

"Once More to the Front!"

New York Clothing House
Albuquerque and Deming
Bed Rock Prices

The Agents for Devlin & Co.

Burt & Mear's Celebrated Hand-made Boots and Shoes.

Come one! come all!
Latest styles this Fall,
Our new House is open,
The fresh stock unbroken
Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes
In any shape you choose,
None lower than our margin—
Go to the New York Clothing
House to Bargain.

Gardner & Gillies, Prop's

BROWNE & MANZANARES

PLOWS, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS, &c.

ROBERTS & WHEELLOCK

STOVES AND TINWARE

Plumbing Goods, Steam Fittings, Gas Fixtures.

Cornice Making a Specialty

A. R. AREY

All Kinds MATTRESSES All Kinds

Bed Springs of all Kinds, Pillows of all Kinds,

Wholesale and Retail.

DO YOU REALIZE

M. D. MARCUS

CLOTHING!

M. D. MARCUS

HOPPER BROS.

Staple & Fancy Groceries

Boots Shoes and Gents' Furnishing Goods.

Hy. Hysinger, Eugene Clemm

Commercial Agent.

At Lowest Market Prices.

NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

The Chili-Peru Enlargement Growing More Mysterious.

One Hundred Sweeds and Irish Inaugurate a Riot.

An Attempt to Murder an Iowa Farmer near Benington.

Ruben Evans' Fatal Fall from a Church Steeple.

Angry Doings of a Defendant in a Divorce Suit.

Orrin C. Thomas Examined on Grave Robbing and Murder.

A Ticket-Scalper Fined $500 and Imprisoned One Year.

The Chili-Peru Entanglement.

Terrible Riot.

Desperate Encounter.

Oath Required by a Gypsy Bride.

Stuck on a Crowbar.

Iron Market.

Likely to Be Lynched.

Horse Thief Recaptured.

Telegraphic Sparks.

The Mon. James B. Beck last night received the unanimous vote of the Democratic caucus at the Kentucky Legislature for United States Senator.

Albert Meek, a citizen of Peru, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by shooting. The ball, however, entered the outer membrane of the stomach, inflicting a wound which will not prove fatal.

The Cincinnati Price-Current estimates that the total amount of pork packing in the West up to December is 560,000 pounds short of last year, and that the end of the season will show a falling off of 1,000,000 pounds.

An Orange Court House, Virginia, despatch announces that Montpelier, formerly the home of President Madison and began a trade of abuse upon the women. The latter left the car and the defendant followed them. Mr. Bussing, who stepped up, said to the defendant that if he did not move on he would be arrested and taken to jail. He sharply rebuked Mr. Bussing and said that if he attempted to interfere he would blow his brains out. Mr. Bussing accompanied the ladies to the District Attorney's office, and then sent a man home with them.

Philadelphia, Pa., December 6.—In the case of Sylvester F. Wilson, charged with railroad-ticket scalping, the jury returned a verdict of guilty. In 1873 a law was passed by the Pennsylvania Assembly making this practice illegal. The Judge, in sentencing the prisoner, said: "The crime for which you have been convicted is an artificial one, as I remarked before, and under ordinary circumstances I would impose a slight sentence upon you. But after repeated warnings you have boldly and defiantly violated the law. I therefore find it my duty to punish you to the full extent of the law. The sentence is that you pay a fine of $500 and undergo imprisonment for one year in the county prison."

Attempted Murder.

Des Moines, Iowa, Dec. 6.—At 6 o'clock last night a farmer named Wagner, who lives alone not far from Benington, nearly lost his life. One Johnson entered his house, and after some talk, asked Wagner for a duplicate receipt for money he had paid Wagner. Suddenly Johnson drew a revolver and fired, the ball scraping Wagner's skull. Johnson pulled the trigger again but the weapon missed him when Wagner seized a piece of wood and drove Johnson out. Wagner then ran to a neighbor and gave alarm, but so far Johnson is not arrested.

Long Terms.

Nokomis, Illinois, Dec. 6.—John Brown, alias Dillon, who was arrested in Chicago a few days ago, charged with robbing Ezeiel Perrine, a farmer near Morrisonville, of $7,000, and Henry Ewing, colored, who was arrested in St. Louis, were found guilty in Hillsboro to-day and sentenced to the penitentiary at Joliet, the former for twenty and the latter for nineteen years. Ewing is reported to want to go to Peru, but his sentence would be much lighter. About $2,000 was recovered. Perrine, his wife and daughters, were gagged and bound.

Grave Robbery and Murder.

Buffalo, N. Y., Dec. 6.—Orrin C. Thomas was again examined in the Police court on the charge of murder, and discharged for the want of evidence. He was immediately rearrested on a bench warrant issued by the Court of Sessions, on the charge of grave robbery and murder, and will be examined on that count to-morrow. The case grows more exciting daily. Intense popular excitement is manifested in favor of the prisoner.

Bradford, Pa., December 6.—One hundred Sweeds and Irish, working on the grade of the Pittsburg, Bradford & Buffalo railroad, visited Kane last evening to see the foreman regarding the wages. They got drunk and inaugurated a terrific riot, employing clubs and stones. A Swede named Brandt was killed and three others fatally wounded. The officers are hunting for the guilty parties.

Galveston, Texas, December 6.—A News' Navasota special says a desperate encounter took place at Grahall, Washington county, between Wm. Bass and "Drink" Kay on one side, and Wm. Roe and "Old" Barber on the other. Roe was mortally wounded by Kay. Barber was shot through the shoulder and lung by Bass, and is lying in a hopeless condition.

Lafayette, Ind., Dec. 6.—Last evening E. M. Weaver and Elizabeth Stanley, members of a band of English gypsies encamped near this city were married by Justice Weaver. Before the ceremony the bride compelled the groom to swear on the Bible that henceforth he would not touch a drop of intoxicating liquor unless presented to him by her.

St. Louis, Dec. 6.—A special to the Republican says two men named Hunt and Dinkin, between whom an old feud existed, met on the road, two miles from Ellipton, Andrew county, to-day, and after some hot words, Hunt shot Dinkin through the head, killing him instantly. Hunt surrendered to the authorities.

Borden-ton, December 6.—Ruben Evans, employed in repairing the steeple of the Marlton (Burlington County) Baptist church, a few weeks ago, fell from the steeple upon an iron crowbar which penetrated his breast and came out at his neck. He died at his home to-night.

Louisville, December 6.—The iron market is firm, but without any change in prices. Sales have not been large in consequence of the indifference of views between buyers and sellers.

In provisions the demand during the past week has shown some improvement. The tendency of the market is upward.

Bloomington, Ill., Dec. 6.—A tramp painter named Vance this morning committed a dreadful outrage upon the ten-year-old daughter of F. Hecker, at Miner, in Tazewell county. He was arrested and identified, and it is not unlikely that he will be lynched to-night.

Memphis, Ill., Dec. 6.—The horse thief, Joseph Jones, who escaped from Warren county, Tenn., some months ago, was recaptured by Sheriff Bond at New Sharon, Iowa, and brought here on a requisition to-day.

Thirty-five manufacturing firms in Dubuque are rated in Dunn's commercial report at over $3,000,000.

The customs officers at Prescott have made extensive seizures of American coal-oil smuggled into Canada the past few days. The oil was found in casks, garrets, pig-pens, and other hiding places.

The Mon. James B. Beck last night received the unanimous vote of the Democratic caucus at the Kentucky Legislature for United States Senator.

Albert Meek, a citizen of Peru, attempted to commit suicide yesterday by shooting. The ball, however, entered the outer membrane of the stomach, inflicting a wound which will not prove fatal.

The Cincinnati Price-Current estimates that the total amount of pork packing in the West up to December is 560,000 pounds short of last year, and that the end of the season will show a falling off of 1,000,000 pounds.

An Orange Court House, Virginia, despatch announces that Montpelier, formerly the home of President Madison and began a trade of abuse upon the women. The latter left the car and the defendant followed them. Mr. Bussing, who stepped up, said to the defendant that if he did not move on he would be arrested and taken to jail. He sharply rebuked Mr. Bussing and said that if he attempted to interfere he would blow his brains out. Mr. Bussing accompanied the ladies to the District Attorney's office, and then sent a man home with them.

Philadelphia, Pa., December 6.—In the case of Sylvester F. Wilson, charged with railroad-ticket scalping, the jury returned a verdict of guilty. In 1873 a law was passed by the Pennsylvania Assembly making this practice illegal. The Judge, in sentencing the prisoner, said: "The crime for which you have been convicted is an artificial one, as I remarked before, and under ordinary circumstances I would impose a slight sentence upon you. But after repeated warnings you have boldly and defiantly violated the law. I therefore find it my duty to punish you to the full extent of the law. The sentence is that you pay a fine of $500 and undergo imprisonment for one year in the county prison."

Shroud-d in Her Wedding Clothes.

The entire community has just been saddened by one of the most terrible mistakes that are constantly occurring in every part of the country, but from which Fargo has until now had a blessed exemption. Thursday afternoon, while all in the little city were engaged in the festivities of Thanksgiving day, while dinner parties were being given, and merry groups were gathered around many a hospitable board, while preparations were going on for theater parties, festivities and concerts in the evening, a heartrending tragedy was being enacted at one of our most popular hotels. A fair young girl in all the bloom and beauty of life's golden morning, was innocently and carelessly dooming herself to death.

The First Fellow She'd

"'Twas a dull, heavy evening of a dozen gas jets along the street served to make the haze and fog visible. The clock just struck five and a half past, and with the usual 'No-o-o' replied a sweet voice from the parlor, 'we won't sit here!' said she in an undertone. 'Not if I know it,' was the reply. 'If the old folks are going as usual, I guess I'll skip it now,' and reached for his hat. 'See here,' and the girls eyes gleamed with earnestness. 'You've the first fellow I've had, and you've got to put down that and sit up,' and court me in good shape. I am hon'ed, I know, but I can build better bread and iron a better pair of stockings, and make one dollar and thirty-seven cents go further than any girl's donations. 'That suits me exactly,' and his hat flew into the corner, and that evening the details of the wedding were all arranged. He depended on a girl as smart as that to get the best of the old folks.

Western Journalism.

The journalism of the West differs from that of the East in this very pronounced and strong particular. It is more intensely active. It does more in one day than the journalism of the East does in one month. This will account for the fact that while the journals of the West are powerful, it is at the same time more rugged and less finished. An editor in New York, Boston or Philadelphia writes one or two leaders a week, while his counterpart in the West writes two or three a day, and paragraphs from forty to sixty subjects at the same time, besides reading his own proof when it is read and writing business notices, personals, book reviews, local occurrences, attending societies, meeting and giving speeches, running political campaigns, attending to a half dozen mines, looking after the family marketing, nursing the baby and attending his better half on her shopping excursions and charitable expeditions among the poor. Besides this, he is expected to entertain visitors, talk up the town, expatiate learnedly on the geological features of the mountains, the difference between contact and true fissure, mineral in place, in pockets and in lodes.

Indeed a Western, or rather, a mountain editor is a "rara avis" if he fills the bill at all. His brother at the East has at his elbow all the adjuncts, a fine library, an encyclopaedia, or at least a Webster's Unabridged. Where is to be found a mountain editor who has any of these things, or having them, who has the time to profit by them? And this same Western might get more solid "cessing" in his "rara avis" in this way than anything else he could get. He caters for a class of intelligent, positive and self-assisting people, who are thoroughly "up" in all the subjects interesting to active people, and who to the time and worn out with work, who, having the headache or any other of the thousand and one ills human flesh is heir to, and who attempts to palm off a little bosh on occasion; these astute readers and astute philosophers will pounce down on him in a jiffy, and he is either bounced or so he devils as that he is on his knees praying ardently for one of those high mountains to fall upon him and hide his shame or misery from human eyes.

A Connecticut woman was appointed Constable the other day, and the first thing she said was, "Now I shall catch a man."

The Congregationalists are doing energetic missionary work in New Mexico, Dakota and other Territories. At Santa Fe they have opened an institute, which is to be the academic department of the University.

Rev. Chas. E. Stowe, son of Harriet Beecher Stowe, is likely to be installed pastor of the Congregational church in Saco, Maine. Some of the elder members have expressed doubts as to his orthodoxy, but the younger party consider him sound.

If the nation must devote itself to mocking Mrs. East, why not start a subscription for the purpose of securing for her a life-size portrait of that amusing little gentleman, Guineau?

Comforting: "Mr. Boatman," said a timid woman to the ferryman who was rowing her across the river, "are people ever lost in this river?" "Oh, no, ma'am," he replied, "we always find 'em again within a day or so."

The Countess Maria Teresa Serugo Alighieri Gozzadini has died at Bologna. She was a lady of superior education and was a descendant of the great Alighieri.

Vice Versa: The glove-makers say that deer skins are scarce, and we suppose scarce skins are dear. You can always judge a tailor by the make he wears, and a potter the ware he makes.

"Billy, the Kid," was not the son of William the Great. Indeed, no one ever knew whose son he was, and now they will care less.

He that does good for good's sake seeks neither praise nor reward, though sure of both at last.

Something Contingent.

Some contingencies of the day. A loco that burns water burns a gas supply of water, and twenty with four com one of these water into the others an medicated contact of the oxygen of the latter, when reached 400 degrees of hydrogen prod of 8,000 degrees cent far more than can be by the most perfect e distributed by pipe common boilers, and copper ones, and will great rapidly. Some of this machine over use, will be that it will smoke and cinders; that two cents a mile, when a motive coasts fourteen miles an hour, and a sixty miles an hour, and done in a few moments, single make. The new e to haul a train of Pullma New York to Chicago, a company has already offer for the use of the process o and the offer has been refus Journal.

The First Fellow She'd

"'Twas a dull, heavy evening of a dozen gas jets along the street served to make the haze and fog visible. The clock just struck five and a half past, and with the usual 'No-o-o' replied a sweet voice from the parlor, 'we won't sit here!' said she in an undertone. 'Not if I know it,' was the reply. 'If the old folks are going as usual, I guess I'll skip it now,' and reached for his hat. 'See here,' and the girls eyes gleamed with earnestness. 'You've the first fellow I've had, and you've got to put down that and sit up,' and court me in good shape. I am hon'ed, I know, but I can build better bread and iron a better pair of stockings, and make one dollar and thirty-seven cents go further than any girl's donations. 'That suits me exactly,' and his hat flew into the corner, and that evening the details of the wedding were all arranged. He depended on a girl as smart as that to get the best of the old folks.

Western Journalism.

The journalism of the West differs from that of the East in this very pronounced and strong particular. It is more intensely active. It does more in one day than the journalism of the East does in one month. This will account for the fact that while the journals of the West are powerful, it is at the same time more rugged and less finished. An editor in New York, Boston or Philadelphia writes one or two leaders a week, while his counterpart in the West writes two or three a day, and paragraphs from forty to sixty subjects at the same time, besides reading his own proof when it is read and writing business notices, personals, book reviews, local occurrences, attending societies, meeting and giving speeches, running political campaigns, attending to a half dozen mines, looking after the family marketing, nursing the baby and attending his better half on her shopping excursions and charitable expeditions among the poor. Besides this, he is expected to entertain visitors, talk up the town, expatiate learnedly on the geological features of the mountains, the difference between contact and true fissure, mineral in place, in pockets and in lodes.

Indeed a Western, or rather, a mountain editor is a "rara avis" if he fills the bill at all. His brother at the East has at his elbow all the adjuncts, a fine library, an encyclopaedia, or at least a Webster's Unabridged. Where is to be found a mountain editor who has any of these things, or having them, who has the time to profit by them? And this same Western might get more solid "cessing" in his "rara avis" in this way than anything else he could get. He caters for a class of intelligent, positive and self-assisting people, who are thoroughly "up" in all the subjects interesting to active people, and who to the time and worn out with work, who, having the headache or any other of the thousand and one ills human flesh is heir to, and who attempts to palm off a little bosh on occasion; these astute readers and astute philosophers will pounce down on him in a jiffy, and he is either bounced or so he devils as that he is on his knees praying ardently for one of those high mountains to fall upon him and hide his shame or misery from human eyes.

A Connecticut woman was appointed Constable the other day, and the first thing she said was, "Now I shall catch a man."

The Congregationalists are doing energetic missionary work in New Mexico, Dakota and other Territories. At Santa Fe they have opened an institute, which is to be the academic department of the University.

Rev. Chas. E. Stowe, son of Harriet Beecher Stowe, is likely to be installed pastor of the Congregational church in Saco, Maine. Some of the elder members have expressed doubts as to his orthodoxy, but the younger party consider him sound.

If the nation must devote itself to mocking Mrs. East, why not start a subscription for the purpose of securing for her a life-size portrait of that amusing little gentleman, Guineau?

Comforting: "Mr. Boatman," said a timid woman to the ferryman who was rowing her across the river, "are people ever lost in this river?" "Oh, no, ma'am," he replied, "we always find 'em again within a day or so."

The Countess Maria Teresa Serugo Alighieri Gozzadini has died at Bologna. She was a lady of superior education and was a descendant of the great Alighieri.

Vice Versa: The glove-makers say that deer skins are scarce, and we suppose scarce skins are dear. You can always judge a tailor by the make he wears, and a potter the ware he makes.

"Billy, the Kid," was not the son of William the Great. Indeed, no one ever knew whose son he was, and now they will care less.

He that does good for good's sake seeks neither praise nor reward, though sure of both at last.

J. J. FITZGERRELL, THE LIVE REAL ESTATE MAN

Las Vegas, N. M.

J. J. Fitzgerald, the live real estate man, has for sale a large number of business and desirable residences in different parts of the new and old portions of the city. Business changes, business and dwelling houses, should call on Fitzgerald; he can accommodate them.

A Rates: 800 DOLLARS will buy a Choice Business Lot on Douglas Street.

180 DOLLARS a month, for twelve months.

350 DOLLARS will buy a Good Four Room House, near Main Street.

300 DOLLARS will buy a Choice Lot on Main Street.

1000 DOLLARS will buy a Choice Corner Lot on Douglas Street.

700 DOLLARS will buy a House and Lot on Main Street, renting for Twenty Dollars a month.

1800 DOLLARS will buy two of the Best Business Lots on Douglas Street.

13000 Dollars will buy a Magnificent Well Watered and Sheltered, under wire fence.

15000 will buy six choice residences Lots.

600 DOLLARS will buy a house and two Lots.

200 DOLLARS will buy a choice residence Lot.

1,000 DOLLARS will buy one of the best Business Lots on Railroad Avenue.

3 HUNDRED DOLLARS will buy a three-room house with Lot near the Depot.

$2,100 will buy two houses with three bedrooms, fronting on the Park. A great bargain. Renting for $30.00 a month.

A BARGAIN! Will sell a valuable inching lot at a great price on account of sickness. Inquire of J. J. Fitzgerald, the live real estate man.

$1250 will buy an elegant four room house in the best order, renting for $20.00 a month.

$650 will buy a nice residence on Main Street, renting for $10.00 a month.

$1800 will buy a good hotel on Railroad Avenue, renting at $40.00 a month.

$1900 will buy one of the best business houses and two lots on Douglas Street.

$250 MONTHLY PAYMENTS $250 will buy centrally located. Enquire of J. J. FITZGERRELL, the live real estate agent.

4,000 DOLLARS will buy a fine new city.

1500 DOLLARS will buy a splendid new residence, on Douglas Street, two rooms, renting for $20.00 a month.

6,500 Dollars will buy one of the best single lots in the territory, together with a fine view of fine land, business and a fortune.

70,000 the largest and best of old residence, eight miles of fine front; natural springs, well watered and the best stock ranges in the world. Grant title perfect.

$200 will buy two lots on Zion Hill, a splendid bargain.

$450 will buy a good new three room road depot and round house.

20,000 Head of sheep for sale on the best of the best range.

$2,500 will buy one of the best and most desirable houses in the city, with a fine view of the city, and a fortune.

Also have for sale several live stock ranges in the different portions of the Territory.

A number of desirable business houses on the different business streets of the city, also offices, restaurants and saloons. If you want to rent property call on J. J. Fitzgerald.

Remember that the best business chances are always to be had by calling on J. J. Fitzgerald, the live real estate agent, office on Grand Avenue.

2,000 head of best improved cattle for sale. For particulars inquire of J. J. FITZGERRELL, the live real estate agent.

WANTED—A first-class dressmaker. Apply at this office.

WANTED—A couple of passengers for White Oaks before Thursday. 12-6-81

WANTED—A good cook at the Michigan House, opposite depot.

WANTED—Everybody who likes a good meal, and a good bed to sleep in, to come to the Superior Hotel, South Side Plaza—11-20-81

WANTED—To buy and sell second hand goods. Will buy and sell at reasonable rates. Money advanced on goods at a reasonable rate. I also make furniture repairing a specialty. Noil O'Connell, first building east of the bridge.

WANTED—A gentleman wishes a single room, furnished, preferably with a respectable family, where he can have breakfast. East Side. Apply at Mr. Browning's residence.

FOR SALE—One bed room set, one Queen Anne parlor set, two carpets and one mirror at bargain. Inquire at the Delmonico restaurant, East Las Vegas. 12-7-81

FOR SALE—A lot of good horse and mules. For particulars call at the Exchange corner, west of the Plaza. 12-6-81

FOR SALE—W. J. Colvin has a lot of good horses for sale at the Exchange corner. 12-6-81

FOR SALE—Native shingles can be found at wholesale prices. At the Plaza, at 12-6-81

MERINO WOLVES—100 for sale cheap. Apply to Hirth Brothers & Co., Glen Murr Ranch, Catron. 10-17-81

FOR SALE—Canary birds, singly or in pairs. Apply to Mrs. Potter on the street, west of the National Hotel. 11-26-81

FOR SALE—1000 cedar posts. Apply to George Ross, or at Lockhart's store. 10-27-81

FOR RENT—Furnished rooms. Apply to Mrs. Judge Hubbell opposite Fitzgerald's office. 12-5-81

FOR RENT—Bucc Hall, for balls, parties, entertainments, lectures, etc. For terms apply to Will C. Burton, Agent and Manager.

ROCO AMELIO, Dealer in

STAPLE & FANCY GROCERIES

FRESH FRUIT AND VEGETABLES

TOBACCO, CIGARS AND NOTIONS.

BEST NATIVE WINE

Always On Hand

SOUTH SIDE, Op. 1st Nat'l Bank

A fine lot of holiday gifts at See wald's. No article misrepresented.

Notice. All persons knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Grant & Co., will please come and settle at once as there will be a change in the firm by January 1st, 1882. 12-11-81

The carpenters are arranging Lockhart & Co.'s store for the reception of their immense display of silver plated ware, glass and China goods for Christmas presents. 12-3-81

The Topekas House is now enjoying a good run, and is open day and night. F. M. DUNLAP, Night Clerk. 12-4-81