A Mass Meeting

OF the Democracy of Pitt and the adjoining counties will be held at GREENVILLE.

On Friday and Saturday the 24th and 25th inst.

Messrs. SAUNDERS, DOBBIN, BUSBEE, BIGGS, WARD, NORFLEET and other distinguished speakers will be present.

A Fine Band of Music will be in attendance.

JOHN I. FOREMAN, Marshall.

The Democracy aroused.

We are happy to publish the above notice of an anticipated Mass Meeting at Greenville. The hearts of the people are with us, and all that is necessary, is to keep them awakened to a sense of the duty of voting.

Cannot Edgecombe make a rally? We have heard something of the kind mentioned, let us hear from you Edgecombe wheel-horses. Suggestive communications will be thankfully received. Suppose old Halifax and Edgecombe harness up as mates. Speak out, gentlemen.

Congress.

This body adjourned on the 31st ult. Just before its adjournment, it passed the River and Harbor Bill, containing an appropriation of $20,000 for the Cape Fear River. Also, a bill for the relief of the Wilmington and Manchester Rail Road. Also, a new postage bill, by which, we perceive, all papers of usual size circulate free of postage within the county where they are printed, and within the State for the small sum of 13 cents per year in advance, or 26 cents if not in advance.

Our readers must be sure to read the article, headed "The South," on our first page. It is another emanation from that very reasonable journal, "The Herald of the Union"—and contains a good deal of real hard yankee sense.

Dr. D. G. W. Ward of Greene, democrat, and F. B. Satterthwaite Esq., of Pitt, whig, have been appointed Electors for the Eighth District.

STRABANE, Mr. Wm. F. Dancy's plantation has been disposed of privately.

The Southern Planter,

Published at Richmond, Va., is a very valuable Agricultural Journal. We have made several selections latterly from its pages, which we hope our readers have noticed and which we hope may induce them to give it that patronage, which all southern Agricultural papers deserve specially at their hands. Its editor's name, Rufin, should commend it to every farmer. Terms, $1.

The Musical World.

We would call the attention of our female readers to this interesting weekly, published by T. & W. Willis, No. 257 Broadway, New York. It contains the musical news, criticisms on musical performers and articles on the Fine Arts generally, besides four pages of choice music each week—all for $3 per year, 2 copies for $5, or 5 copies for $10.

As an incentive to increase their list, they now offer to send the next volume to any one, who may get them even one subscriber.

Destructive Freshet.—We stated in our last, that there was a Freshet in the Roanoke, that the water was in the Lowgrounds, and was still rising.

We are pained to have to state today, that the water continued to rise until it got within a few feet of being as high as it was in 1850. Consequently, the Crops now, as they were then, have been destroyed on the River. We are obliged to learn, however, that the Farmers on the River will make a support, and probably some to sell.

Roanoke Rep.

The Yadkin river, N. C. was higher last week than it had been in 67 years before.

That Enfield Demonstration.—Perhaps to counteract the effect of the Demonstration by the Democracy of Goldsboro', the Whigs attempted a similar one at Enfield at the same time. We learn that it was altogether a failure, only a small crowd comparatively being present, and none of the distinguished speakers announced for the occasion at all. Speeches were delivered by Gen. Dockery, and Messrs. Barnes and Ransom. Gen. Dockery, of firmness of purpose and strength of intellect' notoriety, was the great gun. & he, the Whigs say, had much better have kept his mouth closed.—Messrs. Barnes and Ransom made respectable speeches, and but for them, the speaking would have been altogether a failure.—Gold. Rep.

58 Democrats and 62 Whigs—making, on joint ballot, 86 Democrats and 84 Whigs.

Another National Convention.—The friends of Mr. Webster, in Boston, have adopted a resolution recommending that a National Convention be called, at some place to be hereafter designated, for the purpose of nominating Hon. Daniel Webster, of Massachusetts, as a candidate for President of the United States, and such other gentlemen as may be agreed upon by the Convention for a candidate for Vice President.

Pierce's Slanderer Rebuked.—Col. Haskell, Whig Elector in Tennessee, rebukes the defamers of General Pierce in the following language: "I would consider myself personally disgraced did I stoop to the humiliating business of insinuating cowardice against General Pierce, whom I know to be a brave man, chivalric in his conduct on the field of battle. Others may pursue that course which their feelings dictate, but for myself, I would spurn the thought did it obtrude itself upon my mind."

A correspondent of the Ob-servator vouches for the merit of the following recipe for making vinegar: Take and mix one quart of molasses, three gallons of rain water, and one pint of yeast. Let it ferment and stand for four weeks, and there will have the best of vinegar."

A free negro, on his return from the North to New Orleans, writes to the N. O. Christian Advocate: They charged me like a nigger, and treated me like a nigger, and that way of doing ain't fair.'

Earthquake.—The shock of an earthquake was felt at Hamburg, Aiken, and other places on Wednesday morning last. The shock lasted from 30 to 40 seconds, and was preceded by the usual rumbling noise.—Cheraw Gazette.

One of the Speeches.—After the meeting had left the ground at Carthage, on Saturday, and were congregated at the hotels waiting for their carriages, John S. Backingham, of Symmes, drove up in his wagon, held up his horses, drew off his coat, rolled up his sleeves, and sang out:—

Fellow Citizens: I am a friend of Gen. Scott; and have admired him as a military man; I always would mourn his loss to the country as sincerely as any man. Now, fellow citizens, if you are as friendly to this great General as I am, it is your duty to go to the polls and vote for Gen. Pierce to be President; for the Whigs killed Gen. Harrison, and then they killed Gen. Taylor, and now they are pursuing the same game to kill Scott. Fellow Citizens, save him—vote for Pierce.—Cin. Eny.

THE HARVEST AT HOME.

The New York Express of Saturday says:—The grain harvest throughout the United States is now about over, and by intelligence gathered from our exchanges, from all sections, it is quite certain we shall have a full crop of all the great staples of the country. In the Northern and Eastern country, however, the corn crops will be a partial failure, owing to the protracted drought which prevailed all through July; but the unusually large yield in the Southern and Middle States we have reason to believe, will fully make up the anticipated deficiency.

FOREIGN.

ARRIVAL OF

The Steamer Arctic.

Latest from Europe.

New York, Sept. 6.—The steamer Arctic arrived here at 11 1/2 o'clock last night. She brings Liverpool dates to the 25th August, being three days later, and one hundred and seventy passengers, among whom is Madame Sontag, the great vocalist.

The general news unimportant. The weather continued favorable and the harvest promising.

The Liverpool Cotton market was quiet, with a downward tendency, but prices remained as quoted by the America. Fair uplands, 6 1/2; middling, 5 1/2; Orleans fair, 6 1/2.—The sales of four days were 20,000 bales, of which, speculators took 5000. The Havre Cotton market was steady. Business in the manufacturing districts steady, but not quite so active.

Breadstuffs.—The Flour market was less firm, and prices declined during the four days 3/6d. per bbl. Wheat has declined 1d. per bushel; Indian Corn declined 3/6d. per quart.

Provisions were less active, and indicated a slight decline.

ARRIVAL OF THE DANIEL WEBSTER.

Ravages of the Cholera on board the Golden Gate, &c.

New Orleans, September 4.—The steamship Daniel Webster arrived here to day from San Juan de Nicaragua, bringing a fortnight's later intelligence from San Francisco, and Panama dates to the 29th of August.

The trip of the Daniel Webster has occupied but twenty and a half days, and is the shortest ever yet accomplished. The Webster brings 150 passengers, who have about $100,000 in gold. They report the San Juan river in excellent condition, and the country healthy, no deaths by cholera, fever, or kindred diseases having occurred.

There are frightful reports of the ravages of the cholera among the seven hundred troops on board the steamer Golden Gate (before reported from Panama for San Francisco.) A portion of her passengers were transferred to the steamer Columbia, which had arrived at San Francisco.

The mining intelligence owing to the dryness of the season is less favorable; but rich discoveries of gold have been made on Klamette, Salmon and Rogue rivers.

The U. S. frigate St. Lawrence had arrived at San Francisco.

Business at San Francisco continued good, and prices for most descriptions of merchandise were without material change.

Political matters occupied the attention of the community to a considerable extent, and number of meetings had been held by both whigs and democrats preparatory to a Presidential campaign.

At Sacramento, an angry political discussion had taken place between Hon. E. Gilbert, member of Congress, and General Deane. A challenge passed between them, and a meeting took place. Mutual friends endeavored to effect a reconciliation, but without effect. They fought, and the forms er was unfortunately killed. Several cases of lynching had occurred at Marysville, but no executions were reported. A man named Henderson, belonging to New York, was so severely whipped that his life was despaired of.

Two or three fires had occurred, but no serious harm was done.

Accounts from San Diego state that a court martial has been convened for the trial of the murderers of Col. Craig.

The gold diggings at San Antonio have proved remarkably rich, many of the miners are averaging from $30 to $40 per day.

RELIGIOUS NOTICE.

REV. JAMES L. COTTEN will preach at the New Church on Town Creek, on the 3rd Sunday inst.

POISONING.

Thousands of parents who use Vermifuge composed of castor oil, calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

In another column will be found the advertisement of Hobensack's Medicines, to which we ask the attention of all directly interested in their own as well as their children's health. In Liver Complaints and all disorders arising from those of a bilious type, should make use of the only genuine medicine, Hobensack's Liver Pills.

"Do not deceive," but ask for Hobensack's Worm Syrup and Liver Pills, and observe that each has the signature of the Proprietor, J. N. HOBENSACK, as none else are genuine.

DIED.

In this place, on Wednesday morning last, Mr. Solomon Pender, aged 69 years.
