NOTICE.

$10 Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscriber, on the 1st day of April, 1852, a mulatto fellow named Jerry Manly, as he calls himself, and says that he is a free man, but his papers have never been seen. Said boy is about 30 or 32 years old, and has a free woman for his wife—the woman is well known by the name of Nancy Reed, she has a sister in the neighborhood of Tarboro', and Logsboro', and no doubt they are lurking in that vicinity. The boy was raised in the town of Louisburg, N. C., and has a mother and several brothers in that place. The above reward will be paid for his delivery to the undersigned at Rocky Mount, or any jail so that I can get him again.

F. L. BOND,

THE WELL KNOWN

Furniture Manufacturer,

Begs leave to return his sincere gratitude to the citizens of Edgecombe and its vicinity, for the very liberal patronage that has been extended to his father, and hopes that the desire hitherto manifested to serve the public, will merit a continuance of their patronage.

From the long continued illness of my father, (that the business may go on punctually,) it has become necessary for me to discontinue my business in Goldsboro' and return to the long-established stand in Tarboro'.

From a desire on the part of my father I have become sole proprietor of the so well known by the citizens of this and the neighboring counties—and would say, that I shall continue to manufacture Furniture in every variety and style that would please the eye and heart of all Adam's race. Also I would say to the wearied, come and I will give you rest on those fine cottage and French Bedsteads, that are now going off as rapid as hot buckwheat cakes do of a cold morning at the magnificent Edgecombe Hotel. Also I will show you other styles of Furniture, that are not going off quite so fast, and a few articles like old man Dogan's horse, when he had one thousand green pine rails upon him—but they are few. For particulars see advertisement in another column. March 3, '52.
