

PETEY, LISTEN HARD!

When it's your good luck to butt into Buffalo, go to that store on Elliott Square where the dark haired clerk slips out Camels with both hands—plus a tank of talk on the side!

The thing that tickled me most was his sureness that I was after Camels! As soon as I had my coin on the counter and before I could say a word, he flashed me a package of Camels! When I asked him how he knew I wanted Camels, he took a pull on his laugh stock and socked me with this:—"Can't tell you, old mayonnaise—I'm dressing!"

After he had waited on several other men who drew their Camels like I did, this salesman said:—"For a fact, most men here smoke Camels. They hit the popular taste! Camels have the right body and the right mildness and the right flavor! They're ALL right!"

And, Pete—he added this without a stutter: The more I see of the world and the more I learn about cigarettes, the more respect I have for Camels and Camels quality! I don't believe a better cigarette could be made at any price!" And Pete—oh, Pete—listen to this gem:—"And it's an odds on bet I'm a good judge. I've tried 'em all—and my taste is the jury box!"

If that isn't a swell line of Camel talk, I'll sell my shoes! But, Peter, that salesman is right! It's my belief that no cigarette in the world can be favorably compared with Camels—they're so smooth and mellow and delightful!

I'm herewith slipping between the sheets, old book. So, you tell 'em the rest—you're so full of knowledge!

Sincerely

Buffalo, N. Y. —on a Saturday!

Pleasant Surprise for M. G. Fleming

Thirty friends of M. G. Fleming gathered at his home on Tuesday evening and surprised him on his 43d birthday. Mr. Fleming was at home with his wife passing the evening very quietly when this host of friends walked in upon him and gave him the surprise of his life. The evening was spent in singing and enjoying some very fine music. Refreshments consisting of coffee, sandwiches and cake, were served. The guests all brought their refreshments with them, with the exception of the coffee which was made at the Fleming home.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Parker of Lakeport, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McGill and son Norman, Herman McGill, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gaffney and four children, Ruth, Marion, Clarence and Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Fleming and three children, Norman, Christine and Doris, George Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilkie, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Sanborn and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Ranney.

REAL ESTATE and Personal Property AUCTION

As I decided to take up residence in another State, have decided to sell my Real Estate and Personal Property at auction on

SATURDAY, OCT. 9

At one o'clock sharp in the afternoon.

MY HOME PLACE

in Cabot Village, known as the J. P. Lamson place, consisting of a large two-story house of fourteen rooms, besides pantry, closets, sheds and pump room, with fine well. Rooms on lower floor finished in hard wood, part with steel sheathing, and all in fine condition. Upper rooms finished in white enamel. Also, nicely finished chamber over shed and back kitchen. Furnace heated. Nice cellar under entire house, cement floor and walls. Cistern in cellar. Porch extends across entire front of house. Large lawn with beautiful elm and maple shade trees. Apple orchard near house, currant and gooseberry bushes in garden. Good sized barn with basement, tie-ups for eight cows and three horses, running water in stable. Plenty of carriage and harness rooms. Aside from these is a garage, tool house, wood shed and hen house. Also another building to be used for hay, and summer stable for cows.

20 Acres of Good Land

Suitably Divided into Tillage and Pasture.

This is one of the finest residences in this section, located in a pretty village, and it will please anyone looking for a village farm. Anyone wishing to look this property over before the sale, communicate with the auctioneer, as the owner is in Connecticut at present.

BARNET

Monday the exhibit of school all over the town was held at School House hall. It was a display well worth seeing and the arrangements of the food vegetables and canned fruit and vegetables was very attractive. There were wonderful loaves of bread and cake. Much credit is due to the teachers who have inspired sufficient interest on the part of the scholars to make such a display of things possible. The table on which the handicraft was displayed attracted much attention, a great variety of needle work was also on hand. Miss Mary Gillilan, the new County Demonstrator's agent and Mrs. Eben Willey acted as judges of the food and sewing. Harvey Burbank and Rev. C. B. Bliss judged the garden crops and wood work. The $2000 prize money was given by four men, who have children in school and by Melindos and Passumpsic Granges. The

The WANDERER Staged by David Belasco

There are more Prodigal Sons to-day than there ever were in the wildest days of ancient Jerusalem. They leave home and come to the big cities of to-day as they did 3000 years ago. They join the thoughtless chase after false pleasures until the inevitable crash comes. This great scenic drama of 'The Wanderer' will cause you to pause and think.

Never in history has there been in St. Johnsbury an attraction as big with an All Star Cast. The management guarantees THE WANDERER to be the best ever in St. Johnsbury. Get your seats at once before you're crowded out.
