

GAZETTE CLEANINGS.

The street car cash boxes have arrived and will be put in place in the cars to-day.

Marcellino & Boffa have received eighty boxes of fruit within the last two days. They have sold the most of it.

Dan Marrow has concluded to bring his shooting gallery equipments to this city. Dan thinks Las Vegas is good enough for him.

Over thirteen hundred passengers were carried on the street cars last Sunday, and the general average for this week is very high.

Officer Franklin ordered a couple of suspicious characters out of town last night. He has had them spotted for several days and now they will have to get out.

James Pratt, formerly one of our Las Vegas hackmen, is now carrying on that business in Santa Fe. James is a live business man and will make money wherever he is.

Mr. J. Winter, who is one of a party of business men who arrived from the East yesterday, is a nephew of Jack Winter, one of the original discoverers of the famous Homestake mine at the White Oaks.

Mr. H. A. True is now supplying dealers in coal oil at a most reasonable rate. He has a regular oil wagon which he fills at his oil house south of the depot. The tank there is large enough to hold 10,000 gallons.

Mr. H. V. Varner, of the firm of Maitland & Co., finished boxing their goods yesterday, and will start for Colorado Springs to-day. Mr. John Smith, who has served them so faithfully at this place, will go with them to their new home.

Houghton, Has sold thirteen mowers and a number of sulky rakes within the last few days. A number of these go to Silver City and Albuquerque. Houghton still continues to lead the Territory in the sale of agricultural implements.

W. P. Smith, Superintendent of the A. & P. Railroad, yesterday sent a telegram to O. L. Houghton for one hundred Winchester rifles and ten thousand cartridges. This is a pretty large order and looks as if the A. & P. people mean business.

Antonio Baca has entered into an agreement with Billy Burton giving to the latter the management of Baca Hall. Billy will at once proceed to advertise it and make it an object for traveling troupes to visit Las Vegas. As Billy is an old hand at the show business he will likely draw here a number of entertainments which will be of advantage to the public.

District Court.

The trial of the Territory vs. Aniceto Chaves occupied much of the day yesterday. This was a murder case brought from Santa Fe by change of venue. The defendant killed one Ramon Gallegos in February last by stabbing him with a knife. The case was given to the jury yesterday afternoon and the jury soon returned the surprising verdict of murder in the fifth degree and assessed his punishment at a fine of one hundred dollars. It thus seems that killing a man is worth no more than running a gaming table.

The case of the Territory vs. Pablo Armijo, indicted for stealing, was on trial yesterday at the adjournment of court.

The case of Marino Leiba indicted for assault with intent to kill will come up for trial this morning. Leiba is the man who is supposed to have killed Colonel Potter, but he is under indictment in this court for an assault on Pat Garrett with intent to kill.

J. J. Jacob Es-Governor of West Virginia, F. M. Darby and J. Winter of Hagerstown, Md., came in on yesterday's train. They have come to our county on business and after taking a look at our city and the Hot Springs they will take to-days train for Socorro. We are glad to welcome these gentlemen to our Territory and hope they will conclude to invest.

Academy Commencement.

The eleventh annual commencement of the Academy of the Immaculate conception took place at Baca Hall last night. The large hall was crowded with people and hundreds who could not find seats were compelled to stand in the aisles and the back of the room. The Sisters had gone to great pains to prepare this entertainment and their efforts were highly appreciated by the public. The following was the PROGRAMME.

Salutatory..... Miss H. Mendenhall. Opening march—Trio..... Misses C. Robbins, A. Baca, C. Montano. O Cor amoris ructio—Sacred..... Miss M. Smith and others.

LIBERTY AND HER HANDMAID—(Tableau.) A Hymn..... Sung by the school, accompanied on organ by Miss J. Brown. THE MAY QUEENS—(Tableau in two scenes.) 1st Scene.

White Cockade—Trio..... Misses M. Baca, F. Perez, J. Brown. 2ND SCENE.

La Despedida..... Miss F. Perez. Rev. J. M. Coudert, parish priest, was indefatigable in aiding to make the entertainment a success. The literary and musical exercises were pronounced by the audience even better than of previous years and the tableaux were beautiful. The performances followed each other in quick succession and without interruption, thus making the entertainment shorter than usual and held the interest of the audience to the end without becoming tiresome.

Rev. Father Fouchegn of Sapello, made a very interesting and forcible address at the close, referring to the difficulties and drawbacks which the Sisters have encountered in building up so good an institution of learning. Chief Justice Prince was then called upon and made a short and appropriate address upon the importance of the higher education of females. At the close, the beautiful table cover made by the Sisters, was raffled off. The lucky drawer of the prize was Miss Alejandra Gutierrez.

Rev. Calfee.

The following telegrams will explain themselves and throw some light on the subject as to the whereabouts of Rev. D. W. Calfee, who left here some months ago to accept a position as agent for the American Bible Society for the Territory of Arizona: Las Vegas, N. M., Aug. 13.—Rev. E. H. Brooks, Globe City, Arizona: We are alarmed about Rev. D. W. Calfee. Where is he? Answer.

THOS. HARWOOD. Globe City, Arizona, Aug. 15.—Rev. Thos. Harwood: Calfee is either at Ft. Grant or Ft. Wilcox and is all right.

E. H. BROOKS. This puts all anxiety concerning his fate at rest. He left here by wagon, thinking that a trip across the country in that way would be beneficial to his wife's health which had not been very good for some months previous to their leaving. They went as far as Socorro and there attended the Territorial M. E. Conference which was in session and then started off across the plains a distance of five hundred miles to their point of destination.

Mr. Calfee was known to have but little money and the journey was a long and weary one. In places many miles have to be traversed without water or wood.

Mr. Calfee drove out from Socorro a few miles the first day and struck camp for the night. Several members of the Conference learning his intentions and of his lack of money secured a team and drove out to where they were camped and prevailed upon them to return. The pastor at Raton was offered Mr. Calfee and he finally agreed to return and take charge of the work at that place. The gentlemen returned to Socorro, perfectly satisfied with their work. Instead of returning, as he promised, it seems the fascination of a trip across the plains overcame his pledges to return, and he plunged into the ocean of plains that stretched between his humble camp and his objective point in Arizona. About that time the Indians took the war path in that section, and as nothing was heard from him it was naturally supposed that he had suffered the fate of so many travelers in that lower country. No wonder Mrs. Calfee wept bitter tears on bidding her friends adieu at Socorro, for the thoughts of such a journey at such a time was enough to subdue the strongest heart. Their many friends in this city therefore will be glad to hear of their safe arrival at the forts above mentioned, where they can secure protection and rest.

PERSONAL.

A. L. Fawle is up from Glorieta. Eli Hilty is over from Mineral City. J. A. Walcott, of Fort Union, is in the city. W. H. Evans, of Raton, is in the city. T. F. Conway came up from Santa Fe yesterday. Leonard H. Blyth is over from Glen Mora. M. Devine, of Tiptonville, was in town yesterday. F. H. Burke, of Salt Lake City, is a late arrival in town. Robert Stewart, of Ft. Scott, Kansas, is doing Las Vegas. Miss Atkinson, of Trinidad, is a guest at the Sumner House. W. J. Littell, Owensburg, Ky., is a late arrival in our city. T. H. McDonald, of Philadelphia, Penn., is doing Las Vegas. Hon. Eduardo Martinez came up from Anton Chico yesterday. W. P. Prosser, of St. Joseph, Mo., is registered at the Depot Hotel. E. D. House, of Fort Concho, Texas, is stopping at the Sumner House. A. R. Ayres and C. C. Ayres, of Peoria, Ill., are late arrivals at the Sumner.

J. B. Donohphan and J. S. Black, of New York, are stopping at the St. Nicholas. Mrs. J. W. Bilen and son, of Clinton, Iowa, are registered at the Sumner House. Will Cosgrove is up from Roswell. He reports everything moving nicely in that rich agricultural country. Mrs. Jackson and sister, Miss Moore, left on yesterday's train for their home in West Las Animas, Colorado. Col. W. G. Franklin returned from an extended business trip East yesterday, and went on through to Socorro. Willie Richards, son of Conductor Richards, will start for his home in St. Paul, Minn., to-day. We wish him a safe journey. Rev. Murphy came up from the south yesterday. He has traveled over most of the southern country, and says that Las Vegas is the "hub" of the southwest.

O. L. Gregory, of the Parlor Barber Shop, will start Thursday for a few weeks visit to Iowa. He will visit friends and relatives at Ottumwa and What Cheer and then go on to Page Co. and visit his father. Mr. N. L. Rosenthal and daughter, Mrs. Max Rosenthal, left for the East on yesterday's train. Mrs. Rosenthal will stop in Chicago and await the return of her father, who goes to Europe for a three month's visit.

Mr. A. J. Bell, the east side fruit and grocery man has sold out to Mr. Carson who will build a solid block where the frame now stands. Mr. Bell will not give possession until September first, and in the meantime his stock of fresh fruits and groceries will be sold at cost. Mr. Bell has worked up a splendid trade in a short time, but finds himself unable to attend to it properly, therefore he has sold out to one who is younger and better able to look after matters.

The Burglary.

Some light fingered gentleman with a sharp knife performed a very neat job of carrying on one of the rear doors of Marwede, Brumley & Co's. hardware store yesterday morning. The fellow simply cut one of the panels out of the door, crawled through and helped himself to a half dozen six shooters and one Winchester rifle and then left by the same way that he entered. The value of the goods taken amounts to about $125. Mr. Brumley thinks the cutting took place about midnight as at that hour he awoke and heard several little disturbances, but as the noise soon ceased he thought no more of it and soon fell asleep again. The fellow had a sharp knife and piled the shavings whittled off in a nice little heap demonstrating the fact that the fellow, although a burglar, had some style about him. As no clue can be obtained as to the person who committed the burglary the owners have concluded to drop the matter and make no further attempt to capture the guilty party.

Remember the first annual ball of the Hook and Ladder company at Milligan's Hall next Thursday eve.
