SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 28.

In the senate today Senator Mitchell made a memorial submitted by the conference of New York Methodist Episcopal church, praying for protection for the Chinese in the United States. He recited statements of the memorial referred to, which charged, among other things, that Chinese subjects had been put to death in Oregon, and the property of Chinese subjects destroyed. No such thing had happened in Oregon. The statement of the memorial, so far as Oregon is concerned, was a fiction. Eastern newspapers, eastern men, and even eastern statements wronged Oregon and the whole Pacific coast on this question. The press of the country was in main honest, and entitled to the confidence of the country, but there were exceptions. He attributed much of the misrepresentation to newspaper editors in Oregon, whose papers he named and whom he characterized as "distinguished politicians." Referring to the alleged insult to the Chinese minister, he said it would be found on investigation that no insult had been offered. It was an idea in the east that the people of the Pacific coast were not well disposed toward the Chinese government. This was another misrepresentation. There had been a proposition made in the press that the chairman of the foreign relations committee of the senate should go to the railroad depot to receive the new Chinese minister. Had such a thing ever been done before? Has anyone ever proposed that our officials should meet the new British minister on his arrival? Had any hulla-balloo been raised about other ministers? He criticized the committee on foreign relations for not having reported his immigration prohibitory bill and warned the senators on both sides of the chamber, he would press that bill and they would have to come squarely up to the mark, and could not escape the question.

The postoffice appropriation bill was taken up. Mr. Hatch, of Missouri, from the committee on agriculture, reported a bill defining butter and imposing a tax upon and regulating the manufacture, sale, exportation and importation of oleomargarine. Referred to committee of the whole.

At the conclusion of the morning hour the house went into committee of the whole on the river and harbor appropriation bill. The paragraph making appropriation for the improvement of Yellowstone river having been reached, Mr. Beach, of New York, said three years ago he had tried to catch fish in that river and his efforts had been as fruitless as this appropriation would be to improve its navigation. The Yellowstone was a beautiful river, its waters were like those of the Blue Jayata, and as they leaped tumultuously over gravelled beds, they gleamed in the sun shine with a silvery gleam which attracted and fascinated the eye, but the course of the stream was crooked, and a swift current threw up shoals.

Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, offered an amendment providing for an expenditure of the appropriation for improving the Missouri river from its mouth to Sioux City by the secretary of war without the intervention of the Missouri river commission, which he attacked. Pending a vote on the amendment, the committee rose and the house adjourned.

Jefferson Davis' Speech.
MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 28.—It has been raining continuously since Monday and the plan of having the address of Mr. Davis and General Gordon delivered at the fair-grounds near the city at 11 o'clock had to be abandoned. The address will be delivered from the steps of the capitol this afternoon. Davis will stand on the same spot upon which he stood when he took the oath as president of the confederacy. The streets will be roped off and policed for several blocks, in the vicinity of the building, so no admission tickets will be necessary in order to see or hear satisfactorily. Davis has been very quiet and secluded all day, receiving only old acquaintances and special friends.

Mr. Davis said: My friends, I would be vain if I should attempt to express to you the deep gratification which I feel at this demonstration, but I know it is not personal and therefore I feel more deeply gratified because it is a sentiment far dearer to me than myself. You have passed through a terrible ordeal of war which Alabama did not seek. When she felt her wrongs too grievous for further toleration, she sought a peaceful solution; that being denied her, thunders of war came raining over the land, then her people took up arms in majestic grandeur and beardless boys eagerly rushed to the front. It was that war alone which Christianity approved, a holy war for defense. Well do I remember seeing your boys, so small, to use a farmer's phrase, they might have been called corn, moving on with eager step and fearless brow to the carnival of death. I have no look on my face when their knapsacks and muskets seemed heavier than the boys, and my eyes partaking of a mother's weakness, filled with tears. Those days have passed. Many of them have found nameless graves, but they are not dead; they live in memory and their spirits stand out in grand reserve of that column which is marching on with undiminished steps toward the goal of constitutional liberty. It were in vain should I attempt, as I have already said, to express gratitude to you. I am, expressing now very nearly on the spot where I stood when I took the oath of office in 1861. Your demonstration exceeds that which welcomed me then. This shows that the spirit of southern liberty is not dead. Then you were full of joyous hope, you had every prospect of achieving all you desired, and now you are wrapped in the mantle of regret; and yet that regret is only manifest more profoundly and does not obliterate the expression of your sentiments.

I felt last night as I approached the Exchange hotel from the gallery of which your peerless orator, William L. Yancy, introduced me to the citizens of Montgomery, and I commended me in language which only his eloquence could yield, and which far exceeded my merit; I felt, I say again, that I was coming to my home; coming to a land where liberty dies not and serious sentiments will live for ever. I have been promised, my friends, that I should not be called upon to make a speech and therefore I will only extend to you my heartfelt thanks. God bless you, one and all; old men and boys, and the ladies, above all others, who never faltered in our direst needs. When he returned Davis was so loud and long that Mr. Davis had to go to the front again. He bowed his acknowledgments and thanked the southern half of Governor O'Neal, when it was possible to be heard, made a handsome speech in reference to the cause of the gathering and of the love of the people; of the right feeling toward statesmen, and soldiers of the south, and introduced General Gordon, the orator selected to deliver an address, as in Mr. Davis' feeble condition it is understood he could only speak a few minutes. General Gordon received a grand welcome, as many of the soldiers that he commanded in the late war were present.

Hamilton County Election Frauds.
COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 28.—Reports of the investigating committee in the Hamilton county senatorial contests have been completed and an agreement entered into by party sections on the committee that they shall be submitted to the senate tomorrow, to be printed and come up for final action next week. The Republican members review the frauds in Hamilton county in general, and concentrate on 1,285 and of the Republican candidates 170, and electing all Republican senatorial candidates. The report of the Democratic members claim there were both Republican and Democratic frauds, and state that under the second proposition adopted by the committee of six, which provided that in precincts where frauds were committed by others than the officers of elections, the committee should ascertain the extent of such frauds and eliminate them, and the fraudulent votes in four Democratic precincts, including Precinct A, Fourth ward, and in nine Republican precincts should be thrown out. Throwing out these thirteen precincts a majority of about 1,000 is given for the Democratic sitting members, and they find that the Democratic members are entitled to seats. The reports agree in some respects as to the precincts which shall be thrown out under the rules.

Street Car Strike.
BUFFALO, April 28.—The street car drivers and conductors have made a demand for a reduction of hours from thirteen to twelve per day and an increase of pay for conductors from $1.80 to $2.00 per day. The drivers ask that thirty-five cents per day at the present rate be retained by the company until the end of each year, when it to be paid in a lump if a driver holds his place for that length of time. The company pays them monthly. It is believed a settlement will be reached without a strike.

Business Letter.
NEW YORK, April 28.—A special to the Evening Post from Boston says: President Adams, of the Union Pacific, has returned from the west. He says he found business generally better than he expected, but corn fails to move, and undue stimulation given by low rates, has destroyed the transient continental business for a time. He expects a recovery soon, but thinks the through Pacific business will be light for the next six months, and that passenger rates will never be fully restored.

Shipment of Blooded Horses.
NEW YORK, April 28.—Eleven carloads of trotting stock, shipped by Senator Stanford, from California, April 20, to Peter C. Kellogg & Co., have reached New York and are stabled at the American Institute building. Three stops only were made for rest, the last at Council Bluffs. The special train followed the limited express closely, making passenger time, and ninety-seven horses arrived in good condition. Six died at Salt Lake City from cold taken in the mountains. This is said to be the largest shipment ever made so great a distance.

Shot by Lynchers.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 28.—Meredy Jones, a notorious negro, was killed by a mob last night near Auburn, Ky. Monday night Jones entered the room of two respectable white young ladies and tried to chloroform them. He was discovered, but escaped, and was captured by officers, who were taking him to jail when the mob seized Jones to hang him. He attempted to escape and was shot down.

Report Denied.
GALVESTON, April 28.—It is reported here yesterday that the executive board, district assembly 78, Knights of Labor, now in session at Fort Worth, had issued an order raising the boycott against the Mallory steamship lines. The officers deny such an order has been agreed upon, but state the executive board are discussing some contemplated action in the matter.

The Eight Hour Law.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., April 28.—A mass meeting will be held Saturday evening on behalf of the proposed eight hour system, which it is intended to inaugurate on May 1st. Carpenters, shoemakers, cigarmakers, stonemasons and bricklayers will on that day strike unless their demands are granted. Many contractors are opposed to the movement.

Trial Set.
NEW YORK, April 28.—The trial of Henry W. Jaehne, the alderman accused of accepting a $20,000 bribe from "Jake" Sharp, is set for May 10th.

WASHINGTON WAITS.
The house committee on territories today ordered an adverse report on the senate bill to admit the southern half of Dakota. The report will not be made until action is taken on other bills regarding the admission of Dakota.

The American Historical association today appointed a committee of five to urge upon the president the necessity of an international celebration to celebrate the four hundredth anniversary of the discovery of America.

A Washington special to the Evening Post says: Protectionists claim that the defeat of the tariff bill is assured. They have not decided whether they will endeavor to strike on the enacting clause or defeat it on its merits. Supporters of the bill do not express their opinions as to its fate. Protectionists claim absolutely twenty-five votes against the bill.

The proposed redemption of the trade dollar was again considered by the house committee on coinage, weights and measures today. The proposition submitted as an amendment to the bill, providing the amount redeemed should come out of the monthly billion purchase, was rejected by a vote of six to three, as follows: Bryan, Snow, and Felton, Norwood, and McCreey voting against; Seymour, James and Little in favor. Further consideration of the trade dollar question will take place tomorrow.

About fifty gentlemen representing the dairy interests of all sections of the country, were today before the senate committee on agriculture to advocate the taxation of manufacture and sale of imitation butter, and their regulation by the internal revenue bureau, under a license system. Several representative dairy men, and business men addressed the committee. Further hearing of the same subject will be given by the committee tomorrow.

FOREIGN FLASHES.

PARIS, April 28.—Dispatches from Athens state that Greece will not disarm unless the ultimatum sent by the powers is withdrawn. It is also said that King George threatens he will abdicate unless the ultimatum is withdrawn.

LA LIBERTAD, April 28.—Further news of the wreck of the Pacific Mail steamer Honduras, states that she was wrecked early Sunday morning. Twelve hundred bags coffee were lost, and the baggage of the passengers.

LONDON, April 28.—A dispatch from Athens this morning says: The Greek government insists upon the withdrawal of ultimatum, as it is maintained, the ministry will resign as a protest against a menace to the independence of Greece as implied by the ultimatum of the powers.

ATHENS, April 28.—The Greek government has telegraphed all its representatives abroad that the assurances of Greece has given to France about keeping peace and disarming ought to suffice without more being demanded by the powers. It is believed here that the ministers will resign unless the powers withdraw their ultimatum.

ROME, April 27.—The pope, complying with the request of the queen regent of Spain, today invested the cardinal Jacomini, papal secretary of state with the order of the Golden Fleece, which the queen conferred upon him for his services in connection with the Caroline dispute between Spain and Germany. The cardinal gave a banquet this evening to the diplomats accredited to the vatican.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28.—China mail advices say: The Chinaman, Angtai Duke, who so foully murdered Capt. and Mrs. Wickersham, in Sonoma county, California, while employed as their cook, and who escaped to China, committed suicide in Victoria, B. C., on the night of March 29, by hanging himself to a peg in his cell.

Seeking a Settlement.
ST. LOUIS, April 28.—The Post-Dispatch prints in its latest edition a paragraph stating that the preliminary steps have been taken by the citizens' committee to terminate the strike, and the prospects are that their efforts will be successful. A meeting of the committee will be held tonight to draw up a series of resolutions, which will be sent to the executive board of Knights of Labor, in which they will request the board to declare the strike off, they (the citizens' committee) pledging themselves to stand by the Knights and to use every exertion possible to either bring about arbitration or to secure the re-employment of all strikers who have not committed offences against the law or railroad company.

Base Ball.
LOUISVILLE, April 28.—Louisvilles, two; Pittsburg, one.
BALTIMORE, April 28.—Baltimore, seven; Athletics, eight.
NEW YORK, April 28.—Metropolitans, three; Brooklyns, four.

Don't Want the Label.
ST. LOUIS, April 28.—Bakers, confectioners and shoe manufacturers of this city have declined to accede to the demand of the Knights of Labor that they adopt the union label. Serious trouble among employes in various factories seems imminent.

Another Rate War Probable.
CHICAGO, April 28.—It is stated that the Union Pacific and Burlington & Missouri roads, taking umbrage at the action of the Atchison in lowering rates to Southern California, will inaugurate a new cut in passenger rates to San Francisco.
