"HONEYMOON LANE" GRAND SUCCESS AT NEWPORT

The Philbrooks' Home Talent Comedy Staged Before Capacity Audience

The musical comedy, Honeymoon Lane, staged by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Philbrick and given under the auspices of the Ladies' Social Union of the First Congregational church last evening was a tremendous success from start to finish.

Honeymoon Lane is the most pretentious attraction which the Philbrooks have presented here and calls for much dramatic ability. In the cast were nearly 100 of Newport's best musical and theatrical talent.

The newly wed widow and widower John Titus, (Walter Cleveland) and Mrs. Titus, (Leona Moulton) are unable to conceal their grown-up children by former marriages. Marion Titus (Bessie Lothrop), Freddie Warren, (Rudolph Bigelow), and leads to laughable complications.

Walter Cleveland is always a favorite and his son, "Make a Lot of Noise" brought great applause.

Miss Christine Blanchard made the hit of the evening with her song, "You'd be Surprised," as well as the coal black maid of all work, Minnie, in "Kid Days" with a rollicking group of kiddies comprising Eleanor Prouty, Gladys Burke, Hazel Garrett, Lillian Vignault, Katherine Beard, Louise Bosley, Harriet Goss, Avis Snauldin, Mildred Pomeroy, and Helen Savage. In his song, "Popularity," Ben Borella will be accompanied by Florence Berry, Arline Cushing, May Doran, Elizabeth Shaw, Dorothy Whalen, Edith Somerville, Olive Wilkie, Calice Coburn, Gertrude Green, Clara Richmond, Barbara Brown, Iva Hitchcock, Sarah Arkin, Beatrice Skinner, Gladys Hancock, Eva Leach, Rita McLean, Ruth McLean, Harriet Watkins, Dorothy Ford, Beatrice Farnham, Annie Sockol, Nettie Osgood, Florence Smith, Phyllis Utton, Mabel Reed, Ethel Adison, Mildred Litchfield, Jeanette Knowlton, Marjorie Leavitt, Ruth Annis and Helen Foster.

The Flower Girl, a dream waltz by Mrs. Philbrick and Earl Davis was artistic and graceful and was one of the prettiest hits of the whole evening.

Altogether, the performance went with a snap unusual in an affair gotten up in such a short time. It is by far the best which the Philbrooks have staged in Newport and makes one more success for this popular couple.

The Opera House was packed to capacity and is already sold out for this evening's performance.

Miss Octavia Brooks Is Bride of Henry Vallee

A simple but very pretty wedding took place at St. Mary's Catholic church in Newport, when Miss Octavia Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judah Brooks of Barton was united in marriage to Henry Vallee, of Essex Junction.

The ceremony took place at seven o'clock on Sunday evening. Rev. J. H. Reardon, pastor of St. Mary's church, being the officiating clergyman, and using the double ring service.

The wedding march from Lohengrin was most artistically rendered by Miss Cecile St. Germain an intimate friend of the bride.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white georgette with a veil of silk tissue, becomingly draped and fastened with white rosebuds. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and ferns.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to Barton where a sumptuous dinner awaited them. A pretty reception was made of the cutting of the bride's cake.

Monday morning Mr. and Mrs. Vallee returned to Newport for the nuptial mass, and left soon afterward by auto for Quebec city where they will stay a week, before going to their home in Essex Junction.

Mrs. Vallee has been employed at F. E. Beaulieu's store during the last four years and has made many friends in Newport who wish her much happiness.

Mr. Vallee is a Barton boy and is now the manager of the Atlantic and Pacific store in Essex Junction.

They were the recipients of many beautiful and valuable gifts.

frame, three in the second, two in the third, three more in the fourth and another in the fifth. The last five strikeouts were successive. The big awkward right-hander was in fine form and was throwing a very speedy ball with an upshoot, with which the locals could not cope.

With a safe lead, the comedian shortstop, "Rabbit" Maranville relieved his brother mousman and himself served the ball during the last four innings. He was a vaudevillian act all by himself and kept the big gathering of fans in a continuous roar of laughter with his humorous antics.

For Newport, Leo Lahar played a fine game that was in no way affected by stage-fright, a disease with which several of the local ball tossers appeared to be afflicted. In the field he cut off several sure hits, and was officially credited with five difficult putouts. He was all over the center garden and spared everything that came his way. In the third when Scott had cut loose and was really pitching ball the fast little out-gardener slashed out a beautiful two-bagger.

Do You Know a Baby Sick With Constipation

Tell the mother to give half a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

No thoughtful mother with children in the house will risk being without a good, reliable laxative. It will save many a serious illness, many a doctor's visit.

When the baby cries and is fretful, when the boy has no appetite and won't play, when the girl is listless and feverish, when there are complaints of headaches and colds, the mother can suspect constipation. Give Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin in the small dose prescribed on the bottle, when you put the child to bed, and with morning the ailment will have disappeared.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a popular compound of Egyptian Senna and other simple laxative herbs with pepsin and pleasant-tasting aromatics. It acts gently and mildly, and children take it without objection. A sixty-cent bottle is enough to last an average family many months. The ingredients are endorsed in the U. S. Pharmacopoeia, and last year American mothers bought over eight million bottles of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin from druggists. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, and few cautious families are ever without it.

TRY IT FREE

Send me your name and address and I will send you a free trial bottle of my Syrup Pepsin. Address me Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 514 Washington Street, Monticello, Illinois. Everybody now and then needs a laxative, and it is well to know the best. Write me today.
