

92 CENTS PER ACRE IS AVERAGE TAX

But in order to win in North Dakota Preus and his side-kickers couldn't be as finicky as in Minnesota. The voters of North Dakota has cut his eye teeth in politics and can't be frightened by political ghosts. So it was necessary for even our own Jake to get down to brass tacks and promise that Nestos would be "just a good" as Baker. This, coupled with the fact that Nestos is a leader in the support of the underdog vote at Minot and other tough places in the state, made him the victor over Baker.

Nonpartisans Make Big Gains.
For the rest of the state ticket, the Nonpartisans have made big gains, besides holding all the offices that they already had before.

Church is Nominated.
State Senator Church, state chairman of the Nonpartisan League in North Dakota, is the nominee for Commissioner of agriculture and labor, defeating the present incumbent, Kitchen, who was elected in the recall election last fall. This is a distinct gain for the Nonpartisan League as it assures the League of at least one man on the all important industrial commission, which has charge of all the state owned industries, just like a board of directors of a corporation. The industrial commission consists of the governor, the attorney general and the commissioner of agriculture. The anti-farmers have the governor and the farmers the commissioner of agriculture and labor. At the time this is written, the contest for attorney general is in doubt with chances favoring the I. V. A. The result on this office will decide which side will have a majority on the industrial commission. At the recall election last fall, all three anti-farmers were elected and are now in office.

Three Leaguers on Railroad Commission.
On the railroad commission, the Leaguers have won all three places. Returns on State Superintendent of schools show that both Miss Nielson, the incumbent, endorsed by the anti-farmer crowd, and Miss Fulton, supported by the League farmers, have won places on the general election ballot. This office has no party designation on the ballot.

League Wins Legislature.
The Nonpartisan League has captured a majority of both houses in the legislature, according to incomplete returns. This is, next after the nomination of Frazier, the most important victory of the election as in the last legislature, the League had a majority in one house and the anti-farmers in the other, which made it a very difficult matter to transact business owing to the deep-seated feeling between the two parties. By getting a majority of both houses the League farmers can now go right ahead with their constructive program where they had to leave off two years ago.

Mrs. Cleora Friedmann who has been visiting with her son Frank at St. Paul for the past three weeks, returned to her home in New Ulm Tuesday.

Miss Ruth Hummel, who took part in the Turners' Gymnastic exhibition at St. Paul last week, attended the wedding of Miss Gladys Fennell in that city. She was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Siebert in Minneapolis during her visit to the Twin Cities. She returned Thursday.

Mrs. Edith Hamel and little daughter, Frances Gertrude of Brooklyn, N. Y. are the guests of the former's mother, Mrs. Minnie Woeke, and other relatives and friends. They arrived here on Monday afternoon and will remain in New Ulm for a number of weeks.

Capt. Baptist Groebner received word recently from the Adjutant General of the State of Minnesota at St. Paul, placing him in the Officers Reserve Corps with the rank of Major. Capt. Groebner was a member of Company A, when the boys were at the Mexican border.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Schwartz and family returned on Thursday to their home in Courtland village from Echo where they attended the wedding of Miss Esther Bartz to Rev. E. J. Hann on last Tuesday evening. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Schwartz. The newlyweds will make their home in Nebraska.

Miss Myra Alwin returned home from the Twin Cities Thursday. She was a member of the young ladies' Turner class which participated in the Turner fest at St. Paul and last Tuesday she was bridesmaid at the wedding of Miss Gladys Fennell. Miss Alwin was a guest at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Holmes and Mrs. Theresa Fennell until Thursday, returning home in company with Miss Ruth Hummel.

RELATIVE TAKES MONEY AS "JOKE"

THRIFTY AUSTRIAN FINDS BUREAU DRAWER IS NOT SAFE DEPOSITORY.

YOUNG MAN CONFESSES JOKE AFTER POLICE GET BUSY ON THE JOB.

Bureau drawers are obviously not suitable receptacles for money. Such was the lesson learned by Adolph Christian Sunday when he opened a drawer in his room at the Jacob Hauer home to find nothing where $95 had rested before. Mr. Christian came here a year and a half ago from Austria and is boarding at the home of Jacob Hauer, a relative, on North Minnesota street. He was employed as a barber by Eugene Koehler, having learned that trade in Austria.

Mr. Christian Was Thrifty.
Through prudence and thrift he had managed to pay his passage debt and send his mother in Austria a regular sum every month, besides saving the $95 dollars whose disappearance caused him so much vexation. On the previous Saturday he had added his pay to the roll in the drawer and expected to increase the sum on Monday, making a total of $100 which he intended to deposit in a New Ulm bank. An Austrian coin and a certificate of deposit for $100 which were in the drawer with the money were not removed.

Took Money as "Joke."
The mystery of the missing money was investigated by Chief Harmening, and after some time had been spent in searching for the guilty party, Richard Hauer, twenty-three-year-old son of Jacob Hauer, confessed that he had taken the money for the purpose of playing a joke on Christian. As a part of the "joke" he had spent three dollars of the money, but promised to make good the deficiency.

Mr. Christian is hesitant about bringing a claim against Hauer and the authorities are yet undetermined as to a legal settlement of the affair.

VETERAN OF '62 DIES AT NEW ULM

MRS. LEVI SMITH, DEFENDER OF FORT RIDGELY, DIES AT HOME OF NIECE.

REMAINS INTERRED AT FORT RIDGELY CEMETERY NEAR OLD FARM HOME.

With the death of Mrs. Levi Smith there passed away a true veteran. In her day the Civil War was waged in America and she could relate many personal experiences concerning the Indian Outbreak which took place at Fort Ridgely, then her home.

Mrs. Smith had been sick for eight weeks before her death, which occurred Friday morning at eight o'clock at the home of her niece, Mrs. Ed. Marquardt, residing on South Front street. Old age, attended by disorders of the digestive organs, was the cause of her demise. She had been slowly dying since the previous evening and the end could be foreseen.

The Family History.
Mrs. Smith was born on May 22, 1838 at Wheeling, West Virginia.

The family resided at various different places in the southern and eastern portions of the country. She was married to Patrick Heffron, her first husband, at Zanesville, Ohio and they resided on a farm near Fort Ridgely for about sixteen years. It was during that period that the Indians attacked the fort, and Mrs. Smith (then Mrs. Heffron) assisted in furnishing food and ammunition for the defenders of the strong-hold, among whom was her husband. After his death twenty-two years ago she was married to Levi Smith who preceded her in death by a year. They lived on the farm for a period of several years, and after his death she continued to live there with her niece, Mrs. Ed. Marquardt, until she removed to New Ulm with the Marquardt family last February.

The deceased leaves no children. Her nearest-relatives to survive here are her brother-in-law, J. Lane of St. Paul, and nine nephews and nieces: the Misses Birdie, Josephine, and Dollie Butler, and Thomas Butler of Los Angeles, California; Miss Josephine and Miss Eliza Lane, St. Paul; Mrs. Loren Dodge, Hector, Minn.; W. R. Lane, Fairfax, Minn.; and Mrs. Ed. Marquardt, New Ulm. Twelve grand-nieces and grand-nephews are also left to mourn her loss.

The burial ceremonies were held Monday morning at eight o'clock from the Holy Trinity Catholic church, and the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery at Fort Ridgely. The Civil war veterans attended the funeral in a body in honor of their departed comrade.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Schreiner and family left on Monday morning for Pillager by car. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Haug for a week or ten days.

Mrs. Bertha Hippert and little son left yesterday afternoon for Lambert where they will visit with relatives. Before returning to New Ulm, Mrs. Hippert will also visit at Ortonville, Sanborn and St. Paul.

APPRECIATION.

The undersigned through the offices of the public press herewith acknowledges sincere appreciation of the work and support of all legal voters of the county in my behalf in the primary campaign for the office of county attorney. Your confidence has not been and will not be disregarded in the future.

W. T. ECKSTEIN.

SYNOPSIS

A bull, having escaped from his pasture, strolls down the village street. Becoming frightened at the strange sights and sounds he looks about for a place of refuge. Observing an open doorway and the dim quietness of the interior appealing to his fancy, he enters and finds himself in a China Shop. The proprietor being absent, the bull starts an investigation but nearly every move dislodges a piece of crockery. Hearing the proprietor returning, he becomes frightened and seeks a way of escape—with disastrous results to a table loaded with chinaware. The proprietor enters and seizing a poker, plays the part of Toreador, and drives Mr. Bull from the shop. "A Bull in a China Shop" is dedicated to Mrs. Ralph Dunbar and her Anita Orchestra by G. E. Firestone
GUM-DIPPED CORDS
-and Their High Mileage Records

MOST MILES per DOLLAR

The high mileage records of Firestone Cords continue to emphasize the fact that Firestone methods are different and better. These records, steadily increasing in number and in mileage totals, justify the Firestone contention that there is one best way to build tires.

Among the primary sources of Firestone extra mileage is double gum-dipping—the saturation of the cord plies in a vat of liquid gum—thus coating each cord and virtually eliminating internal heat and friction.

Another is Firestone air bag curing, with its 200 pound pressure, which places every cord accurately and equalizes the tension.

By blending the rubbers of different plantations and types, and by tempering it before mixing, Firestone men add still more mileage.

Many cord tires are good—a few are better—Firestone users say one is best.

Those who have already experienced Firestone mileage, have stopped shopping and experimenting—they have made these cords standard equipment. Investigate your friends' success with Firestone Cords—and buy your next tire accordingly. Come in and get your share of extra mileage.
