

John J. Soukup of Sleepy Eye attended to business matters in New Ulm yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Grossmann of near Hanska were New Ulm shoppers yesterday afternoon.

Ed. and L. Simons of Minneapolis were in New Ulm several days last week attending to business affairs.

Mrs. Agnes Epper Anderson was operated on at the Union Hospital last Thursday morning. She is improving satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. George Voges of Courtland are the proud parents of a baby daughter, born Monday, December 11. Mother and child are doing fine.

Joseph Classen spent Sunday at his home here. He returned to Springfield on Sunday evening accompanied by his son, William, who drove him over.

Mrs. Frank Karl left yesterday afternoon for Chicago, Ill., where she will spend Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Hannibal. Mrs. Karl expects to be gone for two weeks.

Lina M. Collins Camp No. 5375, Royal Neighbors, held their annual meeting last Monday evening and the following officers were elected: Oracle Mrs. W. C. Heilmann; Vice Oracle, Mrs. Otto Heymann; past Oracle, Miss Helen Erler; Chancellor, Mrs. J. C. Siebenbrunner; Recorder, Mrs. Albert Everling; Receiver, Mrs. John F. Schneider; Marshal, Miss Ada Erler; Assistant Marshal, Mrs. Ed. Wagner; Inside Sentinel, Mrs. John Koptzki; Outside Sentinel, Mrs. August Jueneemann; Faith, Miss Alyce Foley; Modesty, Mrs. Fred Keuter; Unselfishness, Mrs. Albert Nenko; Endurance, Mrs. Ernst Hopkins; Courage, Mrs. Peter Domeier; Managers, Mrs. William Huhn, Mrs. John Afolter, and Mrs. Ed. Glaessmann; Musician, Lester Schroeder and flag girl, Mrs. Emma Welmann. After the election of officers, the members enjoyed playing five hundred. Honors were awarded to Miss Helen Erler and Mrs. W. C. Heilmann and a lunch was served. Installation of officers will be held on Thursday evening, December 28.

NEW LYRIC WILL OPEN CHRISTMAS WITH BIG BILL

"Nice People" Featuring Wallace Reid To Be Headliner.

The former Lyric Theatre will be open to the public as "The New Lyric" on Christmas day, Theodore E. Melzer, manager, announced last night. A big matinee will be held at 3 p. m. The opening bill will be William De Mille's paramount special "Nice People," featuring Wallace Reid, Bebe Daniels, Conrad Nagel and Julia Faye. A special Mermaid comedy "Treasure Island" will also be shown. Some of the headliner theater attractions which Mr. Melzer has booked for the New Lyric are: May Murray in "Peacock Alley"; "Main Street"; Sinclair Lewis' great story with its scenes all laid in Minnesota; "Smilin' Through" with Norma Thalmadge; Constance Talmadge in "East is West"; Richard Barthelme in "Sonny"; Charles Chaplin in "Pay Day"; John Barrymore as "Sherlock Holmes"; the wonder dog in "The Brawn of the North" and Rudolph Valentino in his latest picture "Blood and Sand." Mr. Melzer who is a substantial stockholder in the company owned and controlled by the theater owners, announced that New Ulm will be shown the best and cleanest photo plays on the market at the New Lyric. The chief brands of the pictures will be Paramount and First National.

Apple trees may be pruned these days if the weather is not uncomfortably cold to work outdoors.

As the holiday season approaches I want to wish each and all of you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. I take this opportunity also, to publicly express my thanks for the generous support given me at the recent election and to pledge to the voters that in the future, as in the past, I shall give the best that is in me to the duties of my office.

Faithfully yours,
WILLIAM J. JULIUS,
Sheriff of Brown County.

FOR RENT—Small flat of three rooms, modern conveniences. Building back of Fair store. Inquire of Dr. L. A. Fritsche. adv. 50-51c.

FOR RENT—Three modern unfurnished heated rooms for light housekeeping. 111 North Washington street, telephone No. 608. adv.51p.

WANTED—House, lots, farms; also long time farm loans. See S. H. Becker at the Wonder store. adv.39fc

FOR SALE

FOR SALE—Small farm, 20 acre. and 7 acres woods near New Ulm (old William Ochs property.) Large house, seven rooms and summer kitchen; electric light and water; large barn, and two chicken-houses. Inquire of John Boegards.

FOR SALE—Cheap, two beds and other household furniture. Inquire of telephone No. 356. adv. 51c.

FOR SALE—Used Remington typewriter, No. 11 with tabulator. W. T. Eckstein. adv. 51c.

MISCELLANEOUS

Call for your Columbia phonographs and records over the State Bank. Adv. 49-51p

Your Kodak films are appreciated at Goede's Kodak Finishing Department. Finishing is done by electric printing. 20 tf adv.

Phonograph Records and Sheet Music.

German, English and Foreign records for all Phonographs a specialty. Call or send for catalogs. William A. Ritt, St. Peter, Minn. Pianos and Musical Instruments. adv. 50-52c.

For a good hotel when in Minneapolis, go to the Beaufort. Popular prices. Modern, on the European plan. Service unexcelled. Adv. 50-51

Don't get into a rut. Be wide awake to new development, and let the Mankato Commercial College, Mankato, Minn., point the way. Send for catalog. Adv. 51

I will start sewing school classes at my home beginning, Tuesday, January 2nd. Mrs. Lena Jahnka. adv. 51-52c.

CHRISTMAS TREES. Select your tree from a lot of five hundred trees. Prices from 25 cents to $5.00. R. W. RADKE, 109 No. Broadway. adv. 51c.

Obituaries

MRS. BARBARA BAER.

Monday morning at 7:30 Mrs. Barbara Baer, one of New Ulm's pioneer women, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Athanas Henle on North State Street. The deceased was ill only about a week. She had contracted a severe cold and had ever since that time been at the home of her daughter where she received every possible care. Her cold developed into pleuro-pneumonia which together with old age caused her death. She was conscious to the last.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Barbara Hitz, was born in Kanton, Uri, Switzerland, March 15, 1839, and was therefore more than 83 years old when she joined the innumerable caravan. In 1853 she came to America with her parents, who made their home first in St. Paul where the deceased in 1856 was united in marriage to Joseph Baer. Soon after their marriage they came to New Ulm where the deceased has resided ever since. For over fifty years she has lived in the same house on North Broadway and the neighborhood in which she lived so long will hardly seem the same with her gone. Her husband preceded her in death February 17, 1902.

Nine children were born to Mrs. Baer of whom the following six survive: Adolph H. Baer, Minneapolis; Mrs. Joseph Gabriel, St. Paul; Mrs. Geo. Graff, Ivanhoe, Edward W. Baer, Mrs. Athanas Henle and Mrs. Chas. Leonhardt, New Ulm. She is also survived by 22 grandchildren and 6 great grandchildren and the following 3 sisters: Mrs. Pauline Spoerhase and Mrs. Josephine Roling, New Ulm, and Sister Demetria at the Notre Dame convent in Mankato.

Mrs. Baer at the time of her death was a member of the Christian Mothers Society of which she was a charter member. The deceased had her share of trials and tribulations incident to pioneer life and the Indian Massacre, but in spite of all this she always maintained her cheerful and happy disposition, was always ready and willing to be of service to her neighbors, friends and members of her family. She always took a keen interest in everything that pertained to the early history of the city and never missed the annual banquet for the pioneers tendered them by the Junior Pioneers each year. She was truly a good and noble woman.

The funeral will be held from the Holy Trinity church this (Wednesday) morning at nine o'clock, Rev. Robert Schlinkert officiating. The remains will be laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

MRS. JOSEPH SCHLOEGEL.

The death of Mrs. Joe Schloegel, for twenty-five years a resident of Sleepy Eye, occurred in St. Paul, last Saturday, Dec. 9, following an operation at a hospital there. The deceased had been a resident of Sleepy Eye for a quarter of a century, living here until in September, when she with her family moved to St. Paul where Mr. Schloegel is employed in a mill.

The deceased was born in Austria-Hungary, Feb. 8, 1873 and was almost fifty years old when she passed away. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Dobner, and she came to this country when grown up, locating in New Ulm. She was married to Joseph Eye until last September.

Five children were born to this union. They are, Mrs. H. Gordon of Chatfield; Joseph Schloegel and Misses Millie, Helen and Anna Schloegel, all of St. Paul. She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Andrew Ziegler of Sleepy Eye. Her parents reside in the old country.

The burial services took place at Sleepy Eye at the St. Mary's Catholic church Wednesday morning, Rev. F. J. Plaschko officiated. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

J. Plaschko officiated. Interment was made in St. Mary's cemetery.

MRS. AUGUST EPKE.

Mrs. August Epke, a well-known resident of Courtland township died on Thursday afternoon shortly after three o'clock, due to a stroke of paralysis which occurred suddenly at 7:30 o'clock on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Epke was at the home of a neighbor, Peter Scheibel where she had been assisting with some farm work. She became unconscious and remained in that condition until the following day when a slight improvement in her condition showed altho she was unable to speak. On Thursday she lapsed into a coma, and death came to her that afternoon.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Lena Dallmann was born in Nicolet township November 1 1873, and she was therefore in the prime of life. She was married September 4, 1900, to her surviving husband and settled on a farm in Courtland township, where the Epke family resided since.

Four children came to bless this union, all of whom survive the mother. They are: Edwin, Hubert, Irene and Raymond, all at home. She also leaves to mourn her loss, two sisters, Mrs. Carl Bode of Courtland township and Mrs. Fred Wills of Nicolet township and two brothers, Carl and Herman Dallmann of Nicolet township.

The burial services took place on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock from the Immanuel church at Courtland. Rev. H. Strassen officiated. Interment was made in the Lutheran cemetery nearby.

Harold Nagel, son of Carl Nagel of this city, is spending the holidays at his home here. Dr. Nagel recently graduated from the medical college at the Minnesota State University, and will take a state board examination in the early part of January. He took up preparatory work at Hamline University for one year and studied dentistry for one year at the State University before he took up the regular medical course. Dr. Nagel will spend one year at the General Hospital at Minneapolis as a senior interne.

"That you may know more of Osteopathy" Consult
DR. H. C. EDMISTON
OSTEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN
New Weiser Block
Phone Office 123 House 123L
Calls Made Day and Night
NEW ULM, MINN.
Osteopaths are the original "Spine Adjusters"

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CAR

Few days are too cold for comfortable driving in this sturdy car.

Snug-fitting curtains, which open and close with the doors, afford complete protection from wind and snow.

The carburetor and starter are famous for their prompt and dependable response on cold mornings.

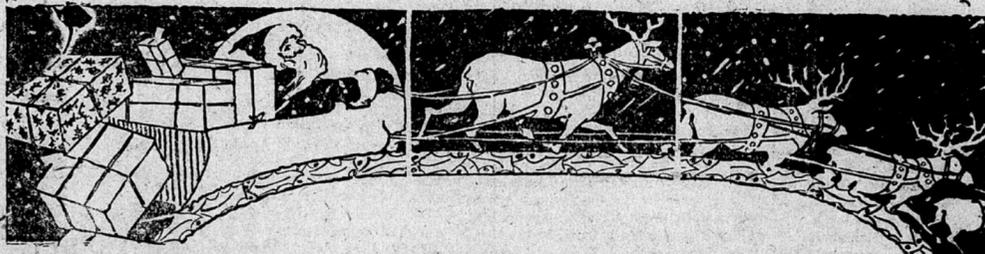

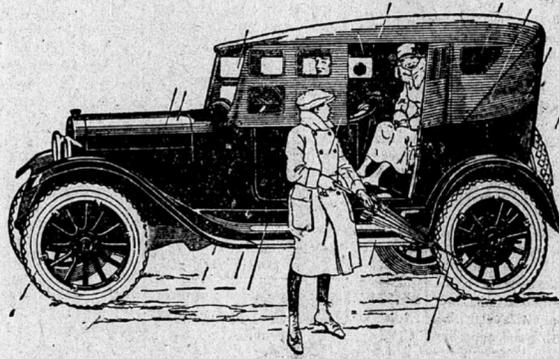

Cord tires, with safety treads, act as a safeguard against skidding, and greatly reduce the possibility of having to change tires in disagreeable weather.

The Price is $980. Delivered.

F. H. RETZLAFF

PHONE 131

NEW ULM, MINN

Holiday Sale

Now in full swing. Every article in the Store at a great reduction in price.

See Large Poster Sheet for Particulars.

Make Your Holiday Purchases

ON OUR

SPECIAL FEATURE DAYS

GIVE HIM OR HER

Something to Wear

E. METZINGER & COMPANY

Poinsettias, Cyclamen and Holly Wreaths for Xmas

Nothing makes the Christmas Dinner Table more Cheery and Pleasant than a centerpiece of Smiling Flowers.

Telephone your order early to have the pick of our plants.

New Ulm Greenhouses

Phone 45

"Say it with Flowers"

Annual Firemen's

BALL

SUNDAY, DEC. 31

Turner Hall

Special selection of Good Dance Music by Jay E. Gould's Orchestra De Luxe.

Fine New Year's eve supper will be served by Ladies' Turner Society.

Everybody Come!