We believe that we have hit on just the right combination of flours for this loaf. It is little darker than our PURE MILK BREAD, a little sweeter and the only trouble with it seems to be that one slice never satisfies. Next time try a loaf. It is just the thing for the children's lunch.

Getting Things Done

The modern woman has a pretty busy time of it. Style shoes, strictly so, won't get her around gracefully these busy days. She has taken to the Princess Pat. It is a trim shoe of thin lines shaped naturally to the foot, with a straight inside line and a medium toe. Walk-Over designers have perfected the outlines. They have made it a good-looking shoe with style. The heel is not too high, nor is it too low. It is just right. You'll be surprised how much easier it is to get things done in Princess Pats.
