

Keep Your Money Safe

You can do this very easily if you invest your money with us.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

Mrs. J. J. Bradley went to Nicollet Thursday. She is a guest of Miss Florence Markie for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Mattke and son Ervin of Morgan were business visitors and shoppers in New Ulm on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ellert and daughter, Viola of Stewart, visited with Mrs. Ellert's cousin, Mrs. Henry Opitz at New Ulm last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Drake of Minneapolis spent last Sunday at the A. J. Frenzel home here. They drove down from the Mill City Saturday.

Rev. Striepe of Gaylord and Rev. Dienmer of New Auburn, Minn., were guests at the C. J. Albrecht home for several days last week.

Miss Mary Mertenotto of Fairfax spent several days with friends at New Ulm last week. She came Thursday and was a guest of Miss Erna Forster.

Mrs. Jennie Frederickson has returned to her home in this city following a pleasant visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jensen at Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Athanas Henle and daughter Miss Elizabeth accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Puchner spent Sunday visiting with relatives and friends in Springfield.

Announcements have been received by friends in this city of the recent marriage of Mrs. Lulu Windland to Edwin Roseth. Mr. and Mrs. Roseth are making their home in Crandall, S. D.

Miss Johanna Stork, who spent the past few weeks at St. Paul, returned home Thursday. She was a guest at the home of her sister and brother-in-law while in the Capital City.

Miss Lillian Eyrich went to Dresselville, Minn., Saturday. She was a guest at the home of her uncle and aunt, Rev. and Mrs. Eyrich, and Miss Ruth Thelenan for several days.

Mrs. J. A. Bowers of Chicago spent several days last week with her uncle, Jacob F. Smith, following a week's visit with other relatives at St. Paul and Wabasso. She departed for her home last Tuesday.

Misses Louise and Emily Hensel, Mary Sauter, Carrie Schmidt and Hertha Weddendorf departed Sunday in the Hensel car for Itaska park and other northern points. They will be absent for about two weeks.

Mrs. W. Groebner and daughter Alvarez and Mr. and Mrs. Armand Groebner were in St. Peter last week to attend the wedding of Mrs. Groebner's daughter, Miss Florence which occurred last week Monday.

Clifford Sans and sister Miss Helen who had been visiting at the home of their sister in Minneapolis for the past two weeks returned home on Saturday. They also spent several days at a lake in Wisconsin.

Misses Olita Heymann and Lillian Harbo of Cambria will visit with Madelia friends tomorrow.

Mrs. Stakman of St. Paul enjoyed a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. M. E. Payne on South Broadway.

Miss Florence Collins of Marshall is expected in New Ulm for the home-coming and while here will be the guest of Miss Lorraine Mueller.

Louis Hofmeister left New Ulm last week and is visiting for some time with his parents, Captain and Mrs. J. C. Hofmeister at Springfield.

Mrs. Ben. Gatzka and children are enjoying a visit at the home of Mrs. Gatzka's mother, Mrs. Mary Dombroski at Springfield. They left New Ulm last Tuesday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Berg of Sigel township Sunday morning, August 2nd. This is the second daughter and child in the family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wurm have been enjoying a visit from their daughter, Miss Veronica Wurm of St. Paul, who came here last Sunday returning home on Thursday.

Little Miss Rosella Gaertner of Duluth is visiting at the home of her grand-father, Henry Kraemer. She will remain in New Ulm about a month or thereabouts.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Becker at the Loretto hospital last Sunday. This is the first born, and also the first grand-child of Mr. and Mrs. Gust. Becker, and the family is highly elated over the event.

Mrs. Emil Witt and daughter, Miss Esther returned last Friday from Minneapolis and St. Paul where they spent a week visiting with relatives and friends. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyer of Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Walther of Milwaukee, Wis. came to New Ulm last Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Wurm. Mrs. Walther is a daughter of the Wurms. The Walthers returned to their home in Milwaukee on Thursday.

A son was born Friday, August 4th to Mr. and Mrs. Gus. Koremenos of Davenport, Iowa at the home of Mrs. Koremenos' sister, Mrs. Richard Scherz on North Payne street. Mrs. Koremenos was formerly Miss Anna Zupfer of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Erich Kirschke and family of Kenosha, Wis. are visiting with New Ulm relatives and friends. They are guests at the John Schriefer home at the College Heights at present. The Kirschke family expects to return to their home the latter part of this month.

Mrs. Tony Krippner of St. Paul is visiting at the A. L. Haberberg home on North German street. Mrs. William Glaessmann of Brookings, S. D. is also a guest at the Haberberg home. Both ladies will remain in New Ulm until after the home-coming celebration. Mrs. Haberberg is a sister of Mrs. Krippner and Mrs. Glaessmann.

Ed. Werner of Sleepy Eye was a business caller here on Friday.

Emil F. Rhode of Morgan attended to business matters in New Ulm on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kranz and family of Nicollet visited with New Ulm friends on Friday.

Mrs. Reinold Drusch and mother, Mrs. L. Niemoth of Morgan were Thursday shoppers in this city.

Miss Blanche Neusch of Welcome is visiting at the home of her uncle, Herman Kraemer residing on South Jefferson Street.

Mrs. J. B. Thorsness and little daughter Trudy went to Hanska Friday to be the guests of Mrs. Geo. Helling for several days.

Miss Ellen Hummel and her mother, Mrs. August Hummel motored to Morgan on Wednesday and visited with friends there during the day.

The Misses Margaret and Frieda Wiesner and brothers Thaddeus and Tony of St. Paul visited with New Ulm friends over the week end.

Mrs. Mary Hartmann went to Le Sueur Saturday where she visited at the home of her daughter and son-in-law who is very sick at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Pfeferle and children Lillian, Rae and Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ellis of Madelia spent last Tuesday visiting at the Richard Pfeferle home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Reams of Jamestown, N. D. who had been visiting with relatives at Sleepy Eye are spending several days at the home of Mrs. Ream's sister, Mrs. H. H. Battig in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Doberenz and their daughter, Mrs. Otto Blank and daughter of St. Paul who are visiting at the Doberenz home here, spent Sunday visiting at the Herman Weiske home in Nicollet.

Miss Lucy Marti who has been spending the past four weeks visiting with friends and relatives at various points in Wisconsin is expected to return to her home in this city the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kalb and family of Pine City and Mrs. and Mrs. Albin Carlson of Minneapolis are expected to arrive in New Ulm next Tuesday to attend the Home-coming. They will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Filzen.

Mrs. H. H. Ward and daughter Helen of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, is a guest at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Huevelmann, this week. The visitors will be present at the Home-Coming celebration here.

The F. J. Backer, E. J. Buenger, Herman Meyer, Prof. Wagner, Otto Buenger and Prof. Reim families spent Thursday evening at "Sighing Elms", the C. G. Reim summer home on the Minnesota river bank, enjoying the moonlight and the fresh country air.

Misses Lucile Buschers, Gertrude and Gretchen Winkelmann accompanied by Harry Brandt motored on Tuesday to Minneapolis to visit until Sunday. Mr. Brandt and Miss Gertrude returned home on Sunday, while the other two will return home today.

At the A. C. Boomer home in this city were celebrated the birthday anniversaries of Ellen Boomer and Hazel Mae Paender, last Tuesday afternoon. Fifteen little folks had been invited, and all enjoyed games and other amusements until five o'clock when a birthday luncheon was served.

In remitting for his subscription for the Review, E. B. Velikanje writes us from Yakima, Washington that he is sorry he can not be in New Ulm during home-coming. However, he sends his best wishes and greetings to his old friends and acquaintances in New Ulm and hopes soon to be able to come to the old-home-town again.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pillesch of Henderson, N. D. drove to New Ulm last Friday and visited with the latter's sister, Mrs. A. J. Frenzel. Sunday the Frenzel and Pillesch families motored to Lambertsen and Blue Earth where they visited during the day with Mrs. Frenzel's mother, Mrs. B. Wolrath, and a brother, Wm. Wolrath. The guests departed for home the same day.

Mrs. and Mr. Armin Koehler of Omaha, who have been visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver at Minneapolis, accompanied by Mrs. Koehler's sister, Arlene, came to New Ulm last Wednesday and are visiting at the home of Mr. Koehler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Koehler for several days. Miss Oliver, who is a guest of Miss Julia Hauenstein, will remain for the Home-Coming Celebration here.

Miss Agnes Smaal of St. Paul is visiting with friends in New Ulm this week.

The Herman Meyer family motored to Hinckley Saturday to spend the day visiting there.

Joseph Classen came down from Springfield to spend the week-end with his family in this city.

Miss Lillian Harbo returned to Cambria on Monday after a several days' visit with Miss Oleta Heymann.

Mrs. Arno Loose and child have returned to their home here following a several days' visit with relatives at Morgan.

Mrs. C. W. Wilkowke of Chippewa Falls arrived Monday for a week's visit. She is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Reineke.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Bautz left by car Thursday for Duluth where they visited until Monday with a number of relatives residing there.

Mrs. Frank White and Mrs. F. J. Wellmann of Minot, North Dakota, are making a visit with their mother, Mrs. Anna Trautmiller. They arrived Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Muesing and Miss Ida Muesing went to Mankato Saturday for several days to be guests at the home of Mrs. Carrie Wohlrabe, an aunt of the latter.

Miss Elsie Schuennemann spent Friday here as the guest of Miss Linda Dalweg, following a few days' visit at Gibbon. She returned to her home at Mankato Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Seibel, who removed to New Ulm from Bowden, N. D. four months ago, returned last week to their former home and will again take charge of the farm they operated before their removal.

Mrs. George Haag and children Melvin and Vivian of Pillager, Minn. are visiting at the home of Mrs. Haag's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dietz on South Franklin street. Mr. Haag will arrive here next week and will visit here during the Home-Coming.

On Wednesday, July 12, Miss Leona Uren and William Balbach both of Springfield were quietly married at the home of County Superintendent and Mrs. R. B. Kennedy on South Franklin street. Prof. C. F. Schweppe of this city performed the ceremony. The bride and groom are making their home on a farm in the vicinity of Springfield.

Register of Deeds Fred Church of St. James, accompanied by his son Harrison Church and family of La Crosse, Wis., spent a few hours on Sunday with relatives and friends in New Ulm. Prof. Rollin E. Church returned with them to St. James for a visit during Mrs. Church's absence. She is at Lake Minnetonka where she is visiting with relatives.

R. B. Kennedy went to Springfield Friday where he spent the day on business.

Miss Lorraine Mueller returned Wednesday from a few days' visit at Marshall.

Mrs. F. H. Retzlaff was a guest at the home of Rev. W. C. Albrecht at Sleepy Eye last week.

Mrs. Margaret Kunz left Saturday for Norwood where she is visiting for a week or so with her son, Otto.

Mrs. H. L. Beecher is spending a few weeks at St. Peter as the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. N. Treadwell.

Carl Heymann returned Sunday from Ormsby where he visited for several days with friends and relatives.

Miss Gladys Reineke of Waseca is making a visit here as the guest of her cousin, Miss Marion Reineke. She came last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Klossner and son Howard, accompanied by Miss Amy Mathar, left for Pelican Rapids by car last Tuesday. They spent several days on an outing there, returning home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hose of Lemmon, S. D. came to New Ulm by car Friday for a visit of several days at the home of Mr. Hose's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hose. Following their visit here they drove to Minneapolis to spend several days there before their return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kamrath and children of Austin, Texas, visited for several days at the home of the former's brother, Henry Kamrath. They went to Hector, Minn., Saturday, where they will spend a few days previous to a visit at Minneapolis, and from there they will depart for home.

Mrs. Wm. Hoss and her little daughter Lucille went to Arlington Saturday to join her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Locher on a trip to Faribault, where the party will visit Miss Ellenore Bauer for several days. Miss Bauer is a sister of Mrs. Hoss and Mrs. Locher.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wright and little daughter of Winona came to New Ulm Friday and spent the following day with Mrs. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hauer. They left Saturday for Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where they will make a short visit with Mr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wright, before returning home.

Mrs. Joe Peitz of Hankinson, N. D. gave birth to a baby girl at the Loretto hospital Sunday afternoon August 2nd. Mrs. Peitz is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grussendorf of this city. Mr. Peitz came to New Ulm on Monday, to make the acquaintance of his new daughter and the first born in the family. Mother and babe are getting along very nicely.

The Dollars you Save are as Important as the Dollars you Earn

A large shipment of the latest patterns in Shirts is now on display and we're going to give you a chance to do some worth while Saving.

Extra big Shirt values at 98c, $1.50, $2.00 and better

New Fall Suits large assortment of patterns and styles at $18.50, $20, $25, $30

The values are big and an early selection will be advisable.

Hummel Bros.

The White House Clothing Store

14 No. MINN. ST.

NEW ULM, MINN.

William Blauert and son, William, Jr., returned Sunday from a week's outing at Kandiyohi.

Miss Verna Buenger spent several days last week with Rev. and Mrs. Fritz at Wellington.

Miss Aimee Krook spent the past week-end at Minneapolis. She was a guest of friends and relatives.

Miss Elsie Schueler of Gaylord was a guest of Miss Lena Fixsen for a week. She returned to her home Thursday.

Barney Esser, and his brother A. J. Esser, accompanied by the latter's three sons, left last Tuesday by car for northern Wisconsin. They will be absent for about ten days on a fishing trip.

Miss Theresa Seifert returned Saturday from Clemons, N. D. where she visited at the farm home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Seifert, for the past three weeks.

Mrs. C. H. Gieseke and daughter, and Miss Florence Tauer spent several days last week with friends at Willmar.

The Emil Buenger and Herman Meyer families left Saturday morning for a trip northward as far as Duluth. They will make short stops at various points along the route, and expect to be absent for a week or ten days.

Mrs. Paul Kosel of Gibbon who is spending several weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Adams, went to Lafayette Thursday to visit for a few days. She will be one of New Ulm's visitors during the home-coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kinney of Iowa City and their daughter Nellie of Des Moines, Iowa, spent the past week at the John B. Young home on South German street. They returned to their home the latter part of last week. The Young family removed to New Ulm less than two years ago from Iowa.

SCHULKE'S

OTTEMEYER BLOCK NEW ULM, MINN.

A Peek at the Beautiful

NEW FALL APPAREL

SUITS COATS DRESSES

Box after box, mysterious, alluring has arrived. One by one they are opened—and out from tissue wrapping emerge—New Things for Fall! Apparel that hints of more artistic colorings and styles than ever—but, this is all we can tell you—you must come in and see them yourself!

The last rose of Summer must have been a tea rose—for one of the new Fall shades is a rose-tan. Others are beige, terra cotta shades, many browns, wood tones, gold-tan, dull reds, sage, almond green, caracul and Russian Ballet colors.

The unexpected always happens! You really should have something new and "Fallish" for Home Coming.

Charming new Fall Suits, Coats, Dresses are arriving daily. Come in and see this advanced showing for Fall and you will be delighted with the beautiful styles we are showing for Fall.

SCHULKE'S

Time is Money

Every tick of the clock may be made of value to you by depositing your funds in this bank and investing the surplus over your checking account requirements in high grade securities.

We are prepared to give our customers expert advice as to the safety of proposed investments.

BROWN COUNTY BANK
NEW ULM, MINN.
A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER

WE PAY 4% ON TIME DEPOSITS

INTEREST ON SAVINGS COMPOUNDED SEMI-ANNUALLY

H. O. SCHLEUDER
Optometrist AND OPTICIAN
WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES
102 Minn. St. Tel. 87