BEAR CREEK.

Miss Laura Gervais of Grand Forks is visiting Bear Creek friends. She came last Thursday, intending to remain a week.

Mr. C. Blaufuss has taken up a team of gray horses who strayed near his place last Thursday.

Jerome Thayer celebrated his 79th birthday on May 3 by shearing sheep and grubbing.

Miss Chapman visited with her sister, Mrs. Felt, on Thursday.

Mrs. Thayer gave a supper to a select few on Friday evening.

B. P. O. E. "Our little girl was unconscious from strangulation during a sudden and terrible attack of croup. I quickly secured a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure, giving her three doses. The croup was mastered and our little darling speedily recovered." So writes A. L. Spafford, Chester, Mich. F. A. Mayo.

TECKLA CHIPS.

Per Clown was in Bagley on business the last of the week. He left his empty whisky bottle down at Thoen & David's mill.

J. Jensen of Pine Lake was visiting friends at Teckla and Willborg the last part of the week.

C. Stockman and P. Peterson were in Bagley last Saturday.

Lars Larson, out on 54th street, has a contract grubbing for O. O. Oberg.

John Anderson will sell his sheep and other live stock at auction on the 20th of this month.

Odin Lund is building himself a substantial house on his claim in the town of Leon.

O. Jacobson and H. C. Jacobson of Colfax, Wis., arrived here last week and intend to make this country their future home.

Alfred Synnes consumes quite a lot of sweet candy now days.

Per Clown's mill has shut down after a successful season's work. Per is all smiles now days, and the other day he put in a bid on Tru's cowhide boots. I think he intends to use them while crossing the grades he made on the "Bagley county road." ADAM.

HAGALI.

A. Olberg, from the town of Leon, is here on a visit to his old friend, P. Hagali.

C. Johnson shot a big bear a few days ago. He got $30 for the hide, and the meat was divided among the settlers.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Lindberg are spending their honeymoon on Ole's claim.

Mr. Jensen is busy with his garden.

P. Hagali has sold the timber on his claim for $1,400.

Pit intends to make a trip to his birthplace, Gulbrandsdalen, Norway, next fall, which place he left 22 years ago. We hope "Townet's father" will have a pleasant time on his journey.

Knute Strand, from Bemidji, was here last week.

The sheriff has been around here looking for some people from Shervlin who has been doing something wrong.

John Johnson, who has a fine farm north of Medicine lake, says that the town of Hagali would be an Eden to live in if he could only get schools for his children.

We have a fellow here who has been living unhappy with his family. He got married about 25 years ago. His wife said the other day that they could soon celebrate their silver wedding. "Oh, no," said she; "let us wait five years more and then we can celebrate our 30-year's war." TORGRIM.

BUENA VISTA.

Spring showers are frequent. Grass is getting a good start; clover is nine inches high.

Deer are very numerous. Kelso & Co. of Turtle River have finished their logging and gone home. The crew boarded at Summit while here.

P. Austin and brother of Crookston, who have claims near Whitefish, passed through the city on Monday. They will bring their families in a few days and hereafter be part of Beltrami county's population.

James McMillan and John Giles of Oakdale were transacting business at R. H. Dickinson's on Saturday.

Frank George of Dalphine was among the arrivals Monday.

It is town talk that Mrs. Worth, wife of the postmaster, say they will have to move the office out of town so they can have pasture for their cows. Our sympathy is with the cows. They are not foolish.

Our town supervisors are testing the appointment of a poundmaster. They are trying to find some one who will not enforce the ordinance to fill the office so report goes. I wonder if they and our postmaster's cows have formed a "union." Any resident of the town can enforce the law. There is no need of a postmaster.

Chapter 292 of the new laws of Minnesota settles the matter of the closing of saloons on Sunday. It will be well for saloonkeepers to heed the warning. ZERO.

If people only knew what we know about Kodol Dyspepsia Cure it would be used in nearly every household, as there are few people who do not suffer from a feeling of fullness after eating, belching, flatulence, sour stomach or waterbrash caused by indigestion or dyspepsia. A preparation such as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which will do you good, certainly can't help but do you good. F. A. Mayo.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION. U. S. Land Office at Crookston, Minn., May 6, 1901.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Lars E. Christenson, contestant, against homestead entry No. 18888, made March 23, 1899, for SW 1/4, NW 1/4, SW 1/4, section 15, NW 1/4, section 22, township 147 north, range 34 west, by Henry A. Meinert, contestee, in which it is alleged that the said Henry A. Meinert has wholly abandoned said tract for more than six months prior to the date herein, and that said tract is not settled upon and cultivated by said party as required by law, and the said alleged absence from the said land was not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States during the war with Spain or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on July 2, 1901, before the register and receiver at Bemidji, Beltrami county, Minnesota, and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on July 2, 1901, before the register and receiver at the United States land office in Crookston, Minnesota.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed May 6, 1901, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
