

TOWN NOTES.

SCOTT, The Jeweler.

Miss May McLennan has returned to the St. Cloud Normal school. James Ford, the big fist artist, is back in Bemidji again. Matt Phibbs spent Sunday afternoon in Fosston returning Monday. Iron and Wood Turning and Band Sawing at Miller's. Chas S. Scrutchin and Miss Laura Arnold were united in marriage last Monday. Our farmers are said to be putting up every blade of hay possible. They wisely realize that hay will be as valuable this winter as bond coupons. You will never find another pill so prompt and so pleasant as DeWitt's Early Risers.—F. A. Mayo. Fred Brinkman and Thos Wilson went up to Gull Lake Tuesday to enjoy a few days of freedom from city airs and suspenders. A farewell meeting at the Salvation Army hall Sunday at 8 p. m. Capt. Williams and Lieut. Cashman will farewell and proceed to their next appointment. Quench that burning thirst by taking a dish of ice cream soda at City Drug Store. Guy Remore expects Congressman Fletcher and wife up from Minneapolis next week to spend a few idle hours in Plantaganet Hall. Our summer resort suburb is justly becoming famous. Ladies' $1, $1.25 and $1.50 shirt waists, your choice only 50 cents. O'LEARY & BOWSER.

Thos. F. Wilson who has been visiting here for the past three weeks can tell his friends a fish story when he returns, that is certainly worthy of mention. Monday he caught a muscalounge which weighed 30 pounds. This is the largest of the season. Millwood at Manger's mill for fifty cents a load. Leave your orders at Manger's office. Bemidji is completely out of ice, Carloads are being shipped weekly from Cass Lake and other points. Ice packers underestimated the amount necessary to supply overgrown Bemidji. But in all probabilities this will be our last ice famine. School begins next week. The board has wisely decided to not let the improvements being made on the building interfere with the school work, as the teachers had been previously hired. Go to Bemidji Bakery for fresh bakery goods of all kinds. Also just received, nice line of groceries. Goods delivered. Call and see us and be convinced that this is the place to trade right. Bemidji Bakery.

MILNE & THOMPSON. Peter Amundson arrived from Crookston last week and spent several days here waiting for several land-seekers to follow. He says any number of Crookston business men have land in our new railroad district and are watching our development very closely. Due to the incessant rains last week Lake Bemidji has raised nearly a foot. All the logging streams are reported full. The roads through the clay districts are in bad condition, but the sandy roads never were better. Wanted—Jack pine and Tamarack cord wood at the Boston Store at highest market price. SNOW & SCHROEDER.

Up to Saturday night over four million feet of logs had been shipped west from the Walker & Akely hoisting works on lake Irvine. Part of the works shut down two days last week while 1500 feet extension of railroad track was being made. About two million feet more await hoisting. O. H. Olson came over from Grand Rapids last week for his health. He has been down with typhoid fever and for fear he would catch it again he came in his weakness to coax strength by imbibing our lake ozone. But a relapse came on and our physicians sentenced him back to the Grand Rapids hospital Saturday.

We defy competition in prices or quality, either in the city or the Twin Cities. Undertaking and Embalming. BEMIDJI FURNITURE CO. A man named Thompson who is said to run a restaurant at Bemidji, had one foot cut off while attempting to pass in front of the east-bound passenger at Climax yesterday morning. Those who witnessed the accident say that Thompson was intoxicated. He was left in charge of Dr. Thompson at Climax.—Crookston Press.

At the Boston—A complete line of ladies' and gents' shoes in stock at rock bottom figures. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stevenson of Long Prairie, were among the excursionists who came to Bemidji Sunday. They were the guests of D. K. McPherson while here. They said that Bemidji is the first place they saw for which they would willingly give up their beautiful home at Long Prairie. They heard a good deal about Bemidji but in point of loveliness it exceeds their highest anticipation.

SCOTT, THE JEWELER.

Mrs. Wes Wright went to Mora, Minn., last Friday, to visit her folks. Iver Krohn, of Shevlin, was in town last week on his way back from business trip to Cass Lake. The way to buy goods cheap is to pay cash. Call and see what $1 will do at White's. Sawmill in good condition for sale at reasonable rates on easy terms. Call at the Pioneer office. Owing to a washout west of Crookston, the east bound train was two hours late last Thursday. Daily arrivals of new goods at O'LEARY & BOWSER'S. Mrs. R. Stuart McLennan, Mother of R. McLennan, returned to her home at Cannon Falls, Minn. C. F. Butler, editor-in-chief and printer's devil of the Shevlin Graphic, beautified this town with his smiles last week. One acre of land on 13th street $50. A snap. Call at the Register of Deeds' office. The local tribe of Red men selected Ted Smith and A. Gilmour as their delegates to the Red Men convention at Duluth, the first three days of this week. Editor Oliver and wife, of Walker, missed the excursion train Sunday night, and by this token, we had the pleasure of a "heart to heart" talk with another Pioneer editor. It will surprise you to experience the benefit obtained by using the dainty and famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Risers.—F. A. Mayo.

Anton Erickson purchased lot 13, in block two, in Carson's addition, last Saturday, which was put up at sheriff's sale to satisfy a judgment of Gennes & Layon against O. C. Moen. Miss B. Evelyn Weston, has returned to Minneapolis after spending her summer vacation in this vicinity. She is principal of the Monroe school there. The Boston can make you close figures on flour and feed. We purchased twenty-two cars before the advance. Call and get our figures. Playing base ball without practice is like unto a boy of 16 courting a grass widow. Our home team no doubt sees the point. Mrs. Julia M. Gary, of Cohasset, Minn., has been the guest of C. L. Smith's family this week. Mrs. Gary is a traveling saleslady for toilet preparations of her own. Parties wishing the services of an experienced locator in the vicinity of Sturgeon Bay, should write to or call on A. R. Button, Bemidji, Minn.

A Bemidji citizen spent Sunday in Bagley and attended the dedication of the new congregational church building. He speaks highly of the generosity of the Bagley people as shown in their donations on that occasion. Dr. Arnold's Cough Killer for asthma cannot be equalled.—S. B. Gillespie, Guthrie Center, Ia. Only 15 days more to secure bargains in furniture. Many articles going at cost, and big discount on all, at Boyer's. G. T. Robinson came down yesterday from homestead at Big Falls. He says Dan Campbell has sold a seventeen-acre piece of land at the falls for $6,000. Mr. Robinson intends to soon move his family down to the claim and remain there permanently.—Deer River News.

J. W. Speelman, proprietor of Hotel Summit at Buena Vista, was in town Monday. Mr. Speelman has abundant confidence in the supremacy of Beltrami soil agriculturally, and showed this by taking up some life seed wheat. He will put in two acres of winter wheat, making the first venture along this line in the county, so far as we know. We hope his commendable experiment will prove successful. The world was not built in one day and fame is not made in a second. The title of "the best place to trade at in Bemidji" was given to J. W. White & Co.'s Mammoth store after a long service to the public in good bargains and fair treatment given them.

SCOTT, THE JEWELER.

Theo. Jesten was in from Rosby Saturday. Hotel Markham has come out in a fall suit of paint. The interior of Ted Smith's billiard hall has been plastered. 300 Feet of dry, rough lumber, and two tents for sale by Bemidji Boat Co. R. S. Coombs left for Dakota last week to cha perone a threshing engine near Lakota this season. McCuaig & Ludington have placed a water pipe in front of their store for the convenience of the thirsty public. Rainy day skirts at O'LEARY & BOWSER.

Friday gave us the most steady downpour of rain of the year. It kept at it all day and part of the night. Jno F. Jerrard and wife of St. Cloud, have been at the Markham for the past week as guests of E. H. Jerrard, their son. Silver bracelet and pulley ring, Scott, the jeweler. Evan Carson went to Bagley Sunday to assume charge of the Independent during editor Butler's absence. Wm. Rodman and wife left for Bemidji last Saturday afternoon, where they will take a weeks outing.—Eagle Bend News.

Mothers endorse it, children like it, old folks use it. We refer to One Minute Cough Cure. It will quickly cure all throat and lung troubles.—F. A. Mayo. Rhodes & Son are doing some excellent work at well-driving about town. If you need a well it will pay you to see them about it. Rev. Joseph Brittan returned to his home at Hanover, Ind., Monday, after filling Presbyterian church pulpits at Buena Vista, Langor and Nebish for the past three months, with his headquarters at Buena Vista. He has returned to school. It's a doctor's Business to study health, Doctors confidently recommend Harper Whiskey. Sold by Markham Hotel Co., C. H. Miles, Bemidji, Minn.

C. J. Berryhill, the sharp-witted, hard-hitting editor of the St. Paul Review, has been soothing his tired nerves with a steady application of the fish-hook during his extended visit in Bemidji. Ed. Chapman returned last Friday from Hendrum, Minn. He went there two weeks ago to thresh, but grew tired waiting for the rain clouds to go dry. He says wheat will yield from 15 to 20 bushels to the acre in that vicinity. The Shadow will leave the dock at foot of Third street at 2:30 p. m. and head of lake at 3 p. m. every day. Round trip to head of the lake, 25 cents; one way, 25 cents. BEMIDJI BOAT CO.

Andy Clavin of Bemidji was in town over Sunday arranging matters for the opening of a saloon in his building on Second street in the room recently occupied by Ben Johnson. Bright tasty wall paper and paint have transformed the place into one of the nattiest resorts in town. Success to him.—Cass Lake Voice. Mass in St. Phillip's Catholic church Sunday, Aug. 26. D. S. Dennis' dray team are kept at work quite steadily, but evidently lacked sufficient exercise Saturday forenoon, so took a flying trip up Minnesota avenue with full steam up and brakes off. They were frightened by a passing freight train.

Millinery Announcement.
Miss Bissett has returned from the Cities with a fine selected stock of Fall Millinery, street Felt Hats, too chic for any use. Call and see them. All the late shades of silk velvets and velveta, Poca dots, silks and mirror velvets. Sold at popular prices. MISS RUTH BISSETT.

R. B. FOSTER,
RESIDENT DENTIST
Modern Methods. Low prices. Office over Mayo & Barker's Drug Store. BEMIDJI, MINNESOTA.

Silver Hearts, at Scott, the jeweler. Judge Holland is in Bemidji. Band Excursion next Sunday. The telephone company are putting up poles out to Guy Remore's place. O'Leary & Bowser's is headquarters for shoes. Four Tents and a First-class Chickering Piano, for sale.—Geo. E. Sutton at Lakeside Bakery. Lost a red Morocco card case containing money. Finder can keep half the sum; leave the rest at this office. The People's Party convention for nominating a full county ticket will be held in Bemidji, Sept. 15. Dentist Foster returned to Bemidji this week after a three week's outing, which he says he enjoyed very much. Harry Grove, the locator, has returned from the Big Fork country, and reports travel almost impossible up there. A new house 24x24, all nicely finished, inside and out, for sale for $475 including a lot, centrally located. A snap. Call at Abstract office in the Court House, Bemidji.

At the first Baptist church 8th and Beltrami avenue, the pastor will preach in the morning at 10:45 and in the evening at 8. Strangers are cordially welcome. H. C. Le Van and Mrs. M. E. Rogers of Hewitt, took advantage of the excursion last Sunday to visit their sister, Mrs. A. Woodruff and their mother, Mrs. A. A. Le Van, of Excelsior, Lake Minnetonka, who is spending the season with Mrs. Woodruff. Capt Van Sant and C. J. Berryhill were listened to by a big audience last Thursday night, and captured the respect of all who like politicians to tell their convictions without roasting the opposition. Gov. Sant stock is on the raise here. Evangelist Conolly closed his tent meetings last night, and after his lecture tonight at the city hall on "The Lord's Table and the Devil's Table," will leave us. He is a brilliant talker, keen of tongue and clear of mind, and has, we hope, accomplished much good in Bemidji.

The Red Men have received their $80 banner which they offered to the visiting tribe making the best showing at the recent tournament here. The East Grand Forks tribe won the prize and it was sent to them yesterday. The banner was on exhibition at the Red Men hall Tuesday night and elicited shrieks of admiration from all who beheld it. All ladies owing Miss Ruth Bissett for their spring and summer hats, are requested to call and settle. It will be greatly appreciated. Millions will be spent in politics this year. We can't keep the campaign going without money any more than we can keep the body vigorous without food. Dyspeptics used to starve themselves. Now Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and allows you to eat all the good food you want. It radically cures stomach troubles.—F. A. Mayo. Ladies' and gents' pneumatic shoes at the store of O'LEARY & BOWSER.

LADY FORESTERS.
The ladies of Bemidji have formed another secret organization with over twenty charter members and everybody wish them success, except the husbands who see another night at home in sole charge of the baby. Ten more members were to be initiated last night. The officers of the Lady Foresters are as follows: Mrs. Ted Smith, Chief Ranger Mrs. I. S. Boyer, Vice-Chief Ranger Miss Emma Manning, Chief Archer. Mrs. M. M. Achenbach, Treas. Mrs. Fannie Harmon, Sec. Mrs. Jno McLean, Chaplin Mrs. Alice Ludington, Past C. R. Mrs. Anne Newton, Court Deputy Miss Vantassel, Jr. Woodward Miss Eva English, Outer Woodward

THE EXTENSION.
Surveyors for the B. & N. M. Extension have been working west and north of town, and along the lake front, and the route is still undecided. Wagon roads have been fixed up for hauling supplies. Carloads of horses and scrapers are arriving, as well as imported laborers. Scarrot & Sutton have secured a contract for transporting across the lake and are building scows for the purpose. Dirt will soon be flying for the new road.
