

TOWN NOTES.

Sheriff Nygaard went to Fosston Sunday.

For a nobby suit of clothing, go to White's.

Found—a pair of gold spectacles. Call at this office.

C. J. Carlson was sick with the "Grip" the first of the week.

Call and see our large line of ladies' trimmed hats, at O'Leary & Bowser's.

A fine line of illuminated glassware and crockery, at the Boston.

Peter Amundson of Langor, has been squinting at Bemidji for the past week.

At the Boston—A complete line of ladies' and gents' shoes in stock at rock bottom figures.

M. Duncalf is putting up a 22 by 50, two story building on second street. A. Milne has the contract.

Steel vaults are being placed in the court house, opening into the clerk of court and register of deed's offices.

Lost, on Irvine avenue, a small black silk shopping bag, containing a silk handkerchief, a pencil and a pocket book, in which was silver coin. Finder please leave at this office and receive reward.

Gold Medals to HARPER whiskey at New Orleans & World's Fair, Chicago. "Try it, you will endorse the Judge's verdict. Sold by Markham Hotel Co., Bemidji, Minn.

Don't pay $40 to $60 for a Singer machine when you can get the New Home for $28 to $35, at O'Leary & Bowser's.

E. C. Tubbs, the Hancock Insurance man of Fergus Falls, has been with us this week.

Carpet weaving done at usual prices by Mrs. E. O. Hughes, Bemidji avenue, near the hospital.

Attorney McClellan, the Brainerd attorney who stands a good show of being our next district judge, was in town Monday.

A new postoffice has just been established at Rosby, about six miles east of Bemidji, on the Great Northern. Mr. Josten is postmaster.

A notebook was found March 23, between the Great Northern depot and Second street. Name of John Freit, inside. Call at this office.

The wanagan which has been lying on the lake shore for nearly a year, has been shipped to Brainerd for use by the Brainerd Lumber Co.

Next Sunday will close the first ecclesiastical year of Rev. Higgin's work in Bemidji. That evening our pastor will preach an appropriate sermon.

Peter B. Hougren, Esten P. Ergins, Chas. S. Angell, Andrew Lavoie and B. S. Buckingham completed titles to tracts out in the Black Duck country before the U. S. land office at Crookston last week.

Earl Gell and Thomas Hiltz, prominent business men of Bemidji, were transacting business in town Thursday and called on the News. Mr. Gell is one of the proprietors of the Remore House in Bemidji.—Deer River News.

Wheelock's is the only news depot. A full line of Magazines, Periodicals and Sheet Music. Will order anything you want that is not in stock. Also a full line of Fruits, Confectionery and Novelties.

Tom Anderson, a soldier of the late war with Spain, who lives at present in Bemidji, was notified last week by R. B. Hosteller, a pension attorney of Minneapolis, that Uncle Sam has decided to pay the 14th Minnesota regiment an additional month's salary and allowance and now the boys are happy.

"Oh, oh!", That is what the ladies all say who pass by the elegant show windows of O'Leary & Bowser's store. Even the men pause in silent admiration. There are Easter bonnets of all shades and qualities displayed, and each are as beautiful as taste can make them. We would like to be a woman long enough to wear one, Easter Sunday.

Millinery

Mrs. Berman of Minneapolis will be here April 3rd, with a Grand Stock of High Grade French pattern

Hats

and a Full Selection of Beautiful

Millinery

Also a Large and Up-to-Date Stock of Silks and Wash Waists in the Finest Fabrics, Latest in Skirts, Fancy and Plain Wrappers, Muslin Underwear, etc.

Come early and secure best selections to MISSES JONES & ROSS' building.

Jesse Freestone is down from Dysart.

The public schools are taking a spring vacation.

B. S. Bennett, the Fosston attorney, was in town Friday.

Found, a bank check. Call at the store of O'Leary & Bowser.

S. Fairback, the hustling merchant at Itasca, was in Bemidji last week.

C. C. Knappin, Editor Pine Tree, Turtle River, Bemidji, Yesterday.

Mass in St. Philip's church April 1st at 10:30 A. M. Rev. P. C. Murphy. Order your fire brick and fire clay of C. L. Gilbert, the contractor.

The Salvationists will give a dime social next Monday evening at their hall.

Mr. Hitchcock has nearly completed a 24x32 feet barn on his farm south of Bemidji.

L. W. True, of the Mankato Free Press was in Bemidji on business matters yesterday.

Prof. B. C. Cooley is spending vacation with his friends and relatives at Elk River, Minn.

MARRIED, this morning at 9:30, Frank Kuster to Mabel Appleby, Judge Carson officiating.

If you have goods of any kind to be stored this summer, apply to E. T. Hagerty at his livery stable.

The Red Men will use the I. O. O. F. hall for the coming year. They meet Tuesday night of each week.

The way to buy goods cheap is to pay cash. Call and see what $1 will do at White's.

One pair tongs, two saws, and cant-hooks, axes, chains, etc., for sale cheap for cash by C. L. Gilbert.

C. C. McCarthy, state senator for Itasca district and author of the much discussed anti-time check law, made us a call yesterday.

Agent Brown still holds his position in the Great Northern depot, and his resignation still hangs on the hook in the superintendent's office.

Dudley & Graham's meat market has been given another metropolitan touch by having an enrolled office put in the front part of the store.

Robert McConnell, of Grand Forks, N. D., was here over Sunday visiting his sister, Miss Anna McConnell, the efficient clerk of J. W. White & Co.

Work has been begun by the village to enlarge the Third street landing on the lake by adding ninety feet. The wharf will be built in a semi-circle.

The Barney Burton clothing house has swung a beautiful sign in raised letters above its doors. The work was done by an artist, a real one, A. Fleig, of Little Falls.

The guests at Washburn's boarding house remembered their landlady, Mrs. John Washburn, Monday by presenting her with a silver cake dish, syrup pitcher and spoons in honor of her 26th birthday.

John McDougal, the man to whom the pine county of Beltrami county is an open book and who limits his friends only by the list of his acquaintances, is spending a few days here on land office business.—Crookston Times.

Fred Burucker, a well-known press expert of St. Paul, came to Bemidji, Monday, to set up our new printing machinery purchased from the Minnesota Type Foundry company. Two-thirds of the printers in the country know "Fred."

Prof. J. P. McKenna had an exhibition of Hypnotism in the K. O. T. M. hall, Monday and Tuesday evenings. The Prof. thoroughly understands his business, and should he decide to return, would be greeted with a crowded house.—Casy, [N.D.] Courier.

Everybody is invited to the PIONEER office, next Wednesday evening, to see the new cylinder press and other machinery in motion—the best and only power outfit between Crookston and Duluth. The PIONEER will be printed at 8 o'clock in the evening—Wednesday. All are welcome.

While Postmaster Hawley was on his way to Tenstrike last Saturday night his team got into an airhole at the outlet of Lake Bemidji, near Snyder's place. It was morning before a rescuing party could be gotten from Bemidji, when the horses were dragged out of their uncomfortable positions. Standing up to their bodies in ice water all night didn't seem to hurt them much.

Mrs. Elizabeth Harp, superintendent of the German Home Hospital for unfortunate children at No. 3026 Russell avenue, N. Minneapolis, was here last week soliciting funds for her institution. She aims to make Bemidji once a year, in her travels from Montana to Michigan. 27 unfortunate children were taken care of last year by her associates and placed in good homes. She met with liberal treatment in Bemidji.

R. B. FOSTER,
RESIDENT DENTIST
Modern Methods. Low prices.
Office over Mayo & Barker's Drug Store. BEMIDJI, MINNESOTA.

The county board will meet April 6. The hotels are having their spring rush.

L. G. Townsend, of Grand Rapids, was in town Tuesday.

Boys' knee pants 25c to $1 a pair, at O'Leary & Bowser's.

A. T. Wheelock returned Tuesday from his Minneapolis trip.

Take your laundry work to the steam laundry, and get it back as white as snow.

The auditor of the B. & N. M. was attending duties at this station yesterday.

To the Boston for garden seeds, L. L. Mays and D. M. Ferry's. They are the best.

Ed French returned last week from taking a course at the Minneapolis Business College.

Earl & Gustafson is a new firm of painters in town with headquarters at the Dewey House.

Wm. Brown and wife, of Dayton, N. Dak., visited over Sunday with J. B. Sprague's family.

Commissioner Brannon came up from Minneapolis last week. He returned yesterday.

At the village council meeting Monday night L. E. Bailey was appointed village attorney.

For fancy vests, bar and barber coats, white duck vests with sleeves, go to O'Leary & Bowser's.

W. H. Wheeler, cashier of the Merchants National bank of Crookston, was in town last Thursday.

The Boston can make you close figures on flour and feed. We purchased twenty-two cars before the advance. Call and get our figures.

Red Men emblem pins for sale at Jones & Ross' Jewelry store.

Mr. Mettelle of Wadena, who is the "Co." in our new feed store run by Wm. Roufs & Co., was looking over Bemidji last Friday.

The party that started for the Rainy Lake copper district last week returned last night, not being able to get more than 60 miles.

Wes Wright has a crew of men at work getting out ice for himself and customers. He has built an icehouse back of the Markham hotel.

Wm. Arnold, while hauling logs for Percil at the upper end of the lake last week, had the misfortune to lose a fine team by the ice giving away.

House and lot for sale. A two-story house with cellar, cistern and well; lot 50 by 145 feet, east front, on Irving avenue south. Enquire at this office.

A call has been issued by M. A. Sprague to all players on band and orchestral instruments to meet at the city hall tomorrow, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock. An attempt will be made to organize a band and orchestra.

Mrs. J. Briggs, deputy organizer, has been working here this week and twenty members have been secured for organizing a Royal Neighbors lodge. A meeting will be held at the Woodmen hall tomorrow evening to further the project.

A man was brought to the hospital last Friday night from Bacus & Brooks camp. A tree had fallen across his body and he was terribly bruised and broken. He continues in a critical condition. His name is unobtainable. He is a Norwegian.

Prof. McKenna is startling the town with hypnotic feats this week. After to-night he will appear nightly at the city hall with a matinee Saturday afternoon. Those who have attended his entertainments speak very highly of his hypnotic efforts.

A special train consisting of the private coaches of the head officials of the Eastern Minnesota pulled through on the Great Northern Saturday afternoon. N. L. Hill, son of Jim, was with the crowd, which took a few minutes survey of Beautiful Bemidji. We noticed that they paused quite awhile to gaze at the block which had just been sold for $6000.

Alida Annotations.

Ole Stephenson went to Bemidji on business last Monday.

M. Guldseth, of Devils Lake, visited with J. H. Olson Monday and Tuesday.

Carl Lundin, of Lundinville, was in Shevlin Monday for his first load of goods.

Gust Wickstrom is now at home, having given up working in camp for this winter.

Miss Christine Jellstad came up from Minneapolis last Friday to stay with her mother.

N. Opdahl went to Crookston on Friday to transact business at the land office. He returned on Saturday.

J. T. Fethergill was in Shevlin last Thursday to meet his mother, from Des Moines, Iowa, who has come to visit him.

Nels Lee resigned his office as justice at the last meeting of the town board. We do not know who has been appointed to fill his place.

Work has so far proceeded on Olaf Jellstads new house that they are now (Monday) ready for the doors and windows. Willing hands make light work.

Wm. St. Louis and family, of Sauk Center, are visiting Mr. St. Louis's sister, Mrs. J. W. Chapman. They intend to settle here if they can purchase a suitable piece of land.

Arnt Vang left last Friday for his home in Langhei, Minn. While logging with J. H. Olson, he injured his hand quite seriously by running a dry split into it, thus ending his career in the woods, for this winter.

Geo. King returned Saturday evening from Bemidji where he has been looking over the town. He and his wife left on Monday for their home in Pelican Rapids. They intend to sell out there and settle somewhere in these wild woods.

DIED.—On Friday, March 9, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Guldseth, Devils Lake, N. D., Knute Bonde, at the age of 50 years. Mr. Bonde was quite well known here having been blacksmith here during the summer. But last fall his health began to fail, and his friends, seeing that the dread consumption had him in its power, sent for his brother-in-law, Mr. Bonde went to Devils Lake and stood the journey quite well, but after being there about a week he took to his bed never to rise again. While none here believed that he would ever recover, still the tidings of his death were rather unexpected.

MINNA.

NAYLOR & HAASE.

Having secured the services of Miss Clark, a former trimmer of Gage Bros., Chicago, also a fine line of imported

Trimmed Models

And Novelties;

As well as an unusual choice line of Silks, Laces, and Flowers,

You can now have a hat made for your own especial self with those EXQUISITE

TINTS AND TONES, ARTISTICALLY ARRANGED.

So there now is no need to wear a hat made for your neighbor. Come and we will suit you.

We cordially invite you to examine our goods. Will have

Our Grand Opening.

April 12 and 15.

CAMP NUMBER 5012
M. W. of A.
MEETS EVERY TUESDAY EVENING.
at their hall on Beltrami Ave. 10 o'clock.
Visiting Neighbors always welcome.
IRA FOSTER, V. C. M. J. LEAK, Clerk.

N. Campbell,
Land and Claim Agent.
Contests & Collections a Specialty
CROOKSTON MINN.

TO MAKE ROOM

FOR OUR MAMMOTH LINE OF Spring Clothing.

We are compelled to make sacrifices in all our HEAVYLINE, such as UNDERWEAR OVERSHIRTS, SOCKS, RUBBERS, CAPS MITTS, MACKINAWs, SWEATERS, and FELT SHOES, ETC.

WE HAVE A BIG LINE AND CAN SAVE YOU MONEY CALL AND SEE.

Town Pump Clothing House,
A. I. BEAN, Proprietor.

JUST LET ME HAVE YOUR ATTENTION

FOR A Thousand Years

AND YOU WILL FIND THAT THE STORE OF

BEST & MEERT,

The Hardware Dealers, is the place to get your supplies in the hardware line.

Fishing Supplies
Just Received.

First Come, First Served
Come early and avoid the rush.

Opposite Court House.

ARE YOU GOING TO BUILD?

Do you want nice choice stock at low prices? Look up I. O. MANGER at his lumber yard at the B. & N. M. Ry. depot.

In cedar siding and shingles; in flooring, dimensions, and ceilings I am fully supplied; in pine of all kinds, I handle the best. My prices are right, delivery free and prompt, and treatment—well, you will call again. GIVE ME A TRIAL.

I. O. MANGER,

Bemidji,

Minnesota.

SCOTT,
The Jeweler.
Watch Repairing a Specialty
CITY HOTEL, BEMIDJI.

DULUTH, SOUTH SHORE & ATLANTIC RY.
THE STRAIGHT-AWAY LINE
BETWEEN THE GREAT NORTHWEST AND THE EAST.

T.H. LARKE, ASST. GEN'L. PASS. AGT.
DULUTH, MINN.
FINEST MODERN TRAINS
DINING CARS A-LA-CARTE