

GAZETTE CLEANINGS.

Stoops & Bell yesterday killed twenty-five beavers.

Calvin Fisk sold $3,000 worth of property yesterday.

R. J. Holmes has moved into his new house on Central street.

Raton continues to grow. The coal fields of that vicinity will make her an important city.

Mr. Burton will take Conductor Leonard's run while he attends the convention at Chicago.

Are you out of employment? C. E. Wesche on the plaza wants a salesman—see want column.

The water wagon had a hard time yesterday getting around through the snow to serve patrons.

Mr. R. Powell, at the St. Nicholas Hotel, wants a lot of ox teams to haul logs. See the want column.

The daily circulation of the GAZETTE is constantly on the increase. It stands on its merits and speaks for itself.

No hacks were run to the Hot Springs on Thursday. Yesterday it took three and a half hours to make the first trip out.

The present snow did not extend as far south as Albuquerque. It is not known how far it extended north and east.

Cohn & Bloch are driving an excellent trade in clothing. The storm was an ill wind but it blew well for this house.

Billy Burton and Tony Baca donated the use of Baca Hall to the Hook and Ladder company at their recent entertainment.

The real estate men state there are quite a number of parties in the city looking for openings for business and investments.

There has been more cabbage raised in this Territory this season than in the three States of Iowa, Missouri and Kansas combined.

A force of men commenced early to remove the snow from the street-car track, and in the afternoon the cars commenced running again.

Pat Garrett's threshing machine was started out yesterday on its way to Roswell, some two hundred and twenty-five miles south, in the Peos valley.

Rice or Egyptian corn raised on the Arkansas River valley this season looks well. It makes a good yield per acre and is splendid feed for nearly all kinds of stock.

From a party just up from Socorro we learn that seven men were reported killed by Apaches when out about forty miles from Socorro on their way to the Black Range.

A couple of brakemen had a row in a caboose early yesterday morning and one was struck over the head with a poker, and is confined to his room in consequence.

Lute Wilcox, of the Optic, and B. E. Johnston, of the Hook and Ladder Company, had a little difficulty at the depot yesterday. Johnston knocked Wilcox over the optics. No serious damage.

Marcellino, Boffa & Perez are working up quite a large wholesale trade in musical instruments throughout the Territory. They yesterday shipped an organ to Wallace. They have just received another piano, and have two more on the way.

The clouds have at last emptied themselves of all the snow they could possibly contain and we now have fine weather overhead. As soon as the snow melts off everything will probably move smoothly on again.

Hogan brothers, at the Summer House, are delivering fruit and ornamental trees around town. They represent the Lee Summit nurseries, owned by Robert Watson & Co., Lee Summit, near Kansas City, Mo.

The Peos and Fort Bascom mails came in late yesterday. The deep snow along the river was the cause. Freight teams generally laid up until the roads get better. Stock is not reported as suffering any from scarcity of grass.

E. Huntsinger, of Frankfort, Indiana, writes for the GAZETTE "ad" rates and also inquires as to the circulation of this paper. We are happy to inform Mr. Huntsinger that the GAZETTE has the largest daily circulation of any paper in the Territory.

A little fracas occurred between two of the employes at Gross, Blackwell & Co.'s early yesterday morning. Some hard words and blows were indulged in and a six shooter was drawn by one of the parties, but they were separated and no one was shot, thereby spurring a good long time.

The street car line was in full operation yesterday afternoon. This institution, though quite young, has become an almost absolute necessity, so much so in fact, that its temporary suspension on account of the snow was greatly felt by the public. It looked nice to see the cars running as usual.

New Mexico will receive a large amount of the Western immigration this year. Her resources are just becoming known to the east and people will seek their fortunes in this direction. The partial failure of crops in the east this season will add greatly to the number of those who annually seek Western homes.

The New York Clothing House is beginning to loom up. The fine show windows and elegantly finished counters compare favorably with any store in the Territory. This firm was one among the first to start on the East Side and by a steady, straightforward course and liberal dealing, have worked up one of the finest trades in the city.

The Hookies Hot and Wilcox Warm.

Two hundred people crowded into Baca hall last night to see the presentation, by home talent of the drama "Among the Breakers." If the Optic was not charitably inclined the heavy villain and some of the other so-called actors would receive a "benefit" not bargained for. The part sustained by Mrs. Layton was well acted and that's about all we can say about the entire bill. It will be produced again this evening at Milligan's hall and having rubbed off the outside cover of stage fright the people in the cast will probably acquit themselves much more creditably. We hope so.—Daily Optic.

The members of the Hook and Ladder company consider the above article a direct insult, to the members of the drama and the company and such articles are detrimental to the interests of the city, therefore we take pleasure in denouncing Lute Wilcox the city editor of the Optic a public nuisance and a slyster.

B. E. JOHNSTON, C. C. HARRISON, ARCHIE L. ANGELL, J. E. MCCORMICK, C. M. MOSS, G. ROUNTREE, JR., CHAS. M. LIDDELL, F. E. EVANS, SAM'L GREY, FRANK R. LIDDELL, T. A. NETTERBERG, SAM YOST, H. P. SCHREIER.

We the undersigned citizens of Las Vegas regard the articles published in the Daily Optic respecting the Hook and Ladder Dramatic entertainment, as being unjust, impolitic, uncalled for and calculated to discourage the efforts of amateurs to entertain the citizens:

LOCKHART & CO. W. E. DELACY, A. B. SHIBLEY, ROUNTREE & HAWKINS, HUBERTY & ANGELL, T. A. NETTERBERG, LIDDELL BROS., W. M. WHITTELLAW, HOPPER BROS., M. M. MILLIGAN, J. H. PHILLIPS, J. C. MILLIGAN, C. M. LARSONS, JOHN ELSON, SAM'L BRYSOON.

Baca Hall. Some discussion has taken place in reference to the safety of Baca Hall, prompted apparently in an invidious spirit more than a desire to ascertain the real condition of the hall. The dictum of anyone not skilled in mechanics is of but little value in a matter of this kind and without the opinion of an expert, given after due examination, we can only judge of the strength of the building by its past history. The building is without doubt as strong now as it ever was. The floor is supported by iron trusses down the center which save the walls from pressure and it would almost stand without walls. The roof is a truss roof and this prevents any straining lateral pressure on the walls. It has been put to some severe tests. The drilling of the San Miguel Rifles, where they kept step, was a good test. At the reception of Domingo N. Baca it was estimated that 1200 people were present and dancing was indulged in. At numerous times it has been crowded to its utmost capacity and no danger was suspected until recently an impression has been disseminated to that effect. It would be well for the owner of the hall to consult such an impression to have it examined by competent engineers and duly reported upon. It is the largest and best audience hall in the Territory and it would be a pity to have its reputation injured without any foundation in fact.

Card of Thanks.

To the Citizens of Las Vegas: For the kind and brotherly sympathy and Christian love which the citizens of Las Vegas tendered my dear son during his last illness I wish to most sincerely and heartily thank them. I have been able to perceive the immensity of the service rendered only after a residence of several days with you. I also wish to include the brothers of the L. O. O. F. and all of the generous friends who soothed the last hours of my dear and departed son, I offer the profoundest thanks of a disconsolate family and sorrowing father.

Horse Race.

Messrs. E. Dewesse, of Watrous and M. G. Gordon, of the Hot Springs, have matched their horses for a race to be run at the Hot Springs race track on December 10th, at 2 o'clock p. m. for five hundred dollars a side. Two hundred and fifty dollars forfeit. The race is play or pay. This is likely to be one of the most interesting races ever run on this race track as the stakes are large and the horses the best the Territory affords at present. Sporting men should note the time of this race.

Journalistic Enterprise.

J. W. Barney has ordered a press and a full complement of type and other apparatus necessary for operating a paper at Mineral City. The paper is known as the Mineral City News, and will be devoted to the interests of the camp. Mr. Barney shows his usual enterprise in this undertaking and the GAZETTE takes great pleasure in wishing him the greatest success. It may be that this will prove the pioneer paper of a coming Leadville.

K. of P. Sociable.

We acknowledge the receipt of a handsomely printed invitation to attend a sociable to be given to-night at Schmidt's hall by Eldorado Lodge No. 1, K. of P. This will undoubtedly be a very successful affair as all the undertakings of this lodge are the best of Las Vegas society will be present and an enjoyable time will be had. Come one and all and take part in the enjoyments of the evening.

J. B. Wooten went to Santa Fe yesterday. He goes for the purpose of making the final settlement of the business connected with the hotel.
