

Keep Your Money Safe

You can do this very easily if you invest your money with us.

State Bond & Mortgage Co.
New Ulm, Minnesota.

LOCAL NOTES

Dr. and Mrs. Emil Mueller visited last Sunday at the C. A. Johnson home in St. Peter.

Little Myrtle Grussendorf had her tonsils removed at the Union Hospital on Wednesday.

Herman Schmidt will spend part of next week in Morgan looking after business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schuemann and children spent Tuesday in Fairfax as the guests of friends.

Miss Florence Hellmann returned home Wednesday from a two weeks' visit with relatives and friends at Faribault.

John Rotering and son were over Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Helen Schmelz at Sleepy Eye.

Mrs. William Lawring and Miss Moeller of Springfield were Saturday visitors with New Ulm friends.

Mrs. Mary Frasch and daughter Lillian visited for several days last week at the Will Gent home in Sleepy Eye.

Dr. J. A. Cosgriff motored down from Lamberton on Thursday to accompany home Mrs. Cosgriff and baby daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Grimm and son Woodrow, and Donald Rock of Lamberton were New Ulm visitors on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Henninger of St. Paul visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Zschunke on South State street over Sunday.

Miss Edna Hamann visited with friends in Springfield several days last week. She was the guest of Miss Alice Kleinsmith.

Mrs. August Hummel and daughter Miss Ellen were guests of honor at a party last week given by Mrs. George Thompson of Morgan.

Misses Elsie and Adelia Radtke spent the past week-end visiting at the home of their sister, Mrs. George Schmiesing at Walnut Grove.

Mrs. C. H. Cornwall, who has been visiting at the O. M. Olsen home for several weeks returned to her home in Moline, Ill. yesterday afternoon.

Miss Marie Lehmann has returned to her home here following a visit of several days at the Walter Krienke and Julius Maker homes in Lamberton.

Miss Gertrude Kotten, who has been visiting with New Ulm friends and relatives during the past week, has again returned to her home in Springfield.

The ten days old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Forbrook of near Nicollet passed away at a local hospital last Tuesday morning. The cause of death was hemophilia. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon with Rev. F. Koehler officiating and the remains were laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery at Old Nicollet.

Dr. J. C. Rothenburg drove down from Springfield last Wednesday evening to accompany home Mrs. Rothenburg who was visiting at the George Doehne home.

Mrs. Leslie Olsen returned to her home in New Prague on Monday following a short visit at the home of her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Olsen on South Broadway.

Oscar Waibel of Lamberton returned here last Thursday and on his return home was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Theodore Waibel who had been visiting with relatives in New Ulm.

Misses Louise and Gertrude Mueller of St. Paul will be the guests of Miss Julie Meyer the latter part of this week. They will arrive on Friday evening.

Miss Violet Steinmetz, student nurse at St. Luke's Hospital at St. Paul, is spending a three weeks' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Steinmetz.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schmidt returned on Sunday from a five weeks' visit at the homes of their daughters at Springfield. They were at the Hugo Krenz and Arthur Krieger farms near Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Mitchell and son Harold and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Merkle and daughter all of Minneapolis are guests at the Merkle home on North Minnesota street. They will remain here during the home-coming.

Charles Grussendorf and daughter, Miss Hulda, are spending part of this week outing in the northern part of the state. They are also visiting with the Hohn family at Lake Pokegama near Grand Rapids.

The Cy Grobner corner received a new coat of paint during the past week, as did also the automobile department of the F. H. Retzlaff store. Evidently getting all shined up for the home-coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Krenz and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Krieger and families of Springfield are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schmidt. Mrs. Krenz and Mrs. Krieger are daughters of the Schmidts.

The Glencoe band, with about 200 cars following will be in New Ulm next Sunday. Mr. Gould states that his home-town is planning on sending a large delegation here during the home-coming.

Miss Ruth Marti spent the past week visiting at the Fred Hauer and A. Langmack homes in Sleepy Eye. Mr. and Mrs. A. Langmack and Miss Leona Hauer accompanied her here on Sunday and took in the band concert in the evening.

St. Mary's had an easy romp Sunday when they combated with the New Ulm Gophers at New Ulm. The Saints had no difficulty in keeping their swatters at bay and planted the score 12 to 2 in the Saints' favor. The Saints have captured the crown in a series of games and will challenge any nine in this neck o' the woods.—Sleepy Eye Progressive.

Harry Joern visited at the home of his parents in Nicollet on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Eckert returned on Tuesday from a week's auto tour to St. Cloud, and other northern Minnesota points.

Clarence Elsner and wife of St. Paul will come today to take in the celebration. They will visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. Robert Radke.

Gerhard Albrecht returned on Saturday from La Crosse, Wisconsin where he had visited for several weeks at the home of relatives and friends.

Misses Anna and Theresa Krittner spent their vacation visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Krittner and other relatives here. They returned to St. Paul on Monday.

Mrs. Fred Stolz of Nicollet is receiving medical treatment at the Union Hospital. She underwent an operation recently, but had not recovered as well as it was hoped for and it was found necessary to return her to the hospital for further treatment.

Mrs. Ed. Baer, Jr. and little daughter left the forepart of last week for Marshall where the Baer family will make their home. Mr. Baer is a member of the firm of Ochs & Baer, proprietors of the new "Bee Hive" store, which will open for business at Marshall this week.

Mrs. L. C. Johnson and Miss Eda Sommers of Minneapolis and Mrs. Fred Sommers of St. Paul are expected to arrive here tomorrow to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graff on South Minnesota street during the latter part of this week.

Miss Louise Kalkman, who has been employed as chief operator at the local telephone exchange for the past month, received word last week of the serious illness of her father at St. Cloud. Miss Kalkman left for her home Monday morning.

Mrs. Minnie Schroepel returned from Faribault on Wednesday where she visited with relatives during the past week. She will be the guest of Mrs. William Hellmann until after the Home-coming and will then return to her home in Collinsville, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schagel and baby and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wood of Minneapolis arrived yesterday to visit at the Emil Keekesen and Charles Emmerich homes. Mrs. Schagel and Mrs. Wood are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Keekesen and sisters of Mrs. Emmerich.

Charles Schmidt, an old resident of Iberia arrived in New Ulm last Wednesday from the Minnesota Soldiers' Home to attend the home-coming celebration. Mr. Schmidt is 90 years old, is hale and hearty and is enjoying good health. On Friday he went to Sleepy Eye where he spent several days visiting with relatives and friends.

Herman Neumann of Lamberton came to New Ulm last Saturday to transact business matters. On Tuesday he was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. J. Neumann to Morgan where they visited with relatives. At present Mrs. Neumann is visiting at Sanborn, but will return home the latter part of this week. Her son and family will accompany her here to attend the Home-coming celebration.

Adolph F. Gerlach who spent the past week in New Ulm renewing the acquaintances of old friends and relatives, returned on Wednesday to his home in West Bend, Wis. Mr. Gerlach was unaware of the big celebration here this week or he would have postponed his vacation, he says, for he would have been able to meet many old friends during that time, but he was unable to stay, and must keep himself posted of the week's activities by the columns of the newspaper instead.

On August 2nd, at Lamberton occurred the funeral of Dr. N. P. Nelson, who died in Florida on July 31st. Dr. Nelson was one of the early settlers in this community and made Lamberton his home for many years. Dr. Nelson was eighty years old when he died and for many years conducted a sanatorium in Fargo, N. D. The past two years, were spent in Florida owing to Dr. Nelson's failing health. The deceased was born in Denmark and came to this country when a young man. He was married to Miss Elida Letford of Lamberton, whose death occurred at that place and besides her remains he was buried. Dr. Nelson later married Miss Augusta Kuehnell of New Ulm, who with an adopted daughter, survive him. He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Knute Rasmussen of Lamberton. Mrs. Nelson is a former New Ulmite and well known to the people here. She is a sister of Mrs. J. F. Neumann and Mrs. Albert Nicklaus of this city.

Sheriff and Mr. William J. Julius and little son Jerome spent the past Sunday at Lake Madison.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Marx have returned to their home in Minneapolis following a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Zischka during the past week.

Miss Dorothy O'Sander visited at the home of Mrs. Henry Somers during the past week. She will return to her home in Minneapolis after the celebration.

Prof. Albert Stindt of Lewiston Minn. is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weissenborn on South Garden street. Prof. Stindt is a brother of Mrs. Weissenborn.

Mrs. John F. Neumann accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kuehnell of Waseca motored to Lamberton last week to attend the funeral of Dr. N. P. Nelson which took place last Tuesday.

Mrs. N. E. Nelson is entertaining her sister, Mrs. John Witt of Portland, Oregon. Mrs. Witt arrived in New Ulm last Wednesday evening, and will visit at the Nelson home for several weeks.

The infant son which was born to Mr. and Mrs. John Ahrens last Wednesday morning died several hours after birth. The remains were interred the same afternoon in the Lutheran cemetery.

George Durbahn and family were at Fairfax last Tuesday to attend the wedding of Miss Beatrice Rieke to Arnold T. Johnson of Minneapolis. The young couple will make their home in Minneapolis where the groom is employed as an electrician by the Northwestern Telephone company.

The Pioneer Drug store building is being repaired. Workmen are busy remodeling the interior and a new front will be placed. When completed it will make a fine store building, and though it has not yet been leased, Dr. Weiser states that several parties are negotiating for the establishment of a drug store.

Mrs. N. E. Nelson entertained forty ladies at her home on South German street Wednesday afternoon. The hours were spent playing five hundred to which Mrs. Ida Vogtel, Mrs. C. E. Poynter, Mrs. F. H. Krook, Miss Ilda Hauenstein, and Mrs. J. L. Schoch won honors. At five o'clock the hostess served a delicious luncheon.

Miss Rose Reinhart entertained the Misses Edna Hamann, Gertrude Winkelmann, Elsie Schnobrich, Victoria and Loraine Mueller, Iona Bentsdahl, Anne Mueller, Oleta Heymann, Hazel Oswald and Gretchen Zschunke at a six o'clock dinner on Sunday evening at the home of her sister, Mrs. Arthur Schnobrich on North Broadway. A social hour was spent following the dinner, and the guests spent the remainder of the evening at the band concert.

Carl Engel is visiting at the home of his father, Fire Chief Henry Engel and other relatives here. Carl is employed with the Savage company at Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Klossner and son Howard returned on Sunday from Pelican Rapids where they spent several days outing. They were accompanied by Miss Amy Mather.

Miss Edna Brey returned on Tuesday from Minneapolis where she spent two weeks visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Keegan. She also spent several days outing at Lake Minnetonka.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hetlinger and children, Jimmy and Jean will arrive here from their home in Bancroft, S. D. today to visit at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hetlinger Sr. John Hetlinger Jr. and wife are also expected here today, and all will drive down in their cars.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Krippner returned on Sunday to their home in St. Paul after a three weeks' stay at the home of Mrs. Krippner's sister, Mrs. A. L. Haberberg. Mrs. Krippner had come here to visit at the bedside of her father, Reinhold Boesch, whose death occurred a week ago Sunday.

Leo Woratschka sustained a fracture to his right arm Saturday evening when he fell from a load of hay. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Woratschka of Lafayette township. The little lad was brought to New Ulm where the fracture was attended to, and at present he is getting along very nicely.

Theo. Figge of Minneapolis was in the city last week. While here he visited at the Doehne and Strickler homes. Mr. Figge has just returned from a trip to Europe (Germany particularly) and reports conditions as much below par. He also visited the Passion Play at Oberammergau. This play was finely rendered and pleased him very much.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schrader accompanied by Mrs. Lena Kachel, Mrs. Ed. Alwin and Miss Esther Wiedenmann motored to Minneapolis last week. The Schrader family and Miss Wiedenmann visited at the Ed. Whelan home in Minneapolis while Mrs. Kachel visited with her daughter, Mrs. William Christianson. Mrs. Alwin visited in St. Paul with her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Erickson.

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peitz of Hankinson N. D. which was born at the Loretto Hospital on July 30 died last Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. The child had not been well since birth. Funeral services were conducted from the Charles Grussendorf home on North Broadway Wednesday morning and interment was made in the city cemetery. Mr. Peitz is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grussendorf.

New Fall Clothes For FATHER and SON

Son Looks for Style,
Dad looks for Durability
They Get both here.

A fine large line of the durable worsteds, beautiful new patterns made up in the styles men like. Specially big values at $20, $25 $30, $35

Young men's "Jazz" Styles Sport Models, Double Breasted, and 2 button Suits. All made in the new stylish patterns. If you are keen for a "good buy" come and buy these at

$18, $22.50, $25, $30

The Store that gives you the most for your money.

Hummel Bros.

The White House Clothing Store

14 No. MINN. ST.

NEW ULM, MINN

Miss Emma Potter of Merriam Park, St. Paul is the guest of Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Hammermeister this week. Dr. and Mrs. Hammermeister motored to St. Paul last week, and Miss Potter returned to New Ulm with them on Friday evening. She will remain here until after the celebration. Miss Potter who had charge of the school nursing in New Ulm last year, will take up the work at St. Paul this fall.

Misses Ylona Bentsdahl and Josephine Huelakamp returned last Monday from St. Paul where they are taking up courses in nurses training at the City and County Hospital. Miss Bentsdahl is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wedden-dorf, and Miss Huelakamp is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Huelakamp.

SCHULKE'S

OTTEMAYER BLOCK NEW ULM, MINN.

A Peek at the Beautiful NEW FALL APPAREL

SUITS COATS DRESSES

Box after box, mysterious, alluring has arrived. One by one they are opened—and out from tissue wrapping emerge—New Things for Fall! Apparel that hints of more artistic colorings and styles than ever—but, this is all we can tell you—you must come in and see them yourself!

The last rose of Summer must have been a tea rose—for one of the new Fall shades is a rose-tan. Others are beige, terra cotta shades, many browns, wood tones, gold-tan, dull reds, sage, almond green, caracul and Russian Ballet colors.

The unexpected always happens! You really should have something new and "Fallish" for Home Coming.

Charming new Fall Suits, Coats, Dresses are arriving daily. Come in and see this advanced showing for Fall and you will be delighted with the beautiful styles we are showing for Fall.

SCHULKE'S

Wisdom and Happiness

To live the greatest number of good hours is wisdom and happiness.

A comfortable account in this bank will make it possible for you to live thus wisely.

We invite all business firms and individuals needing a helpful banking service to call and consult with our officers.

BROWN COUNTY BANK
NEW ULM, MINN.
A STRONG BANK & GROWING STRONGER

WE PAY 4% ON TIME DEPOSITS

INTEREST ON SAVINGS COMPOUNDED SEMI-ANNUALLY

H. O. SCHLEUDER
Optometrist AND OPTICIAN
WE GRIND OUR OWN LENSES
102 Minn. St. Tel. 57