when a bolt fell on it while working. A physician was immediately called and his injuries attended to.

Albert, the little son of Attorney and Mrs. Albert Flor is suffering from a severe gash in his upper lip. While playing in the yard the little lad fell and cut himself on fragments of glass and it was necessary to take several stitches.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Klotz of Millford township attended the funeral of the latter's father, Herman Zobel, which was held at Olivia last week. The deceased was about sixty-five years of age and is survived by his wife and seven children.

Gulden & Vercoe, the North Minnesota street plumbers have gone into the washing machine business and will shortly give a demonstration of the machine they are going to put on the market. Their announcement appears elsewhere in this issue.

Mrs. A. M. Roos of New Butler, Wisconsin came to New Ulm on Wednesday to visit at the F. W. Peuser home. On Friday Mrs. Roos, accompanied by her daughter Winifred left for Aberdeen, S. D. to visit with friends before returning to their home in Wisconsin.

Ed. A. Roloff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Roloff, residing in Millford township, has been appointed postmaster at Balaton, Minn. Mr. Roloff took the civil service examination at Tracy early in January, receiving the highest marks of a number of contestants for the place. Mr. Roloff took over the office on May 1. His experience in business and his ability in clerical lines especially fits him for the work, and being an ex-service man, he was the choice of the candidates for the position.

F. W. Peuser who spent several weeks with his son, Leslie at Daytona Beach, Florida, returned home Thursday, accompanied by Leslie. The young man had been in Florida for the past year and a half and there is a slight improvement in his health. While in the South, Mr. Peuser also visited with Mr. and Mrs. Emil Metzinger at Orlando. They are well satisfied there and are enjoying good health. They send greetings to all their friends and acquaintances in New Ulm. The Metzinger family is contemplating a visit here during the summer as soon as school closes.

Miss Frances B. Krook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Krook of this city, who has been taking dramatic art the past winter in Chicago has recently been appearing with the company known as "The Lincoln Players" at the Lincoln Center in Chicago. Miss Krook took the leading role in "The Florist's Shop" and in "The Traveling Man". The latter was considered so excellent that the company has been asked to repeat it at the University of Chicago the 26th of this month. Miss Krook's part in this play is that of a travelling poet who in the last act is revealed as "The Christ". The part is usually played by a man but Miss Krook's work was so good that she was chosen for the role. She has also been singing with the Central Church Choir under the direction of Daniel Prothero, one of Chicago's leading musical directors. Frances' friends, locally, will be pleased to know her work has won favorable comment by the Chicago Tribune.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Members of the Ladies Aid of the Lutheran Church will give a farewell party for Mrs. Herman Vogelpohl, Mrs. A. A. Ackermann, and Mrs. Louis Hoffmann on Thursday afternoon, between the hours of four and seven o'clock. The hours will be spent socially with sewing and visiting and a supper will be served.

A large group of relatives and friends gathered at the Herman Meyer home on Summit Avenue Sunday afternoon to help them celebrate their twentieth wedding anniversary. Sociability was the afternoon's diversion and a delicious dinner was served at six o'clock. Covers were laid for seventy guests.

A very delightful affair, complimenting Miss Gladys Henle, a June bride-to-be, was given at the John H. Forster home on North Washington street Thursday evening by the Misses Adelaide Forster and Minnie Helget, when they entertained sixty guests. Five hundred was played at eleven tables at which Mrs. Jos. Puchner won high honors, Miss Grace Rinke, second high and Mrs. John A. Schneider, low score. A delicious luncheon was served at the close of the card game. The rooms were prettily decorated for the occasion, pink and white predominating. Pink and white sweet-peas were used profusely. Miss Henle was presented with a complete set of silverware, by the side of which stood a kiewpie bride and groom. The kiewpie bride was gowned in white satin with bridal veil and the groom in full dress suit. Among the guests from out-of-town were Mrs. Joe Lauterbach, of Redwood Falls, Miss Adeline Kottke of Klossner, Miss Rose Reinhart of Courtland and the Misses Rose, Lauretta and Olivia Henle of Essig.

About forty relatives and friends gathered at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Huelskamp in Lafayette township last Sunday evening where a jolly time was spent in dancing and with music. The affair was in honor of the third wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Huelskamp. At the close of a very pleasant evening the merry-makers gathered at a prettily decorated table and enjoyed a delicious luncheon. Mr. and Mrs. Huelskamp were the recipients of many beautiful and pretty gifts suitable for the occasion.

The members of the Ladies' Guild of the St. Peter's Episcopal Church will have a coffee and doll carnival on Wednesday afternoon at the Guild Hall. This is a private function for the members of the Guild.

Sunday afternoon, about thirty relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lang of Lafayette township, sprung a surprise on them in honor of their tenth wedding anniversary. They all took well-filled baskets and at six o'clock a supper was served. The hours were spent playing cards and various other games.

The Christ Sprenger home on North Broadway was the scene of a happy family gathering Sunday when all of the children joined in a family reunion. At one o'clock a dinner was served and the afternoon and evening hours were spent playing cards and in singing and other music. Ed. M. Sprenger of St. Paul was present. He is an employee at the offices of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company at that place. Emil Sprenger will return to his home in Toledo, Ohio, the latter part of the week, after visiting with his parents for the past two weeks.

The bowling club of the Catholic Society enjoyed a spread on Wednesday evening at the school house. A pleasant social evening was spent. The affair is an annual event.

Last Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Chas. H. Stuebe and Mrs. H. H. Huevelman entertained at bridge at the latter's home. The prizes were won by Mrs. Cordelia Black of Chicago and Mrs. John H. Siegel. On Saturday afternoon they entertained at another bridge party at the Stuebe home on South State street. The prizes went to Mrs. H. N. Somsen and Mrs. F. D. Minium.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. William Boettger entertained a group of guests at five hundred in honor of her birthday anniversary. The prizes went to Mrs. William Julius, Mrs. Frank Eckert and Mrs. Louise Hass. In the evening Mrs. Boettger was surprised by some thirty-five of her friends and relatives. The hours were spent playing cards, and prizes went to Miss Gladys Henle, Mrs. Felix Reinhart, Charles Hilleheim and Felix Reinhart. Luncheons were served after both games. Mrs. Boettger received various pretty gifts in honor of the occasion.

SUMMER SHIRTS

Dozens and Dozens of Shirts

Here is a fine chance to stock up for summer. We know you will want two or three at the very least, when you see them.

98c $1.48 $2 $3

UNION SUITS

Cool comfortable Underwear at Bargain Prices. Balbrigan and Nainsook at 75c 98c $1.48

SOFT HATS

in all the wanted shapes and colors

$3 $4 $5

STRAW HATS $1 to $5

The Biggest Hosiery Values in Town

COTTON & LISLE

15c 2 pair for 25c

SILK & MERCERIZED

Heels, Toes and Soles Reinforced

50c to $1.00

WE SATISFY THE BUYER

Hummel Bros.

14 N. Minn. St.

NEW ULM, MINN.

Spring and Summer Togethery

should now be in your thoughts Suits, Hats, Underwear, Shirts, Shoes and all items of wearing apparel at greatly reduced prices.

EMIL METZINGER & CO.

Home of Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes and Florsheim Shoes

IT'S AGREED - THAT OUR SPEED - IS A FRIEND INDEED!

SPEEDY PLUMBING

You'll know that our speed is a good friend of yours when you are in need of a plumber to fix up a leaky pipe or do some other repair work. At such a time you will consider it quite fortunate that you remember Phone No. 292. We would like to be of service to you.

Gulden & Vercoe
PHONE 292

Germozone

for your ailing

POULTRY

ANDREW WAGNER
ESSIG, MINN.

Modern Methods

No section can prosper without a bank, unless they go back to barter and exchange and the days of the STAGE COACH.

Therefore it is the duty of all who desire the welfare of this community to encourage the banking business by depositing their money.

In return, it is the bank's duty to loan its funds to its own community first, as this bank does.

WE PAY 4% ON TIME DEPOSITS
BROWN COUNTY BANK
NEW ULM, MINN.
A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER
INTEREST ON SAVINGS COMPOUNDED SEMI-ANNUALLY