

TOWN NOTES.

Register Oct. 30, if you will vote. Iron and Wood Turning and Band Sawing at Miller's.

Mrs. Geo. Cowan is visiting her folks in Michigan.

Editor Butler of Bagley was in town Saturday and Sunday.

S. Sorenson received an Angora goat yesterday from southern Minnesota.

Ladies' Golf Capes at—
O'LEARY & BOWSER.

Mrs. R. S. Coombs returned last week from her extended visit in Wisconsin and Duluth.

D. K. McPherson is sick with typhoid fever. Our paper suffers in consequence this week.

H. A. Dickerson and Chairman Searle of the Populist committee, of Sherlin, were in town Saturday.

Millwood at Manger's mill for fifty cents a load. Leave your orders at Manger's office.

Rev. J. Wilmann of the United Norwegian Lutheran church came up from Minneapolis last week in the interest of his church. He may locate here.

Dr. Umland, of Fosston, will be at Hotel Remore, Monday afternoon and Tuesday forenoon of each week.

Mrs. Thompson, an experienced dressmaker, will have charge of that department in Misses Stuart & McDonell's millinery parlors.

The Boston store at Tenstrike carries a complete line of dry goods, groceries, hardware, boots and shoes, flour and feed. Give us a call.

The Silver brothers are erecting two residences on Bemidji avenue. Fred is erecting a log mansion which will be one of the slickest lookers in town.

For Fall and Winter Underwear go to—

O'LEARY & BOWSER.

Wm. Casler started Monday for Cass Lake, from where he went to Park Rapids and the White Earth reservation. He will have charge of twelve cruisers for T. B. Walker.

Buy your watches and jewelry of Jones & Ross and get a gold watch free.

The school building has been enclosed and the plasterers and plumbers are rushing their part of the work. The building has been pushed very rapidly between rainfalls, and reflects credit upon Contractor Gilbert and Inspector French.

Next week we will have our Clothing and Gents' Furnishing Goods in the Richards store.

O'LEARY & BOWSER.

John H. Brauer is now in Missoula, Montana, of which country he writes: "I find considerable timber here mostly yellow pine, fir and tamarack which will average larger than the Minnesota product, but is very difficult to get to the mill. This is a very pleasant country, but rough."

Wagons, carriage and all kinds of furniture and house repairing done by T. M. Harvey at J. J. Jinkinson's shop, also screens removed and storm sash replaced and new ones furnished promptly to order.

Barbers Coty and Francis went to Duluth Sunday where the Barbers' State Board of Examiners are in session this week. It is not generally known that in this state barbers are required to pass examination and take out a license before they are allowed to caress the faces of the bewhiskered public.

The way to buy goods cheap is to pay cash. Call and see what $1 will do at White's.

Stoner has platted his new townsite to be known as Blackduck 14 miles east of Black Duck lake. The railroad company has secured and recorded the deed for extra right of way for depot grounds and the contractor is now getting ready to grade the road and side tracks through the new town. Stoner says to watch out for the "Blackduck Times," to be issued this week.

Stops the Cough and works off the Cold.

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No cure, no pay. Price 25 cents.

Walter Bordon and Maggie Taylor were married Sept. 30th at the residence of James Taylor, near Tenstrike postoffice. George Wetsel, justice of the peace, performed the ceremony. The happy couple will reside at Black Duck. While we were slow in getting this bit of news, we hasten to extend congratulations.

An immense crowd thronged S. A. Lochen's "New Store" at its opening Monday evening. The store is a marvel of artistic loveliness, from the show windows clear through. For 12 years Mr. Lochen has been a window trimmer, and the whole interior speaks of his cleverness. Mr. Nelson, of Waperton, is assisting Mr. Lochen and wife. The new store is well stocked with the very latest in female wearing apparel and novelty, and both store and stock would be a credit to any city.

A. R. Button has sold his farm near Bass Lake.

C. W. Speelman is building an addition, 14x18, to his dwelling.

The telephone line was connected with Plantagenet Hall Monday.

E. H. Jerrard returned Monday from a business trip to St. Cloud and other points.

Passengers carried from Bemidji to Tenstrike on Tuesday and Friday mornings. JAMES HAGADONE.

Halvorson & Richards raised the price of labor to $2 per day Monday on their railway contract. It is hard to get enough laborers at that.

Pneumatic Shoes at—
O'LEARY & BOWSER.

John Steidl's saw mill started up Tuesday for a run of two or three weeks. Over 300,000 feet of logs are in the boom to be sawed.

German Ev. Lutheran services will be held next Sunday, Oct. 21, at 3 p. m. at the old school house near the city hall. All friends are cordially invited.

No other pills can equal DeWitt's Little Early Risers for promptness, certainty and efficiency. Mayo's Drug Store.

L. A. Rouse, the barber, intends taking a timber homestead near Ashland, Oregon, where Win Megquier and several other Bemidji boys are at present.

Dr. Arnold's Cough Killer for asthma cannot be equalled.—S. B. Gillespie, Guthrie Center, Ia.

Frank Rogers, who has conducted a swell restaurant in Grand Forks for years, has come to Bemidji and has opened up a first-class eatery in the Miles building on Third street.

Pure Whiskey HARPER Perfect Whiskey HARPER Every bottle guaranteed Harper. Sold by Markham Hotel Co., C. H. Miles, Bemidji, Minn.

Th. Freeman, who worked in Bemidji last winter as a tailor, is to be married this evening at West Superior to Hilda Anderson. His acquaintances here are all of the opinion that the bride is securing a fine husband.

Rev. Appleby, archdeacon of Duluth, will preach in Bemidji, Sunday, Oct. 21, at 10:00 a. m. in the Presbyterian church.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. church are arranging to give a chicken pie dinner and supper down town on election day. Be sure and eat at either the Republican or Democratic table.

St. Philip's church, Oct. 7, Communion 8:30, Mass 10:30, Sunday school 1:30.—Rev. Philip Murphy, Pastor.

It is well to know that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will heal a burn and stop the pain at once. It will cure eczema and all skin diseases and ugly wounds and sores. It is a certain cure for piles. Counterfeits may be offered you. See that you get the original DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Mayo's Drug Store.

Rev. Higgins will preach on Sunday evening on China. Following the evening service the various committees of the church will give their semi-annual report. All are invited to attend this service and note the progress of the Presbyterian church.

The world was not built in one day and fame is not made in a second. The title of "the best place to trade at in Bemidji" was given to J. W. White & Co.'s Mammoth store after a long service to the public in good bargains and fair treatment given them.

W. B. McLachlan has dropped his summer title of Captain, and will take up his winter title of Professor. He will soon put up his sail boat Eulalia in winter quarters and resume his dancing school which was conducted so successfully last winter. An opening ball will be given at the opera house next Friday, Oct. 19, at which time a dancing class will be organized for every Friday evening. The object will be to advance all the modern dances. Instructions will be given from 7:30 until 9:00 o'clock, followed by assembly.

Have your watches and Jewelry repaired at Jones & Ross' and get tickets on the gold watch they are giving away free.

Henry Funkley, a successful attorney of Henning, Minn., has secured office rooms over the Merchants bank and will practice in Bemidji. While the present legal circles of Bemidji are somewhat crowded, Mr. Funkley is content to cast his lot here and wait for his share of practice which a growing community guarantees will increase. He had a good practice in Henning, but the crop failure there prompted him to seek out a more prosperous section. Mr. Funkley is a graduate from the Minnesota state university, was admitted to the bar in 1893 and has been practicing ever since in Otter Tail county. He has a wife and family, but will probably not bring them up here this winter.

Feelings of safety pervade the household that uses One Minute Cough Cure the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. It is infallible for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. Mayo's Drug Store.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that on and after October 20, 1900, the undersigned will abandon the credit system. After that date terms will be cash.

Going to Build?

If so, start right. Get good material and give some previous thought to the plans and style of your structure. Above all, secure a reliable and competent man to do the work. Poor workmanship always leaves an unsatisfactory result. Be wise on the start.

C. L. Gilbert,

The Building Contractor, guarantees his work and furnishes plans and estimates. He also sells Brick, Lime, Cement, Imperial Plaster, Adamant, Fire-brick and Clay.
