F. L. BOND,

THE WELL KNOWN Furniture Manufacturer, Begs leave to return his sincere gratitude to the citizens of Edgecombe and its vicinity, for the very liberal patronage that has been extended to his father, and hopes that the desire hitherto manifested to serve the public, will merit a continuance of their patronage.

From the long continued illness of my father, (that the business may go on punctually,) it has become necessary for me to discontinue my business in Goldsboro' and return to the long-established stand in Tarboro'.

From a desire on the part of my father I have become sole proprietor of the FURNITURE MANUFACTORY.

so well known by the citizens of this and the neighboring counties—and would say, that I shall continue to manufacture Furniture in every variety and style that would please the eye and heart of all Adam's race. Also I would say to the wearied, come and I will give you rest on those fine cottage and French Bedsteads, that are now going off as rapid as hot buckwheat cakes do of a cold morning at the magnificent Edgecombe Hotel.

Also I will show you other styles of Furniture, that are not going off quite so fast, and a few articles like old man Dogan's horse, when he had one thousand green pine rails upon him—but they are few. For particulars see advertisement in another column. March 3, '52.
