Garfield's Condition.

ALL QUIET AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

Washington, July 9.—A settled quietness prevails at the White House and the hope of the President's recovery has grown into general belief. Except Cabinet officers and newspaper correspondents there were but few visitors there to-day.

THE COOLING EXPERIMENT.

Dorsey has one of the District fire engines in the White House yard for the purpose of testing its capacity for compressing air for lowering the temperature in the President's room. Dorsey has not much confidence in the success of the experiment but thinks it may do some good. Compressed cold air will be thrown into the White House through a rubber hose. A fire engine has been telegraphed for to New York and will reach here to-morrow. When it arrives Dorsey says he will be able to control the temperature of the President's room at any degree the doctors desire.

MORE HOPEFUL THAN EVER.

Dr. Reyburn said to a reporter at 10 o'clock that the President's condition was more hopeful than ever. All symptoms were favorable and the surgeons' hopes were increasing every hour. The rise in pulse and temperature to-day was due to a cause thoroughly understood and does not indicate anything unfavorable.

AT FOUR P. M.

Washington, 4 p. m.—The President has been more comfortable to-day than at any time since he was wounded. His children were permitted to see him this morning, and the attending physicians' report at 4 p. m. was that he is improving satisfactorily. None of the symptoms of artificial refrigeration thus far tried have entirely met the sanguine anticipations of their inventors and suggesters, but as the weather continues reasonably cool, the President has not suffered from heat since Thursday. Experiments are still being made with the refrigerating apparatus in anticipation of the return of hot weather, which is predicted by General Hazen.

THE PRESIDENT TAKEN MORE UNCOMFORTABLE TO-DAY THAN ANY DAY SINCE HE WAS WOUNDED, AND LITTLE MORE STIMULANTS, AND HAS RETAINED IT. HIS STRENGTH KEEPS UP. ALTOGETHER THE CONDITIONS ARE GRATIFYING.

Col. Rockwell said to-night about 6 o'clock that the President awakened from a short sleep and inquired, "Where is Bliss?" Dr. Bliss was immediately called and the President said, "Doctor, I feel tired. Hadn't you better tuck me up my little bed?"

The President's wound hurt him some, and he wanted it dressed for the night. He continues his good humor and cheerfulness.

NEW SCHEME.

The compressed air plan has been abandoned, and the scheme now is to have a cylinder with ice and charcoal, such as used on board of ships.

HE TALKS TO ROCKWELL.

Chicago, July 9.—A Journal's Washington special says: Officially regarding the President's condition. He changes little from hour to hour and the phrase "He is doing well and his condition is very satisfactory" has begun to grow tiresome and the public demand being made acquainted with the details. The President looks better to-day than at any time since being stricken down and a few friends who were admitted to his bedside to-day are very particularly impressed with the fact.

Colonel Rockwell, who went into the President's room this morning, found him looking decidedly better, his voice stronger, and manifesting a strong disposition to talk and had to be restrained. As Col. Rockwell stood by the President's bedside the President said:

"I hear the Catholics have been saying mass for my recovery. Is that true, Col. Rockwell?"

"It is," responded the latter.

"Were they spontaneous or ordered?" asked the President.

"Both," said Rockwell.

"Well," said the President, "when I get up I must go and make some recognition of this Christian act."

Mrs. Garfield said this morning she was confident of the President's recovery. Since the arrival of Dr. Boynton

Mrs. Garfield has been greatly relieved and no longer hesitates to leave her husband's bedside and takes rides in the open air. Dr. Boynton is constantly attending on the President and at Mrs. Garfield's request will remain at the White House during the President's critical period and until he is sufficiently recovered.

BULLETINS.

Executive Mansion, 7:15 p. m.—The President's condition continued favorable during the day febrile reaction does not differ materially from that of yesterday. Pulse 111, temperature 101, respiration 24. Signed,

D. W. BLISS,
J. K. PARKES,
J. J. WOODWARD,
ROBERT REYBURN.

Executive Mansion, 10 p. m.—The President's symptoms are favorable and encouraging. Unless some change should occur for the worse no official bulletins will be issued until to-morrow morning.

ARTHUR CALLED.

Washington, July 9.—The Vice-President called at the White House to-day, he could not see the President and Mrs. Garfield was out riding. The surgeons assured him that the President was doing well and continued to improve.

EACH HOUR SHOWS IMPROVEMENT.

The doctors are more hopeful than ever. Each hour develops satisfactory symptoms and shows the President improving.

Dorsey is still trying experiments to lower the temperature.

UNFAVORABLE NEWS.

Inquiry among many physicians who are watching the President's case, and who have outside views of the case not given to the public, are of the opinion that while the President may possibly recover, yet so many dangers still attend his case that it is by no means safe to positively predict his recovery. Surgeon-General Wales, of the Navy, said this morning he did not consider the President had even a chance. He said there was a well authenticated case of a wound of the abdomen from buck shot, when the patient exhibited favorable symptoms, and when the temperature and pulse became perfectly normal, and yet death ensued on the eighteenth day. The propriety of wet sheets around the bed has been medically criticised, and they have been removed.

THE GARFIELD FUND.

New York, July 9.—W. W. Corcoran, Washington, Geo. I. Seney and Geo. W. Childs contribute $5,000 each to the Mrs. Garfield fund.

The World proposes a National subscription of five dollars and upwards for the purpose of helping on the subscription list. If the amount subscribed shall over double that originally contemplated by the Chamber of Commerce, there will be no subscriber to grudge his share of it, whether it shall prove a provision for the widow and orphans or the President of the United States, as now most happily seems much more probable.

FRANCO-AMERICAN MONETARY DECLARATION.

Paris, July 9.—At yesterday's sitting of the Monetary Conference Evarts read the following declaration of the French and American delegates in the name of their respective governments: The depreciation and great fluctuations in the value of silver relatively to gold, which of late years have shown themselves, and which continue to exist, have been and are injurious to commerce and general prosperity, and the establishment and maintenance of a fixed relation of values between silver and gold would produce the most important benefits to the commerce of the world.

William Morgan's Daughter.

San Francisco, July 9.—A Portland dispatch says: It has just been ascertained that the youngest daughter of William Morgan, who, it is claimed, was put out of the way by reason of having divulged Masonic secrets many years ago is living in this State. She is quite an elderly lady and is the wife of Capt. Wm. Smith. They both reside in Marion county. Mrs. Smith says her father was drowned by five men who took him out one night into a lake. She stated that one of the five men who resided in the drowning for many years resided in Portland, Oregon, but now is dead.

Waika Breaks Butterfield's Head.

Denver, July 9.—The boss canvasser of Cole's circus, named Waika, last night, at Boulder, beat M. C. Butterfield over the head with an iron pin, producing probably a fatal wound. Butterfield joined the circus at Fort Collins. While taking down the canvas at Boulder he did not work exactly to suit Waika and the latter attacked him with a pin. Waika has not yet been arrested.

A Democratic Convention on the Attempted Assassination.

Cleveland, Ohio, July 9.—The Democratic County Convention to-day adopted strong resolutions, declaring Garfield the Constitutional President, and the attempt on his life a hideous crime, and resolving in his improved condition, and recommending law to cover such cases.

Albany Balloting.

Albany, July 9.—In the joint convention ballot, short term, Potter received 50, Conkling 31, Lapham 67, Wheeler 1. No choice. In the second ballot Miller had 68, Kernan 50, Wheeler 19, Adams 3, Chapman 2, Cornell 1, Bliss 1, Strain 1, Rogers 4. No choice.

Chicago Cuttings.

Chicago, July 9.—The heat was oppressive and the mortality great. Two fatal sunstrokes. Some breeze.

The postoffice will be re-constructed, and Logan clan will be likely to receive a basket, through the clearing out of barnacles, there attached to him.

THE COMMONS.

London, July 9.—The House of Commons went into Committee on Land Bill to-night. Clauses 20 and 21 passed almost without an amendment. Clauses 22, 23 and 24 also passed. Adjourned.

PHILANTHROPIK KEENE.

London, July 9.—J. R. Keene presented 5,000 francs to the poor of Paris out of his winnings.

LEFROY ARRESTED.

London, July 9.—The arrest of Lefroy was made during the day information was conveyed to the police, which induced Inspectors Jarvis and Swanson to visit a house in Stepney, where a person resembling Lefroy had been lodging during the past week, and immediately recognized the suspected murderer. As soon as the officers entered the room he said, "I expected you." Mr. Swanson informed him that he was charged with the murder of Mr. Gould. Lefroy replied: "I am not compelled to give an answer, am I?" He then added, "I am not guilty." He was taken to Scotland yard, thence to King Palace Station, Westminster, where he was formally charged with the murder of Gould. No money was found on him. He was supposed to be living at Stepney ever since he was missed. After having left the sisters' room in Elington fever hospital he had no luggage on his head, and his wounds, which were dressed on the day of the murder at Brighton, had almost disappeared. His appearance gives the impression that he has been suffering from want of food. The only attempt at disguise noticeable was that he had shaved off his moustache and whiskers. He is to be taken to Balaclava for examination to-morrow.

THE QUEEN REVIEWS HER TROOPS.

London, July 9.—It was a fine day for the review of troops by the Queen, and a hundred thousand spectators will probably go to Windsor. Two thousand volunteers will participate in the review as an experiment to test the possibility of rapid concentration of volunteer troops, of whom there are two hundred thousand in Great Britain. All the royal family and a brilliant staff will attend. The Queen's review begun about five and ended at eight p. m. The Russian General, Skobeloff, was invited to be present, but was unable to attend.

THE ARIZONA SUPPOSED TO BE LOST.

London, July 9.—A correspondent of the Shipping Gazette, at Schull, County Cork, on the Southwest Coast of Ireland, reports under date of the seventh inst. as follows: The officer in charge of the Schull Coast Guard received to-day a package of letters, forty in number, bound by an elastic band, brought by a man from Long Island. It is supposed the man picked up the letters enclosed in a chester case, as the bundle was quite dry. The finder states he swam for them. The first letter is signed by Capt. Murray, of the Steamship Arizona, the others were letters to his wife and several telegrams. Waifs are all coming ashore. The Castle Head Schull Coast Guard have been requested to report what the waifs consist of. Note—Guion Line Steamer Arizona, Capt. Murray, from Liverpool for New York, sailed from Queenstown July 3d.

NOT CREDITED.

London, July 9.—The story that letters and wreckage of the steamer Arizona came ashore, is discredited.

Bimetallism Progressing.

New York, July 9.—The World's Paris special, speaking of the Monetary Conference, says: The Americans here are unanimous in thinking that the results of the Conference are highly satisfactory, as the bimetallic propaganda is everywhere assuming increasing proportions, while monometallism makes no converts. That England is uneasy is evidenced by offers not only to meet half way in keeping part of the metallic reserve in silver, but to confine the Indian standard of silver. The Americans claim that the manager of the Bank of England is the latest convert to bimetalism.

Interesting Libel Suit.

Chicago, July 9.—Times, London: All England is occupied at present with a great libel case. The Plaintiff, Miss Wilber, claims to have been born in San Francisco and to have a large fortune, managed by Perry Morton, of Indianapolis. She has been on the witness stand three days, and relates the history of her wanderings all over Europe. She sues a prominent citizen named Phillips for having said she poisoned her father, and that she was an adventurer and scoundrel. Plaintiff contradicted herself a hundred times in her testimony, and will probably be prosecuted for perjury and sent to prison.

Found Drowned.

Denver, July 10.—The body of Andy Gurdy was to-day found in the Platte by some boys. It is supposed he was drowned yesterday. There is nothing left to indicate whether by accident or otherwise.

Bowen Brothers, wholesale grocers, failed yesterday at San Francisco. Liabilities $50,000; assets $20,000.

White Oaks' Sale.

A few days ago J. A. Macklay purchased a large amount of mining interests for St. Louis parties, all of which will make a fine combination, paying therefor in round numbers the sum of $25,000. The group of mines referred to are situated near and adjoining the North and South Homestake and Little Mac mines. The properties purchased were formerly owned by Adna Lamson, J. A. Sweet, C. E. Patterson, Wm. Watson, Charles Star, M. Whiteman and Henry Slingston, and are known by the following names: Little Daisy, Hall's, Aere, Oyhee, Otis, George Washington and Omaha. These are all considered valuable claims, not only for the mineral in them, but also from the position the claims hold, being near the great mines named.—Golden Era.

Mexican Central Building from the City of Mexico.

The regular correspondent of the Boston Herald writing from the City of Mexico says:

"The Mexican Central Railway has completed 80 kilometres north of this city to Tula. The telegraph line extends some distance beyond. A survey is being run for a Pacific terminus in the direction of San Blas. It is yet a mooted question where the Pacific port will be, and different surveys are to be made to ascertain the most feasible route. A contract has been closed for the building of 50 kilometres of road north from Queretaro; 45 kilometres have been graded north from Tula. In the vicinity of San Juan del Rio 1,000 men are at work and 13,000 between Mexico and Celaya. The Central has obtained the reputation for pushing work, and, at its present rate, will have a continuous line from the border in less than five years, half the time required by law."
