The President.
OFFICIAL BULLETIN.
Executive Mansion, July 19, 11:30 p. m.—The President's afternoon fever was a little more strongly marked to-night than last night, the pulse showing an increase of 4 beats, temperature rise of five-tenths, and respiration light. He expressed a desire to have his beard and hair trimmed and his head rubbed, and at his request a barber was summoned who spent some time rubbing him, and although the immediate effects were over fatigue and increased fever in a slight degree, however, aside from the transient rise in pulse and temperature, the President's symptoms continue favorable.

THE PROCESS OF SUPURATION.
In reply to a question in regard to the wound, Dr. Bliss said: "Process of supuration is going on satisfactorily and the track of the ball is slowly being cleared by discharge. Our experience with a drainage tube to-night confirms our previously expressed judgment that the ball did enter the abdominal cavity and pierce the liver. I believe it passed through that organ and is lodged in the interior wall of the abdomen."

WHAT HE HEARD.
New York, July 19.—A Tribune's Washington special says: A Southern politician of some prominence informed the Postmaster-General that on the 15th day of May he in company with another gentleman was visiting the State Department, where he met in the corridors a man who he knows was Guiteau, accompanied by a tall, slender man. Guiteau was overheard to say to his companion in a very angry tone, "They have put me out of the White House, and I will show them whether I can get even with them." The next day, according to Guiteau's confession, he purchased a pistol.

A NURSE INTERVIEWED.
New York, July 19.—A Herald's Washington correspondent interviewed the President's nurse, who said the President remarked a few days after the shooting that if it was not for the pain in his feet he would not know what ailed him. He told the physicians: "I will stand all the pain, but you must stand all the worry; I cannot stand both." Since then he has stuck to the agreement.

UNOFFICIAL BULLETIN.
Executive Mansion, 2 p. m.—The President is passing a comfortable day. He had a fair breakfast this morning, toast, milk and meat juice, and ate the same with apparent relish. His pulse is 92, and his temperature and respiration are normal.

Executive Mansion, Washington, D. C., July 19, 7 p. m.—The President has passed an excellent day, and during the afternoon the fever has been less than on any day since he was wounded. At 1 p. m. his pulse was 92, temperature 98.5, respiration 19.
Signed, D. W. BLISS, J. K. BARNES, J. J. WOODWARD, ROBT. REYBURN.

TO COUNSELLING SURGEONS.
Washington, July 19.—The following telegram was sent by the attending surgeons to the counselling surgeons to-night:
To Dr. F. H. Hamilton and D. N. Agnew: Last evening the President received a hypodermic injection of one-eighth of a grain of sulphate of morphia and slept well during the night. He continues to take sulphate of quinia in three-grain doses. The increased fever of yesterday proved only temporary, and he has been better all day to-day than at any time since he was injured. The wound looks well, and is discharging healthy pus freely.
Signed, D. W. BLISS, J. K. BARNES, J. J. WOODWARD, ROBT. REYBURN.

Executive Mansion, July 19.—The following bulletin was sent this morning to the Cabinet officers by the President's private Secretary:
July 19, 8 a. m.—The slightly increased febrile rise which occurred yesterday evening, but which was not due to any unfavorable change in the condition of the wound, has entirely disappeared this morning, and at this hour the President's pulse is 90, with normal temperature and respiration. He rested well during the night, at one time sleeping three and a half hours without awakening, and is now feeling bright and comfortable. There will be a slight change in diet, something else being substituted for potatoes and oatmeal, which has been found unsatisfactory.
Executive Mansion, 8:30 a. m.—The President passed a very good night, and this morning he is free from fever, and expressed himself as feeling quite comfortable. His pulse is 90, temperature 98, respiration 18.
(Signed) D. W. BLISS, J. K. BARNES, J. J. WOODWARD, ROBT. REYBURN.

Fire at Syracuse.
Syracuse, N. Y., July 19.—The Weiting Opera House, centre of the city, burned early this morning, and was wholly destroyed within two hours. It was the most disastrous fire in Syracuse in thirty years. The estimated loss was upwards of $350,000. Fully fifty tenants occupied the block, and are losers to considerable amounts. The losses were a block of four stories, covering half an acre. Value $300,000, insured for $85,000. Other principal losers are as follows: Rose Bloom Bros., shoe dealers, $30,000; insurance, $22,000; Everson, Trittee & Co., hardware, loss, $50,000; insurance, $20,000; E. Blake, books, loss, $5,000; no insurance. S. P. Pierce, crockery, damaged by water and fire, $10,000; insurance covers loss. C. H. Spatterich, saloon, loss, $4,000; insurance, $3,000; Charles J. Powers, druggs, loss, $18,000; insurance, $8,000. E. B. Crofute & Co., seeds and agricultural implements, loss, $8,000; insurance, $6,000. Warner & Co., and many others, offices, but slightly insured. The New York State Banking Co. saved their money and papers. Half a dozen persons, more or less, were injured by falling walls and debris. It is feared that one or two perished in the buildings. This is the third time in 25 years buildings on this site have burned.

LATER.
Syracuse, N. Y., July 19.—The loss by the fire was $400,000; insurance $275,000. No lives were lost.
"There's Gwine to be Fight."
New York, July 19.—Peter B. Rouse, a burly miner from Colorado, six feet high, of 190 pounds weight, a notorious rough and tumble fighter, has issued a challenge to John L. Sullivan, of Boston, and Paddy Ryan, of Troy, to fight him at catch weights according to the rules of the London prize ring, for from $2,000 to $5,000 a side and heavy weight championship of America, the fight to be decided in either Wyoming, Dakota, or Utah, six months from signing articles. Should eastern champions decline, then the challenge is open to all comers, but the stakes must be $2,000, and a forfeit of $200 sent with acceptance of challenge.

A Sickening Tragedy.
St. Paul, Minn., July 19.—A Winona special says: Paul Heed, a Swiss emigrant who had lately bought a farm in Eagle Creek Valley, became insane through failure of crops and homesickness, and on Sunday morning he was found dead in front of his house. His wife and two children were dead in the next room. Three children in bed up stairs and the two oldest boys in the hay loft were mortally wounded; all shot in the head. One boy may live. A revolver was found in the house.

Hanlan and Ross.
Toronto, Ontario, July 19.—Hanlan says he will row Wallace Ross wherever he likes for $2,000, as offered, in addition to the stakes given by the town or city in proximity to which it takes place. Hanlan considers it all very well for Ross to challenge him when he knows he can make more than stakes where he proposes to row, out of railways and privileges, but if Ross likes, he will row him in United States water for five thousand dollars, at any place designated.

The Adjournment Resolution.
Albany, N. Y., July 19.—In the assembly Andrews' motion to amend the final adjournment resolution by making the day Thursday instead of Tuesday was lost—51 to 54. Eleven stalwarts voted with the Democrats in the affirmative.

Fatally Shot.
Peoria, Ill., July 19.—Nicholas Norville was fatally shot and several others wounded in a fight among brakemen at the Union yard here to-day, caused by an unpopular yard master importing men from St. Louis to replace the strikers.

Brink Released.
Hartford, Conn., July 19.—Secretary Blaine announces the release by the German authorities, June 30th, of the young man Brink, the citizen recently impressed into the German military service while temporarily visiting his fatherland.

Congratulate Miller.
New York, July 19.—Congratulatory telegrams were received by Senator-elect Miller from Levi P. Morton, Postmaster Pearson, Postmaster-General James, Canal Appraiser Bostwick, and others of Conkling's followers.

Writing a Book.
Washington, July 19.—Information has been received here that Representative Stephens of Georgia is writing a book on the political events of National importance of the War.

A Fatal Kick.
Pittsburg, Pa., July 19.—Ella Stevenson, an insane girl living near here, kicked her father in the stomach and killed him while he was trying to pacify her.

Chicago Races.
Chicago, July 19.—At the Jockey Club races today the heat stallion race was won by Santa Claus, Hannis second, McGregor third. Time, 2:17.

Foreign Notes.
NOT PERFECT.
London, July 16.—On the preliminary trial of the steamer Servia a flaw was discovered in the crank. A new shaft will be fitted.
UNDER THE LEAGUE.
Patrick Egan has purchased the Dublin Irishman, thus placing the whole of the national journals in Ireland under control of the league.

DEAN STANLEY DEAD.
Dean Stanley died last night of erysipelas. The Archbishop of Canterbury arrived in time for a few parting words.
HIS LAST WORDS.
In conversation to-day the Archbishop of Canterbury said the last audible words of Stanley were: "I have labored amidst many facilities and much weakness to make Westminster Abbey the great centre of religious and national life in a truly liberal spirit."

A BULLDOZING YOUTH.
London, July 19.—An Irishman aged 18, named Patrick Talfour Hickie, was arraigned at Bow street police station to-day and remanded for threatening to kill Right Hon. Wm. E. Forster, Chief Secretary for Ireland, unless he believed Irish subjects and resigned his office.

A NIHILIST SUICIDE.
New York, July 19.—A Herald's St. Petersburg dispatch says: It was stated at a meeting of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs that the person found dead in a cemetery on Friday morning, was a Nihilist who, like Ruskakoff, had been chosen by lot to assassinate the Czar, and who rather than obey the order committed suicide.

WILL HAVE PEACE.
Buenos Ayres, June 24.—The American Minister here and at Santiago, Chili, have overcome all difficulties attending the settlement of the boundary question between Chili and the Argentine Republic. The two governments have agreed to finish the settlement by a treaty through arbitration. A majority in both the Chilean and Argentine Congresses will support the treaty.

YIELDING UP.
London, July 19.—It has been agreed to give the whole of the Transvaal to the Boers.
THE BEY ON THE WAR PATH.
A dispatch from Tunis says Arab horsemen state that the Bey's camels are scouring the country and have attacked farm houses one hundred and fifty miles from Tunis. The natives throughout the country are greatly excited, and disturbances are feared. The Bey is preparing to send more troops to the interior, but it is doubtful whether they will fight the Arabs.

A REVOLUTIONARY CONGRESS.
London, July 19.—A meeting calling itself the Revolutionary Congress was held in London last night. Delegates from various parts of Europe and America, representing the extreme Democratic party identified with Herr Most, the imprisoned Socialist were present. They represent about 7,000 persons it is alleged, mostly workmen. Red flags were displayed.

Mrs. Lecompte, an American lady delegate, described the disappointments of small farmers going west, depending on the illusory promise of emigrant agents, and how capitalists, in possession of railways, oppress laborers and raise the price of food in the seaboard States.

Louise Michael, an annexed French communist, then spoke, and male delegates from America, Switzerland and Germany, followed.
Prince Krapelkine, the Russian socialist, applauded the assassination of several Russian Generals. It transpired during the proceedings that the Socialist congress, prohibited at Zurich, is sitting secretly in London.

The meeting was crowded to excess with an enthusiastic audience of both sexes. The first resolution declaring that the time for ambition by means of the press and platform had ceased, and that the time has now come for force was moved by Lecompte, a delegate from the United States. Louis Michael, of Paris, seconded the resolution, which was supported by a large number of delegates from various countries and carried unanimously.

Whisky, Indians, Tragedy.
Little Rock, Ark., July 19.—A Gazette Fort Smith special says: Greenleaf, near Fort Gibson, in the Cherokee nation, a point about fifty miles west of Fort Smith, was the scene of a horrible tragedy Saturday. The Creek and Cherokee Indians were having a barbecue preparatory to nominating their candidates for the ensuing election next month. Whisky flowed as freely as milk and honey in the promised land. Two full blood Indians, Bill Lovett and Deer Track, became fighting drunk and made an onslaught on some of the party. Seven men were killed and mortally wounded. Jun Saterwall and his father had their heads completely severed from their bodies by the crazed demons. The murderers are at large, and no efforts are being made to arrest them.

The Stock Depression.
New York, July 19.—The Post in a financial article intimates that the present depression in stocks was the result of manipulation by large owners of trunk lines. The point of interest is, when shall it suit Vanderbilt to use his influence to stop trunk line wars. There is nothing in the general condition of trade industries or the crops of the country which bodes disaster, or which is discouraging, and the speculative situation in Wall street is more dependent on Vanderbilt than on anything else.

Grasshoppers.
Duluth, Minn., July 19.—There is a report that grasshoppers have made their appearance out on the Dakota prairies, and that the wheat is threatened. No very reliable information, or confirmation of the rumor, has yet reached here, but it is probable that the great pest has made its appearance.

Albany News.
DIFFERENT VIEWS.
Albany, July 19.—Opinions differ as to the probability for to-morrow. Some think an election on the next vote will be certain, while others say it will be delayed till Thursday. The stalwarts are very reticent.

NOT TRUE.
New York, July 19.—Ex-Senators Platt and Johnson were closed with ex-Senator Conkling last evening, together with Vice-President Arthur and Halbert, a leading stalwart who came here from Albany, but returned to-night. It was said there is no truth in the rumor that it was Conkling's intention to withdraw in favor of Hamilton Fish in order to secure the defeat of Lapham.

BALLOTING.
Albany, June 19.—In the joint convention ballot for the short term Lapham had 68, Foster 45, Conkling 28, Woodford 1. Necessary to choice, 72. The chair declared no choice made. Speaker Sharp moved to adjourn. Carried.

PROVIDING FOR SPECIAL ELECTIONS.
Albany, July 19.—The bill providing for the holding of special elections to fill vacancies in Congress was, after slight amendments, ordered to a third reading.

News in Brief.
The Fifth annual convention of the National cattle exchange will meet at the Southern Hotel in St. Louis to-day.
Henry S. Smith, who killed Jas. Burton on April 10th; 1880, was hanged at Cornith, Mississippi, yesterday afternoon.

The heat continues at London and at Paris. In both cities the water supply is limited. Watering streets has been discontinued.
The race for Apertrophe stakes at Huntington, England, yesterday, were won by Beatrice, Keene's Breakerspear second, Caringarw third.
Edward Kirby, one of the associated editors of the Globe-Democrat, whose skull was fractured by a runaway horse on the 4th of July, died yesterday.

A special from Jefferson City, Mo., says that the Governor has decided not to interfere in the case of the Talbot brothers, who are to be hanged at Marysville on Friday.
Fifteen thousand pilgrims from Vermont visited the church of Notre Dame de Lourdes, at Montreal, Monday. Quite a large number were arrested in the evening for drunkenness.

The announcement of the consolidation of the several large iron interests of Missouri, is now said to have been premature. Actual consolidation has not yet taken place, but negotiations are pending.
A special to the Republican at Milwaukee states that the town of Wallace, sixteen miles north of Menomonee, Michigan, consisting of a saw mill and twenty-five buildings, was totally destroyed by fire yesterday forenoon.

Will Hang Him.
Nashville, July 19.—A mob has taken Houston Turner, a colored ravisher, from Murfreesboro jail, intending to lynch him.

Boston Wool Market.
Boston, July 19.—There is no change in wool, but the market is comparatively quiet. Buyers are disposed to hold back. The sales of Ohio and Pennsylvania fleeces have been at 41c-42c for XXX and XX and above; Michigan and Wisconsin fleeces, 40c for X; No. 1 Ohio, 46c-48c; unwashed fleeces 18c-22c; for low and coarse, 25c-32c; fine 28c-35c; for medium, combed and Delaine, continue in demand and have been selling at 44c-45c; for fine Michigan Delaine 45c-46c; for fine Ohio unwashed combed the price has ranged from 31 to 33c per pound, including choice Kentucky at the latter rate; California wool is quiet and sales have been moderate at 25c-38c for spring; choice northern pulled wools quiet and remain the same. We quote superior and X at 32c-35c, for common and choice. In foreign wool nothing of any consequence has been done. Prices have been quite steady. Desirable lots of Cape, Montediedo and Australian, are held firm.

Fine Residence.
Workmen are engaged in putting in the foundation for a residence for Dr. E. C. Henriques, at the southeast corner of Blanchard and Sixth streets, facing the public square and in the neighborhood of the new residence of Charles Dyer. Yesterday the contract for the wood work was let to Harris & Cochrane for $2,785. The house will be two stories high, very conveniently arranged and neat in appearance. The plans were prepared by Charles Wheelock. The total cost will be $3,600.

Large crowds daily visit the store of Charles Ilfeld to admire the new goods.
