

LABOR DAY WAS OBSERVED HERE

TWO SOCIETIES OF LABORING CLASSES ARRANGE DAY'S OBSERVANCE.

HERMANN'S HEIGHTS PICNIC TALK ON CONDITIONS AFFECTING LABOR.

Organized labor did not participate this year in the celebration of Labor Day. The New Ulm Arbeiter Verein and the newly organized Arbeiter Frauen Verein made the necessary arrangements for a Labor Day celebration which was held at Hermann's Heights Monday afternoon. The festivities at the Heights were preceded by a parade thru Minnesota street participated in by the members of the New Ulm Arbeiter Verein and the members of their ladies auxiliary, preceded by the Hofmeister band.

Picnic Entertainment.

The weather was quite hot and oppressive, but a goodly number of people took part in the festivities at Hermann's Park and all enjoyed themselves thoroughly. There were amusements of all kinds, a bowery dance in the pavilion with good music by the Hofmeister band and a fish pond for the kids. George Wicherski in a modest way helped on the merriment by bringing a gross of balloons for the little ones. These were gone in a jiffy and George realized that there are still some children left in New Ulm. He could easily have gotten rid of twice that number.

Labor Exploited.

There was only one speech delivered in the course of the afternoon and that was by Capt. Albert Steinhauser who spoke in German. In the course of his remarks, the speaker referred to the primitive times when the strong and able bodied by dint of physical strength forced the weaker members of the human family to work for them. He explained how in later years the idea of the sanctity of private property was worked on an unsuspecting public and how from that time on brains and not brawn were the dominating factor in determining who is to own the wealth of the world which has been created by labor from the natural resources of the world.

The speaker said that for a long time the laborers were practically slaves and were owned body and soul by their rulers, that the French Revolution was necessary to destroy the feudal system and that in this country we had to have a civil war only 60 years ago to determine that the black race should be kept in bondage no longer.

Continuing, Mr. Steinhauser mentioned the names of the rich of this country, notably John D. Rockefeller who since 1865 when he was worth only a few thousand dollars has managed to accumulate a fortune of $2,500,000,000 which is equal to the entire wealth of twenty-five counties of the size of Brown County. According to the figures cited by the speaker, 2 per cent of the inhabitants own 65 per cent of the wealth of the country, 65 per cent own only 5 per cent of the wealth and 33 per cent own the balance or 30 per cent.

Bought And Paid For Press.

The speaker asked his audience if they knew anything about the Mooney and Billings case, the Sacco and Vanzetti case, had heard about the Ludlow massacre, in Colorado, about the killing in cold blood of Hatfield in West Virginia or had heard anything about the brutalities committed by the state constabulary of Pennsylvania. He told them that the reason they knew nothing about these things is because they read the daily newspapers of the capitalistic press and that they had not yet learned that those papers could not be fair to labor. He recommended that they read the Minnesota Daily Star if they want to get the real facts.

Conditions in the labor ranks can and will not be improved as long as the laboring masses do nothing to improve their own condition. As long as Labor listens to the smooth words of the politician and does his bidding; and if Labor continues to support the old party tickets and votes for Preus for Governor because they have always voted the Republican ticket, Labor may wake up some morning and find that the State of Minnesota also has a state constabulary. And if this comes to pass and the workers of Minnesota find themselves ridden down as the workers were ridden down in the State of Pennsylvania Labor will have no one to blame but themselves.

Mr. and Mrs. Armin Kachel arrived here on Saturday morning from Sioux Falls, S. D., to spend several days at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. Lena Kachel. They will also visit at the home of Mrs. Kachel's parents at Sleepy Eye before returning. They will then go to Devil's Lake, N. D., where Mr. Kachel will have charge of the Western Union office.

AUTOMOBILE THIEVES ARE BOUND OVER TO GRAND JURY

The two men who were caught by the Brown county officials after stealing the Ford sedan belonging to Dr. Strickler of Sleepy Eye were examined before Judge Cutting of that city yesterday. The one who has given his name variously as Robert Smith and Preach Freeman decided to make a whole breast of the affair and gave his true name as Harold Freeman. He is the son of a minister and his father lives in Florida. The other man refused to give his true name and still calls himself Halvorson, but the county authorities have looked up his pedigree. Freeman's father was formerly a minister at Canistota, S. Dak. The man who calls himself Halvorson had asked for a continuance till yesterday in order to raise funds to hire an attorney, but he had not succeeded in securing up the money. Both men were bound over to the grand jury. As previously reported in the Review, the Ford sedan is back in possession of the owner.

WOMAN STORY AT TURNER THEATRE

"SISTERS" IS BIG FEATURE FOR NEXT SUNDAY AND MONDAY.

MATINEE NEXT SUNDAY WITH ONLY ONE SHOW FOR EACH EVENING.

A wonderful woman story—that is the way "Sisters", the feature attraction at Turner Theatre for next Sunday and Monday, two days, is best described. The story is one of the popular Kathleen Norris stories which recently ran as a serial in one of the leading women's magazines. "Sisters" has also been featured as a serial in many of the weekly publications of the country.

A Sister's Great Sacrifice.

A sister's great sacrifice is the big point in this great love story. That is why it is called a wonderful woman story. Gladys Leslie as Cherry, Fena Owen as Alexie, and Mat Moore in the part of Peter, an old friend of the family, who figures very prominently in the love affairs of the two sisters, are the stars in the play.

Cherry is the youngest sister and a spoiled child. Alexie's great sacrifice when Cherry finds marriage less romantic than she had expected brings the story to the high peak of intense interest. The untangling of the crossed strings of love and the intensely dramatic episodes hold the interest throughout the story.

Played at State and Capitol.

This great photo drama recently was shown at the New State theatre in Minneapolis and the New Capitol in St. Paul to crowded houses. It is one of the biggest stories to come here. It will be shown Sunday afternoon and Sunday and Monday evenings.

Besides the big feature play there will be a travel picture and the usual comedy.

Special Music.

The music for next Sunday and Monday will be especially good, the Orchestra de Luxe presenting a program that especially fits the picture. This will add to one's enjoyment in seeing "Sisters", the wonderful woman story. Music that fits the picture is one of the big features at the Turner theatre movies.

Leslie Schroeder in Spotlight.

Leslie Schroeder of Essig will sing in the spotlight number.

For the Sunday and Monday following there will be a great Northern feature. A dog team will appear and the atmosphere of the cold North will prevail.

The week after that the ever popular "Way Down East" will be shown.

One Evening Show.

Sunday matinees at 3 o'clock and one evening show for Sundays and Mondays will be the regular schedule hereafter. This seems to meet with popular approval and will therefore be continued indefinitely.

Yours for wholesome entertainment, JAY. E. GOULD.

CITY OF MARSHALL WINS PAVING SUIT

A decision in the case instituted recently by the City of Marshall to collect state reimbursements for paving on trunk highway routes designated through the city has been rendered by Judge I. M. Olsen in favor of the city and ordering the payment by the county board of $77,736.77, the amount fixed by the state highway commission as due the city.

The county commissioners of Lyon county had refused to make the payment, which brought the case into court. The county will be reimbursed by the state, under the law. This decision is of interest to all cities having paved their streets over which Babcock roads are run, where such paving was done since Feb. 1, 1919.

TURNER CLASSES GIVE RECEPTION.

DO HONOR TO OUTGOING AND INCOMING INSTRUCTORS AT GATHERING.

LOCAL SOCIETY HONORED BY REQUEST TO ENTERTAIN BIG GATHERING.

Turner Hall classes are preparing for a very active year during 1922 and 1923 and they opened the season Monday night of this week by giving a reception in honor of their former teacher, Mr. Anton Leibold, who is leaving shortly, and their new teacher, Mr. Fred Naumann who has arrived to take charge of the work. The young people's classes took the chief part in managing the affair Monday evening and their elders who were invited to be present appreciated the effort of the girls and boys greatly and look forward to seeing them take the initiative often during the coming year.

Monday evening's affair was very pleasant. Members of the men's and ladies' societies had been invited to come and bring either husbands or wives with them and in addition to these, members of the classes who are not members of the society were asked to take part. A delicious supper was served at 6 o'clock in the gymnasium and was followed by a short program of talks. President Fred Pfander was in charge of this part of the program and after giving a short history of the classes and their teachers since the founding of the society, he extended the good wishes of the organization both of Mr. Leibold and Mr. Naumann. Mr. Naumann responded with a few remarks wherein he asked the co-operation of the parents in sending their children to the classes. Mr. Leibold also responded and reminded the assembled guests that they were members of one of the greatest organizations of the present day and urged them to be true to the principles of the Turner Bund.

A Big Undertaking.

Wm. Mueller of St. Paul was then called upon and he explained some matters that had been causing question among the young people who took part in the gymnastic meet during June at Lake Phalen. After the explanation he extended an invitation to the New Ulm Turner classes to take part in the gymnastic work to be shown at the St. Paul Dairy Show on October 16th. The invitation was followed by a request made to the New Ulm society to take on the Kreis Turnfest next June. It was intended originally to hold this Turnfest at Milwaukee but the societies of that city have decided that they are unable to manage so large an undertaking just now. The Twin Cities societies felt the same way about it and it is now up to the New Ulm society to show what a country town can do in the matter.

The Kreis Turnfest is quite an undertaking. There will be competing teams from three states and there will be immense crowds to care for and great preparations to make. It is undoubtedly one of the largest events that New Ulm could undertake and the local society has not, of course, decided whether they feel they can handle it, but it would be a great advertisement for our city if this could be done.

The Turner gymnasium has been done over for the coming year and is resplendent in a coat of shining white paint. Mr. Naumann who has come to take charge of the classes will find much to encourage him in the enthusiasm of the young people. He is a modest appearing young man who does not make a great deal of noise, but will no doubt be able to get much profitable activity out of his classes.

STYLE SHOW AT TURNER THEATRE WAS VERY GOOD

The style show given last Sunday and Monday in connection with the Gould movies was a metropolitan affair. Mrs. Anna Rinke, the Bee Hive and the Hackbarth Shoe store co-operated in showing the latest in millinery, coats and dresses, and in shoes. The models advanced on the stage in rhythmic step to tuneful accompaniment on the piano and the style parade had the air of the big city, to even put it mildly. It showed splendid initiative on the part of the business houses co-operating in the display as well as on Mr. Gould's part and they are all to be commended. The living models did their parts exceedingly well. The two little tots, Marion Pfander and Jean Muesing, made a big hit with the audience.

Mrs. George Malmgren and son Conrad arrived here from Sioux Falls, S. D. accompanied by the former's brother, Carl Kormann who had been visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. H. W. Phillips in Sioux Falls. He was gone for three months, and resumed his duties at school this week. Mrs. Malmgren and son will return home on Friday.

RUDOLPH M. PFAENDER WON SIMONS CO. CEDAR CHEST

Simons Lumber Company gave free numbers to every visitor to their exhibit at the county fair last week and the lucky number received a very fine cedar chest. About two thousand free numbers were passed out. On Friday morning, the drawing took place, it being agreed that the fifth number drawn from the box should get the cedar chest. Rudolph M. Pfander, 615 South Washington street, had received the lucky number, 587, and won the free prize.

CITY TO DRILL NEW WELL IN SOUTH GERMAN PARK

The New Ulm City council has decided to drill another new well on account of the one just finished being of much smaller capacity than had been expected. The matter was thoroughly discussed at the council meeting last Thursday evening and the new well was authorized by vote at the regular monthly meeting held last night. The purpose of the new well is to have enough of a water supply so that all pumping can be done at night, thus doing away with the added load in the day time when the peak is on anyhow and limiting the pumping to a period when the load on the electric plant is otherwise very light. It is estimated that this will save 30 tons of coal a month. At $8 a ton, this saving will amount to $240 a month.

MANDERFELD GIRL HAS DISAPPEARED

CHARGED WITH DELINQUENCY ON SATURDAY, SHE SKIPS SUNDAY.

Isabelle Manderfeld, 15 years old, is causing the authorities considerable trouble. She was brought before Judge of Probate Mather in juvenile court last Saturday on the charge of delinquency and the sheriff and county attorney asked to have her locked up where she would cease to be such a trouble-maker. Arrangements were made instead to have her work at the Loretto hospital and go to school.

Hospital authorities were to report immediately if the girl left the premises on any pretext. She left Sunday morning at 10 o'clock and her whereabouts since that time are unknown. Her disappearance was reported to the county authorities at 6:30 in the evening, and the job of finding her is just another addition to the work of Sheriff Julius in these sweltering hot days.

Took $20 From Grandfather. Since she disappeared, it was learned that she had taken $20 from her grandfather before she left. A letter is said to have been left at her grandfather's, which was found by the sheriff. The letter was written to Alice Pfeiffer, who is with her grandmother in Duluth, and the Manderfeld girl states that she is going to that city. She had failed to mail the letter.

As soon as the Manderfeld girl's disappearance became known to the authorities, the police of other cities were notified, but no news of her whereabouts has come in as yet.

The affair was arranged by Mrs. William Rauschke. Five hundred was played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Albert Olson of Madelia and Mrs. Waldemar Retzlaff. At a late hour a delicious luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Backer, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Haebler and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bingham motored to Minneapolis last Thursday on a pleasure trip, returning on Friday evening.

Last Monday, Mesdames Harry Bingham, A. H. Besmehn, Elmer Haebler, C. E. Poynter, F. D. Minium and her guest, Mrs. H. R. Hennrich and the Misses Leola and Vera Strickler were guests at a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. Ned Peck at St. James. The ladies motored down in the forenoon. The guests spent the day at the Peck summer cottage on the lake, and in the evening the husbands sprung a surprise and motored down to St. James also, and had supper there.

Miss Esther Kaschke was brought in from Fairfax and was operated on at the Loretto Hospital yesterday morning.

Mrs. C. G. Hohn and children returned on Thursday from Grand Rapids where they spent the summer months at their cottage at Lake Pokegama. Rev. Hohn drove to Grand Rapids last Monday and spent the week with his family there, returning home with them on Thursday.

Thieves entered the office of the Lambertson Oil Company at Lambertson on Sunday night last week and tapped the till for about $3 in cash. This is the second burglary in Lambertson inside of two weeks, reports the Northern Light.

BOYS AND GIRLS CAMP AT BROWN COUNTY FAIR.

Mr. E. N. Johnson, Agricultural Instructor of Sleepy Eye had entire charge of camp. Mrs. Johnson taking charge of the girls. The girls slept in one large army tent and the boys had a number of small "pup" tents to stay in and the fair association furnished their board and paid all expenses of the camp.
