

GAZETTE CLEANING.

Attend church to-day. Charlie Hfeld put in a telephone yesterday. Pacific express nearly two hours late yesterday. The Sumner House has received the long-looked for range. G. C. Smith states that he will have a big supply of Raton coal here Monday. J. C. Withers, son of Hon. J. C. Withers, of Missouri, died in Trinidad on the 25th. Work will be commenced Monday on the large reservoir above the Hot Springs for the water works. Rev. J. E. Cohonour will go to Santa Fe this week to aid in the organization of a Baptist church at that place. The people should not forget Hooper's new meat market on the plaza. He keeps choice meats of all kinds. A magnificent team of bay horses now pull the Adams Express wagon. They were brought from Kansas City. Roberts & Wheelock have four large buildings to finish cornice for. They are well prepared to do this kind of work. The ball at Raton tendered by the Raton Literary Club to Paul du Chailly takes place there next Tuesday evening.

The National saloon on the south side of the plaza, was sold yesterday to W. W. Rawlins and A. Kelly, who will take charge about December 1st. Only $36 to Paso del Norte and return during the progress of the "Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe." Get together advantage of the half fare and better. The water pipe was laid yesterday along Bridge street up to the Plaza. It is intended to have the entire water works system finished by February 1st. Tom Davis offers to wager one hundred dollars to one that he handles more hides and pelts than all the other houses in Las Vegas put together. We acknowledge the receipt of the wedding cards of Hon. L. Bradford Prince and Miss Beardsley, and wish the happy couple long years of matrimonial bliss.

A dispatch this morning says that the Atlantic & Pacific company voted yesterday to present work vigorously until the line from the Rio Grande to the Pacific is in operation. Capt. Marshall has been ordered from Ft. Leavenworth to this district to take the position of Chief Quarter Master, relieving Col. Lee, who goes to Buffalo, New York. J. W. Williams, Virginia, has been appointed the pastor of the M. E. Church, South, for Las Vegas. He intends to reach Las Vegas by the middle of December. The Eight Mile coal mine is showing up well. It is owned by Messrs. Holmes, Marens and E. Levy. Mr. Levy has some very nice specimens of coal taken from this mine on exhibition at the Sumner House. Pupils still come from all points to the Jesuit college. They have now sixty day boarders. El Paso furnishes nine pupils, and three sons of Dr. Samaniego, ex-Governor of Chihuahua, have recently arrived to attend school this year. The El Moro, Trinidad and New Mexico railroad company has filed with the Secretary of State the seal of its corporation. The seal consists of the letters E. M. T. & N. M. Ry. Co., and an article enclosing the word seal in the center.—Trinidad News.

Lockhart & Co. have established a new tin shop in a building in rear of Rathbun's shoe store. They have brought on a new and costly lot of tinners' tools and have engaged the services of Mr. Reinhold, of Denver, to take charge of the shop. They intend to push the fighting. The contributions already subscribed to the enterprise have been liberal. A little more aid, a few more hundred dollars subscribed, and it becomes a fixed fact that "Las Vegas has a female seminary," and the work of building will commence at once. J. J. Fitzgerald was taking depositions again yesterday. The cases before him were C. B. Holt vs. the A. T. & S. F. railway. M. Salazar, Esq., appearing for plaintiff, and Bostwick & Whitelaw for defendants, and A. C. "Skinner vs. John B. Bratton, Bostwick & Whitelaw for plaintiff. O. Newell of the Trinidad News, and wife came down yesterday and registered at the Sumner House. Mr. Newell is interested in a splendid copper prospect at Coyote, and has just been looking after the development of the mine. This mine shows well and will likely capture Mr. Newell and make a New Mexican of him. People from the Panhandle of Texas and the Pecos Valley compliment the GAZETTE on the full telegraphic and territorial news it furnishes them. In their distant places the telegraphic news is particularly acceptable as it arrives days before any other paper reaches them. That is sufficient reason for the steady increase of circulation among the substantial stockmen and business men of that extensive country east and south. People want news and appreciate it, and the paper which incurs the expense to furnish it. Jack McManus, the bold, bad, six-footer man whoshot Clancy at Wallace, and who was arrested three days ago for assault, yesterday stabbed engineer A. R. Cole in the abdomen with a pocket knife, inflicting a slight wound. McManus was locked up by Officer Franklin and will be tried before Justice Steele. We hope he will be sent up for a month or so.

AN ABLE ARTIST.

A Peep into the Studio of N. H. Tallman. Yesterday, at the suggestion of a friend, we leisurely dropped into the rooms of N. H. Tallman, the excellent crayon artist from Peoria, Ill. The visit paid us well, for there we found portraits of some of our well-known citizens, which in finish, appearance, expression and naturalness can be surpassed by no crayon artist anywhere. He has finished portraits of F. A. Manzanares, Miss Cora McCoy, Mr. A. F. Jilson, and Mr. W. M. Williams. That of F. A. Manzanares is a panel portrait, standing figure, three-fourths length, and 25x40 inches in size. The expression is excellent and the whole appearance is exceedingly life-like. The portrait of Miss Cora McCoy is a most excellent one, very finely finished with a dark background. The features are well defined, the expression pleasant. It could not be improved upon in our judgment. The bust size portraits of Messrs. A. F. Jilson and W. M. Williams are just as natural as life and would be immediately recognized by their acquaintances anywhere. Mr. Tallman brought out several portraits of persons in the East which are also samples of his artistic work. His studio, in the first residence east of the bridge on the north side of the street, is open for visitors at all times during the middle of the day, and he most cordially invites everyone to call and examine.

Anxious Inquirers. In yesterday's mail J. J. Fitzgerald received letters containing the following facts: Garrett T. Dorland, a wholesale jeweler of Cincinnati, writes that he wants to invest in Las Vegas property. He will start for this city about January 1st. C. C. Comstock, manufacturer and dealer in lumber and woodware, at Grand Rapids, Michigan, writes that he will soon come to Las Vegas to locate. He makes extensive inquiries about business openings, etc. J. J. Hickman, Columbia, Mo., makes inquiry about the stock and ranch business. James T. D. Wilson, mayor of Houston, Texas, writes a lengthy letter, asking many questions, particularly about stock.

CHURCH SERVICES. METHODIST. Morning services at 11 o'clock, conducted by Rev. D. M. Brown, pastor. Rev. W. W. Welsh, of the M. E. Church, South, will preach in the evening at 7 o'clock. The Sunday school at 3 o'clock in the afternoon will be interesting. S. J. Fleming, superintendent. PRESBYTERIAN. Services this morning at 11 o'clock. Evening services at 7 p. m. Sunday school at 9:15 a. m. BAPTIST CHAPEL. Sunday school at 10 o'clock this morning. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. J. E. Cohonour at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Subject for evening sermon, "Address to young ladies and gentlemen." A cordial invitation to all. PRESBYTERIAN MISSION. Services by Rev. L. Vargas in the West Side Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m. CATHOLIC. First mass held on Sundays at 9:30 a. m. Week days at 6:30 a. m. FEMALE SEMINARY. The Project Meeting with Very Good Support.

The project of establishing a female seminary in Las Vegas is progressing finely. The more the subject is agitated the more it grows in favor with the people, and there is an almost unanimous desire among all classes for such an institution of learning. We are informed that there are already quite a large number of young ladies and girls ready to enter the school. All through the adjacent country governesses are employed in families because there are no suitable schools to which the children can be sent. Its urgent need is everywhere felt, and doubtless it will be crowded with students as soon as the building is ready for their reception. The influence it will wield in favor of our growing city will be great, morally, financially and intellectually. In addition to being a seat of learning for the culture of our own city students, it will attract them from all points in the Southwest to this most central point, and must necessarily be the source of very great benefit to the city, as all like institutions are. The fact that "in Las Vegas is located a fine female seminary," will do very much to keep up the good name of our city.

Heise & Strauss are preparing to at once commence the erection of a large two-story stone building adjoining the GAZETTE office on the west. It will be built of stone, iron front, 25 feet front and 75 feet deep. Ground will be broken in a few days for the new building. The new buildings which will soon be erected on Bridge street will make it one of the best in the city. Roberts & Wheelock have a nice hotel annunciator which they will put in the Plaza Hotel when that building is ready for use. It is an electric bell annunciator and is a very ingenious instrument. A person in any certain room touching the key, which connects with the instrument by means of a wire, will ring a bell and at the same time expose the number of his room in the annunciator so that the porter can tell at which room his services are required. J. F. Burcher in the Optic block keeps the best stock of cigars in the city; "such," he says, "as Grant smok, ed before the war, and such as he would have smoked had he obtained a third term."

Hubbell returned from Bernalillo yesterday, where her son was buried last week. Mr. Perea and wife, her daughter and son-in-law, returned with her. Col. J. Kiser, Emporia, Kan.; Geo. F. Shorb, Chicago; Thos. E. Gaines, Kansas City; Ben. Mauz, St. Joseph; J. C. Cerf, and J. Thompson Lindsey, St. Louis, are stopping at the St. Nick. Lieut. A. E. Wood of the 4th Cavalry drops us a note from Fort Stanton, saying that I, B. and D. companies had arrived there on the 17th, from Camp Apache. They had a long, hard march through snow and rain part of the time. The many friends of Lieut. Wood in Las Vegas visiting Stanton will be glad to meet him there.
