

DRINK SHOP MEN FINED $100 EACH

TWELVE MAKE CONTRIBUTIONS FOR VIOLATING THE VOLSTEAD ACT.

LINDMEYER SERVING THIRTY DAY SENTENCE IN COUNTY JAIL.

Twelve New Ulm drink shop proprietors and bartenders were fined $100 each when they pleaded guilty to violations of the Prohibition amendment before Judge Wilbur F. Booth at the opening fall session of federal court in Mankato Tuesday, October 24.

On this day Judge Booth collected a total of $2,200 for the federal government in fines, $1,200 of which was contributed by New Ulm men.

Lindmeyer Goes to Jail.
Charles Lindmeyer who formerly conducted a cafe in the Commercial hotel was sentenced to serve 30 days at hard labor in the Brown County jail, in addition to his fine of $100. It was a second offense for Lindmeyer. He began his term last Wednesday. It was the only jail sentence passed out by the court on the opening day.

FINED $100 EACH.

The other New Ulm men fined were: Henry Veigel, Jacob Fritz, Cy Groebner, Herbert Melvor, Anton Henle, Robert Bartl, Herman A. Kretsch, Charles Manderfeld, F. A. Schiefel, and Edward and Joseph Wolf.

When court convened in the morning most of the defendants entered pleas of not guilty only to change in the afternoon to guilty after Judge Booth explained that those who were found guilty by a jury after taking up the court's time to try their cases would suffer heavier penalties than those who threw themselves upon the mercy of the court.

AGENTS RAIDED PLACES.

Evidence against the New Ulm men was secured last spring and again during the Homecoming celebration when squads of federal agents conducted a series of raids in the city.

Other defendants who were sentenced to pay fines of $100 by Judge Booth were: Carl and Charlotte Schmal of Lake Benton, man and wife; Rudolph Zellmer, Ben Kin and Louis Sikes of Waterville; Herman A. Leyman, Elysian; James Kevetny, Montgomery; Richard Weise, a Rock county farmer; James Brown and John J. Nesteval of Montgomery, and Edward Weise, living in the vicinity of Lake Benton.

YOUNG MEN TO ENTERTAIN AT ST. MARY'S BAZAAR

A committee of young men was appointed Sunday to take charge of the various booths at the bazaar to be held in the basement of St. Mary's School hall on South Minnesota street, November 23, 25 and 26. The Rev. A. J. Losleben announces the committees as follows:

George Peuser and Herbert Zischka will take care of the nigger baby stand. Arthur Baer and Melvin Zschunke will be in charge of the barrel of good luck.

Clarence and Henry Herzog will preside at the knife and cane racks. Theodore Furth and Harry Forster will try their originality at the "spet game." Cornelius Schneider and Melvin Zschunke will entertain with some musical instruments and athletic tumbling. Frank Kosek will play Santa Claus at the Christmas booth. Joseph Schuster and Otto Schneider with many helpers will make one of the big wheels go merrily round and round.

Next Friday at a meeting of the St. Mary's Altar Society a detailed committee will be appointed to oversee the cafeteria kitchen department.

MISS ERICKSON WILL DIRECT SEAL SALE HERE.

Miss Inga Erickson, Public School nurse, has been appointed to take charge of the sale of Christmas seals in New Ulm by Prof. T. E. Lewis, superintendent of the Sleepy Eye schools, who will direct the campaign over the county. Miss Erickson will select a local committee in the near future to help her with the drive.

The proceeds of the seal sale is used in conducting free clinics for children in every county in the state. The recent clinic in New Ulm to which 75 babies were brought for examination is an illustration of how the money is expended.

Since these free clinics have been conducted, disease among school children has been greatly lessened, it being possible to prevent illness in many cases by battling the causes before they become rooted, Miss Erickson explains.

Miss Elizabeth Schmidt attended the alumni meeting and banquet of Carleton College at Northfield on Saturday when she returned from Minneapolis where she had attended the teacher's convention.

NEW ULM DEFEATS MADELIA BY 42-0

LOCAL TEAM PLOWS THROUGH OPPONENT'S LINE FOR LONG GAINS.

NELSON, SPAETH AND GEBHARD
PROVE TO BE STARS IN HARD FOUGHT GAME

Sweeping Madelia off its feet, the New Ulm High School football team rolled up a score of 42 to 0 in the first home game of the season played Wednesday afternoon, October 25, on the Brown County fair grounds.

New Ulm was a trifle slow in getting started but once under way the local football machine plowed through Madelia for gain after gain. When called upon to hold, the New Ulm team held like a stone wall and Madelia made its down but two or three times during the entire game.

Stars for New Ulm.

Nelson, Spaeth and Gebhard were the star players for New Ulm. Nelson made long gains through the line and proved adept at receiving passes from Keckeisen. Spaeth was a consistent ground gainer who could always be depended to carry the ball forward and Gebhard displayed unusual judgment in selecting plays.

Nelson Kicks Off.

Nelson for New Ulm kicked off. Madelia failed to make its ground and punted back. Nelson gained two yards, Schugel fumbled. Madelia fumbled. Spaeth, right end, exchanged places with Schugel, right half. Madelia completed two forward passes. Madelia failed to make downs and punted. Keckeisen threw a perfect forward pass to Nelson. Spaeth went through the line for a touchdown. Score at the end of the first quarter, New Ulm, 6, Madelia 0.

Gebhard Makes Touchdown.

Early in the second quarter R. Gebhard went over for New Ulm's second touchdown. Nelson drop kicked for goal. Score New Ulm, 13, Madelia 0. The third New Ulm touchdown was made by Schugel who intercepted a Madelia pass and ran 20 yards. Score at the end of the first half, New Ulm, 19, Madelia 0.

Nelson Drop Kicks.

Early in the second half Nelson was successful in making a drop kick from a difficult angle, adding three more to the New Ulm score. Nelson has out-kicked any team this year which New Ulm has encountered. The remainder of the quarter was a seesaw between the two teams with neither side scoring.

New Ulm scored almost at will in the fourth quarter. Spaeth made 30 yards on a fake punt formation. Nelson followed this with seven yards on a shift formation which took him over the line for a touchdown. Nelson made the next two touchdowns for New Ulm with end runs and line plunges.

Madelia Fought Hard.

Although Madelia was outwitted it displayed good fighting spirit. It was able, however, to make its down but two or three times during the game. The New Ulm team is now undergoing intensive practice for the Armistice day game with Sleepy Eye. The Sleepy Eye team has defeated everything in this part of the state with the exception of Mankato. This will be the big game of the season. Hundreds from Sleepy Eye are expected to come here. New Ulm fans are asked to turn out to a man to support their team.

LEGION CARNIVAL OPENS ITS DOORS

CROWDS FLOCK TO ARMORY.
MOST POPULAR GIRLS
TO GET PRIZES.

When the doors opened on the American Legion Indoor Carnival last night at the Armory, crowds of persons were on hand to view the gorgeous and elaborate decorations, to see the wonders of Monte Carlo and to dance to the strains of Lerchen's orchestra.

Members of the Ben. J. Seifert post of the American Legion worked until late Monday night decorating the Armory with countless brilliant colored streamers, hundreds of Japanese lanterns and thousands of balloons. The decorations alone are worth the price of admission.

Tonight will be the big night of the carnival. A $50 white gold wrist watch will be given to the lady who has received the largest number of votes in the popularity contest which the Legion has been conducting for the past month. The second most popular candidate will receive a pearl necklace and a similar prize will go to the person receiving the largest number of votes outside of the City of New Ulm.

Many out-of-town visitors are expected to come to New Ulm today for the last night of the carnival.
