President Garfield Improved a Little Yesterday.

The President Improving. BLAINE TO LOWELL.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The President, if not rapidly advancing, is at least holding his own. His fever is less than last night, and the swollen gland steadily improves. His pulse continues rather higher, running this evening from 110 to 114. Perhaps the best indication in the case is, that the President himself feels better, and his mind being now perfectly clear, he readily compares one day's progress with another.

UNEVENTFUL DAY.

Executive Mansion to-day extremely quiet and uneventful. News from the sick room is gratifying. Shortly after the mid-day bulletin a ripple of excitement was noticeable, owing to the rise in the patient's pulse to 116. The rise, the surgeons said, was due to a slight incision in the parotid gland this morning, and express the opinion that during the extremely enfeebled condition of the patient, no importance can be attached to slight fluctuations of pulse.

WHAT THE PATIENT EATS.

The President continues to take the usual nourishment, and during the day, in addition to koumiss, milk porridge and beef tea, which he partook freely of, he ate another piece of milk toast with apparent relish. The beef tea which he is now taking is prepared by Mrs. Garfield from raw beef chopped fine, to which is added a quantity of water and a few drops of muriatic acid. The patient greatly relishes this.

Dr. Boynton said that the glandular trouble was apparently much better. There was a large discharge from it this morning.

There is not much change in the condition of the wound. Granulation has been renewed, but not to any great extent. His condition is apparently fully as good as yesterday.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

Executive Mansion, 8:30 p. m.—The President passed a tranquil night, and this morning his condition is quite as favorable as yesterday at the same hour. Pulse 100, temperature 98.4, respiration 18.

Signed, D. W. BLISS, J. K. BARNES, J. J. WOODWARD, ROBT. REYBURN, FRANK HAMILTON, D. H. AGNEW.

UNOFFICIAL BULLETIN.

The surgeons regard the President's condition this morning with increased satisfaction and encouragement. The parotid gland has steadily improved in appearance, and it is thought the patient has in all other respects gained ground slightly.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.

Executive Mansion, 12:30 p. m.—At the dressing of the President this morning the parotid swelling was found to be discharging freely. It looks well and has materially diminished in size. The wound remains in about the same state. His general condition incidentally more favorable than at this hour yesterday. Pulse 95, temperature 98.4, respiration 17.

Signed, D. W. BLISS, J. K. BARNES, J. J. WOODWARD, ROBT. REYBURN, D. H. AGNEW, FRANK HAMILTON.

DR. HAMILTON'S VIEWS.

New York, Aug. 31.—A Washington special says Dr. Hamilton, who arrived this morning, was quite well satisfied with the condition of the patient, and the progress made was as great as he expected. He did nothing he thought to weaken his strength, and expressed the belief that the President will recover.

FAVORABLE AFTERNOON.
Executive Mansion, 4 p. m.—Dr. Reburn reports that the President has had a very favorable afternoon. He ate a plateful of soup about 5 p. m., and has twice to-day chewed a small piece of beefsteak and swallowed the juice. There has been no material change in his pulse or temperature, and all symptoms continue favorable.

BLAINE TO LOWELL.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—The following was sent this afternoon: Lowell, Minister, London: The President's condition is very encouraging to-day. His pulse is down to 95, lower than it has been for several weeks. Temperature and respiration normal. No adverse symptoms are apparent at this hour, 2 p. m.

Signed, BLAINE, Sec'y.

BLISS INTERVIEWED.
Executive Mansion, 2.15 p. m.—In an interview Dr. Bliss said the President's condition was highly satisfactory, and that he is making very favorable progress in every way. The parotid swelling has been reduced to two-thirds its maximum size, and steadily diminishing. The patient continues to take food well, and has made a slight gain in strength. The question of his removal from the Executive mansion is again being seriously considered. The President himself wishes to go to Monticello, but although he will doubtless be taken there eventually, the first removal will be to a shorter distance. It will take place at the earliest possible moment. The President's pulse at noon went down to 95 for the first time since the 8th of August, and is still below 100, with all other symptoms correspondingly favorable.

OFFICIAL BULLETIN.
Executive Mansion, 6:30 p. m.—The President passed a better day than for some time past. He has taken food with increased relish, and the usual afternoon rise of temperature did not occur. At the evening dressing the fluid used to wash out the parotid abscess found its way into the mouth, which it did not do this morning, showing that the opening into the mouth has spontaneously occurred. The abscess is discharging freely and the swelling continues to diminish. There is some increase in the discharge from the wound. Pulse 100, temperature 98.6, respiration 18.

Signed, D. W. BLISS, J. K. BARNES, J. J. WOODWARD, ROBT. REYBURN, D. H. AGNEW.

National Capital Notes.
TREASURY ITEMS.

Washington, Aug. 31.—The Secretary of the Treasury says no call for bonds is likely to be issued just yet as the continued bonds are the only ones which can now be called.

It is expected that the debt statement will show a reduction of $14,000,000 during August.

Twenty millions in gold were transferred to the New York assay office to pay for shipments of bullion.

DEVELISH GUTEAU.
Guteau writes as develish as ever. He has written a letter to the District Attorney in which he expressed his increased regret that he was not able to kill the President while in church and thus secure death on the instant. He says he is sorry that he suffers so much and a good deal more sorry that he is not dead.

Grant and Arthur.
Long Branch, Aug. 31.—The attention of General Grant has been called to various publications describing frequent visits on his part to Vice-President Arthur and consultations with the Vice-President and other public men in reference to the political contingencies at Washington. General Grant requested the announcement that there is no truth in any of the statements that he had been present at any consultation and knew of none. He had only seen General Arthur once since the attempt on the President's life, at a brief morning call about three weeks since and had met no one, the General continued, who showed a more profound and sincere sorrow for the President's condition than did the Vice-President.

General Grant did not believe there had been any consultations of the character described between General Arthur and his political friends. General Arthur could have no sane friend who would intrude in public upon him and he is the last man who would submit to such intrusions.

Arthur and the Republican Committee.
New York, Aug. 31.—Vice-President Arthur remained at home all morning and received but few callers. A majority of the members of the Republican State Committee assembled at their committee room shortly after 11 a. m., and discussed the time and place for holding a State convention. The prevailing opinion seemed to be that Saratoga or this city would be the place named. Some members were inclined to believe that Gen. Arthur would resign the chairmanship of the committee, while others claimed that his resignation would not be handed in. He did not put in an appearance when the meeting was called to order. Shortly after noon ex-Senator Platt was called to the chair, and the meeting now is in session with closed doors.

The Deed of a Desperado.
Albany, N. Y., Aug. 31.—The train from the north on the Delaware and Hudson Canal company's Railroad called upon to-day at a most exciting affair. When the train reached Corns, two men, supposed members of the Frowley and Magee gang, entered the car as passengers. The Chief of Police at Albany and Deputy Sheriff Post, of Saratoga County, were telegraphed for, and when the train reached Mechanicsville Post and an assistant boarded the train. Post walked up to one of the men and plucked the ticket out of his hat to see whether it read Albany or not. The man immediately drew a revolver and fired, inflicting an ugly wound.

Railroad War in Kentucky.
Mount Sterling, Ky., Aug. 31.—War has broken out between the surveyors of a coal road and the Georgetown & Paris road and the Governor will be called upon to smother the belligerents by sending up militia. The Frankfort party have been pulling up the coal road stakes and running the line of the Frankfort road in the same place. At Glade the Frankfort party blockaded the coal line corps by felling trees behind them so as to keep in advance. The Big Sandy track will be laid through this week.

Duncan Downs Lowrey.
Chicago, Aug. 31.—Early this morning James B. Duncan shot and killed a compositor on a morning paper, named Thos. H. Lowrey, who boarded with Duncan and was accused of improper relations with Mrs. Duncan. The room where the tragedy occurred bears signs of a bloody fight between the men. Duncan was arrested, but refuses to talk.

Colorado Killings.
GOV. EVANS' HOUSE ROBBED.
Denver, Aug. 31.—Governor Evans' house was robbed Monday night of seventy-five dollars in cash and jewelry worth about five thousand dollars. The loss was discovered next morning, and the police notified, but no clue to the robbers has yet been obtained. The matter was kept secret until to-day, when it leaked out.

A MURDERER BAGGED.
The News has a dispatch stating that Burt Wilkinson, the murderer of Osgary, the Marshall of Silverton, was arrested in the Needle mountains by Ike Stockton. It seems Wilkinson fired the fatal shot, and that Eskridge was not a party to the murder, which will account for Stockton, who is a friend of Eskridge, arresting Wilkinson.

It is also stated that Dyson Eskridge has been arrested by his brother Hargo. There is strong feeling in favor of lynching Wilkinson.

A SUICIDE.
Two men, while hunting in the vicinity of Sloan's Lake this afternoon, discovered a note lying on the shore among the fragments of a broken whiskey bottle. The note stated that the writer, who gave the name of Dave Stephenson, had committed suicide, and that the body could be found in the bottom of the lake with stones around the neck, and that his relatives lived east. The note was not dated, but from indications it was written very recently.

Watson Wants Redress.
New York, Aug. 31.—John C. Watson of Boston on behalf of himself and all other stockholders of the Manhattan Railway Company filed a bill of complaint to-day in the United States Court against the New York, Manhattan and Metropolitan Elevated Railway Company as receiver of the Manhattan Railway Company, or its receiver, such sums as may be found to be due, and that the same company may be decreed to deliver to the same to be cancelled 65,000 shares of capital stock of the Manhattan Railway Company; or in event of its inability to do so it may be ordered to pay to the Manhattan Railway Company the sum of $6,500,000 and interest thereon from May 20, 1879, and that the Metropolitan Company may be decreed to do the same.

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 31.—At a late hour last night while a party of farmers from near Lockport, a village a few miles south of this city, were swimming in the Wabash at Raymond's Riffle twenty miles south of here four of them, Henry Barkaw, Marshall Freres, Emory Lespie and James Rudisell, were drowned. The bodies of Barkaw and Rudisell have been recovered.

Whites With the Apaches.
San Francisco, Aug. 31.—A Deming dispatch says there is reason to believe that there were a number of white men in the bands of savages who made the recent raid in which Geo. Daly was killed. This is inferred from the language used by some of them. Also from the appreciation shown by them for specie and bank notes.

The Winchester Manufactory Explosion.
New Haven, Aug. 31.—The explosion occurred soon after 2 o'clock and was in the loading room of the factory. The cause was the explosion of a machine used in loading cartridges. The end of one story of the building was blown out and both side walls fell in. But few people were in that portion of the room.

Sent up for Ninety-Nine Years.
Shoales, Ind., Aug. 31.—Doctor Otto, who during last fall coolly and without provocation shot and killed his brother-in-law near Jasper was yesterday taken to Jeffersonville prison for ninety-nine years. On the way he manifested the greatest cruelty of purpose and gloried in his crime.

Wheat Crop Burned.
Shoales, Ind., Aug. 31.—About noon to-day a stand thresher belonging to Mr. Lilly, and working on the farm of Dick Graham, near Washington, Ind., set fire to some straw, and the machine and straw-stack and a crop of wheat were burned.

Iron and Steel Convention.
Philadelphia, Aug. 31.—The American Iron and Steel Association propose holding a convention which shall be a demonstration in favor of intelligent and equitable revision of the tariff laws.

Insanity.
We learn from a distinguished physician, who is in charge of a lunatic asylum, that the number of insane persons has very greatly increased during the last few weeks. In fact the asylums in the United States and in Canada have suddenly become more crowded than they ever were before.

The great cause of mental disturbance with these unfortunate persons is always related to the case of President Garfield, to the attack upon him, his illness, and the struggle between life and death which he has so long maintained.

Every one of the many persons who seem to be habitually living on a narrow margin between sanity and insanity, would appear to have now gone beyond the line, and to have become crazy from welling too much and too excitedly upon the sad condition of the suffering President.—New York Sun.

FREPPPEL TO BE MADE A CARDINAL.
London, Aug. 31.—It is announced that in the approaching consistory at the Vatican, Menseigneur Freppel, well known for his hostility to the French government, will be nominated Cardinal.

KAISER WILHELM.
Berlin, Aug. 31.—Emperor William was on horseback three hours yesterday, at the inspection of troops. He seems to have completely recovered from his recent illness.

A FAREWELL DINNER TO SOCIALISTS.
A farewell dinner to expelled Socialists, in which fifty persons intended to participate, was prevented by the arrest of all the guests, who, however, were released shortly afterwards.

Lord Holmesdale's late constituents have presented his wife, a great heiress (the last member of the Cornwallis family), with his portrait, regardless of the fact that it is not so very long since she tried her best to run away from him and "take up with" a gallant and fascinating captain. In fact, a detective was stationed to keep her in, and the captain out of it, her country seat, and it is asserted in London that she wrote her dreadfully dull she was with "none but Holmesdale and the detective." In fact, her husband's portrait was about the last her friends suspected her of wishing for.

The Dance.
The fire company gave a social hop last night in Fleck's new building. The party was an unusually pleasant one. The number present was large and all enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. The refreshments served were excellent. The lack of space prevents a more extended account. However, it is enough to say that all were well pleased and heartily joined in requesting the company to give another soon.

Fire broke out in the Baptist church last night at prayer meeting. The alarm was given and the fire company promptly responded. It took them but a few moments to extinguish the flames. The cause of the fire was the breaking of a lamp.
