Las Vegas Gazette.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 17, 1884.

THE CITY.

Let's have a smelter.
Mud 'till you can't rest.
Ice skates are in demand.
No more sleigh rides, girls.
Heavy wind, sure thing, today.
Dr. Gould is confined to his room.
Notice the new "ads" this morning.
Fresh home made candies at Cooper's.
The World's fair opened yesterday at New Orleans.

Our retail market report will be found on the third page.
The prevailing winds of last evening melted the snow considerably.

Cash paid for county scrip by Calvin Fisk, opposite GAZETTE office.

A cookie stands no show as compared with a corn-cob. Eh, George!

"The Beautiful" is rapidly fading before the earnest glare of Old Sol.

One week from tonight will be Christmas eve. Hang up your stocking.

Our item of express receipts is furnished us by the agent of the company.

Gross, Blackwell & Co. loaded a prairie schooner yesterday, destined for Mora.

A public reading room is as essential to a city as a chicken ranch. Let's have both.

If not before, do it now—bank up your house and live comfortably through the winter.

The merry jingle of the sleigh bells is heard no more, but the hash-house bell is still heard.

Tom Harper was resting quite easily yesterday and will soon be out with his friends again.

Hose company No. 1 is making preparations for a grand masquerade ball for Christmas.

Of course you attend the ball this eve, that is if you were so fortunate as to receive an invite.

The Golden Rule will give you your choice at about your own figures for cash. See their ad.

Billy Cooper, the Sixth street taffy man, is busy making up a superb stock of home made candies.

Hill played the heavy father and stern parent to perfection yesterday in giving away the bride.

Our enterprising merchant Wyman offers everybody rare bargains in holiday goods. See his mammoth ad.

No merchants' express yesterday. The train reaching here passed through Kansas Sunday, and that's God's country, you know.

The brewery has a large force of men at work just north of town, sawing and storing ice for the summer trade and for its own use.

Prof. De Garmo came up from Albuquerque yesterday and met his scholars of the light fantastic art at the Opera house last evening.

Few passengers by the varnished coaches yesterday. The freight line is very popular with a good portion of the transit travel nowadays.

The doctors and druggists will be very sparing with their Christmas presents this season. Business is too dull with them to be extravagant.

All members of the P. O. S. of A. are requested to be at their hall Friday night. Nomination of officers and other important business to dispose of.

W. H. Shupp received a car load of fine buggies yesterday. They are of the best make. Parties intending to buy should apply soon, before they are all disposed of.

The girls are busy making stockings as large as wearing bags. Surely they don't intend wearing them, but they are all deceivers. We bet they are to hang up Christmas eve.

Mrs. W. K. Holmes lost a pair of gold bowed nose glasses last Friday somewhere between her residence on Seventh street and the depot. The finder will be liberally rewarded by returning the same to the owner.

We are pleased to note that the efficient superintendent of the water works has accepted our advice in protecting the fire plugs from the cold weather. Barrels have been placed over the plugs and well packed with straw.

Endowment rank, K. of P. All members of section 513, E. R. K. of P., are requested to be present at the annual meeting for the election of officers, December 19, at 7:30 p. m. C. C. Geist, president; F. W. Barton, secretary.

Arrangements are being made for Christmas trees. Ladies have been around soliciting funds with which to purchase presents for the little folk, and we understand they were very successful in their canvass. The Las Vegas merchants are a most liberal class of men.

Pounder & Mendenhall, the Sixth street numbers, have dissolved partnership by mutual consent. Mr. Pender will go it alone in the future.—Ottie.

Little late, neighbor, in the announcement. The GAZETTE gave full particulars a last week.

Pishon-Emmett.

All fashionable Las Vegas was out yesterday to witness the marriage of Mr. J. S. Pishon, of the First National bank, this city, and Miss Mary Emmett, sister of Mrs. J. W. Hill. The ceremony took place in St. Paul's chapel, and was performed by Rev. La Tourrette. The chapel was crowded to its utmost capacity long before the hour announced for the event to take place, 1 p. m., but in due time the bridal party arrived, as was plainly discerned by the flutter of excitement that went through the audience. First appeared the groom, attended by Mr. C. F. Allen, best man, and directly thereafter the bride, gracefully leaning upon the arm of her brother-in-law, Mr. J. W. Hill. The attendants were Miss Pishon of Boston, sister of the groom, escorted by Mr. C. G. Gise, and Mrs. Hill, escorted by Mr. H. C. Joy. As the party passed up the aisle the wedding march was played, when was conducted the impressive ceremony pertaining to the Episcopal church.

The bride was very neatly attired in a wine-colored satin trimmed with broad-corded velvet, hat to match, diamond ornaments. Miss Pishon wore a wine-colored silk trimmed with plush velvet, and Mrs. Hill was attired in black silk, scarlet trimmings. The gentlemen wore the conventional black.

The ushers were Messrs. Henry Doid and Fredson. The ceremony passed off with the utmost precision, and all maintained their parts well.

Immediately upon the conclusion of the marriage rites the bridal party and a few invited friends were driven to the residence of Mr. Hill and there partook of an elegant spread, the happy pair while receiving the congratulations of all. Numerous costly and useful presents were exhibited, and after a hurried leave taking the newly wedded drove to the train, accompanied by friends, and departed for Minnesota, the home of the bride. From there they will visit Mr. Pishon's old home, Boston, returning in a few weeks to make Las Vegas their place of residence.

Mr. Pishon is one of our most promising young men, and holds a place in public confidence and esteem any person might well be proud of. He certainly has a bright and useful business career before him, and all will most heartily join in the wish that his happiness of yesterday may remain undimmed till the close of life. The bride has been in our midst but a few months, but in that time has succeeded in making herself a universal favorite in society. More than one young gentleman in our city envies Mr. Pishon his rare good fortune in securing so estimable a bride.

May your joys never cease.

PERSONAL PENCILINGS.

A. B. Taylor and wife leave for the south this morning.

Chas. Blanchard, our enterprising merchant, has returned from his business trip to Kansas City.

Hon. S. W. Fisher is in the city from Santa Fe. He is the internal revenue collector for this district.

J. W. Sheridan and newly wedded wife took their departure yesterday for Independence, Kan., where they are to remain permanently.

Don Eutimio Montoya, San Antonio, one of New Mexico's solid citizens, who has been in the city for several days, returned home by last night's express.

C. C. Hall departed for the south yesterday. Our southern exchanges are cautioned against referring to him as a bad man. He's a razor eater, so he is.

Rev. J. A. La Tourette, of Fort Union was in the city yesterday, for the ostensible purpose of tying the Pishon-Emmett nuptial knot. His wife accompanied him.

Dr. John R. Papin, late of St. Louis, has taken up his home with us and established himself in office over Labadie & Romero's store, southwest corner plaza. Heartily welcome.

Columbus Moise and wife returned Monday night from a six weeks jaunt all over the United States. Mr. Moise was back at his desk yesterday and appeared as natural as if he hadn't been away.

M. M. Porter an old time resident of Silver City, passed through yesterday, destined for his home at Denver. Mr. Porter has been to the Gila river, Grant county, looking after his extensive stock interests of that section.

W. E. Howard, the traveling man who makes this city his home and headquarters, left for the north yesterday. His wife leaves on Friday, meeting him at Trinidad, and they will pay their respects to Kansas City. From there they will return via the Santa Fe and continue their journey through to the Pacific, visiting San Francisco and other points, returning home about January 10.

Parents should caution their children against putting stones in the fire plugs. The little chaps uncrew the tops of the various plugs, particularly on the east side, and cram them full of stones, thus making it an impossibility to turn on the water without first taking these obstacles out. In case of a fire the building would be destroyed before a stream could be turned on.

The children must have candy during the holidays, and as this eastern manufactured stuff is full of poisonous coloring the only resort is Cooper's store on Sixth street. His stock is made by himself of pure granulated sugar and no injurious ingredients are used.

Knights of Pythias of El Dorado lodge No. 1. All members are requested to be present at the regular meeting on December 17, 7:30 p. m., as officers for the term are to be elected. A full attendance is requested. E. G. Murphy, C. U.; F. W. Barton, K. of R. & S.

The wagon road between the city and the Springs was reported in a very bad condition yesterday. Two mule teams were stuck near the railroad hospital, and the teamsters had to ride in on a mule and leave the wagons behind them.

RAILROAD RUSTLINGS.

The railroad hospital is now caring for twelve patients.

A number of delayed freight trains arrived last evening.

Yesterday morning's express from the south pulled in one hour late.

Byron Schermerhorn passed through yesterday afternoon for headquarters.

Mr. Windom, of Gila river, unloaded six cars of fine stock at Lordsburg last week.

Seventeen car loads of coal were ordered by the company yesterday from La Junta.

Dad Tabor punched the tickets on the delayed passenger train yesterday going south.

Yesterday morning's express from the north, due here at 8:50, arrived five and one-half hours late.

Conductor Roberts went down to the Bernal stock yards yesterday afternoon with an extra of twelve cattle cars.

Train 103 pulled out yesterday with a double-header. The Glorieta grade is a little slippery since the fall of snow.

A fast mail train on the Burlington & Missouri railway will carry Chicago mail to Denver in twenty-four hours.

General Hazen, chief of the United States signal service, predicted a strong wind all along the Santa Fe last night and today.

Superintendent Dyer came down from the north Monday evening, going back yesterday morning again to clear the track of snow.

J. S. Moye, foreman of the fuel service, departed yesterday by 102 for Carthage, Missouri, to bury his little boy, who died in this city Monday.

Byron Schermerhorn, superintendent of the eating houses along the line, received the sad intelligence yesterday of the death of his brother, at Hudson, Michigan.

J. A. La Rue and others will ship twelve cars of cattle today from the Bernal stock yards, destined for Kansas City. This will probably be the last cattle shipment this season.

Mrs. Fisher and daughter passed through for the south yesterday, en route for Rincon, where herself and sons will take charge of the eating house. The boys passed through last week.

The snow blockade is chiefly above Tiptonville, extending about four miles in length. One snow plow will remain at Watrous and another at Springer, so in the future there will be no delay in plowing open the line.

Trainmaster Rain and Superintendent Dyer went up the road yesterday morning, in combination car No. 3, to oversee the work of cutting through the snow drifts. They returned yesterday afternoon.

It is said that Las Vegas will have stock yards in the spring.—Leader.

True, quite true, and the GAZETTE and the railroad company are to blame for it, contrary to the jealous howl of the contemporary notwithstanding.

A neat little sixteen page pamphlet has gone through the Aztec press, giving a full description of the town of Magdalena, at the terminus of the Magdalena branch of the A., T. & S. F. railroad.—S. F. Leader.

Messrs. Brant and Cunningham, from the Springs, failed to connect at the depot yesterday afternoon with the train going out, and having business of great importance to look after, they tried to secure the service of the switch engine.

Trainmaster Rain and Superintendent Dyer were both up the road, and no one at the office had the authority to make such an order. Well, walking's pretty good, anyway.
