A heavy storm in the east and on the plains last night seriously interfered with the telegraph wires and cut short our usually interesting report. The wires worked fairly between this city and Denver, but east of that they were terribly demoralized.

The item traveling the rounds of the territorial press relating to the death of the brother of Judge Waldo and credited to our evening contemporary was written for and published in this paper about a week ago. Don't claim any great credit but simply mention it by the way.

As quite a number of the articles offered at the bazar were not sold, another opportunity will be given the public to enjoy pleasant company and to purchase goods for less than real value. The sale will be continued this afternoon at the residence of Bishop Dunlop. Prices thought too high will be reduced. All are invited.

Two men, names not definitely learned, engaged in a shooting match at each other all around the plaza park at about 2 o'clock this morning. No injury was done but they succeeded in scaring a hack team which, starting up, threw the driver, Billy by name, under the wheels and very severely injured him in the face. The team ran through town to Mendenhall, Hunter & Co.'s stables. The belaguerers hid out and could not be found. About a dozen shots were fired altogether.

A party of prospectors for water on the San Augustin plains about sixty miles southwest from Socorro sunk an artesian well to the depth of 284 feet. The water rose in the well to within fifty-four feet of the surface. Having struck a valuable vein of mineral, they suspended boring and set to work sinking a shaft for the mineral.

Annual Meeting of E. Romero Hose Company. The regular annual meeting of the E. Romero Hose company was held last evening at the fire house. There was a full attendance of members and much enthusiasm manifested.

The company was never in a more efficient condition than at the present time. It numbers twenty-eight of our most active and public spirited young men who are ever ready to answer the alarm and rush to the rescue of an endangered town. The report of the treasurer showed the company entirely out of debt with a surplus of $80 in cash on hand. It is certainly a matter of pride and satisfaction to the town that we can boast of such an excellent fire company.

To Mr. Benigno Romero for his gift of a beautiful banner. To the Colorado Telephone company for substantial favors.

To THE GAZETTE and Optic for liberal gratis advertising of our recent musicale and ball.

Last but not least to the good people of Las Vegas, who by their generous patronage of our entertainments have shown a thorough appreciation of our efforts to make our organization first class and self sustaining.

William M. Sloan, Esq., the young attorney, is returning from Santa Fe by the old stage road, driving Colonel Breeden's fine blooded bay colt to a sulky. He will keep the animal here this winter and train him.

The second section of train No. 101 was three hours late. Too much load for one horse the principal cause. Chief Justice Long was advertised to be aboard and of course he was, but being wrapped in the arms of Sonnius, THE GAZETTE's representative did not have the honor, etc., Doubtless the weighty documents and remnants of ponderous decisions which his judgeship carries in his vest pocket are what caused the train to be delayed.

Governor Ross' Reply to Colonel Breeden.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE, TERRITORY OF N. M., SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 24, 1888.

Wm. BREEDEN, Esq., Santa Fe, N. M. DEAR SIR—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of 18th inst., in response to my official notification of your suspension from the office of attorney general of the territory, of date the 13th inst., for cause.

Permit me to suggest, with due deference to your distinguished position at the bar, as a citizen and as my late legal adviser, that your derisive hilarity does not comport with the gravity of the case, and that your elaborate argument of the legal aspects of the controversy is ill-timed and superfluous, as the courts are fully competent to and will determine all the legal points involved, in proper time, and independent of newspaper discussion.

As to the "cause" for your suspension permit me to say, and without intention of giving personal offense, but for the vindication of a public act, and in conservation of the public interest, that you were suspended for drunkenness, licentiousness, gambling and misfeasance, malfeasance and nonfeasance in office; crimes which ought not to be tolerated in a public official.

As a public office is a public trust, so a public official is a public exemplar. The private life of a public official is as much public property as his public life. No man who habitually infracts the laws of sobriety or decency is fit for public trust. This you have done; therefore I suspend you from office.

Should you desire more definite specification as to the "cause" of your suspension, I shall be happy to oblige you at the proper time.

As you deemed it proper to furnish the press with a copy of your communication, to which this is an answer, I trust you will pardon me, for taking the same liberty.

Very respectfully your ob't servant, EDMUND G. ROSS, Governor.

Yesterday Fred I. Hooper completed the sale of his ranch and stock in this county, including the well known BOX brand, to Guyard C. Allen and John R. Womer, two enterprising young stock men from Texas. The consideration named was $20,000.

Sudden Changes. If the body receives daily a proper amount of nutrition, and daily expels the worn-out parts, health is the certain consequence; but by a sudden change of weather the pores of the skin may not perform their office well, and matters are retained which should have passed off by that avenue. All causes which impede insensible perspiration are fraught with danger, because matters which should have passed away through the skin are returned again into circulation. Brandreth's pills will remove all impurities, from whatever cause they may come, curing pain, inflammation and colds arising from above causes in a few hours.
